

Index

- Abdi Agha, 209–210
- abduction and false enslavement, 206–211, 213 of indigenous women, 208–210 of Shiites, 207
- Abdülhamid I, 52, 75–76, 172n.64
- Abdülhamid II, 84n.126, 229
- Abdullah, Tatarcık. See Tatarcık Abdullah
- Abdullah, Yenişehirli, 40, 111
- Abdülmecid I, 29–30, 123, 166, 227
- Abkhaz slaves. See Circassian slaves
- “Abode of Islam” (Dar el-Islam), 8–9
- “Abode of Peace” or “Conciliation” (Dar el-Sulh), 8–9
- “Abode of War” (Dar el-Harb), 8–9
- abolition of slavery, 220 opposition to by ulema, 220–226 pressure from Europe, 97–98
- Abyssinian slaves, 118–119
- accommodation, seduction as, 148
- adultery, penalties for, 71n.83, 71, 72
- Adyghe slaves. See Circassian slaves
- African slaves, sub-Saharan in Cairo, 133
 eunuchs
 high position of, 141
 honor given to, 129
 lack of desire to be free, 129 perceived value of, 136–137
 prejudice against, 136–137
 exported to Mediterranean, 132n.124 female, use of spirituality by, 140 freed
 population of, 139
 prejudice against, 139–140, 142
 high death rate of, 118–119
 in Istanbul, 131
 Muslim-born, 210
 perceived value of, 136–137
 population of, 139
 prejudice against, 139–140
 ratio of, 131–133
 social integration of, 141 work tasks of, 128–129
- Ahmed III, 32, 94n.164, 172n.64
- Ahmed Bey, 220
- Ahmed Bey, Arap, 140
- Ahmed, Beyazizade, 70n.76, 71–72, 72n.87
- Ahmed Pasha, Kalaylıkoz, 59n.34, 80, 80n.117, 90, 90n.144
- Ahmed Pasha, Melek, 143
- Ahmed Pasha, Pabuççuoğlu, 175
- Ahmad Sirhindi, 41n.44
- Ahmed Vefik Pasha, 230n.48
- Aleppo, slave population of, 130
- Ali, Çatalcalı, 146, 161–162
- Ali Pasha, Benderli, 102n.14
- al-Marghinani, ‘Ali ibn Abi Bakr, 96, 206
- Amcazade (Köprülü) Hüseyin, 59n.34
- Andrews, Walter G., 102
- Anglo-Ottoman Convention of Balta Limanı, 30
- antiabolitionist sentiment, 219–226
- apprenticeships, slavery equated with, 127
- askeriye*. See ruling class
- Atayı, Nevizade, 64–65, 67
- “Auspicious Event.” See Janissary corps, abolishment of
- authority of males over females, 16 of ruling class (askeriye), 10–11
- Avrat Pazarı* (Women’s Market), 190
- Ayşe court case, 209–210
- Baer, Marc David, 42
- Barbary pirates, 144
- Behar, Cem, 147, 226n.34
- Ben-Naeh, Yaron, 146
- Berkes, Niyazi, 31, 225
- bid’a* (religious innovation), 39–40
- Birgili Mehmed. See Mehmed ibn Pir Ali, Birgili
- black slaves. See African slaves
- Bon, Ottaviano, 116

272 Index

- boots, 78
Bowring, John, 133
boys
 devşirme, 115, 192
 as gifts, 191–192
 relationships with senior males, 186, 187–188 sexual use of, 186–188
 as threatening to morals, 183 training as soldiers and courtiers, 116 transvestite dancing boys (köçek), 74–75 bride gift (mehr), 167 Bursa
 female-male slave ratios in, 194 former slave and slave population of, 130 Busbecq, Ogier Ghislen de, 11, 116, 144 Cairo
 female-male slave ratios in, 196
 slave population of, 133 capture of slaves, 142–147 careers. See employment cariye. See female slaves Cevdet Pasha, Ahmed, 83, 222n.18
Chardin, Sir John, 117
children. See also boys; female slaves; male slaves abandonment of in Europe, 174 girl slaves
 abduction and false enslavement of, 211–212
 for future marriage, 127, 167–168
 as gifts, 191–192, 198
 harem-reared, 168
 humiliation of at market, 204
 selling price of, 192
 sexual use of, 198–199, 203
 vying for master's attention, 170
 prices for, 194
 rearing by owner's family, 166–167 sold by parents, 127, 211, 212n.84 Turkish affection for, 173–174 of ümm-i veled, 109–115, 162–164, 180–181 Christians
 conversion to Islam, 122–123
 in devşirme, 159–160
 head coverings of, 79, 80–81
 self-regulation among, 9
 as slaveholders, 145–147
 wealth of merchants, 38
Çiçek, Kemal, 49, 94
Circassian slaves, 127n.103, 126–127, 128 female, 155
 freed, 135
 Muslim-born, 210
 sold by parents, 211
“circle of equity,” 10
city judges. See kadıs classes. See social classes clothing. See dress; sartorial regulation coercion, 151–152
coitus interruptus, 112
Collection of Judicial Ordinances (Mecelle-i Ahkâm-i Adliye), 221–222 collective rebellion, 148–149 colleges. See religious colleges (medreses) color, tensions and rivalries over, 136–142.
 See also black slaves commerce
 expanding relationships with Europe, 35 and “imperialism of free trade,” 30–31 commoners. See lower class (reaya) concubines. See also harems difference from family members, 162–163
 disaccord with wives, 174–179
 not in majority of families, 183–184
 privileges of, 130
 renaming of, 157
 of supposed reformists, 230
 training of, 115–116
conditional contracts (T., mükatebe; Ar., mukataba), 108–109, 180 confiscations. See property seizures (T., müsadere; Ar., musadara) Crimean Tatars, 142 criticism of the empire, 63–66 Dâi (poet), 189
danişmends (students), 4–6
Dar el-Harb (“Abode of War”), 8–9
Dar el-Islam (“Abode of Islam”), 8–9, 224–225 Dar el-Sulh (“Abode of Peace” or “Conciliation”), 8–9 debt of slave owners, 112–113
Dernschwam, Hans, 137–138
Derviş Abdullah, 142
devşirme boys, 115, 192 diploma examination (rüüs imtihanı), 4 discrimination. See racial tensions and rivalries divorce, 171, 175
Djavidan Hanum [Hanım], 175
d’Ohsson, Mouradgea, 87
Douglas, Mary, 59
dress. See also sartorial regulation distinctions among religious groups, 9 from Europe, 79
 as form of identification, 47 of Mahmud II (Sultan), 22–23, 33, 34 of officials, 226
 in private homes, 58–59 regional, 48
 social status reflected by, 48–49 of sultans, 51–52

- Duben, Alan, 147, 226n.34
- economic status of empire
and “imperialism of free trade,” 30–31
weakening of, 23
- Edhem, Ibrahim, 143
- Edib, Halide, 151, 176
- Edirne
female-male slave ratios in, 194–195
slave population of, 130
- education
and employment, 4, 4n.10 social status of students, 5
- Egypt
French occupation of, 23
Kadızedeli disturbances in, 42 slavery in, 127, 131, 146, 181, 182, 196, 210–211, 231 brutality of slave merchants, 181 defense of, 117, 119–120
in military, 106, 128–129
naming of slaves, 157
number of slaves, 133
premature slave mortality, 119
- elite class. See ruling class (askeriye)
- emancipation of slaves, 121–126 assimilation into upper class, 130, 133–134, 142–143
conditional promises for, 108–109, 161–162 due to master-slave marriage, 134 expectations and experiences of freedom, 133–135
and laws of inheritance, 134–135
obstacles to for women, 179–180
social networks of freed slaves, 135
unintended, 113–114
for valorous conduct in military, 123
- employment
and education, 4, 4n.10
of lower class (reaya), 10
- enslavement. See abduction and false enslavement; slavery; slaves
- Erdem, Y. Hakan, 100n.10, 216n.3
- escape of slaves. See fugitivism
- Esir Pazarı*. See Slave Market
- esirci dellalları*. See slave brokers
- Esirci Esnafı* (Slave Dealers’ Guild), 216
- Esma, Küçük, 164, 168
- Esma, Büyük, 164
- estates. See property seizures (T., müsadere; Ar., musadara)
- Ethiopian slaves, 137
- ethnic tensions and rivalries, 136–142
- ethnicities of slaves, 106
- eunuchs
high position of, 141
honor given to, 136
lack of desire to be free, 129
prejudice against, 136–137
value of, 136–137
- Europe
abolitionism in, 97–98
child abandonment in, 174
clothing from, 79
pressure against slavery from, 219–220 slaves taken from, 130–131 conversion to Islam, 122–123
ratio of, 131–133
value of, 137
- Evliya Çelebi, 65, 67, 137, 187n.119
- executions of female slaves, 178–179
- expansionism, diminished efforts toward, 6–7
- ex-slaves. See freed slaves
- false enslavement. See abduction and false enslavement
- “family incorporation” model of slavery, 159–162, 163, 169
- family life. See also harems laws regarding, 221–222 patriarchalism in, 16–19
- fathers. See parents; patriarchalism
- Faroqhi, Suraiya, 157
- female slaves (cariye) abduction and false enslavement of girls, 211–212
indigenous women, 208–210 arguments in favor of, 230–232 children of, 109–115, 162–164
- concubines
difference from family members, 162–163
disaccord with wives, 174–179
not in majority of families, 183–184
privileges of, 130
renaming of, 157
of supposed reformists, 230
training of, 115–116
- continuation of during reform era, 234–235
- emancipation of, obstacles to, 179–180
- female-male slave ratios, 194–195, 196–197
- for future marriage, 127
as gifts, 191–192, 198
- in harems
competition within, 169
privileges of slaves in, 130, 168–169 raising for, 168
rules of etiquette within, 169–179
slaves raised to be part of, 168
of supposed reformists, 230

274 Index

- female slaves (cariye) (cont.)
 humiliation of at market, 204 inheritance laws regarding, 112–113 less fugitivism among, 149 market for, 189–190, 195–196, 197 marriage to masters, 134
 mother of master's child (ümm-i veled), 109–115, 162–164, 180–181 naming of, 156–158
 prejudice against, 139
 prices for, 193–194
 prostitution of, 199–206
 legal aspects of, 203, 205–206
 by women, 199–202
 selling price of, 192
 sexual abuse of, 197–199, 203 sexual relations with owners, 109–115, 180–181
 sexual seduction by, 148 treatment at market, 203–204 use of by legal scholars (ulema), 222–224 viewed as inferior to male slaves, 191–193, 193n.18, 195, 213
 violence among, 233–234
 vying for master's attention, 170
- Feyzullah (Şeyhülislam), 223
- Filipovic, Nenad, 76
- foreigners, as slaves recruitment of, 98–99, 101
 rights of, 107
- former slaves. See freed slaves
- free trade, 30–31
- freed slaves
 African or black, 139–140, 142
 population of, 139
 prejudice against, 139–140
 assimilation into upper class, 130, 133–134, 142–143
 Circassian, 135
 expectations and experiences of, 133–135 gifts made to, 124–125
 and laws of inheritance, 134–135
 marriage of, 164
 role in capturing/selling slaves, 144 serving in military, 139
 social networks of, 135
- freeing of slaves. See emancipation of slaves
- Fuad Pasha, Mehmed, 11n.26, 230–232
- fugitivism, 31, 149–150
- galley slaves, 115, 138, 149, 195n.25, 195n.26
- “Gazette of Events” (Takvim-i Vekayi), 24–26
- Garnett, Lucy M. J., 175
- Georgians
 female slaves, 155
 as freed slaves, 155
- gifts
 given to ümm-i veled, 163n.27 made to freed slaves, 124–125 slaves as, 155–156, 191–192, 198, 227
- Giray, Halim, 151
- government officials. See also ruling class dress of, 226
 possession of slaves by, 226–227
- gravestones, 79
- Greek slaves, 182
- Gülhane Rescript of 1839, 29–30
- Gürcü İsmail Pasha, 143
- hadith*
 on children of women slaves, 111 passages regarding women, 16
- Halil Efendi, Çerkes, 165
- Halil Rifat Pasha, Damad, 143, 166
- hangings, 178–179
- hanım*, 165
- harems. See also concubines
 competition within, 169
 privileges of slaves in, 130, 168–169
 rules of etiquette within, 169–179
 slaves raised to be part of, 168
 of supposed reformists, 230
- Hasan, Beyazi, 72n.88
- Hasan Pasha, Küçük, 209
- Hatt-ı Hümayun* (Reform Decree) of 1856, 29–30
- Hay, Douglas, 91
- Hayreddin Pasha, Tunuslu, 143
- head coverings, 79–81, 82, 85–86
- Hedaya* (al-Marghinani), 206
- Hill, Aaron, 45, 78, 80
- homosexuality, 74–75, 186–188
- horseback riding, 82–83
- hostage taking, 191
- Hunt, Alan, 94
- Hürrem. See Roxelana
- Hürşid Ahmed Pasha, 143
- Hüsrev Pasha, Mehmed 143
- husbands. See patriarchalism, in family
- Hüseyn, Hezarfen, 65
- Hüseyn Pasha, Küçük, 143
- Huzur Dersleri* (Imperial Command Lectures) of 1796, 15
- hıyar-ı ayıb* (“option-of-defect”) provision, of shari’ah law, 203
- Ibn Taymiyya, Taqi al-Din Ahmad, 40, 40n.42, 80n.115
- İbrahim I, 55n.24
- İbrahim Pasha, Nevşehirli, 82
- Imber, Colin, 130
- Imperial Command Lectures (Huzur Dersleri) of 1796, 15
- “imperialism of free trade,” 30–31

- İnalçık, Halil, 108, 144, 195
- inheritance, 145
and freed slaves, 134–135
Küçük Kadın account, 166
and masters, 134–135
Qur'an on, 113
and slaves, 112–113, 162
- Iranian slaves, 124, 207
- Islam. See also law, Islamic (shari'ah); Muslims conversion to, 38, 49n.14, 122–123, 125, 158 as official religion, 9 and religious innovation (Ar., bid'a), 39–40
- Islamic realm (Dar el-Islam), 224–225
- Ismail, Mawlay, 196
- Istanbul, 1–6
in 1820s and 1830s, 34–35
female-male slave ratios in, 194, 196
former slave and slave population of, 130–131, 197n.34 general population of, 1–3 male dominance in, 2
military/paramilitary population of, 3–4 minorities of, 66
mosques in, 34–35
private slave-selling enterprises in, 216–217 religious colleges (medreses) in, 4–6
Slave Dealers' Guild (Esirci Esnafı), 216
Slave Market (Esir Pazarı), 189–190
closing of, 216n.3, 216, 217 treatment of females slaves at, 203–204 social order in, 6, 52–54 ulema in, 5
- Şivekâr court case, 207–208
- Janissary corps
abolishment of, 24–26, 34
authority over reaya, 105–106
role in military triumphs, 103
- Jews
head coverings of, 79, 80–81
self-regulation among, 9
as slave sellers, 200n.44
as slaveholders, 145–147
wealth of merchants, 38
- judges. See kadıs; legal scholars
- kadıaskers* (chief justices of the army)
- Kadın, Küçük, 155, 158, 164, 165–166, 171
- kadın*, 165
- kadı*s (religious court judges), 4
- Kadıza Mehmed. See Mehmed, Kadıza
- Kadıza delis
disturbances from, 41n.43, 39–41, 44
leaders from provinces, 65–66
- Kalpaklı, Mehmet, 102
- Katib Çelebi, 1, 40
- Keller, Gottfried, 45
- kidnapping. See abduction and false enslavement
- Kleider Machen Leute* (Keller), 45
- köçek* (transvestite dancing boys), 74–75
- Koçi Bey, 11–12, 69
- Kömürçüyan, Eremya Çelebi, 42, 192
- Konya, female-male slave ratios in, 194
- Kopytoff, Igor, 159
- Kösem, Mahpeyker, 68–69
- kul*. See royal slaves
- Kunt, İ. Metin, 135
- Larguèche, Abdelhamid, 220
- law, Islamic (shari'ah) coitus interruptus and slave women, 112 effects of Tanzimat on, 220–222
on homicide, 178–179
on inheritance, 134–135, 145
and freed slaves, 134–135
and masters, 134–135
and slaves, 112–113, 162
legal appeals against mistreatment, 150
on non-Muslim ownership of Muslim slaves, 146–147 and the Kadızadellis, 43 “option-of-defect” (hıyar-ı ayıb) provision, 203 sanction of slavery, 219–220 separation from political law (kanun), 220–222 students of, in Istanbul, 4–6 on treatment of slaves, 13–15, 107–108 law, political (kanun). See also sartorial regulation increased separation from shari'ah law, 220–222 sumptuary ordinances and antiabolitionism, 225–226
and economy, 54–55
formulation of, 56–57
increase in during post-1770 epoch, 60–63
of Mahmud II, 86–95
penalties for, 60–61, 62
on physical mobility/socializing by women, 55–56 promotion of core Ottoman values by, 62
of Selim III, 86–95
on transportation, 55, 55n.24
- Lebibe Hanım, 233–234
- legal scholars (ulema), 5
clothing of, 92
effects of Tanzimat on, 220–226

276 Index

- legal scholars (ulema) (cont.)
 and the Kadızadeli, 39
 and Nakşbendi Sufi movement, 70
 nepotistic entitlement, 36 opposition to abolition, 220–226 opposition to death punishment for adultery, 71, 72 and use of slaves, 147, 223n.24, 222–223, 224
- legislation. See law, political (kanun)
- legitimacy, state, 6–7, 30–31, 75. See also social order; sumptuary ordinances
- lower class (reaya), 9–13
 abuse by military, 206–211 authority of military over, 105–106 authority of sultan's slaves over, 101–102 becoming part of ruling class (askeriye), 11–12
 employment of, 10
 “privileged” members of, 12–13
 clothing of, 12–13
 dangers faced by, 82–83
 religion of, 10
- Lütfi Pasha, 143
- Mahidevran, 169
- Mahmud I, 187
- Mahmud II, 22, 23, 33, 52
 abolishment of Janissary corps by, 3–4, 34 career posts during reign of, 4 clothing of, 22–23, 33, 34, 92
 death of children of, 172n.64 new army established by, 34 reforms by, 24–30, 78, 230 on safeguarding his subjects, 22 property confiscations by, 28 rejuvenating domestic manufacturing by, 32 search for consorts for, 227–229 secularization by, 224
 social regulation during reign of, 32, 52, 214 sumptuary ordinances of, 86–95
ulema during, 220
 use of women as gifts, 227
- Mahmud Urmevi, 68n.73
- male comradeship, 19–20
- male slaves
 demand for, 191–195
 female-male slave ratios, 194–195, 196–197
 viewed as superior to female slaves, 191–195
- manumission of slaves. See emancipation of slaves
- marriage of slaves
 freed, 164
 to masters, 134
 to other slaves, 162
 to owner's son or relative, 167–168
- masters. See slaveholders
- Mecelle-i Ahkâm-i Adliye* (Collection of Judicial Ordinances), 221–222
- medreses* (religious colleges), 4–6
- Mehmed II, 108
- Mehmed IV, 41
- Mehmed Ali Pasha, 30, 119, 125–126, 181, 196
- Mehmed Arif, 164, 233–234, 234n.62
- Mehmed Emin Recai Efendi, el-Hajj, 223n.25
- Mehmed Hüresv Pasha, 135, 143–144, 150, 196
- Mehmed ibn Pir Ali, Birgili, 40, 40n.42, 55–56, 70
- Mehmed, Kadızade, 39, 41, 65, 70
- Mehmed Pasha, Defterdar, Sari, 69
- Mehmed Pasha, Sokollu, 143
- Mehmed, son of Abdullah, 209–210
- Mehmed Tahir, 234n.65
- Mehmed, Üstüvani, 42, 65
- Mehmed, Vani, 42, 65–66, 70n.76, 71, 72, 188
- mehr* (bride gift), 167
- Meillassoux, Claude, 123, 127
- Mekkizade Mustafa Asım. See Mustafa Asım, Mekkizade
- Melek Hanım, 119, 170, 170n.56
- memory repression, 150–151
- men. See male slaves
- Meriwether, Margaret Lee, 130
- Mernissi, Fatima, 38
- Midhat Efendi, Ahmed, 174, 231n.52
- Midhat Pasha, Ahmed, 102n.14, 167, 171–172, 229, 229n.44
- Miers, Suzanne, 159
- military. See also ruling class (askeriye) abuse and enslavement of lower class, 206–211 influence of Kadızadeli on, 41
 Janissary corps
 abolishment of, 24–26, 34
 authority over reaya, 105–106
 role in military triumphs, 103 slaves serving in, 101, 102–103
 emancipation through valorous conduct, 123 freed, treatment of, 139 outside of Ottoman center, 196
 “Trained, Victorious Troops of [the Prophet] Muhammad,” 34 mobility of women, 55–56
 monogamy, 183–184, 230
- Montagu, Mary Wortley, 86
- Morocco
 defense of slavery, 118
 importation of slaves, 182

- slaves as harem intimates, 155 slaves in military of, 128–129, 196 slave routes to, 118 mosques, 34–35
 mother of master's child (ümm-i veled), 109–115, 162–164, 180–181
 Muhammad (Prophet), acceptance of slavery, 219–220
mükatebe (Ar., mukataba) Murad IV, 41
 Mumcu, Ahmet, 102
 Murad Mehmed, Damadzade, Kadiasker, 222–224
 murders, 176n.83, 176, 178–179. See also executions of female slaves müsadere (property seizure), 26–30 Muslims, 8–11
 in Istanbul, 3
 Kadızadelis
 disturbances from, 41n.43, 39–41, 44
 leaders from provinces, 65–66
 reactions to non-Muslim prosperity, 32–34, 37–38
 self-regulation among, 9 Shiites, enslavement of, 207
 as slaveholders, 145–147
 Sunnis
 enslavement by Safavids, 124 Kadızadeli disturbances, 39–44
 territories ruled by, 8–9
 Mustafa III, 28, 32, 52, 75–76, 80
 Mustafa IV, 52, 86n.138
 Mustafa Asım, Mekkizade, 153n.2, 153,
 154n.3, 159, 165–167, 169, 234
 Mustafa Çelebi ibn Abdullah, 208
 Mustafa Pasha, Daltaban, 59n.34
 Mustafa Pasha, Merzifonlu Kara, 72n.87, 143
 Nabi (poet), 64–65, 67, 168
 Naime, Fatma, 171–172
 Nakşbendi Sufis, 68, 70, 71, 153–154
 naming of slaves, 156–158
 Nasna bint Abdullah, 164
 nepotistic entitlement, 36
 Nicolay, Nicolas de, 137, 204 non-Muslims, 8–11
 concern about changing visibility of, 44
 conversion to Islam, 122–123, 125, 158
 Muslim reaction to growing prosperity of, 32–34, 37–38
 physicians, dangers faced by, 82–83 recruitment as slaves, 98–99, 101
 as slaveholders, 145–147
 Nurbanu, 68
 odalisques (T., odatkı), 115–116 officers of state. See ruling class (askeriye) officials. See government officials Ömer Hulusi, Samanizade, 166
 open slave system, 99 “option-of-defect” (hıyar-ı ayıb) provision, of
shari'ah law, 203
 Ortaylı, İlber, 174
 Osman II, 64, 105
 Osman III, 52, 73–75, 187
 Osman Ağa of Temesvar, 122 outsider brides, 167–168 ownership of slaves. See slaveholders Öztürk, Said, 108
 Pardoe, Julia, 127, 168, 173–174, 202 parents
 affection for children, 173–174 owner and slave as, 109–115 selling of children by, 127, 211, 212n.84 Parlatur, İsmail, 173n.66
 paternity, acknowledgment of, 111n.36, 109–111, 115, 180–181
 patriarchalism, 18–21
 in family, 16–19
 and religion, 18–19
 Patterson, Orlando, 135, 167, 203
 Peirce, Leslie P., 104
 penalties
 for adultery, 71n.83, 71, 72 for breaking sumptuary ordinances, 60–61, 62, 90–92
 executions, 102, 178–179
 hidden from public view, 116–117
 for serious crimes, 178–179 for women's presence in public, 74 Pertev Pasha, Mehmed Said, 26, 26n.8 physical mobility of women, 55–56 pirates, 144, 191
 poet-critics
 criticism of sexual impropriety, 67 criticism of the Ottoman state, 64–65 political law. See law, political (kanun) polygamous/polygynous households. See harems
 Powell, Eve Troutt, 136 prejudice, racial/ethnic, 136–142 prices for slaves, 138, 147, 193n.18, 192–193, 194
 private slave-selling enterprises, 216–217
 “privileged” reaya, 12–13 property seizure (T., müsadere; Ar., musadara), 26–30
 prostitution of female slaves, 199–206 legal aspects of, 203, 205–206
 by women, 199–202
 psychological injury sustained by slaves, 150–151
 public awareness of slavery, 144–145 punishment. See penalties

278 Index

- queen mothers (valide sultans), 68–69
- Qur'an
 on inheritance rights, 113 passages about women, 16 on sexual access to slaves, 109
 sanction of slavery, 219–220
- racess of slaves, 106
- racial tensions and rivalries, 136–142
- Ragib Pasha, Koca, 28, 75n.97
- ransoming, 191
- reaya*. See lower class
- rebellion. See also resistance to slavery collective, 148–149
 led by students, 5
- Receb Pasha, Arap, 140
- Reform Decree (Hatt-ı Hümayun) of 1856, 29–30
- reforms, 24–31 See also Tanzimat reform era continuation of female slavery during, 234–235
 effect of expanding commerce with Europe on, 35
 end of property seizures, 26–30 Gülhane Rescript of 1839, 29–30
 led by sultans, 24–30
 monogamy as barometer of, 230
 Reform Decree (Hatt-ı Hümayun) of 1856, 29–30
 sartorial changes, 91–95
- regulations. See law, political (kanun)
- Reşid Pasha, Mustafa, 230, 230n.48, 232n.56
- religion. See also Christians; Islam; Jews; Muslims; non-Muslims conversion, 38, 49n.14, 122–123, 125
 defense of slavery
 distinctions between religious groups, 9 Kadızadeli disturbances, 39–44
 of lower class (reaya), 10 official religion of Empire, 9 and patriarchalism, 18–19 proselytizing, 49
 and sartorial regulation, 76
 self-regulation among religious groups, 9 social classes based on, 8–11
- religious colleges (medreses), 4–6
- religious court judges (kadıs), 4
- religious innovation (Ar., bid'a), 39–40
- resale, vulnerability of slaves to, 161–163
- resistance to slavery versus accommodation, 148
 fugitivism, 31, 149–150
 legal appeals against mistreatment, 150
Risale-i Garibe, 153
- Roxelana (Hürrem), 14, 154, 169, 183
- royal sisters, 227–229
- royal slaves (kul), 101–102, 103–104. See also Janissary corps
- authority over reaya, 101–102
 importance of term kul, 15
- Ruheddin Efendi, 230n.48
- ruling class (askeriye), 9–13
 assimilation of freed slaves into, 130, 133–134, 142–143
 lower-ranking members of, 13
 nepotistic entitlement, 36 non-Muslims in, 9n.22
 possession of slaves by, 226–227
 selection of officials, 11–12
 social recruitment by, 11–12
 status of wives and daughters of, 16, 231–234
- runaway slaves. See fugitivism
- Rüstem Pasha, 143
- Sabean, David Warren, 3
- Saçlı, Sheikh, 22, 34
- Safavids, 124, 208
- Safiye, 68
- Sagaster, Börte, 173n.66
- Sahillioğlu, Halil, 193
- Saliha Sultan, 165
- sartorial regulation, 45–59 changes in, 47–48
 clothing distinctions, 49
 embassy personnel, 49
 fabric, 78–79
 footwear, 75, 78
 head coverings, 79–82
 for Muslims versus non-Muslims, 78 use of religion to support, 76
 for women, 73, 75
 head dressings, 85–86
 individualized fashion, 77
 penalties for offenses, 90–92
 revealing clothing, 77
 sexual inpropriety as reason for, 93
- Saydam, Abdullah, 49
- Saz, Leyla (Leyla Hanım), 119, 139, 169, 170, 198–199
- schools. See religious colleges (medreses)
- self-enslavement, 210n.78, 211, 211n.83
- self-regulation, among religious groups, 9
- Selim III, 52, 76, 77, 86–95, 227 military reconstruction by, 31 reforms by, 24–30, 32
ulema during, 220
- Şemdanizade Süleyman, Fındıklılı, 88n.141, 90
- Şemsigül, 150, 181, 184
- sexual relations, of slaves with owners, 109–115, 180–181. See also concubines; harems; prostitution of female slaves
- sexuality as empowerment instrument of men, 186–188
 of women, 183–186

- shari'ah*. See law, Islamic Shepherd, Gill, 204, 226
 Shiites, enslavement of, 207, 208 shoes, 78
 Simeon, Polonyalı, 204 sisters, royal, 227–229
 Siyavuş Pasha, Abaza, 134, 185
 Slade, Adolphus, 115, 139, 175, 187, 187n.121, 204 slave brides, 167–168 slave brokers (esirci dellalları), 143
 female, 200–202, 232
 freed slaves as, 144
 prostitution of slaves by, 199–202
 Slave Dealers' Guild (Esirci Esnafı), 216 slave drovers, 143, 182
 Slave Market (Esir Pazarı), 189–190
 closing of, 216n.3, 216, 217 treatment of female slaves at, 203–204 slaveholders
 freed slaves as, 143–144
 government officials as, 226–227 inheritance rights, 134–135
 as minority, 147
 Muslims vs. non-Muslims, 145–147 slavery. See also abduction and false enslavement; slaves abolition of, 220
 act of enslavement, 117–120
 antiabolitionist sentiment, 219–220 arguments excusing, 96–100, 125–126, 230–232 conditional contracts (mükatebe), 108–109, 180 demography of, 104
 European abolitionism, 97–98
 “family incorporation” model of, 159–162, 163, 169 open system of, 99
 public awareness of, 144–145 resistance to versus accommodation, 148
 fugitivism, 31, 149–150
 legal appeals against mistreatment, 150 sanction of by shari'ah, 219–220 slaves. See also abduction and false enslavement; female slaves; male slaves; slavery advancement to high positions, 101 African or black
 freed, 139–140
 high death rate of, 118–119 perceived value of, 137
 social integration of, 141 capture of, 142–147
 children as, 124, 127, 212n.84 conditional contracts with owners, 108–109 debate over whether beneficial, 117–118 emancipation of, 121–126
 assimilation into upper-class, 130, 133–134, 142–143 black eunuchs' lack of desire for, 129
 conditional promises for, 108–109, 161–162 due to marriage of slaves and masters, 134 expectations and experiences of freedom, 133–135
 and laws of inheritance, 134–135
 obstacles to for women, 179–180
 social networks of freed slaves, 135
 unintended, 113–114
 for valorous conduct in military, 123 ethnicities and races of, 106 general treatment and rights of, 13–15, 107–117
 as gifts, 155–156, 191–192, 198, 227 lack of ownership rights, 101–102 light versus dark skinned, 106 market price of, 138, 147, 192–194 ownership by elites, 226–227
 penalties for
 executions, 102
 hidden from public view, 116–117
 physical abuse of, 107–108 psychological injury sustained by, 150–151 public exhibition of, 144–145 public servants as quasi slaves, 28
 recruitment of, 98–99, 101
 renaming of, 156–158
 royal slaves (kul), 101–102, 103–104. See also Janissary corps authority over reaya, 101–102
 importance of term kul, 15 runaway, 31
 serving in military, 101, 102–103
 emancipation through valorous conduct, 123 freed slaves, treatment of, 139
 outside of Ottoman center, 196 transport from homeland, 117–119, 182 snif. See social classes social classes (snif), 7–18 free individuals, 13–15 gender hierarchization, 16–18 interdependency among lower class (reaya), 9–13
 abuse by military, 206–211 authority of elite slaves over, 101–102, 105–106 becoming part of ruling class (askeriye), 11–12
 employment of, 10
 “privileged” members of, 12–13, 82–83

280 Index

- social classes (sınıf) (cont.)
 religion of, 10
 men versus women, 16–18 Muslim versus non-Muslims, 8–11 overlaps among, 21
 ruling class (askeriye), 9–13
 assimilation of freed slaves into, 130, 133–134, 142–143
 lower-ranking, 13
 non-Muslim, 9n.22
 possession of slaves by, 226–227
 selection of officials, 11–12
 social recruitment by, 11–12
 status of wives/daughters of, 16, 231–234
 slaves, 13–15
 social networks of freed slaves, 135
 social order. See also legitimacy; sartorial regulation; social classes; sumptuary ordinances
 in Istanbul, 52–54
 multiple connotations of, 55
 socializing by women, 55–56 students (danişmend), 4–6 Sturge, Joseph, 219n.10
 Subhi Pasha, Sami Paşazade, 229n.43 sub-Saharan African slaves. See African slaves, sub-Saharan
- Sufis
 and the Kadızadeli, 39, 42, 43
 Nakşbendi Sufis, 68, 70, 71, 153–154
 Süleyman I, 14–15, 23, 54, 153, 154, 169, 183
 Süleyman Agha, Arap, 212n.84
 Süleyman Pasha, Azımzade, 186
- sultans, 101
 clothing of, 51–52
 domestic leadership by, 6–7, 75 reformation by, 24–30 slaves of, 101–102, 103–104
 authority over reaya, 101–102
 importance of term kul, 15
- sumptuary ordinances. See also sartorial regulation
 and antiabolitionism, 225–226
 and economy, 54–55
 formulation of, 56–57
 increase in during post-1770 epoch, 60–63
 of Mahmud II, 86–95
 penalties for, 60–61, 62
 on physical mobility/socializing by women, 55–56
 promotion of core Ottoman values by, 62
 of Selim III, 86–95
 on transportation, 55, 55n.24
- Sünbül Molla Ali, 135, 140, 141
- Sunnis
 enslavement by Safavids, 124
 Kadızadeli disturbances, 39–44
 territories ruled by, 8–9
- Takvim-i Vekayi* (“Gazette of Events”), 24–26
- Tanzimat reform era
 effects on legal scholars (ulema), 220–226
 Gülhane Rescript of 1839, 29–30
- Tatarcık Abdullah, 69
- Tatars, 142, 151
- taxation, 10–11, 11n.28, 133–134
- Tezcan, Baki, 140
- Toledano, Ehud R., 100n.10, 104, 140n.160, 181
- Tott, [François] Baron de, 317.150
- “Trained, Victorious Troops of [the Prophet] Muhammad,” 34
- Translation Bureau, 26
- transportation of slaves, 117–119
 sumptuary ordinances on, 55, 55n.24
- transvestite dancing boys (köçek), 74–75
- Treaty of Karlowitz, 122
- Tulip Era, 60
- Tunisia, continued slavery in after abolition, 220
- turbans, 79–80, 86, 92n.158
- Turhan, 68
- Turks, use of word, 136, 136n.143
- Ubcini, Jean-Henri-Abdolonyme, 174, 175, 196–197
- ulema*. See legal scholars
- ümm-i veled* (Ar., umm walad), mother of master’s child, 109–115, 162–164, 180–181
- upper class. See ruling class (askeriye)
- Üveysi (poet), 64–65, 67
- valide sultans* (queen mothers), 68–69
- villagers, abuse by military, 206–211
- violence. See also executions of female slaves; penalties
 female-on-female, 176–179, 233–234 against women, 185–186
- viziers
 executed while in office, 102n.13
 as slaveholders, 143–144
- Wahhabi movement, 70n.77, 234
- wealth of individuals
 Christian and Jewish merchants, 38 effect of transition of reaya to askeriye on, 12
 growing prosperity of non-Muslims, 32–34, 37–38
 lower-ranking askeriye, 13 measures to protect, 37
- Weiner, Annette B., 227

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51583-2 - Women and Slavery in the Late Ottoman Empire: The Design of Difference

Madeline C. Zilfi

Index

More information

- White, Charles, 96, 120, 123, 138, 155, 173, 181, 202
- wives. See also harems; women under authority of males, 16 barren, 173, 174–175
- women. See also concubines; female slaves; harems adultery by, 71–72
barrenness, 173, 174–175
concern about changing visibility of, 44 life stages and exercise of power, 17–18, 18n.49 physical mobility and socializing by, 55–56, 73–75 prostitution of female slaves by, 199–202 royal, 68–69, 231–234 sartorial regulation for, 73, 75
head dressings, 85–86
individualized fashion, 77
penalties for offenses, 90–92
revealing clothing, 77
sexual impropriety as reason for, 93 sexuality as instrument of empowerment of, 183–186 as slave brokers, 200–202 viewed/treated as lesser beings, 16–18. See also patriarchalism violence against, 185–186
Women's Market (Avrat Pazarı), 190
Wright, John, 132
Young Ottomans, 219
Young Turks, 219
Zarinebaf-Shahr, Fariba, 177
Zekiye Hanım, viii, 153–156, 159, 164, 166, 167, 169
Ziba Hanım, 165
Züleyha Hanım, 233–234