

Index

- actions: influence of on thought, 152; and stories, 119, 143–4
 Acts 9:1–6; 19–22 (NIV), 71
 Adams, Richard, 146
 adolescence, and attachment behavior, 62–3
 advertising, 81
 Aesop's fables, 66–7, 142–3
 Allen, Diogenes, 18, 21–2
 altruism, 93
 Alzheimer's disease, 34, 155
 ant colony, as example of dynamical system, 74, 75, 123, 124–6, 127, 129 anthropological dualism, 20 anthropological physicalism, 161
 anticipatory expectations, 89, 90–1 Asperger's syndrome, 34
 attachment theory: and child development, 59–62; openness to change and formation of personhood, 77–8; and spiritual formation, 113–15
 Augustine of Hippo, St., 15, 16, 20, 21, 26, 32, 38
 authenticity, and group therapy, 93, 94, 98
 autism, 34, 36, 67–8
 autobiography, 84
 automatic reactions, 90
 avoidant attachment, 60, 61

 behavior: impact of imitation on, 79–82, 115–16; reciprocity of social, 89; spread of health oriented through Internet-based networks, 129–30. See also ethical behavior
 Berry, Wendell, 24–5
 Bible: and stories, 119–20; teachings of on human nature, 16–22. See also Acts; 1 Corinthians; 2 Corinthians; Genesis 2; Hebrews; John; 3 John; Luke; Mark; Matthew; Micah; Psalms; Romans; 2 Thessalonians

 biological determinism, 162
 Bloom, Harold, 23
 body: concept of having versus being, 4–6; and disability, 153–7; formation of by communication, 124–5; implications for church of views on spirituality and, 7–8; overview of perspectives on in context of church, 8–9; as self-forming system, 142; spiritual formation and imitation of Christ, 115–18; worship and formation of church, 149. See also Body of Christ; dualism; embodiment Body of Christ: and church as dynamical system, 125; and definition of church, 130–1, 160–1; growth of church into, 9, 133, 134, 135, 139, 168; and liturgy, 150; and physical life of church, 157; and role of church in spiritual formation, 120; and worship, 149, 150 bold/fearless temperament, 55
 Bono (Paul David Hewson), 107
 Bowlby, John, 60–1
 brain. See brain injury; cerebral cortex; frontal lobe; neocortex; neuroscience; parietal lobe brain injury, 155
 Brown, Raymond, 22
 Brown, Warren S., 162n2
 Buddhism, 45–6

 candor, and group therapy, 93, 94, 98
 catastrophes: dynamical systems and openness to change, 112–13, 123; and growth of church, 131–5; and maturation of self-organizing systems, 75–6; and stories in Bible, 120 Celebrate Recovery program, 156 cerebral cortex, 31, 32
 chameleon effect, and imitation, 79

- change: personal transformation and hope for, 91–2; personal transformation and models of, 98–100. See also openness; personhood; spiritual formation
- character: formation of, 53–5, 58–9, 64, 69, 143, 152; of groups and churches, 131–3, 139, 141, 152
- Chemel, Benjamin R., 44n24
- children, development of: disorders of, 67–9; and empathy, 63–4; and formation of personhood, 69–70; and imitation, 56–8; and interpersonal attachment, 59–63; and language, 64–7; openness and self-organization in, 53–5; and shared attention, 58–9; and social experiences, 52–3, 68–9; and Von Economo neurons, 37
- Christianity: disability and concept of body in, 153–7; emergence of new form of, 165–7; and formation of personhood in children, 69; Gnosticism in contemporary, 23–7; and image of embodied Christ, 167–8; maturation and formation of wisdom and virtue, 87; purposes of dualism within thought and life of, 163–4; questions raised concerning Christian life, 9; spiritual formation and imitation of Christ, 115–18. See also Bible; Body of Christ; church; conversion; God
- church: as alternative narrative, 142–7; anticipatory expectations and destructive relational cycles in, 90–1; Body of Christ and definition of, 130–1, 160–1; catastrophe and growth of, 131–5; and “church growth,” 118–19; and “church shopper,” 106–107; and concept of emergence, 164–7; disability and Christian formation in, 153–7; dualism in early, 22–3; as dynamic network, 123–4, 125–7; and embodied worship, 147–52, 161; and embodiment of personhood of children in programs, 69–70; and group size, 135–9; growth of into Body of Christ, 9; implications of views on spirituality and the body for, 7–8; leadership and self-organization of, 127–31; nature of as social system or network, 122; overview of perspectives on human beings as bodies in context of, 8–9; physical life of, 157; quantity and quality of communication in, 125; reasons for attending, 106–108; and reciprocal nature of system formation, 125–7; and role of secure attachment in spiritual formation, 113–15; small groups within setting of, 94; and social formation of persons, 110–11; and spiritual formation, 108–10, 118–20; and stories, 133, 141. See also Christianity; Protestantism; Roman Catholicism
- “church growth,” 118–19
- “church shopper,” 106–107
- cities, and self-organization, 127–8
- clinical psychology, 89
- cognitive disability, 155
- Colossians 1:27 (NIV), 109
- communication, and formation of bodies, 124–5
- community: and goal of church, 7–8; and spiritual formation as purpose of church, 110. See also neighborhood
- complex dynamical systems, theory of, 74, 78
- consequences, and stories, 143–4
- conversion: spiritual formation and purpose of church, 108, 109; stories about dramatic and sudden, 72
- 1 Corinthians 4:15–17, 115; 15:35–58, 21
- 2 Corinthians 5:1–6, 21
- corporate worship, 147, 150
- cosmological dualism, 20
- culture: and catastrophe as source of growth for church, 134–5; and Great Emergence in contemporary Christianity, 167; and interpretation of stories, 144. See also Greek culture; ethnicity; Native Americans
- Damasio, Antonio, 40
- Deacon, Terrence, 65–6
- demographics, changes in as source of catastrophe, 135
- dendrites, and memory systems, 73
- dependence, and disability, 153–4
- DePree, Max, 145
- Descartes, René, 15–16, 20, 21, 26, 30, 32, 38, 47
- desire, and process of imitation, 58, 79, 81–2
- determinism, and concept of emergence, 162
- development. See children; personhood
- dilemmas, and morality, 39–41
- disorganized attachment, 60–1, 64
- Down’s syndrome, 155
- Dostoyevsky, Fyodor, 42–3
- drugs, and religious experiences, 44–5. See also substance abuse
- dualism: and Bible’s lessons on human nature, 16–22; in early church, 22–3; explanation of concept, 5–6, 14; history of, 14–16; and issues of illness and disability, 156; and models of change, 99; overview of discussions on, 8, 11–12;

INDEX

175

- dualism (cont.)
     purposes of within Christian thought and life, 163–4; and salvation, 109; and view of self, 13–14
 Dunbar, Robin, 136–7
 dynamical systems: ant colony as example of, 74–5; catastrophe and growth or change in, 131; and church as dynamic network, 123–4, 125–7; and openness to change, 112
 dysnarrativia, 84
- economics, as source of chaos and
     catastrophe, 135
 Ecumenical Council of Chalcedon, 165 electromagnetic stimulation, and religious experiences, 44
 embodiment: and image of embodied Christ, 167–8; of personhood in church programs for children, 69–70; and monism, 5; and personal transformation, 99–100; and predominant modern view of spirituality, 2–4; and spiritual formation, 109–10; of worship in church, 147–52, 161. See also body emergence: church and concept of, 164–7; of complex self-organizing communities, 127–8, 129–31, 142; of human properties and capacities, 6, 30, 49, 54, 69, 74; and role of church in Christian faith, 122; and role of worship in formation of church as body, 149; and theory of complete determinism, 162 emotions: and moral intuitions, 40–1; and worship, 148–9
 empathy: and child development, 63–4, 66;
     and language, 66; neuroscience and research on, 34–5
 enmeshment, and group size, 138
 environmental determinism, 162
 epilepsy, and religious experiences, 29, 43
 ethical behavior, and role of language in child development, 4, 25, 66, 157. See also morality
 ethnicity, and cultural difference as source of
     catastrophe, 135
 Eucharist, and worship life of church congregations, 151, 152
 evangelism, and dualism, 163
- family: catastrophe and change or growth in, 131–3; as dynamical system, 123–4, 125; and reciprocity, 126; and self-organization, 128
 frontal lobe, of brain, 33–4, 40, 46, 54
 functional MRI (fMRI), 31, 64
- Galen of Pergamum, 15
 Gazzola, Valeria, 56n12
 Genesis, 2, 17
 Girard, René, 81, 117
 glossolalia, 46
 Gnosticism: and concept of body and soul, 5;
     in contemporary Christianity, 23–7, 107–108, 109; and early church, 22;
     and issues of illness and disability, 155
 God: nature of, 161–2; spirituality as ongoing relationship with, 7
     “God module,” in brain, 43
 Good Friday experiment, 45
 Good Samaritan story, 143
 Granqvist, P., 44n23
 Great Emergence, 165–7
 Great Schism, 165
 Greek culture, influence on Palestine at time of Jesus, 15
 Green, Joel, 6n3, 18, 19n10, 20, 21
 Greene, Joshua, 39
 Gregory I, Pope, 165
 group contagion, 115–16
 groups: churches and size of, 135–9, 152; processes of personal transformation in small, 92–4, 117. See also psychotherapy
 Gushee, David, 25–6
- hallucinogens, and religious experiences, 44–5
 Hauerwas, Stanley, 4, 146
 health and wealth story, 119
 Hebrews 6:12; 13:7, 115
 hope, and change in individuals, 91–3 human nature: and concept of having or being a body, 4–5; embodied perspective of and questions about life after death, 163;
     and models of change, 99; neuroscience and distinctive characteristics of, 29–30;
     and relationality, 33; and social embeddedness of persons, 5–6;
     teachings of Bible about, 16–22
- identity, stories and construction of, 144–5 imagination, stories and regulation of, 146
 imitation: and child development, 56–8, 59;
     of Christ and spiritual formation, 115–18; in formation of personhood and unconsciousness, 78–82
 immediacy, and group therapy, 93, 98 individualism, and dualism, 15, 24–7, 163
 infants, social experiences and development of, 52
 “In the Garden” (hymn), 151
 inhibited temperament, 55 insecure attachment, 60, 61, 62, 77, 113

- institutionalism, and new churches of Great Emergence, 166
- intelligence, and brain function, 30, 55, 64, 73
- interaction: of neighborhood with church, 134–5; and use of terms interact and relate, 72–3. See also attachment theory; relationality; social relationships
- Internet: social networks on and group size, 137; spread of health behavior through networks on, 129–30
- interpersonal attachment, and child development, 59–63
- interpersonal learning, 93
- inwardness, and contemporary Christian thought, 15, 24–7
- John 1:14, 23; 9:1–5, 159; 13:35, 110; 14:12, 168
- 3 John 1:11, 115
- Johnson, Steven, 127–8
- Kanzi (chimpanzee), 65
- Keyzers, Christian, 56n12
- language: and child development, 64–7; and church as alternative narrative, 142; and lyrics of hymns, 151; shared attention and learning of, 59
- leadership, and self-organization of church, 127–31
- lectio divina*, 95
- liturgy, and worship traditions in church, 150–1
- Luke 15:11–32, 144; 24:39, 20
- MacIntyre, Alisdair, 67, 86–7, 153–4
- magnetic resonance imaging (MRI), 31
- Mark 2:1–12 (NIV), 158
- Matthew 10:28, 19
- McAdams, Dan, 84
- meaning making, and child development, 54–5, 61
- meditation, and brain activity, 45–6
- Meltzoff, Andrew, 57
- memory systems, and neuroscience, 73–4
- Micah 6:8, 121
- Mimetic Theory, 81, 117
- mirror neurons, 56–7
- monism, 5, 6
- moral intuitions, 40
- morality, and neuroscience, 38–41. See also ethical behavior
- motivation, for change in individuals, 93
- Murphy, Nancey, 6n3, 162n2
- music, as part of worship in church, 151–2
- narrative: church as alternative form of, 142–7; about nature of spirituality, 119; importance of in understanding of self, 84–5; and physical life of church, 157. See also stories
- Native Americans, and stories, 143
- neighborhood, and interaction with church, 134–5. See also community
- neocortex, of brain, 136
- nephesh* (Hebrew), 17–18
- neuroscience: and anticipatory of expectations, 89; automatic and unconscious forms of imitation, 115; and capacity for language, 64–5; and changes in adult brain, 73–4; and distinctive characteristics of human nature, 29–30; dynamic flexibility and openness to change, 111–13; and group size, 136–7; and human distinctiveness, 47; mirror neurons and imitation, 56–7; and morality, 38–41; and rationality, 30–2; and relationality, 32–8; and religiousness, 41–6
- Nichols, David E., 44n24
- openness: and child development, 53–5; and formation of personhood, 77–8; and spiritual formation, 111–13
- oxytocin, and development of trust, 35
- Pahnke, Walter, 45
- Pannenberg, Wolfart, 47
- parietal lobe, of brain, 46
- participation, and engagement in worship, 150–1, 152
- Paul (Apostle), 19, 21, 71, 72, 109
- Pennebaker, James, 84
- Pentecostal worship forms, 163
- personhood: attachment and openness to change, 77–8; child development and formation of, 69–70; and maturation of self-organizing systems, 73–6; overview of discussion of critical forces in development of, 8; and properties distinctive of human, 47; social relationships and re-formation of, 71–3; and stories, 82–5; and unconsciousness imitation, 78–82; wisdom and virtue in formation of, 85–7. See also self; transformation
- peyote cactus, 44
- pheromones, 124
- physicalism, 5
- Plato, 14–15, 16
- Powell, Mark Alan, 144
- preaching, impact of story as fundamental strategy of, 85

- preoccupied attachment, 60, 61
 primates: group size in colonies of, 136; and language, 65; precursors of moral behavior in, 41; and Von Economo neurons, 37
 Prodigal Son story, 144
 Protestantism, 165, 166
 Psalms 7:1–2; 16:10; 22:20; 49:14–15, 17
 psychological disorders, 156
 psychology: and anticipatory expectations, 89; and concept of meaning making, 54; and idea of scripts, 83–4 psychotherapy: and processes of transformation in small groups, 92–4, 95–100, 117; secure relationships and rise of, 114–15
 Quartz, Steven, 53n5
 rationality: and neuroscience, 30–2; and role of wisdom and virtue in human development, 86 reciprocity: and formation of church as dynamical system, 125–7; and imitation, 80, 87, 116; of social behavior, 89 Reformation, 165
relate, use of term, 72–3 relationality, and neuroscience, 32–8. See also social relationships religiousness, and neuroscience, 41–6 rivalry, and imitation, 81–2
 Roman Catholicism, 165, 166
 Romania, and social neglect of children, 68–9
 Romans 12:1 (NIV), 150
 rummage sales, as metaphor for upheavals in history of church, 165–6, 167
 salvation. See conversion
 Salzman, Mark, 29, 42, 43
 Saver, Jeffrey, 84
 Schizophrenia, 34
 Schleiermacher, Friedrich, 116–18
 Schore, Allen, 61–2
 scripts, and power of story, 83–4, 118
 secure attachment, 60, 61, 62, 77, 113–15
 Sejnowski, Terrence, 53n5
 self: dualism and view of, 13–14; and Great Emergence in contemporary Christianity, 167; importance of narratives in understanding of, 84–5. See also individualism; personhood self-concept, and language, 66 self-organization: and child development, 53–5; and leadership of church, 127–31; personhood and maturation of, 73–6 shared attention, and child development, 58–9 shared narratives, 87
 Shults, LeRon, 18
 Siegal, Daniel, 62
 socialization, and group therapy, 93
 social neuroscience, 33, 34–5
 social relationships: child development and experiences of, 52–3, 68–9; Christian maturity and formation of wisdom and virtue, 87; and group size, 136–8; and re-forming of persons, 71–3; and role of church in spiritual formation, 110–11. See also relationality soul: and question of human distinctiveness, 47; and reasons for attending church, 106–108; and translation of nephesh, 17–18; view of in Gnosticism, 23–7, 155. See also body; dualism; embodiment; human nature; spiritual formation; spirituality spatial memory, 73–4 spiritual director, 95
 spiritual formation: body and imitation of Christ, 115–18; and church attendance, 107; and disability, 154–5; and dynamic openness of person, 111–13; and social formation of persons, 110–11; through stories, 118–20
 spirituality: disembodiment and predominant modern view of, 2–4; narrative about nature of, 119; role of secure attachments in, 113–15; understanding of as ongoing relationship with God, 7 Stassen, Glen, 25–6 stories: and child development, 66–7; and church, 133, 141; and formation of personhood, 82–5; spiritual formation through, 118–20. See also narrative stroke, 30–1, 32
 substance abuse, 156. See also drugs temperament, and child development, 55
 temporal lobe epilepsy, 43, 44
 theology, and narrative, 85
 Theory of Mind: and empathy, 63, 64; and imitation, 57; and relationality, 33, 36
 2 Thessalonians 3:7–9, 115
 Thomas, Owen, 24
 thought, influence of actions on, 152
 Tickle, Phyllis, 165–7 time, and role of group dynamics in personal formation, 102, 135–9 transformation: good and bad of unconscious habits and, 89–91; and hope for change, 91–2; illustrations of processes necessary for, 94–8; and models of change, 98–100. See also change; personhood; spiritual formation trust, neuroscience and study of development of, 35	Whiten, Andrew, 33

unconscious habits, good and bad of, 89–91	wisdom, and formation of personhood, 85–7
universality, and process of change, 93, 98	worship: embodiment of in church, 147–52, 161; and experiences versus services , 107; Pentecostal forms of, 163; solitary forms of, 111 virtue, and formation of personhood, 85–7	Wright, N. T., 6n3, 16–17, 19–20
Von Economo neurons, 36–7, 41	Yalom, Irving, 92–3, 94, 98, 117
Welker, Michael, 116–17	Young, Kay, 84