

Contents

Preface page xi

PART I ISSUES OF GENRE AND HISTORICAL METHOD

- | | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 1 | In the shadow of Thucydides
W. J. McCoy | 3 |
| 2 | How history should be written
C. K. Barrett | 33 |
| 3 | The Acts of the Apostles: monograph or bios ?
Charles H. Talbert | 58 |
| 4 | The preface to Acts and the historians
Loveday C. A. Alexander | 73 |
| 5 | The future of the past: Luke's vision of salvation
history and its bearing on his writing of history
Jacob Jervell | 104 |

PART II HISTORICAL AND THEOLOGICAL DIFFICULTIES IN ACTS

- | | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 6 | Acts 6.1–8.4: division or diversity?
Craig C. Hill | 129 |
| 7 | James and the Gentiles (Acts 15.13–21)
Richard Bauckham | 154 |
| 8 | Kerygmatic summaries in the speeches of Acts
Richard Bauckham | 185 |

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-49520-2 - History Literature, and Society in the Book of Acts

Edited by Ben Witherington, III

Table of Contents

More information

x

Contents

- 9 The “script” of the Scriptures in Acts: suffering as God’s “plan” (βουλή) for the world for the “release of sins” 218
David P. Moessner
- 10 Luke’s social location of Paul: cultural anthropology and the status of Paul in Acts 251
Jerome H. Neyrey
- PART III ISSUES OF LITERARY CRITICISM
- 11 Internal repetition in Luke–Acts: contemporary narratology and Lucan historiography 283
Joel B. Green
- 12 Luke’s characterizing use of the Old Testament in the Book of Acts 300
Bill T. Arnold
- 13 Editing the Good News: some synoptic lessons for the study of Acts 324
Ben Witherington, III
- 14 The means of absent ends 348
Wm. F. Brosend, II
- Index of biblical references* 363