

Contents

List of music examples ix
List of figures xii
Preface xv
List of abbreviations xxi
Photographs of Boulez xxiii

1 Introduction 1

Boulez's compositional path 6
 Sources for theories of musical form 16
 Serialism as musical structuralism 18

PART I FORM AS OPPOSITION IN THE WRITINGS OF PIERRE BOULEZ

2 Writings from the first period: serialist doctrine, the open work and strategies of rhetorical displacement 31

3 A portrait of Webern; a self-portrait of Boulez 41

The Second Cantata 42
 Chronology of writings on Webern and key concepts 44
 Webern vs. Debussy: observable correspondence or imagined encounter? 47
 The turn towards perception 49

4 Form, thematicism and perceptual categories in the writings from the 1970s to the present 53

Lessons for all or personal incantation? 54
 The basic elements of musical language 56
 The new concepts 63
 Concept of form 70
 Lessons of Leçons 78

PART II FORM AS OPPOSITION IN SELECTED WORKS BY PIERRE BOULEZ

5 Analysis by, of, in and according to Boulez 83

Boulezian motivations for analysing Boulez 83
 False or 'mutilating' analysis 88
 Boulez analyses The Rite of Spring 90
 Boulez for the analyst: the didactic work 92

6 Rituel and the architecture of antiphony 100

Presentation 100
 Form 103

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51490-3 - The Musical Language of Pierre Boulez: Writings and Compositions

Jonathan Goldman

Table of Contents

More information

viii

Contents

- Pitch in the répons sections 107
 Structure of verses 113
- 7 Dérive 1 and harmonic control 116
 Presentation 116
 Form 117
 Six harmonic fields 119
 Anticipations, suspensions and the recovery of classical categories 123
 Durations, densities and note hierarchies 124
- 8 Mémoriale and polar mechanics 128
 Presentation 128
     Themes in Mémoriale 129
 Passage from clear to veiled timbre 131
 Paradigmatic analysis 138
     Polar notes 139
     Analysis of pitch content 141
     Durations 146
 Unplugged electronics 148
     Resonator effects 148
     Delay/echo effects 150
     Geometric orchestration 151
 Rhythmic canons 153
- 9 Anthèmes and virtual thematics 160
 Presentation 160
 The virtual theme 163
 Discontinuities: ‘characters’, rhythmic canons and non-retrogradable rhythms 164
 Passage from Anthèmes 1 to Anthèmes 2 169
- 10 Incises and the play of recognition and surprise 174
 Presentation 174
 Annunciatory opening 175
Très lent sections 178
 A paradigmatic–syntagmatic approach to section I, Prestissimo 179
- 11 Boulezian form in theory and practice 186
 Notes 197
 Selected recordings of works studied 213
 Chronological list of works and bibliography of writings classified by work 215
 Bibliography 218
 Index 239