

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51391-3 - Sextus Empiricus: Against the Physicists

Richard Bett

Index

More informationIndex

- Academy/Academics 3, xiii–xiv Achelous 38
 addition see subtraction and addition Aenesidemus of Cnossos x, x–xi air 123
 cause 44
 motion 88
 Purrōneioi Logoi (Pyrrhonist Discourses) x–xi
 Pyrrhonism x–xi, xxii–xxiii
 time as a body 120
 whole or part 63
Against the Arithmeticians ix, xix, xvi–xviii
Against the Astrologers ix
Against the Ethicists (M 11) (Sextus) ix, xvi, viii–ix covering the same ground as part of PH 2–3 xx,
 viii–ix
 negative conclusions xxii–xxiii
Against the Geometers ix, xix, xvi–xviii
Against the Grammarians ix, xvi–xvii
Against the Learned see Pros mathēmatikous
 (Against the Learned) (M)
Against the Logicians (M 7–8) (Sextus) ix, xvi,
 viii–ix
 covering the same ground as part of PH 2–3 xx,
 viii–ix
 negative arguments and common sense xv opening with reference to a general account of Pyrrhonism ix, xx
Against the Musicians ix, xvi–xvii
Against the Physicists (M 9–10) (Sextus) ix, x,
 viii–ix
 and the Academics xiv
 Aenesidemus x–xi
 character of xiii–xvi
 common sense xv
 focus on production of suspension of judgement xiii, xv
 goal of developing a ‘counter-argument against everything’ xiv, xxii–xxiii as source of information about earlier Greek philosophers’ views xv
 understanding of Pyrrhonism and negative arguments xiv, xxii, xiv–xv, xxii–xxiii covering the same ground as part of PH 2–3 xx,
 viii–ix
 fuller and richer treatment of material than PH xxiv
 in relation to Sextus’ other works and earlier sources xvi–xxiv
 Against the Physicists and M 1–6 xvi–xviii
 Against the Physicists and PH xx–xxiv
 Sextus’ use of earlier sources xviii–xx
Against the Rhetoricians ix
 air 4–5, 40–1
 coming into being of the universe 138–9
 controlling 22–3
 day as the air lit up by the sun 114–15, 121
 development of animals in the air and aether 20–1
 existing in virtue of own individuality 128–9
 and fire 86–7
 and humans 22–3
 as a simple body 23, 37
 as the principle and element of all things 67–8
 and time 123
 upward-moving 95
 and water 86–7
 Alcmena 10
 Alexinus 25
 Algra, Keimpe xxvii
 Anaxagoras of Clazomenae 4, 68
 coming into being of the universe 139
 motion 89
 Anaximander 67
 Anaximenes 67, 138
 animals
 cause 40–1, 45
 development of animals in the air and aether 20–1
 existing in virtue of own individuality 128–9
 god as an animal/ live organism 30–2, 33

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51391-3 - Sextus Empiricus: Against the Physicists

Richard Bett

Index

More information

170

Index

- animals (cont.)
 - god as a blessed and imperishable animal 10, 11–12
 - imperishable nature of animals of the aether 20–1
 - impiety of killing and eating animals 28
 - justice towards non-rational animals 28–9
 - and numbers 132–3
 - reason, not having 29
 - sense-perception 30
 - differing from the non-animal in having 31
 - superior to non-animals/plants 26, 30
 - superiority of one animal over another 21, 26
 - terrestrial animals, humans supreme over 21
 - virtue 36
- Annas, Julia xxvi
- Aphrodite 38
- Arcesilaus xiii–xiv
- Archelaus of Athens 67
- Archilochus 25
- Archimedes 26
- arguments against the existence of gods 30–9
 - impossibility of either of two mutually exclusive/jointly exhaustive alternatives 32–3
 - further arguments 36–7
 - sorites arguments from Carneades 37–9
 - Stoic supposition that god is a live organism 30–2
 - supposition that god is entirely virtuous 33–5
 - further conundrums surrounding god's virtue or lack of it 35–6
- arguments for the existence of gods 16–30
 - design, arguments from 19–27
 - development of animals in the air and aether 20–1
 - humans not the supreme animal because imperfect 21
 - rational and intelligent nature of the world 23–5, 26
 - transition to the next argument 27
 - unified bodies, things fastened together, and things standing apart 19–20
 - world endowed with mind 22–3
 - world's motion 25–6
 - 'from the absurdities that follow for those who do away with the divine' 27–9
 - 'from the agreement among all humans' 16–18
 - humans' common conception of Hades 17–18
 - transition to the next argument 18
 - trusting the clever men and the philosophers 17
 - 'from the refutation of opposing arguments' 29–30
 - introduction 16
- Aristarchus 25, 113
- Aristodemus 22
- Aristotle viii, 4
 - breadthless length 75
 - coming into being of the universe 138–9
 - gods
 - conception of god 7, 87
 - existence of god 17
 - heaven 87
 - motion 88, 89–90
 - place 86–8
 - time 113, 122
- Artemis 38
- Asclepiades of Bithynia 68, 139
- atheists 13–14
- atoms 44, 62, 68
 - addition and subtraction 95
 - coming into being of the universe 139
 - eternal nature 126–7
 - imperishable nature 29–30
 - motion 95, 105, 121
- Barnes, Jonathan xxvi
- Blomqvist, Jerker xxv
- body 67–80
 - argument against body on basis that it can be neither perceptible nor intelligible 79–80
 - arguments against body stemming from its conception 68
 - body based on concept of a surface as the limit of a body 78–9
 - conception of body that is vulnerable to earlier arguments 68–9
 - mathematicians' conception of body, and some initial impasses 69–70
 - non-existence of length, breadth, depth in which body is conceived 70–8
 - dimensions 69, 83
 - distinction between believers in corporeal and incorporeal elements 67–8
 - impossibility of
 - causation involving combination of bodily or incorporeal items 43–5
 - subtraction involving any combination of bodily or incorporeal items 54–8
 - intelligible bodies 126–7
 - non-existence of length, breadth, depth in which body is conceived 70–8
 - impossibility of generating a line out of one or more partless signs 71–2
 - inconceivability of the line as a breadthless length 72–3, 75
 - inconceivability of line as breadthless length if described circle is rotated 76–7

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51391-3 - Sextus Empiricus: Against the Physicists

Richard Bett

Index

More informationIndex

171

- inconceivability of line as breathless length
 if line also limit of surface 75–6
 introduction 70
 non-existence of a ‘partless sign’/point 70–1
 objections and responses to them 73–5
 related arguments on geometers’ claims
 about other geometrical figures 77–8
 transition to arguments based on geometers’
 own views 76
 and place 85–8
 solid bodies 50, 69
 solid shapes conceived prior to bodies 127
 time as 120, 122–3
 transition to subject of incorporeals 80
 Bury, R.G. xxvi
- Carneades xx, xiii–xiv
 extra senses to be ascribed to god 31
 sorites arguments 37–9
 cause and what is affected 40–62
 addition see subtraction and addition arguments against the existence of cause 42–50 dogmatic objection and Sextus’ reply 49–50 impossibility of causation involving any combination of bodily or incorporeal items 43–5
 relativity of causes 42–3
 arguments for the existence of cause 40–2 arguments jointly against the existence of anything either active or affected, based on the impossibility of touch 51–2 further argument specifically against the existence of anything affected 52–3 impossibility of any member of various sets of mutually exclusive and jointly exhaustive alternatives 45–9 causation among simultaneous, earlier or later things 47
 causation among things at rest or in motion 45–7
 causation operating self-sufficiently/with aid of affected matter 47–8
 causes as having one active power or many 49 causes as separate from or together with the affected matter 50
 introduction to the subject of cause 40
 subtraction see subtraction and addition Chaos 83, 84–5
 circles 55–6
 arguments against line as breathless length if described circle is rotated 76–7
 Cleanthes 21–2
 Clitomachus 3, 37, xiii–xiv color 34, 53, 62, 88
 coming into being and perishing 84, 137–46
 argument against based on their dependence on things already dismissed 140 argument against coming into being out of either one thing or multiple things 141–3 argument against coming into being of either what is or what is not 141 arguments against perishing parallel to 144–5 argument (indebted to Diodorus Cronus) against there being any time in which coming into being or perishing could take
 place 145–6
 centrality of topic to physics; survey of views on universe’s elements 137–9 compounds’ perishable nature 37 dogmatists’ appeals to experience, and responses to them 143–4
 dying while being or not being 52–3, 145
 and existence of cause 41
 imperishable nature
 of animals of the aether 20–1 of atoms 29–30
 of gods, 8, 10, 11–12, 20–1, 29–35, 36
 opposites 129
 perfectives and continuatives 97–8
 perishing from lack of necessities 17 souls as cause of living and dying 41
 as specific types of change 88
 time 117
 coming into being 118–20
 not imperishable and ungenerated or perishable and generated 118–20
 world perishing and the end of time 115 transition to arguments against coming into being and perishing 139 void 85
 compounds 23, 44, 62
 motion 121
 perishable nature 37
 continuatives and perfectives 97–8, 99–100
 cosmology xvii
 roles that principles play in the cosmos 130–2
 Critias 14–15
 Cyclops 72–3
 Cynics 93
- days/months see time
 Demeter 6, 38–9
 Democritus
 atoms as principle and elements of all things 68
 coming into being of the universe 139
 conception of gods 6–8, 11
 motion 89
 time 114–15
 world’s motion not compelled by a vortex 25
 dimensions 69, 83

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51391-3 - Sextus Empiricus: Against the Physicists

Richard Bett

Index

More information

172

Index

- Diodorus Cronus 68
 arguments against motion 89–90, 96–103, 108
 additional “more sophistic” arguments of Diodorus 102–3
 basic argument 96–7, 103
 objections to Diodorus 97–9 rejection of “more sophistic” arguments 103 replies to objections by or on behalf of Diodorus/counter-responses 99–102
 coming into being and perishing 145–6
- Diagoras of Melos 13–14
- Diogenes of Apollonia 67
- Diogenes of Babylon 29–30
- Diogenes Laertius vii, viii, ix
 as a “copyist” xix
 relevance to Sextus and his sources xix, xviii–xix
- Dionysus 6
- Dioscuri 10, 20–1
- dogmatists
 cause 40, 42, 43, 48, 49–50
 coming into being and perishing 143–4
 dogmatic philosophers’ views on the origins of
 conception of god 5–9
 objections to these views 9–12
 motion 93–4
 place 83
 and Sextus’ scepticism xii, xv, xxii
 time 120
 whether there is a god 13–16
 whole and part 62
 dogmatic objections and responses to them
 65–7
- earth 20–1, 40–1
 Chaos preceding 83, 84–5
 coming into being of the universe 138–9
 controlling 22–3
 downward-moving 95–6
 Earth as a god 38–9
 existing in virtue of own individuality 128–9
 and humans 22–3
 as a simple body 23, 37
 as the principle and element of all things 67–8
 and time 123
 and water 86–7
- Egypt and Egyptians 41
 deifying water 9
 Nile 6
- elements see primary/simple bodies and elements
- Empedocles of Acragas 4–5
 coming into being of the universe 138–9
 existence of god 17
 justice towards non-rational animals 28
- motion 89
 principle and elements of all things 67–8
- Empiricist school of medicine vii and Pyrrhonist scepticism vii–viii
- Epicurus
 atoms 44, 62, 105
 as principle and elements of all things 68
 cause 44
 Chaos causing Epicurus’ impulse to philosophize 84–5
 coming into being of the universe 139
 conception of gods 8, 11
 intangible nature 81
 motion 89
 arguments against Epicureans’ position
 108–10
 Epicureans’ position that all three components are indivisible 108
 number 127
 souls 18
 time 114–15
 as accident of accidents 121–2, 123–5
 whether there is a god 16, 37
 existence of god 17
 whole and part 62
- Eros 38
- eternal atoms as 126–7
 conception of 12
 god as 11–12, 26
 power that is self-moved as divine and
 eternal 19
 world as 26, 112, 127
- Euhemerus
 atheism/whether there is a god 6, 13–14
 conception of gods 6
- Euripides 138–9
- Fabricius, Johann Albert xxvi
- fear 34, 38
 of the gods 14–15
- fire 18, 43, 44
 and air 86–7
 cause of burning 48
 coming into being of the universe 138–9
 existing in virtue of own individuality 128–9
- Hephaistus as 6
 and humans 22–3
 Persians deifying 9
 as a simple body 23, 37
 as the principle and element of all things 67–8
 and time 123
 upward-moving 82–3, 95
- Flückiger, Hansueli xxvi

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51391-3 - Sextus Empiricus: Against the Physicists

Richard Bett

Index

More information

Index

173

Gegen die Dogmatiker: Adversus Mathematicos Libri 7–11 (Flückiger) xxvi

geometers

line as a breadthless length 72, 75, 76, 78
 arguments against line as breadthless length
 if described circle is rotated 76–7
 related arguments on geometers' claims
 about other geometrical figures 77–8

see also body

subtraction 67–8

see also mathematicians

god 5–39

conceptions of gods and their origins 5–13 appearances in sleep of human-shaped images, from 8, 11–12
 conception of gods being there and remaining for ever 17
 conclusion and transition to the question of the gods' existence 13
 dogmatic philosophers' views on origins 5–9 entirely virtuous nature of god 33–6 eternal nature of god 11–12, 17, 26 extraordinary things observed happening in the world, from 7–8, 11–12
 fire, deifying 9
 first clever humans, from 9
 first leaders, from 10–11
 heaven 86–7
 humans having divine authority 6, 10–11, 13
 imperishable nature 8, 10, 11–12, 20–1, 29–35, 36
 large and indestructible images 6–7, 11 live organism, god as 30–2 mind, god as 4, 22–3
 objections to dogmatic views on origins 9–12
 preventing injustice see law and lawgivers
 the sky, from 7
 the soul, from 7
 things that benefit lives or are useful 6, 11, 13 time and day/month/year as god 27 transition from the happy human to the eternal god 11–12
 water, deifying 9
 well-ordered motion of heavenly bodies 8, 11
 introduction 5
 Stoics on 5
 whether there are gods/on the existence or non-existence of gods 13–39
 arguments against see arguments against the existence of gods
 arguments for see arguments for the existence
 of gods
 conclusion to arguments for and against the existence of god 39

conclusion, and transition to section on
 cause 39
 introduction 13
 the sceptical outcome 39
 survey of opposing positions: positive, negative and suspensive 13–16
 transition to arguments against the existence
 of gods 30
 transition to arguments for the positive and negative positions 16

Hades 37–8

and arguments for the existence of gods "from agreement among all humans" 17–18 and conception of god 5–6

happiness

conception of 12
 god as a blessed and imperishable animal,
 perfect in happiness 10, 11–12
 god as conceived by a transition from the happy human 11–12

heaven 40–1, 86–8, 113

disturbances in 7–8, 14–15
 motion of heavenly bodies 8, 11, 20

Heintz, Werner xxv

Hephaistus 6

Heraclides 10

Heraclides Ponticus 139

Heraclitus 63, 67

coming into being of the universe 138

Heracliteans and time 122–3

time as a body 120, 122–3

Hermotimus of Clazomenae 4

Hervetus, Gentianus xxvi

Hesiod 4, 39, 83

Hippasus of Metapontum 67, 138

Hippo of Regium 67–8

Hippocentaurs 13, 27–8, 72

holiness 27

Homer 4, 7, 22, 39

coming into being of the universe 138
 writing on the war between Greeks and barbarians 17

human beings

babies 143–4

concept/nature of 62–3, 66, 133, 143

crafted by an exceptional mind 22

existing in virtue of own individuality 128–9

and gods see god

Hades, common conception of 17–18

holiness 27

justice see justice

laws see laws and lawgivers

not the supreme animal because imperfect 21

and numbers 133, 134

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51391-3 - Sextus Empiricus: Against the Physicists

Richard Bett

Index

More information

174

Index

- human beings (cont.)
 - reason, having 29
 - senses see senses and sense-perception
 - supreme among terrestrial animals 21
 - vices 21, 33–4
 - whole and part 62–3, 64–5, 66
- Idaeus of Himera 67
- Ideas 134–5
 - incorporeal, subsisting before bodies 127
 - as principle of everything for Platonists 68
- Ierodiakonou, Katerina xxvii
- imperishable see coming into being and perishing
- impiety see piety
- incorporeals 80
 - distinction between believers in corporeal and incorporeal elements 67–8
 - forms of 120
 - impossibility of
 - causation involving any combination of bodily or incorporeal items 43–5
 - subtraction involving any combination of bodily or incorporeal items 54–8
 - intelligible bodies 126–7
 - time as 120, 122, 123
 - touch 70–1
- introduction to the entire work 3–5
 - focus on principles 3
 - general distinction between active and material principles 4–5
- Ionians 17
- Janáček, Karel xxi
- justice 28–9, 36
 - holiness as justice towards the gods 27
 - preventing injustice 5–6, 14–15
 - reason as an explanation for justice 29
 - towards non-rational animals 28–9
- laws and lawgivers
 - lawgivers instilling belief in gods 9–10
 - to prevent injustice 5–6, 14–15
 - laws introduced to punish injustice 5–6
- leaders, gods from first 10–11
- lines 69
 - cutting 54–6
 - impossibility of generating a line out of one or more partless signs 71–2
 - inconceivability of line as a breadthless length 72–3, 75
 - further argument if line is also the limit of a surface 75–6
 - non-existence of a “partless sign”/point 70–1
 - number 131–2
 - parallel lines 75–6
- love 4–5, 139
 - and strife 4–5
- mathematicians 54, 68
 - conception of body, and some initial impasses 69–70
 - bodies and limits 76
 - lines 70
 - see also* geometers
- Melissus 89–90
- Methodist school vii–viii
- mind
 - creating mind in soul and soul in body 24–5
 - god as 4, 22–3
 - humans crafted by an exceptional mind 22
 - Pyrrhonist scepticism as an improvement on state of mind xiii
 - world endowed with mind 22–3, 24–5
- motion 84, 88–112
 - arguments against motion 94–112
 - arguments concerning divisibility 104–12
 - Diodorus Cronus’ arguments against motion see Diodorus Cronus
 - thing in motion having to be moved by itself or by something else 94–6
 - body either contained in place or traveling over place 81
 - causation among things at rest or in motion 45–7
 - change-related motion 88–9
 - definition 90–2
 - divisibility, arguments concerning 104–12
 - arguments against Epicureans’ position 108–10
 - arguments against the intermediate position (attributed to Strato) 110–11
 - arguments against the Stoics that all three components infinitely divisible 104–8
 - conclusion, and the sceptical outcome 112
 - intermediate position that some are infinitely divisible and some are not 110–11
 - three components of motion and options concerning their divisibility 104
 - transition to Epicurean position that all three components are indivisible 108
 - earth in motion 113
 - initial observation that positive and negative positions are equal strength 92–3
 - motion of heavenly bodies 8, 11, 20
 - motionless of unlimited things 32–3
 - objections against motion based on conception and verdict on who is vulnerable 90–2
 - positive side: experience favors the existence of motion 93–4
 - standstill 89–90, 96, 129

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51391-3 - Sextus Empiricus: Against the Physicists

Richard Bett

Index

More information

Index

175

- three possible positions on motion: positive, negative and suspensive 89–90
- “transitional” motion, focus on 88–9
- types of motion 88–9
- universe in motion 19
- what is by nature light travels up 82–3, 84
- world’s motion see world
- Mutschmann, H. xxv
- mutually exclusive and jointly exhaustive alternatives 32–3, 45–9
- myths
 - arguments for the existence of gods “from the agreement among all humans” 17–18
 - poets’ myth-making 39
- names 54, 63
 - for parts of the intangible nature 81
- Nile 6, 38
- number 57–8, 59–60, 61, 125–37
 - arguments against the Pythagorean position 132–7
 - additional difficulties stemming from notion of participation 134–5
 - difficulties about the construction of numbers 137
 - distinction between numbers and things numbered/argument against 132–3
 - numbers cannot be apprehended by sense-perception or thought 135–6
 - Plato’s difficulty about the causes of number 136–7
 - transition 132
 - introduction 125–6
 - Pythagorean position: numbers are the principle of everything 68, 126–32
 - general considerations about what a principle must be like 126–8
 - roles the principles play in the cosmos 130–2
 - three kinds ultimately relate back to the principles of numbers 129–30
 - threefold distinction of basic kinds 128–9
 - time as the number of the first and later in motion 113, 122
 - time in relation to number 120
- Ocellos of Lucania 138–9
- Oenopides of Chios 67–8
- “On Elements” (Sextus) 82
- On the Soul* (Plato) 132, 135–6
- opposites 129–30
- Orpheus 5–6
- Orphics* (Onomacritus) 67–8
- Outlines of Pyrrhonism (PH)* (Sextus) viii
 - better argumentative effectiveness in PH than in M 7–11 xxiv, xxi–xxii
- and Against the Physicists xx–xxiv
- as an outline account xxiv
- pain 34–5
 - only experienced by mortals 17–18
 - and painlessness 129
- Parmenides of Elea 4, 89–90
- past, present and future see also under time
- perfectives and continuatives 97–8, 99–100
- Peripatetics 62
 - motion 89
 - place 86–7
- perishing see coming into being and perishing
- Persians deifying fire 9
- Pherecydes of Syros 67
- Photius x–xi, xxii–xxiii
- piety 27
 - impiety of killing and eating animals 28
 - impiety in myth-making 39
- place 81–8
 - concepts of place and their relation to neighboring concepts 81–2
 - meaning of place, void and space 81
 - whether there is place 82–8
 - arguments against the existence of place 85–6
 - arguments in favour of the existence of place 82–3
 - Aristotelian objection, and response to it 86–8
 - initial argument for inconclusiveness of positive arguments 83–5
 - transition to the opposing arguments 82
 - transition to subject to motion 88
- plants
 - animals’ superiority over 26
 - cause 40–1, 44
 - existing in virtue of own individuality 128–9
 - no justice towards plants and stones 29
 - and numbers 132–3
 - whole and part 65
- Plato viii, 25, 82, 83–4, 133
 - existence of god 17
 - arguments for the existence of gods/arguments from design 24–5
 - founded the Academy xiii
- Ideas
 - incorporeal, subsisting before bodies 127
 - as principle of everything for Platonists 68
- number 135–6
 - difficulty about the causes of number 136–7
- time 122
- poetry
 - god clothed in authority in great poetry 17
 - Hades 17
 - myth-making of poets 39

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51391-3 - Sextus Empiricus: Against the Physicists

Richard Bett

Index

More information

176

Index

- Polyclitus 22
 Poseidon 6, 37–8
 Posidonius 68
 primary/simple bodies and elements 23, 37
 atoms see atoms
 cause 44
 elements
 distinction between believers in corporeal and incorporeal elements 67–8 elements from which universe came into being, survey of views on 137–9
 in motion 94, 96
 principles
 focus on principles 3
 general distinction between active and material
 principles 4–5
 Prodicus of Ceos 6, 13–14
 prophecy 29
 souls prophesying the future 7
Pros mathêmatikous/Against the Learned (M 1–6) (Sextus) ix–x
 and Against the Physicists xvi–xviii
 Protagoras of Abdera 15–16
Purrôneioi Logoi (Pyrrhonist Discourses)
 (Aenesidemus) x–xi
 Pyrrho of Elis vii, x
 Pyrrhonists/ Pyrrhonist tradition and the Academy xiii
 Aenesidemus as founding member x–xi
 Diogenes Laertius' summary xviii inspired by Pyrrho vii, x and medical Empiricism vii, vii–viii
 and Methodists vii–viii Pyrrhonist scepticism differing from contemporary scepticism xi–xii Pyrrhonist scepticism as an improvement on state of mind and a way of life xiii
 and Sextus Empiricus see Sextus Empiricus sources as common property xix Pythagoras
 body 68–9
 justice towards non-rational animals
 28–9
 motion 89
 Pythagoreans xvii
 existence of god 17
 numbers see number
 Saturninus viii, xviii
Sceptical Treatises (Sextus) viii, ix, viii–ix sceptics vii
 cause 40
 claiming inspiration from Pyrrho of Elis vii
 motion 90, 97
 place and void 85
 Pyrrhonist tradition see Pyrrhonists/ Pyrrhonist tradition
 sceptical Academy xiii–xiv
 Sextus Empiricus as see Sextus Empiricus suspension of judgement 39, 82
 whether there is a god 16
 suspension of judgement on 39
 whole and part 62
 senses and sense-perception 30 animals differing from non-animals in having
 sense-perception 31
 ascribing to god extra senses 31
 five human senses 31
 motion 92–3
 numbers cannot be apprehended by sense-perception or thought 135–6 sight 31
 taste 30–1
Sexti Empirici Opera (Mutschmann) xxv
 Sextus Empiricus
 Against the Arithmeticians ix, xix, xvi–xviii
 Against the Astrologers ix
 Against the Ethicists see Against the Ethicists
 Against the Geometers ix, xix, xvi–xviii
 Against the Grammarians ix, xvi–xvii
 Against the Learned see Pros mathêmatikous
 (Against the Learned) (M)
 Against the Logicians see Against the Logicians
 Against the Musicians ix, xvi–xvii
 Against the Physicists see Against the Physicists
 Against the Rhetoricians ix
 authorial intentions xx–xxiv authorial personality of Sextus' writings
 xix–xx
 character of Sextus' scepticism x–xiii
 and the Academics xiv, 3
 common sense xii, xv
 dogmatists see dogmatists freedom from turmoil as benefit of scepticism xii–xiii
 negative arguments xiv, xxii, xiv–xv, xxii–xxiii
 sceptic's ability in designing arguments
 xi, xii
 as sceptic and Pyrrhonist vii, viii, x, xviii, vii–viii
 Sextus' understanding of Pyrrhonism xi, xiv, xxii, xi–xii, xii–xiii, xiv–xv, xxii–xxiii suspension of judgement xi, xii, xiii, xv life and works vii–x
 medical practitioner of Empiricist school vii writings largely unnoticed in intellectual circles viii
 writings widely read in early modern period
 viii

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51391-3 - Sextus Empiricus: Against the Physicists

Richard Bett

Index

More information

Index

177

- Outlines of Pyrrhonism* see Outlines of Pyrrhonism (PH)
- Skeptika Hupomnēmata/Sceptical Treatises* viii, ix, viii–ix
- use of earlier sources xx, xviii–xx
- Sextus and Diogenes drawing on same sources xix, xviii–xix
- whether Sextus a “copyist” xix–xx
- Silloi* (Timon) 15–16
- Skeptika Hupomnēmata/Sceptical Treatises* (Sextus) viii, ix, viii–ix
- Socrates 25, 67, 72, 82, 83–4
- dying 52–3, 145
- existence of god 17
- as a human being 133
- questioning Aristodemus 22
- sophists
- cause 40
- motion 93
- souls
- best souls 21
- as cause of living and dying 41
- and god
- arguments against the existence of god 32–3
- conception of god from the soul 7
- greatness of soul 34
- holding together unified bodies 20
- nature of souls 18, 19
- all creating mind in soul and soul in body 24–5
- prophesying the future 7
- world as intelligent and ensouled 24–5
- sources see Sextus Empiricus
- space see place
- speech 29, 36–7, 65, 120, 126
- Stoics
- cause 43
- coming into being of the universe 138
- conception of gods 9
- existence of god 17
- arguments for the existence of gods/arguments from design 25
- god as a live organism 30–2
- justice, humans having 29
- motion 89
- arguments against Stoic position that all components infinitely divisible 104–8
- place, void and space 81
- principle and elements of all things 67–8
- time as incorporeal 120, 122, 123
- two principles, god and quality-less matter 5
- whole and part 62–3
- wise person not yet found 29
- Strato
- motion 110–11
- time 113–14, 122
- strife 4–5, 139
- Studien zu Sextus Empiricus* (Heintz) xxv
- subtraction and addition
- addition, arguments against 61
- coming into being and perishing 140
- conclusion on subtraction and addition 61
- introduction to the subject of subtraction and addition (and change), and its relevance to the question whether anything is affected 54
- motion 95
- subtraction, arguments against 54
- impossibility of subtraction involving any combination of bodily or incorporeal items 54–8
- impossibility of subtraction involving any combination of whole or part 58–60
- transition to the section on whole and part 62
- sun 49–50
- day as the air lit up by the sun 114–15, 121
- as a god 27
- suspension of judgement
- sceptics 39, 82
- Sextus Empiricus xi, xii, xiii, xv
- Symposium Hellenisticum xvi
- Tantalos 17–18
- Thales of Miletus 67, 138
- Theodorus 13–14, 15
- Tiberius viii
- time 112–25
- arguments against time “on the basis of its being” 120–5
- as accident of accidents 121–2, 123–5
- objections to these positions 122–5
- variety of positions on the nature of time 120–2
- causation among simultaneous, earlier or later things 47
- conceptions of time, and objections to them 112–15
- conclusion and transition 125
- days/months 124, 125–6
- day as the air lit up by the sun 114–15, 121
- as god 27
- time different from the appearance of day or night 115
- incorporeal 120, 122
- “main arguments” against time 115–20
- division of time into past, present and future 117–18
- time is neither divisible nor indivisible 116
- time is neither limited nor unlimited 115–16

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51391-3 - Sextus Empiricus: Against the Physicists

Richard Bett

Index

More information

178

Index

- time (cont.)
 - time is non-existent because composed of non-existents 116
 - time is not imperishable and ungenerated or perishable and generated 118–20
 - past, present and future 117–20
 - transition from subject of motion; introduction 112
- Timon of Phlius 15–16, 117
- Tityos 17
- touch
 - body 70–2, 78–9
 - coming into being and perishing 140
 - impossibility of touch 51–2
 - intangible nature devoid of resistant touch 81
- travel see motion
- Tyndareus 10
- universe
 - Chaos as the place that forms a space for the universe 83
 - elements from which universe came into being, survey of views on 137–9
 - falling apart if elementary bodies move towards the limits 96
 - in motion and shaped by design 19
 - principle of the universe 126–7, 128
- vices 21, 33–4, 36
- virtues
 - god as entirely virtuous 33–5
 - further conundrums surrounding god's virtue or lack of it 35–6
- void see place
- water 17–18, 20–1, 40–1, 143–4
 - and air 86–7
 - Chaos preceding 83
 - coming into being of the universe 138–9
 - downward-moving 82–3, 95–6
 - and earth 86–7
 - Egyptians deifying 9
 - existing in virtue of own individuality 128–9
 - and humans 22–3
 - Poseidon as 6
 - as a simple body 23, 37
 - as the principle and element of all things 67–8
 - sun creating vapor 49
 - and time 123
- whole and part 62–7
 - conclusion and transition 66–7
 - dogmatic objections and responses to them 65–6
 - preliminary issues about different philosophers' conceptions of whole and part 62–3
 - whole cannot be distinct from its parts or identical with their totality 63–5
- wisdom 27–8
- world
 - as an animal 30
 - Chaos preceding 83, 84–5
 - endowed with mind 22–3
 - as an ensouled and minded animal 24–5
 - eternal 26
 - held together by nature 20
 - motion 25–6
 - time and the world's motion 112–13
 - perishing and the end of time 115
 - put together at a certain time 112
 - rational and intelligent nature 23–5, 26
 - as a unified body 19–20
- Xenophanes 39, 67, 138
- Xenophon the Socratic 22–3
- Zeno of Citium 23–5, 29–30
- Zeus 10, 37–8, 67–8
- Zeuxis 22