

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-49291-1 - Organizational Trust: A Cultural Perspective

Edited by Mark N. K. Saunders, Denise Skinner, Graham Dietz, Nicole Gillespie and Roy J. Lewicki

Index

More information

Index

- ABI (Ability-Benevolence-Integrity)
 framework, 322
- ability, 10, 423, see also perceived ability
- Ability-Benevolence-Integrity (ABI)
 framework, 322
- accountability systems, 163–4
- accounting culture, 156, 175–7, 423, see also auditors
- active trust, 208
- affability, 324
- affect-based trust, 44
 in supervisor trust study, 327–8
- aggregate trust, 27–8
- Airbus, manufacturing plant production problems, 4, 27, 407
- American Leprosy Mission, 288
- artifacts (aspect of culture), 14
- associative tiles (cultural mosaic model), 18
- asymmetries of trust, 24
- attractor/repellor thesis (Chao and Moon), 27
- audit firms, cultural spheres, 157–9
- auditors, 156–7, 173–5
 ‘confidence’ problem, 163–5
 checking not trusting, 165–6 influence of trust on financial statement assurance processes, 167–8 reconciling trust with competing cultural norms, 159–62
 trust and auditor judgments, 168–73
- authentic partnership, 285
- Badri, handshake with Johann, see Johann, handshake with Badri
- basic assumptions (aspect of culture), 14–15
- being responsible, 323
- benevolence, 10, 59, 70, 423, see also ABI
 (Ability-Benevolence-Integrity) framework; perceived benevolence;
 personal benevolence
- Besserwessittum*, 217
- best-in-class designation, 294
- biological factors, 55–6
- Brazil, trust levels, 49
- bribery, Ukraine, 213
- Brong Ahafo Region, 262–3
- business system, 387
- Cambridge Vertical Contracts Project
 (CVCP), 87, 98–9
- Canada, 56
- capacity, 322
- caring talk, 362
- CBT (cognition-based trust), 44
 in supervisor trust study, 326–7
- change programmes, see corporate change
- character/integrity, 67, 423, see also integrity
- checking not trusting, 165–6
- China, 56
 antecedents of trust, 59–60
 social distance, 57–8
 trust levels, 52–3, 423, see also
 supervisor trust study
- civic world, 390
- client relationship
 auditors, 159
 consultants, see consultant–client relationship
- codes of conduct, 294–5, 301
- code-switching, see cross-cultural code-switching
- cognition-based trust (CBT), 44
 in supervisor trust study, 326–7
- cognitive perspective of culture, 15–16

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-49291-1 - Organizational Trust: A Cultural Perspective

Edited by Mark N. K. Saunders, Denise Skinner, Graham Dietz, Nicole Gillespie and Roy J. Lewicki

Index

More information

Index

425

- collectivist cultures, 23, 57
 - trust development, 229, 423, see also sophisticated stereotyping
- commitment, 70
- commitment formation, 67
- common values, 323–4
- communication, 323–4
- Compassion International, 288
- competence, 70
- competence trust, 88
- confessionalism, 238
- confidence, 163–5
- consequences of trust
 - culturally universal, 67
 - national–societal culture specific, 66–7
- consultant–client relationship, 129–31, 152–3
- clients
 - inter-organizational trust, 141–4
 - interpersonal trust, 145–7
- consultants
 - inter-organizational trust, 141–4
 - interpersonal trust, 147–52
 - cultural spheres, 131–4, 137
 - inter-organizational trust, 138–44
 - interpersonal trust, 144–52
 - literature, 134–6
 - research methodology, 136–7
- contingent cooperation, 194
- contract trust, 87–8
- contracts, 227
 - as frameworks for negotiating mutual commitments, 231
 - Ghana and Nigeria, 265
 - Ukraine, 214
- contractual relationships, 228
 - perspectives on trust development, 228–32
- cooperation, 195, 322, 423, see also contingent cooperation; unconditional cooperation
- corporate change
 - cultural contexts impacting upon trust, 339–41
 - differences between organizations, 348–52
 - implications for practice, 353–4
 - importance of trust, 337–9
 - research methods, 341–3
 - research results, 344–6
 - study overview, 353, 354–5
 - trust in employer vs. trust in line manager, 346–7
- corporate governance actors, 384
- corruption, see bribery, Ukraine
- Corus, union reps, 3–4, 22, 407
- cross-cultural code-switching, 24–5, 62
 - consultants', 142–3
- cross-cultural engagement
 - implications for practice, 418–19
 - inter-organizational studies, 411–15
 - intra-organizational studies, 415–17
 - overview, 407–8, 417–18
 - perspectives on, 5–7
 - research agenda, 7–8
 - research challenge, 408–11
 - research directions, 419–22
- cross-cultural negotiations, 183
 - barriers to trust in, 182–4, 187, 197–8
 - psychological, 187–91
 - social, 191–3
 - benefits of trust in, 185–7
 - concepts of trust in, 184–5
 - implications for trust building, 193–6
 - research directions, 197
- cross-cultural trust-building
 - business examples of need for, 3–4
 - four-stage process, 28
 - frameworks and toolkits, 23–8
 - role of cultural norms, 259–60
- Cuban Missile Crisis negotiations, 194
- cues, see trust cues
- cultural adaptation, 62–3, 111, 423, see also cross-cultural code-switching
- cultural distance, 61
- cultural identities, multiplicity of, 17–19
- cultural mosaic model (Chao and Moon), 6, 18–19, 110
 - dominant cultural tiles, 26
- cultural norms, determinants of trust, 57–9
- cultural recreation, 361
- cultural sensitivity phases, 25–6
- cultural spheres, 5–6, 408
 - audit firms, 157–9
 - consultant–client relationship, 131–4, 137
- culture
 - definitions, 14–16, 385
 - influence on thinking and behaviour, 16–17

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-49291-1 - Organizational Trust: A Cultural Perspective

Edited by Mark N. K. Saunders, Denise Skinner, Graham Dietz, Nicole Gillespie and Roy J. Lewicki

Index

More information

426

Index

- culture (cont.)
 trust interaction with, 19–23, 110–12, 423, see also accounting culture; collectivist cultures; healthcare culture; Hollywood culture; individualist cultures; national–societal culture; sub-organizational cultures
- CVCP (Cambridge Vertical Contracts Project), 87, 98–9
- Czech Republic
 meaning of trust, 69–70
 trust levels, 53–4
- data collection, 123
- deal-oriented business culture, 214–15
Delegation der deutschen Wirtschaft, 216
- demographic tiles (cultural mosaic model), 18, 26
- Denmark, 56
 trust levels, 49–50
- determinants of trust
 cultural norms and values, 57–9 culturally universal determinants, 63–5 macro-level factors, 55–6
- Diakonie Katastrophenhilfe, 288
- directors, trust levels, 161
- disclosure, 11
- discourses, 112–13
- dispositional biases, 189
- domestic world, 390
- dominant cultural tiles, 26
- Doney, Cannon and Mullen (1998) model, 23, 43–4
- Düsseldorf Chamber of Commerce, 216
- Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC), 5
- Economies of Worth Model, 388, 389–91, 401
- egocentric bias, 189
- electronically facilitated communication, making cultural differences less salient, 55
- emic, vs. etic, 7–8, 111–12
- employer–manager trust gap, 348, 353
- employers
 trust in, 344–5, 423, see also line managers declining with length of service, 336, 346–7 increasing with seniority, 346–7
- English
 as source of problems, 361, 423, see also language boundaries
- ENRON, 158
- environmental factors, 55–6
- ESRC (Economic and Social Research Council), 5
- etic, vs. emic, 7–8, 111–12
- face-to-face meetings, German–Ukrainian business relationships, 218–19
- fairness, 323
- family firms case study arguing over requirements involvement of family members, 396–7 background, 393–4
 lack of communication, 394–6 method, 391–2
 processes of creating, maintaining and repairing trust, 394 retrospective, 397–8
- CEOs gaining trust of owners, 387–8
 by enhancing the legitimacy, 389
 Economies of Worth Model, 391–2 through legitimate formal and informal control mechanisms, 388–9
- family expansion and evolution of trust relationships, 386
- high-trust organizations, 385–6
- implications for practice, 399–400
- overlapping subcultures, 386–7
- overview, 383–5, 398–9
- research directions, 400–1
- family system, 386–7
- fixed-pie construal of conflict, 189
- football, used to create familiarity, 144–7
- foreign workers (cultural sensitivity phase), 25
- France, honour, 237
- functional cultures, 6
- functional universals, 72–3
- generalized trust/propensity to trust, 10–11, 46
- geographic tiles (cultural mosaic model), 18
- German and US NGO partnership study affective processes, 299–300
 calculative processes, 291–3

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-49291-1 - Organizational Trust: A Cultural Perspective

Edited by Mark N. K. Saunders, Denise Skinner, Graham Dietz, Nicole Gillespie and Roy J. Lewicki

Index

More information

Index

427

- capability processes, 296–8
- hierarchy of trust processes, 300–2
- implications for practice, 302–5
- intentionality processes, 294–6
- overview, 282–4, 305–7
- partnership formation and trust, 284–7
- prediction processes, 293–4
- research questions and methods, 287–9
- results, 289–91
- transference processes, 298–9
- German–Ukrainian business relationships, 205–7, 219–21
 - active trust development, 216–19
 - cultural differences in trust development, 214–16
 - data collection and analysis, 210–12
 - implications for practice, 222
 - institutional context and trust, 212–14
 - limitations to trust-building strategies, 220–1
 - research directions, 222–3
- Germany
 - business environment, comparison with UK, 89–90
 - industry associations, 91–2
 - interaction-based trust vs. institution-based trust, 94–5
 - meaning of trust, 69–70
 - professional education, 92–3
 - social, judicial and technical norms, 90
 - trust levels, 53–4
- Ghana, see Nigerian and Ghanaian food-trading study
- goodwill trust, 88
- GRIT (graduated reciprocation in tension reduction), 194
- guanxi*, 21
- guarded alliance, 168
- guidance and support, 322
- HCJB Hospital Voz Andes, 288
- healthcare culture, 158
 - checking not trusting, 165–6
 - confidence-building accountability systems, 164
- Hollywood culture, 21, 22
- honour, France, 237
- hormones, 55–6
- independent self-construal, 302–4
- indicators of trustworthiness, 59–61
- individual power, 96–7
- individualist cultures, 23, 57
 - trust development, 229, 423, see also sophisticated stereotyping
- industrial world, 390
- industry associations, UK/Germany comparison, 91–2
- inspired world, 390
- institutional-based power, 96–7
- institutional-based trust, 93–4, 209–10
 - German–Ukrainian business relationships, 212–14
 - Nigeria and Ghana, 259
 - vs. interaction-based trust, 94–5
- integrity, 59, 423, see also ABI (Ability-Benevolence-Integrity) framework; character/integrity; perceived integrity
- interaction-based power, 96–7
- interaction-based trust, 93
 - vs. institutional-based trust, 94–5
- intercultural studies, 8, 47
- interdependent self-construal, 302
- international teams, and trust, 361–3
- internationalized English, 373–4
- inter-organizational trust
 - and power, 96–7
 - clients
 - inter-organizational trust, 141–4
 - interpersonal trust, 145–7
 - consultants
 - inter-organizational trust, 141–4
 - interpersonal trust, 147–52
 - interaction-based and institution-based, 93–5
- interpersonal skills, 322
- interpersonal trust, 4
 - influence of national–societal culture, 43–5, 71–3, 232–5
 - literature review limitations, 73–5
 - literature review method, 47–8
- interpretive tension, 133
- intimacy, 322
- intracultural comparisons, 47
- Iranian businesswoman shaking hands, 3
- Japan
 - meaning of trust, 69
 - organizational commitment, 69
 - risk taking, 59
 - social distance, 58
 - trust levels, 50–1, 52, 53, 54

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-49291-1 - Organizational Trust: A Cultural Perspective

Edited by Mark N. K. Saunders, Denise Skinner, Graham Dietz, Nicole Gillespie and Roy J. Lewicki

Index

More information

428

Index

Johann, handshake with Badri, 3
 Johnson and Cullen (2002) model,
 23–4, 44

Jos Plateau, 263

keep secrets, 323

Korea, trust levels, 49–50, 52

kryshas, 213

Kyrgyzstan, trust levels, 49

language and culture, 360–1

and trust, 360–3

discourse patterns, speech routines, conversations, 364–5

for technical or social purposes, 374–5

interpreting social meaning, 363–4

using English in international teams, 365–8

using other languages in addition to English, 376–7

language boundaries

between monolingual native English speakers, 366–8

between monolingual native English
 speakers and non-native speakers, 370–2

between non-native English speakers, 373–4

implications for practice, 378

interview guide, 379–80

overview, 358–9, 366–8, 377

research directions, 378–9

research method, 368–9

leadership, 45, 66, 67

Lebanon, cultural mosaic of diversity,
 237–9

Leumundszeugnis, 298

Lewicki and Bunker (1996) staged model of trust development, 28–9

life-worlds, 158

line managers

trust in, 345–6, 423, see also employers

listening, 322

Living Conditions, Lifestyle and Health survey, 49

lurking, 261

lying to protect a friend, motor accident scenario, 20–1

management consulting, 129–30, 423, see also consultant–client relationship

market world, 390

Médecins Sans Frontières, 288

Mesquita (2007) model, 27–8

Mexico, trust levels, 53–4

Mixed-method approach, 98–9

modesty, 324

Moldova, trust levels, 49

motor accident scenario, lying to protect a friend, 20–1

multi-level approach, 8–9

narrative, 112–13

narrative process, trust as, 115, 118

national–societal culture

consequences of trust, 66–8

definitions, 46–7, 208–9

determinants of trust, 55–66

implications of empirical findings, 75–6, 78–9

importance of, 42–3

influence on interpersonal trust, 43–5, 71–3, 232–5

literature review limitations, 73–5

literature review method, 47–8

levels of trust, 49–55

meaning of trust, 69–71

research directions, 76–8

role of trust, 68

negotiation, 183, 423, see also cross-cultural negotiations

Netherlands, 56

networked reputation, 134–5

NGOs, see German and US NGO partnership study

Nigerian and Ghanaian food-trading study cultural contexts, 262–3

cultural norms that influence relationships, 268–70

implications for practice, 270–1

institutions ensuring trust, 259, 267–8

overview, 255–6, 272–3

relationships and contracts requiring trust, 257–8, 264–6

research directions, 271–2

research method, 260–2

social relations ensuring trust, 258–9, 266–7

theoretical grounding, 256–60

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-49291-1 - Organizational Trust: A Cultural Perspective

Edited by Mark N. K. Saunders, Denise Skinner, Graham Dietz, Nicole Gillespie and Roy J. Lewicki

Index

More information

Index

429

- Norway, 56
trust levels, 49
- ohemma*, 269–70
- opinion world, 390
- Opportunity International, 288
- Orange Revolution, 206
- organizational commitment, Japan, 69
- organizational culture, 158
as moderating variable on trust mechanisms, 302
- ownership system, 387
- oxytocin, 55–6
- partners (cultural-sensitivity phase), 25
- partnership, 284
- past, 115–16
- Pearl Harbor, Japanese attack on, 190
- perceived ability, 46, 70
- perceived benevolence, 46, 70
- perceived integrity, 46, 70
- personal benevolence, 322–3
- personal construct theory, 99
- personal conversations, 362
- personality, 324
- personalized generosity, 322–3
- presumptive bases of trust, 12
- professional cultures, 6
- professional education, UK–Germany comparison, 92–3
- professional scepticism, 162, 168
- Promostate, 227, 228, 235
- Promostate–SONAT contract study, 248–9
culture and management, 237–9
data collection and analysis, 235–7 dealing with differences in interpreting the contract, 245–6
clarifying the contract, 246
mediation, 247–8
implications for practice, 249–50
influence of differences in conceptions of cooperation, 242–5
Promostate desire for autonomy, 239–41
research directions, 250–1
SONAT stress on group unity, 241–2
trust development, 239–42
- propensity to trust/generalized trust,
10–11, 46
- protection, 322
- psychic distance paradox, 367–8
- psycho-dynamic approach to culture, 16
- rational merchants, 215
- reciprocity, 323
- reciprocity mechanisms, 60
- relational trust, 26, 360
- relationship-oriented business culture, 214–15
- reliability, 323
- reliance, 11
- religion, Nigeria, 270
- Repertory Grids method, 99–101 advantages over questionnaire-based research, 102–3
implications, 103–4
potential for comparative research, 101–2
- risk taking, 59
- role of trust
cultural universals, 69–8
national–societal culture specific, 68
- romantic sojourner, 25
- Russia, trust levels, 49
- Sadat, Anwar, 1978 trip to Jerusalem, 195
- Salvation Army, 288
- SCC (Standing Consultative Commission), 196
- schemas, 20
- shaking hands, Iranian businesswoman, 3
- Shapiro et al. (2008) model, 25–6
- skilled workers (cultural-sensitivity phase), 25
- small talk, 365, 376
- social constructionism, 112–14, 120–1
- social distance, 57–8
- social factors, 55–6
- social identity, 17–18
- SONAT, 227, 228, 235, 423, see also
Promostate–SONAT contract study
- sophisticated stereotyping, 111
- Standing Consultative Commission
(SCC), 196
- stories, 112
- structuralist approach to culture, 16
- sub-organizational cultures, 6
- supervisor trust, 311
- supervisor trust study
implications for practice, 329–30 limitations, 330–1
literature on dyadic trust in organizations, 312–15

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-49291-1 - Organizational Trust: A Cultural Perspective

Edited by Mark N. K. Saunders, Denise Skinner, Graham Dietz, Nicole Gillespie and Roy J. Lewicki

Index

More information

430

Index

- supervisor trust study (cont.)
 - overview, 311–12, 328–9, 331–2
 - profiles and patterns of trust development, 326–8
 - research directions, 331
 - research method, 315–17
 - research results, 317
 - antecedents of supervisor–subordinate trust, 317–22, 324–5
 - comparison with existing frameworks, 322–4
- Sweden, 56
 - indicators of trustworthiness, 60
 - trust levels, 50
- symbol generation, 23–4
- symbolic perspective of culture, 16
- Tanzania
 - indicators of trustworthiness, 60–1
 - trust levels, 50
- temporal orientations, 116
- trust
 - and control, 13
 - and distrust, 13
 - and organizational competitiveness, 4
 - and power, 95–7
 - as a social construction, 114–15
 - previous work on, 107–8
 - context-sensitive nature of, 87–8, 107–8, 117–19
 - methodological implications, 97–8
 - definitions, 9–10, 46, 74, 207–8, 257, 286, 337–8
 - culturally specific meanings, 69–71
 - importance of, 3–5, 43
 - interaction with culture, 19–23, 110–12
 - interest in, 87
 - temporal context, 116, 118
- trust building
 - and time, 375
 - behavioural approaches, 193–6
 - structural approaches, 196
- trust components, 290
- trust cues, 19–20
- trust development, 11–13
 - through calculative processes, 230
 - through shared values, 229–30
 - through social interactions, 231
- Trust Game, 50, 53, 60
- trust repertoires, 207, 209
- trusting
 - researching, 119–20, 122–4
 - toward a social constructionist agenda, 121–2
- trusting behaviour, 11
- trust-in-the-making, 116
- trustworthiness beliefs, 10
- Turkey, see supervisor trust study
- UK
 - business environment, comparison with Germany, 89–90
 - conversation style, 365
 - industry associations, 91–2
 - interaction-based trust vs. institution-based trust, 94–5
 - professional education, 92–3
 - response to criticism, 68
 - social, judicial and technical norms, 90–1
- Ukraine, 206, 210, 211
 - bribery, 213
 - contracts, 214, 423, see also German–Ukrainian business relationships
- unconditional cooperation, 194
- understanding, 322
- unilateral initiatives, 195
- union of hearts, 235–8
- USA
 - meaning of trust, 69
 - response to feedback, 68
 - risk taking, 59
 - social distance, 57–9
 - trust levels, 50–2, 53, 54, 423, see also German and US NGO partnership study
- values (aspect of culture), 14
- variform functional universals, 72–3
- variform universals, 72–3
- vignettes, 3–4
- Welthungerhilfe, Brot für die Welt, 288
- witchcraft, 61
- working relationships, 196
- World Relief, 288
- World Values Survey (WVS), 49
- World Vision, 288
- WVS (World Values Survey), 49
- Zaheer and Zaheer (2006) model, 24
- zero-sum mindset, 189