

Contents

| | |
|--|------------------|
| Acknowledgements | page viii |
| I Introduction: impure aesthetics | I |
| PART ONE A SHAKESPEAREAN AESTHETIC: INTO THE WOODS OUTSIDE ATHENS | |
| 2 A Midsummer Night's Dream – eros and the aesthetic | 45 47 |
| 3 Modernity, usury, and art in Timon of Athens | 90 |
| PART TWO THE AESTHETICS OF DEATH AND MOURNING | |
| 4 Hamlet as mourning-play | 133 |
| The aesthetics of the trauerspiel | 133 |
| Hamlet as Trauerspiel | 154 |
| Post-script: Hamlet , subjectivity, and aesthetics | 187 |
| 5 Beautiful death in Romeo and Juliet | 193 |
| Conclusion: the critical present | 225 |
| Bibliography | 240 |
| Index | 257 |