

Index

- age 30
- agency 13, 40, 110, 145, 147, 159, 171–2, 173
- antenatal classes 58, 60–1
- antenatal/prenatal ‘appropriate’ preparation 56–63
- information 58
- physical preparation of house/DIY 62–3, 157
- ultrasound scan 55, 57
- anticipating motherhood and fatherhood 155–9
- becoming a family 134–5
- ‘being there’ 13, 15, 56, 83, 84, 95, 111, 154, 191
- birth 87–92
  - anticipating the birth 64–7
  - caesarean 87
  - home birth 88
  - hospital birth 88
  - pain relief 88
- birth plans 66, 87, 88
- ‘bonding’ 84, 100, 104, 119, 129, 154, 156, 158
- breastfeeding 124, 147
- breadwinner 7, 38, 42, 44, 47, 125, 126, 134, 179
  - breadwinner discourse 125, 127, 139, 179, 190
  - ‘modified breadwinner’ 81, 144, 175
- caring 12–21
  - and division of labour 36
  - and emotional work 109
  - and paid work 98
  - and time 150
  - as providing 98
  - caring practices and new fatherhood 115, 147–54
  - child-related activities 10
  - elaborations of care giving 32
  - home to hospital 92–5
  - men and caring capacities 113, 192
  - primary carer 15, 17, 158
  - sharing care 84, 109, 111, 114, 148
  - task- and activity-based 139
- domestic responsibilities 10
  - division of labour 11, 170
- ‘domino effect’ and caring responsibilities 140–3, 144, 146, 150, 171
- discourses 11, 21–4
  - and ‘good fatherhood’ 56
  - and hegemonic masculinities 42, 184
  - ‘involved fatherhood’ 178
  - of care 111
  - of gender equality 16, 166
  - of modern fatherhood 7
  - of nature 112
- discursive resources 85, 126, 144
- dual-earner households 17
- essentialism
  - and biological determinism 38
  - and debates 146, 154
  - definition 36
  - essentialist assumptions 13, 35, 112
  - essentialist discourses 121
  - ‘ethic of care’ 5, 19, 192
- fatherhood
  - anticipating fatherhood 70–5
  - contemporary fatherhood 10, 11
  - definition of fatherhood 6

- first-time fatherhood 107
- historical constructions 13, 14
- involved fatherhood 9, 17, 42
- involved fatherhood discourse 146
- in Western societies 100
- journeys into fatherhood 7
- micro-politics of fatherhood 10
- modern fatherhoods 41
- fathering
  - and economic provision 100, 109, 132, 162
  - and emotional closeness and responsibilities 8, 132
  - and stress 135–6
  - definition of 6
  - ‘good fathering’ 44
  - ‘hands-on’ fathering 9, 98, 104, 108, 114, 170
  - in the public sphere 106–7
  - ‘intimate fathering’ 17, 147
  - involved fathering 92, 175
- fathers
  - ‘absent’ 11
  - and ‘appropriate’ preparation 55–6
  - and changing sense of self 129–37
  - and depression 113, 147
  - and love 104, 119, 130
  - attachment 100, 104, 119
  - becoming a father 99, 131
  - ‘expectant father’ 54
  - explaining caring responsibilities 147–54
  - ‘instincts’ 84, 93, 100, 154
  - involvement 16
  - ‘nurturing’ fathers 21
  - responsibilities 95
- feelings of detachment 60, 155, 173
- feminisms 36, 152
  - feminist research 8
- gender 35–52, 178
  - and assumptions 161
  - and binary categories 37, 177, 179, 182
  - and choice 131
  - and dualist language 179
  - and equality 39, 41, 110
  - and practices of childrearing 144
  - and ‘principle of equal treatment’ 51
  - and sex 40
  - and ‘undoing gender’ 38, 41, 176–8
  - as organising strategy 159
  - doing gender differently 39, 133
  - ‘gender convergence’ 12, 45
  - gendered judgements 162
  - ‘gender fates’ 24
  - ‘gender mainstreaming’ 39
  - ‘gender order’ 42
  - ‘gender symmetry’ 12
  - inequality 126
- generational change 25, 98, 102–4, 117, 129, 173
- health professionals 64, 87
- hegemonic masculinities 42, 84, 85, 90, 118, 151, 175
- late modernity 24–6, 98, 146
  - and experts 57
  - and individualisation 25
  - and rapid transformations 24
  - changing familial arrangements 24–5
  - increased reflexivity 25
- masculinities
  - caring masculinities 110, 111, 121, 154
  - hierarchy of masculinities 47
  - masculine identities 10
  - masculinities and fatherhood 38, 40–6
  - masculinity studies 41
  - shifting masculinities 102, 129
- maternity leave 49, 96, 114, 150
- men
  - and capacities to care 13, 15
  - and changing relationships with wives/partners 135–6
  - and expressions of emotions 182–3
  - and work ‘preferences’ 153, 179, 180
  - as the ‘standard worker’ 189
  - theorisations of men’s lives 10
  - models of welfare 10, 12, 17, 22
  - ‘modified carers’ 172–5

- motherhood
  - and identity 131
  - maternal gate-keeping 16, 121, 176
  - myths of motherhood 165
- mothering
  - and primary caring 105
  - maternal competency 174, 179
  - maternal history 174
  - maternal identity 155, 168
  - nature and ‘instincts’ 19, 98, 153–4
- narrative 26–8, 119, 145, 155–9, 167, 180–3
  - and maternal and paternal identities 166–8
  - and reflexivity 26
  - and the modernist subject 183
  - antenatal narratives 158
  - anticipatory narratives 81
  - competing narratives 27
  - complex narratives 147
  - construction 164–6
  - ‘counter narratives’ 24, 165
  - late postnatal narratives 112
  - men’s narrative trajectories 131
  - multilayered narratives 32
  - new mothers’ narratives 161
  - storylines 119, 134, 168, 192
- paid work 43, 139, 159
  - and ‘career ladder’ 137
  - and caring 162–4
  - and ‘preference theory’ 44
  - and pressure 138
  - and structural conditions 13, 15, 116
  - changing work patterns 107, 111, 146
  - commitments 124
  - primary worker role 124
  - returning to work 95–9
  - working women 42, 126, 180
- parenting 45, 143, 147
  - child-related activities 10
  - ideas around parenting 146
  - interchangeability of mothers and fathers 173, 174
  - Western constructions of 13
- paternal identities 84, 102, 105, 116, 155, 157, 159, 168, 170
- paternal role 102
- paternity leave 12, 49, 92, 94, 96, 109, 116, 120–1, 171, 180, 189
- patriarchy 16
  - definition 36
  - patriarchal dominance 18, 43
  - patriarchal system 121
  - patriarchy and power 122, 176
- policy 22, 46–9
  - and Nordic countries 48–9
  - ‘family friendly’ policies 47, 126
  - parental leave 49, 190
  - policies in the UK 49–51, 178, 179, 180
- ‘race’ 17, 26
- research process 28–32
  - analysing narratives 32, 189
  - end-of-study questionnaire 30, 184
  - ethics and ethical considerations 30
  - interview as co-production 183
  - interview guides 31
  - longitudinal qualitative research 183–9
  - reflexivity 187
  - theory generation
  - transcripts 32
- ‘routines’ 112, 114, 136, 137, 171
- selves 67–70
  - loss of a sense of a self 131
  - self as father 99–105, 116, 129–37
  - self-monitoring and emotions 91
- social class 22, 26
- work and family life 75–81, 94, 119, 122–9
  - employers 127, 128
  - employers and ‘family friendly’ policies 129
  - ‘juggling’ 108, 111, 122
  - work–life balance 127, 129, 137, 138