

Index

- Adolescence* (journal), 10
 adolescent competence, 211 adulthood: consequences of delinquency in, 204; transition from adolescence to, 200–1, 204 adversity: chains of, 184; and crime on the street, 18, 80–104, 156; as foreground class circumstances that influence offending, 58–9; of the street, 101–4 age: at leaving home, 119; in search for work, 213; and taking to the street, 68, 71 age composition (street youth), 23
 AIDS, 6
 analytic strategy/analysis, 18–20, 258
 Anderson, Nels: Hobo, The, 3–4 anomie theory, 55, 230, 235 antisocial behavior: across life course, 204 arrest, consequences of, 19 arrests of street friends, 92, 94, 96 assault, 12, 48, 54 associations: and crime, 53, 114, 137, 140–1, 146, 147, 150, 155 attitudes/beliefs justifying law violations, 149, 150–1, 152–3, 155; see also definitions
- background: class as, 56–9 background class position: and street crime, 92 background experiences, 1, 22, 23–4, 81, 224, 236 background factors, 18, 101, 103, 104, 149, 156, 179, 231; in economic action, 138; and employment, 201–2; individual differences in, 105; in taking to the street, 112–13 background variables, 20, 92; and prostitution, 96; and secondary deviance model, 185, 186, 187; and street crime, 94, 96, 101 basic needs: street families and, 162–3, 166, 168, 170, 177 Beggars and Thieves (Fleisher), 4 bivariate correlation, 92–4, 96
 blended families, 27–8
 Bourgeois, Philippe: In Search of Respect, 4
 Brazil, 8
 break and enter, 9, 10, 12
Brothers in Crime (Shaw), 4
- case studies, 7
 causal forces, 19, 80; see also crime, causes of Chicago school of sociological criminology, 3–4, 6, 103, 225 class, 18, 63, 66, 83, 235, 236; as background and foreground, 56–9; and crime, 5, 55–6, 61, 77–8, 81, 82, 225, 226; in crime research, 59–61; measurement of, 63, 66; and membership in street families, 174–5; see also family class background classical criminology, 179, 197–9 clothing, search for, 84, 86
 coercion theory, 183 Conflict Tactics Scale, 122 context: street families, 177–8 context dissonance, 204–9, 210, 220, 234 control theory, 2, 20, 58, 81, 83, 91, 92, 225, 231; combined with strain theory, 18, 57, 59, 70–1, 78, 103–4, 224 control variables: and street crime, 92–6, 101, 104 cost-benefit analysis, 139 crime/criminal activity, 1, 186–7; causes of, 105, 112–13, 133, 235; definition of, 10, 12; destitution and, 81–3; life course

- crime/criminal activity (cont.)
 factors in, 236; parenting problems and, 61; as source of money, 49; street life and, 53, 58–9; street youth in/and, 1, 2–3, 4, 6, 8–10, 12, 20, 21, 54, 62, 74, 78, 79, 107–10, 238; see also class, and crime; employment, and crime; street crime
- crime control model, 109–10, 114, 115, 133, 232
- crime sprees, 185, 197
- criminal behavior: continuity over time, 186; before leaving home, 91, 111–12
- criminal capital, 20, 138, 233, 236; embeddedness of, 135–57; modeling, 146–50; quantitative test, 150–5; street families and, 170
- criminal embeddedness, 133, 158, 169, 233, 234, 236; and criminal capital, 135–57; modeling, 146–50; quantitative test, 150–5; street families and, 170
- criminal opportunities, 114, 128, 130, 133, 138–9, 155; embeddedness/capital in, 135–6, 149, 150, 151, 153; exposure to, 124
- criminality, 112, 267n1; parental, 24
- criminogenic conditions/environments, 21, 103, 157
- criminogenesis, 81
- criminological research, 18–19, 130–3, 236–8; generalization of findings of, 237; reclassifying, 59–61
- criminological theory, 101–3, 228; integrating, 224; testing, 5
- criminology/criminologists, 2, 3–4, 5–6, 224, 225–7, 237–8; characteristics of, 81–3; neglect of street youth in, 1; streets, 20–1; see also school criminology/criminologists; sociological criminology; street criminology/criminologists
- crisis situations, 136, 137
- cultural capital, 230
- data collection, 242–3, 248–50
- defiance, 185–6, 187, 194, 197
- defiance theory of the criminal sanction, 182–3
- definitions: legitimating law violation, 137, 138, 139–40, 156
- delinquency, 5–6, 12, 112, 113, 226; causes of, 235; class and, 5; consequences of, in adulthood, 204; while at home, 91, 108; in life course development, 228; life course factors in, 236; parenting problems and, 61; unemployment and, 203–4
- delinquency research, 68; self-report, 58
- delinquency theories, 56, 202–3
- depression, 168, 169t, 178
- destitution, 80, 81–3; and prostitution, 87–8
- deterrence (doctrine), 180, 197
- developmental background/experiences, 1, 18–19, 59, 224
- developmental factors, 92, 101, 103, 104, 179, 231; individual differences in, 105, 106
- developmental measures, 91
- developmental variables, 20, 81, 94, 96
- deviance, 202; responses to, 180–1; see also secondary deviance, model of differential association theory, 2, 19, 136–7, 225
- differential identification theory, 268n2
- differential reinforcement theory, 268n2
- discipline: coercive, 56; physical, 23–4, 67; punitive, 183; see also punishment
- dissonance contexts, 220, 234; role of, 204–9, 210
- drug dealing/selling, 9, 10, 12, 54, 106, 113, 115–16, 122, 232; embeddedness/capital in, 139, 140, 142, 145–6, 150, 151t; situational destitution and, 266; tutelage in, 147–9, 155
- drug use, 106, 122, 127, 133, 214; employment and, 218, 234; while at home, 111; street families and, 169–70
- economic actions, 137–8
- economic conditions: and crime, 81, 225–6, 228
- economic exclusion, 83
- economic explanations of crime, 139
- Edmonton, 9, 203
- embeddedness, 20, 232–3, 234; effect of employment on, 209–11; ethnographic evidence of, 140–2; in social networks, 137–40; see also criminal embeddedness; social embeddedness
- “emergency welfare,” 52
- emotional support: in street families, 163–4, 168, 169t, 178, 233
- emotions: in crime amplification, 193–7
- employment, 20, 49–51, 84; and crime, 201, 202–4, 218; effect on embeddedness, 209–11; finding, 211–18; lack of, and offending, 89–101; and leaving the street, 206–7, 218–23, 234; parents, 56, 63–6; social embeddedness and, 232; and street crime, 219t; and transition to adulthood, 201–2
- employment opportunities, 200
- ethnographies, 4, 5, 140–2, 157, 158
- family(ies), 1; dysfunctional, 25–6, 29; relationships of street youth with, 237; of

- runaways, 7; and transition to adulthood, 200
- family abuse/violence, 59, 119–22, 125–6, 180, 197–8, 231; and leaving home, 110–11; and police sanctions, 19; see also family physical abuse/violence; family sexual abuse
- family class background, 18, 59; measurement of, 63–6; and taking to the street, 68, 70; see also class
- family criminality, 149–50, 186
- family disruption, 18, 23, 24, 57, 231; and street crime, 91; and taking to the streets, 78
- family experiences/context, 36, 56, 81, 197–8; and involvement in crime, 183, 184; interrelationship with school experiences, 34–5; and theft, 71
- family life, 24–32
- family physical abuse/violence, 26, 28–9, 107–8, 125–7, 187, 191, 192t, 193t; and leaving home, 7–8; and shame-rage spirals, 182, 185
- family sexual abuse, 24, 29–31, 107–8, 122, 125, 130; and leaving home, 7–8; and shame-rage spirals, 182; and street crime, 91, 191
- family structure, 66; and taking to the street, 70
- feeling trap(s), 181, 185
- female gangs, 174
- female parents: using force, 26–7, 197–8
- field work, 4, 20, 23; Chicago tradition of, 103
- Fleisher, Mark: Beggars and Thieves, 4
- food, 18; lack of, and offending, 89–101, 231; search for, 49, 84–6, 200; search for, and employment, 201, 214, 218, 234; and street families, 162–3, 166, 168, 170, 177
- “foraging” model of crime, 104
- foreground: class as, 56–9
- foreground causes of crime, 81, 103
- foreground class conditions, 80, 92; characterizing street life, 89, 90; situational variables in, 104
- foreground conditions, 1, 18; and delinquency, 79
- foreground effects: of situational adversity on crime, 92–101
- foreground experiences, 22, 83, 224, 236; life course perspective on, 106
- foreground factors, 103, 104, 179; in economic action, 138; sociogenic, 113–14
- foreground situational circumstances, 82
- foreground variables, 20
- frequency of offending, 10
- Gang, The* (Thrasher), 4, 140
- Gang as an American Enterprise, The* (Padilla), 4
- gangs, 4, 20, 140–1, 158, 170–7, 233; defined, 171–3
- gender, 23; and membership in street families, 166–8, 174, 177; and serious theft, 71; and street groups, 233; and taking to the street, 68
- gender specialization: in street crime, 90, 92, 94
- general theory of crime, 112
- Getting Paid* (Sullivan), 4
- Going Down to the Barrio* (Moore), 4
- Great Society, 225
- group homes, 31, 42
- Group Process and Gang Delinquency* (Short and Strodbeck), 4
- Hagedorn, John: People and Folks, 4
- hanging out, 52–3, 85, 170; employment and, 201, 214, 218, 220
- hazard rate, 101
- HIV infection, 6
- Hobo, The* (Anderson), 3–4
- homeless youth, 1–3; street lives of, 37–49; see also street youth
- homelessness, 6–8, 20–1, 106, 136–7, 142, 201; causes of, 105; and crime, 227–8, 262n7; definition of, 10, 11–12; as dissonant context, 205–6; effects of, 80; and employment, 207, 208, 210, 211–12; survey research on, 258–9
- Honduras, 227–8
- hostels, 42, 43–6, 84, 85, 91; lack of, in Vancouver, 108–9; meals in, 49; in Toronto, 14, 108
- human capital, 200, 229, 231, 234; employment and, 207, 211
- hunger, 8, 49, 90, 91, 92, 94, 96, 101, 104; and street families, 162–3, 166
- hygiene, 41–2
- immigration, 3, 13
- In Search of Respect* (Bourgois), 4
- individual differences, 105
- industrialization, 3, 225
- information, 139–40; access to, 138
- interviews, 1, 24, 165–6
- Jack-Roller, The* (Shaw), 4
- Johnson, L. B., 225
- Kennedy, John F., 225

- labeling theory, 2, 19, 20, 81, 180, 183, 225, 234
- labor market, 222, 226, 234
- lack of permanent address, 11–12
- Latin America, 8
- law enforcement/crime control model; see crime control model
- learning criminal techniques, 53; see also tutelage relationships
- learning theories, 81
- leaving home, 18, 92; ontogenetic and sociogenic origins of, 110–15
- leaving the street, 20, 200–23; employment and, 218–23, 234
- legal status: and employment, 221–2
- length of time of the street, 92, 94
- Liebows, Elliot: Tally's Corner, 4
- life course, 105–6; accumulation of social capital over, 236; antisocial behavior across, 204; criminal behavior across, 112–13, 118, 133; delinquency and crime in, 228; propensity to crime formed early in, 156; prospects of street youth, 234; sanction sequences in, 183–5; turning points/trajectories in, 198–9
- life course research, 11, 200, 201, 203–4, 218–20
- life history calendar information, 119
- life trajectories, 201, 236; continuity and stability in, 218; downward, 232–3; turning points in, 204–9
- lifestyle opportunity theory, 135
- Locke, Harvey, Edwin Sutherland and: Twenty Thousand Homeless Men, 4, 6, 155–6
- logistic regression, 258
- logit models, 68, 71, 73, 75t
- London, 203
- material need; see necessities
- maternal control, 70, 71, 91
- methodology: of studying street youth, 239–59
- model of nonviolent street crime: Toronto and Vancouver, 129f
- model of street life and crime, 59, 60f, 89; estimating, 125–30; integrated, 18, 20; operationalizing, 63–8
- models of leaving home: bivariate regression coefficients and probit estimates for, 100t, 101
- money, 18, 113; search for, 49–52, 84, 200; and street families, 166, 168, 177
- Montreal, 13
- Moore, Joan: Going Down to the Barrio, 4
- mothers: using force/physical violence, 26–7, 197–8
- multivariate analysis, 4, 94–8
- necessities, 202; ways of obtaining, 84–9; see also basic needs
- New Frontier, 225
- New York City, 9
- nights spent on the street, 123–4, 125, 126t, 128, 130
- nonviolent crime, 122, 125, 127–30, 129f, 133, 232
- normative conflict, 136
- occupational opportunities, 218–20; see also employment
- offending: and being without food, shelter, and employment, 89–101; membership in street families and, 174, 175, 177; see also crime/criminal activity
- offending histories, 2, 3
- on/–of– the street, 8, 11
- ontogenetic forces, 19, 105, 106–7, 108, 112–13, 118, 125, 126, 127–8, 130–4, 229, 231, 232; in leaving home and street crime, 110–15
- opportunity, 230, 231, 233, 235
- opportunity perspective, 135
- oral histories, 7
- ordinary least squares (OLS) models, 71, 74–5, 100, 101, 258; regression, 92, 98t, 101t
- Padilla, Felix: Gang as an American Enterprise, The, 4
- panel research, 118–19, 245–50; attrition in, 253–5, 259
- panhandling, 49, 51–2, 84, 170; employment and, 201, 214, 218, 234
- parent-child interactions/relationships, 7, 35, 66–7; explosive forms of, 56; and taking to the street, 70
- parental abuse/violence, 67, 193t, 197–8, 233–4; and shame-rage spiral, 182, 185; and taking to the street, 71; see also family physical abuse/violence
- parental background: in causation of crime, 57
- parental control, 70
- parental criminality, 24
- parental economic problems, 56
- parental rejection, 18, 24, 57, 183, 194, 234
- parental sanctioning, 180
- parental unemployment, 56, 59, 61, 66
- parental use of force, 67, 71, 91
- parenting, 61, 66–7; abusive, 23–32; deficiencies deriving from, 105; erratic/explosive, 18, 56, 57, 59, 66, 67, 70, 78, 231; punitive, 58
- parents: alcohol/drug abuse, 24, 25–6; coercive or abusive, 24, 122, 128, 130;

- neglectful, 24; occupational status of, 59, 61; of runaways, 7, 8; socioeconomic status of, 5, 6; youth violence against, 108, 111, 113, 122, 126, 127, 130
- partying, 52, 85, 220
- paternal control, 91
- People and Folks* (Hagedorn), 4
- personal deficiencies, 155
- Philadelphia, 203
- photojournalism, 7
- physical abuse; see family physical abuse/violence
- physical capital, 229
- physical discipline, 23–4, 67
- police charges, 128, 130, 133, 191, 192t
- police contacts, 8, 110, 114, 186
- police sanctions, 19, 125, 233–4
- positivist criminology, 179, 197–8
- poverty: and crime, 5, 8, 225–6, 227; and punishment style, 56
- pregnancy, 161
- probit analysis: of leaving home, 100t, 101
- Professional Thief, The* (Sutherland), 156
- propensity to crime, 156, 267n1
- property crime, 203
- prostitution, 9, 48, 54, 87–8, 106, 113, 115–16, 125, 127, 133, 145, 232; embeddedness/capital in, 139, 140, 141, 143–5, 152–3, 153t; lack of food, shelter, and employment and, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93t, 94, 96, 101, 102t, 103–4; measurement of, 124–5; OLS regressions, 98t; Toronto and Vancouver, 14, 15, 17, 130, 132f; tutelage in, 147–9, 155
- protection, 47, 147, 163, 177
- psychological conflict paradigm, 183
- psychological support: in street families, 163–4, 168
- punishment, 180; and shame-rage spirals, 182; forms of, 56; inconsistent, 57; see also discipline
- quantitative analysis, 4
- quasi-family relationships, 19; see also street families
- questionnaires, 242, 243–5
- random sample(s), 62, 99
- rational choice theory, 139, 155, 202
- reliability, 255–8
- repeat offenders, 10
- research design, 240–2, 244, 245, 255
- risk characteristics, 73–4, 75, 75t, 78–9
- robbery, 12, 54
- roles, 105; in street families, 160–1, 162, 177
- routine activities approach, 135
- runaways, 6–8, 9, 11
- safety issues, 233, 237; and street families, 163, 166–8, 177, 178
- sample selection bias, 80, 92, 96–101, 214
- samples/sampling, 4, 73, 244–8, 258; in ethnographies, 141; random, 62, 99; response-based, 62–3, 68; restrictive, 80
- sanction sequences, 197, 198–9; in life course, 183–5; testing, 185–6
- sanction theories, 179; new, 180–3
- sanctions/sanctioning, 179, 181–2, 197, 199, 233–4; parental/family, 180, 198
- school conflict, 58, 59, 67, 91
- school criminology/criminologists, 1–21, 57, 59, 61, 103, 141, 226, 236; emphasis on, 55; and street criminology, 77–9
- school experiences, 1, 18, 24, 32–6, 56, 81; in homelessness, 18; and theft, 71; and transition to adulthood, 200
- school involvement/commitment, 59, 67, 91
- school samples: and serious theft, 71–7
- schooling: and taking to the street, 70, 71
- secondary deviance, 187–91, 197, 234; model of, 185–6
- self-control, 81, 82, 125, 139; failure to develop, 112; lapses of, 105
- self-report studies/methodology, 5–6, 61, 103, 226, 245; class-crime connection in, 55; delinquency research, 58; errors in, 255–6; of students who live at home, 81
- service sector, 200, 222
- sex-related offenses, 12; see also prostitution
- sex trade; see prostitution
- sexual abuse; see family sexual abuse
- sexual assault: on the street, 47–8
- sexual harassment, 8
- shame, 183, 233–4, 235; feelings of, 193–4, 196–7; spiraling chains of, 19
- shame theorists, 195
- shaming, 179, 181–2; reintegrative, 58, 180–1
- Shaw, Clifford: Brothers in Crime, 4; Jack-Roller, The, 4
- shelter, 18, 37–41, 42–3; access to, 90, 91; lack of, 8; lack of, and depression, 168, 178; lack of, and offending, 89–101, 104, 231; search for, 84, 86–7, 123–4, 200; search for, and employment, 201, 214, 218, 234; and street families, 163, 166, 168, 170, 173, 177; social policy and, 113; in Toronto, 108
- “shelter hopping,” 44
- shelter rules, 44
- Short, James, and Fred Strodbeck: Group Process and Gang Delinquency, 4
- siblings, 31
- single-parent families, 32, 66
- significance tests, 258

- situational adversity, 81, 91, 104, 135;
 foreground effects of, on crime, 92–101
 situational destitution, 266n1 situational effects, 82–3, 137
 situational variables: and street crime, 94, 101 skills, 137, 139–40; acquisition of, 140–1;
 learning, 156
 social assistance, 52, 56, 83, 84 social bonds, 57, 81, 202, 226, 235 social capital, 20, 136, 138, 156, 200, 228–9;
 access to, 230; acquiring, 234, 236;
 employment and, 207; and street youth, 231–4
 social capital theory, 232; as framework for integrated theory of crime, 224, 228–31, 232, 234, 235–6
 social closure, 229–30 social control, 180, 230, 231, 235; lack of, 83 social control theory, 66, 268n4 social disorganization theory, 55, 226 social embeddedness, 19, 136, 157, 220, 232–3, 234
 social environments, 105, 106 social networks, 156; embeddedness in, 137–40
Social Order of the Slum (Suttles), 4 social organization: differential, 136–7, 156;
 street groups, 173
 social policies, 113, 134 social psychological factors: and employment, 201–2
 social service agencies, 16–17, 49, 88 social services, 11, 17–18, 31, 124; through hostels, 43
 social stratification, 227
 social structure, 105–6, 136, 138, 156 social ties (crime), 19
 social welfare model, 134; Toronto, 108, 110, 113, 115, 133, 232
 socialization, 105; failure of, 139
 sociogenic forces, 19, 106–7, 109, 118, 119, 125–6, 127–8, 130–4, 229, 232; origins of leaving home and street crime, 110–15 sociological criminology, 20–1, 55, 157; classical/positivist, 179, 197
 sociology of emotions, 182
 squats, 38–40, 41, 85
 status-attainment research, 201, 211 stealing, 9, 10; see also theft stepparents, 27–8, 31, 32
 stigmatization, 81, 179, 183, 233–4, 235; negative, 180–1
 strain, 203, 235
 strain theory, 2, 20, 57–8, 81, 83, 91, 92, 183–4, 225, 226, 231, 235; combined with control theory, 18, 57, 59, 70–1, 78, 103– 4, 224
 strain variables: and street crime, 92–4, 101 street (the): adversity of, 101–4 street activities: employment and, 214–18, 215t, 216t, 217t; OLS regressions, 171t
Street Corner Society (Whyte), 4 street crime, 106–7, 233; access to social capital and, 232–3; adversity and, 80–104; causes of, 92–101, 104; employment and, 210–11, 218, 219t; estimating models of,
 125–30; learning to do, 155–7;
 ontogenetic and sociogenic origins of,
 110–15; responses to: Toronto and Vancouver, 108–10; street life and, 115– 18; in Toronto and Vancouver, 107–10 street crime amplification, 179–99;
 modeling, 186–93; qualitative coda, 193–7
 street criminology/criminologists, 1–21, 62– 3, 224–38; and school criminology, 77–9 street experiences, 56, 110, 149; and social capital, 231
 street family(ies), 19, 159–65, 233; causes and consequences of, 165–70; in context, 177–8; or gangs, 170–7; impermanence of, 164–5
 street family membership, 167t; and offending, 170
 street friends: arrests of, 92, 94, 96; and employment, 208–9, 214
 street groups, 233; motivation to join, 166, 168; street youth in, 158–78 street life, 52–4, 78, 79, 80, 206; as cause of crime, 58–9; and differential social organization, 136–7; employment and, 209; of homeless youth, 37–49; pleasures and problems of, 22, 261n1; and serious theft, 77; and street crime, 115–18; in Toronto, 14; in Vancouver, 116–17 street samples, 73, 78; and serious theft, 71– 7 street settings: street youth and, 22–54 street youth, 141–2, 200–1; homelessness of,
 6–8; hopes for future, 261n4; killings of,
 237; recontacting respondents, 250–3, 254t; social capital and, 231–4; in street groups, 158–78; and street settings, 22– 54; study of, 1–3, 239–59; see also crime, street youth in/and Strodbeck, Fred, James Short and: Group Process and Gang Delinquency, 4 structural-Marxist theory of delinquency, 56 subcultures (theory), 55 subsistence needs, 83, 104; see also basic needs; necessities substance use, 52–3, 202; see also drug use

- Sullivan, Mercer: Getting Paid, 4 surplus population families, 66, 231; and taking to the street, 68, 70, 77, 78 survey research, 1, 7, 258–9 survival issues, 9, 162–3, 233; membership in street families and, 177–8
 Sutherland, Edwin, 136–7, 138, 139, 140, 142, 155–6, 225; Professional Thief, The, 156; Twenty Thousand Homeless Men (with Harvey Locke), 4, 6, 155–6
 Suttles, Gerald: Social Order of the Slum, 4
- taking to the streets, 55–79, 96, 103, 110; and serious theft, 71–7
Tally's Corner (Liebows), 4 temporal sequence, 185, 186
 territoriality, 174, 177
 theft, 54, 106, 113, 115, 122, 127, 133, 232; to acquire necessities, 84–7; of clothing, 86; embeddedness and, 139, 140, 143; and employment, 214, 234; of food, 84–6, 89–90, 92–6, 93t, 101, 102t, 103–4; in hostels, 44–5; minor, 91; on the street, 46; street families and, 169–70; tutelage in, 147, 149, 155
 theft, serious, 80; decomposition of difference in: street and school youth, 77t; embeddedness/capital in, 150–1; lack of food, shelter, and employment and, 89–96, 93t, 101, 102t, 103–4; logit based estimates of participation in, 75t; measure of, 67–8; modeling, 71; participation/frequency, 71, 73–4; taking to the street and, 71–7; tobit estimates of probabilities of, 76t theoretical orientations, 224, 225–7, 232, 235; see also criminological theory
 Thomas, W. I.: Unadjusted Girl, The, 4
 Trasher, Fredrick: Gang, The, 4, 140
 tobit models, 71, 74, 76t
 Toronto, 9–10, 12–14, 15f, 23–4, 104, 141, 204; access to social capital in, 232; cross-sectional study, 20; initial study, 22–3; panel study, 20, 23, 118–19, 186; school sample, 92, 96, 99–101; social environment of, 18–19; social policies in, 113; social services in, 18; street crime in, 119–30; street families in, 174–7; street population of 62–3; street youth and crime in, 1, 8, 107–10; streets of, 130–4 turning points, 201, 204–9; employment as, 210 tutelage, 138, 141, 142–6, 233; crime-specific nature of, 155–7; differential association and, 136–7 tutelage relationships, 147–9, 150–5, 156, 158, 170
Twenty Thousand Homeless Men (Sutherland and Locke), 4, 6, 155–6 two-stage estimator, 99–100
- Unadjusted Girl, The* (Thomas), 4 unemployment, 8, 83, 91, 202, 218; and crime, 92, 94, 96, 101, 104, 202–4, 221, 232–3; parental, 56, 59, 61, 66; in Toronto, 13
 United States, 227–8 urban anthropologists, 4
 urban neighborhoods, 3
 urban underclass, 103, 227
 urbanization, 3, 225
- validity, 255–8; external/internal, 62, 78, 79, 80, 92, 96–101, 104
 Vancouver, 12, 116–18, 17f, 104, 150, 233; access to social capital in, 232; panel study, 20, 23, 118–19, 186; social environment of, 18–19; social policies in, 113; street families in, 166–8, 174–7; street youth and crime in, 1, 107–10, 119–30; streets of, 130–4 victimization, 2, 8, 46, 48, 163 violence, 106, 122–3; situational destitution and, 266n1; on the street, 46–7, 116–18, 163; see also family physical abuse/violence; parental abuse/violence violent crime, 127, 133, 232; ontogenetic factors in, 115; origins of, 134; in Toronto and Vancouver, 130, 131f War on Poverty, 225 welfare services: Toronto, 108; Vancouver, 108–9; see also social services
 Whyte, William: Street Corner Society, 4 work: finding, 211–18; importance of, 221; lack of, and crime, 231; testing effects of, 209–11; and transition to adulthood, 200, 202–1; see also employment work experiences, 49–51; and employment, 212
- youth: abusing parents, 108, 111, 113, 122, 126, 127, 130; definition of, 10–11