

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-47839-7 - Enlightenment and the Creation of German Catholicism

Michael Printy

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

|   |                 |
|---|-----------------|
| Acknowledgments  | page vii |
| 1. Introduction   | 1               |
| PART ONE: PERFECT SOCIETIES: RETHINKINGTHE CHURCH AND THE STATE           |                 |
| 2. The Liberty of the German Church: Febronianismand the German Gallicans | 25              |
| 3. The German Church and the Absolute State                                   | 55              |
| 4. Church and Empire in the Eighteenth Century                                | 82              |
| 5. Collegialism: The Rise of the State and the Redefinitionof the Church  | 101             |
| PART TWO: THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH ANDTHE UNIVERSAL CLASS                     |                 |
| 6. Catholic Enlightenment and the Search for a BourgeoisCatholicism       | 125             |
| 7. A Program for Reform   | 144             |
| 8. Pastors of Enlightenment: Reforming the Secular Clergy                     | 166             |
| 9. Gallican Longings: Nation and Religion in the GermanEnlightenment      | 185             |
| 10. Conclusion  | 212             |
| Bibliography   | 221             |
| Index  | 243             |