

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-49887-6 - Coming to our Senses: A Naturalistic Program for
Semantic Localism

Michael Devitt

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction	1
1. A Critique of the Case for Semantic Holism	10
I: Introduction	10
II: The Argument from Confirmation Holism	17
III: The Argument from the Rejection of Analyticity	18
IV: The Argument from Psychological Explanation	38
V: The Argument from Functionalism	43
2. The Methodology of Naturalistic Semantics	48
I: Introduction	48
II: Semantic Tasks	54
III: A Semantic Methodology	70
3. A Case for Semantic Localism	87
I: A Principled Basis	87
II: Definitions and Plan	95
III: Holism and Localism Elsewhere	102
IV: Holism and Localism in Semantics	113
4. Meanings and Their Ascription	136
I: A Representationalist Program	136
II: Rival Programs	171
III: Attitude Ascriptions	196
IV: Developing the Program	218

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-49887-6 - Coming to our Senses: A Naturalistic Program for
Semantic Localism

Michael Devitt

Table of Contents

More information

5. Eliminativism and Revisionism	245
I: Introduction	245
II: Syntactic Psychology	258
III: Narrow Psychology	285
References	313
Index	329