

Index

- 3M 110
- AB InBev 36, 131–132, 270
- ABB (Asea Brown Boveri) 110, 121, 125
- ABN-Amro 170
- adverse clashes, theory of 146
- aircraft industry market niches 243–244
- Alpargatas 103–104, 142, 319, 320
- AmBev 207, 338–339, 404, 408
beer market characteristics 267–268
internationalization 269–270
origins 268–269
- América Móvil 331, 334
- American system of manufacturing 65–67
- Amsden, Alice 99–100
- analytical framework 41–61
analysis plan 60–61 competence-based approach 42–46
competences for internationalization 395–398
core competences as competitive advantage 47–48 influence of the local environment 53–60
management styles 42
mapping core competences 48–50
outline of the framework 42
resource-based view of the firm 42–46
- Andrade Gutierrez 149, 281–282
- AngloGold Ashanti 387–390
- Annheuser-Busch 267, 270
- Antarctica brewery 144, 268–269
- Aoki, Masahiko 89–90
- Apple 110
- Aracruz 256
- Arcelor-Mittal 36, 131–132
- Arcor 320, 323, 338–339
- Argentinean MNEs 318–325
institutional and economic context 318
Techint case 323–325
- Armour 141
- Artecola 264
- Asea Brown Boveri (ABB) 110, 121, 125
- Asia see BRICs; RICS and individual countries
- Audi 169
- AutoLatina 157
- automotive industry in Brazil and the eclectic paradigm 75–76 first cars made in Brazil 70–71
Fordism in Brazil 66
- Avibras 150
- BASF 121
- BBVA bank 170
- Belgo Mineira 141
- Bematech 289–291
origins 289
- Bertin 253
- Best, Michael 65
- B. F. Goodrich 142
- BHP Billiton 36, 131–132, 236, 241, 242
- biometrics, Griaule Biometrics 294–295, 297–298
- Birla Group 104, 369
- BMW 169
- born globals in Brazil 294–295
CI&T Software SA 294–297
Griaule Biometrics 294–295, 297–298
- Bosch 149

- Boston Consulting Group rankings
100 New Global Challengers report 2
 Brazilian multinationals 191–197
- Brahma 144, 268–269
- Braskem 150, 263–267
 origins 264–265
 petrochemical industry in Brazil
 263–264
- Braspetro (Petrobras International
 S.A.) 230–231
- see also* Petrobras
- Brazil
 evolution of outward FDI 184–187 second wave of internationalization 83–84
 trade relations with China 341, 363–365
 trade relations with India 341, 375, 378–380
 trade relations with Russia 341, 383
see also BRICs
- Brazil (colonial period to second world war) 137–146
 actions of MNE subsidiaries 141–142
 birth of Brazilian companies 142–144
 foreign direct investment (FDI) 141–142
- Brazil (1950–1970) 146–153
 aerospace industry 150 capital goods industry 149
 durable consumer goods industry 148–149
 petrochemical industry 149–150
 political, social and economic evolution 147–148
- Brazil (1970s and 1980s world crisis) 153–162
 global value chains 161
 IT industries' development program
 161
 Japanese subsidiaries in Brazil 157–158
 political, social, and economic evolution 154–156
 Pro-Alcool program 160–161
- Brazil Foods 408
- Brazilian firms
 performance in internationalization waves 137
 Brazilian management style 177–180
 Brazilian MNEs (multinational enterprises)
 as networks of competences 214–220
 most internationalized firms 197–204
 rankings 191–204
 Brazilian MNEs case studies
 226–298
 AmBev 267–271
 Bematech 289–291
 Braskem 263–267
 choice of cases 226
 CI&T Software SA 294–297
 Embraer 243–251
 Gerdau 259–263
 Griaule Biometrics 294–295,
 297–298
 IBOPE 291–294
 JBS-Friboi 251–255
 Marcopolo 274–276
 Odebrecht Engineering 281–286
 Petrobras 228–236
 Romi 277–281
 Stefanini 286–289
 Tigre 271–272
 Vale 236–243
 Votorantim Group 255–258
 WEG 273–274
- Brazilian MNEs development 164–225
 characteristics of the internationalization process 220–225
 chronological view 187–191 competences for international expansion 212–213
 competences for the entry phase 210–212
 competences to compete in domestic markets 208–210 impact of policy changes 107 impact of productive restructuring 164, 165–168
 increasing role in the global economy 1–2

- Brazilian MNEs development (cont.)
 internationalization drivers 205–208
 Mercosur regional trade agreement
 183–184
 National Quality and Productivity Program (PBQP) 176
 privatization of state-run
 enterprises 171–175
 telecommunications industry in Brazil 173–174
 Brazilian MNEs subsidiaries characteristics 214–216 competences of HQ and subsidiaries compared 218–220
 headquarters–subsidiaries
 relationships 216–217, 218–220
 management of 218
 Brazilian model of international management 220–225,
 405–406
 Brazilian multinationals see Brazilian MNEs (multinational enterprises)
 Bretton Woods system 67
 BRICs (Brazil, Russia, India, China)
 31 diversity within the BRICs 390–393 economies 33–35
see also RICS and individual countries
 Bridgestone 96
 British-American Tobacco 141
 British Petroleum 64, 117, 228
 Bunge y Born 103–104, 142, 319, 320 business alliances 114–115
 business houses (India) 369
 buyer-driven production networks
 129–130
 C&A 170
 Cabral, Pedro Alvares 14, 138
 Café de Colômbia 317
 Caloi 104
 Camargo Corrêa 149, 187, 256,
 281–282
 Camões, Luiz de 13
 Canon 92, 96
 capital-goods production in Brazil
 277–278
 Carlson, Sune 76
 Carrefour 170
 Carso 331
 Casino 170
 Caterpillar 53, 62, 82
 Celestica 170
 CEMEX 36, 131–132, 317, 331,
 335–337, 338–339
 CEPAL 146
chaebols (Korea) 99–100
 Chandler, Alfred 72, 73
 Chilean MNEs 325–330
 economic and institutional context 325–326
 investments abroad 326–328
 Masisa case 328–330
 China 345–366
 Chinese model of international
 management 360–362
 Chinese MNEs 351–360
guanxi 361–362
 Huawei case 356–358
 international competitiveness of Chinese firms 365–366 internationalization of Chinese firms 350–366
 Lenovo case 358–360
 outward FDI 349–351
 political and economic history
 345–350
 SAIC 349–350
 trade relations with Brazil 363–365
see also BRICs; RICS
 Chrysler 169
 CI&T Software SA 294–297
 origins 300
 Cipatex 264
 Coca-Cola 331, 334
 Cofap 149, 161, 175
 Colt 65
 Columbus, Christopher 14
 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce see Vale competence-based approach to internationalization
 42–46
 competence-based competition

- analysis of the local environment 59–60
- and local factors endowment 54–55
- influence of cultural traits 54, 55–57
- influence of local environment 53–60
- sociopolitical influences 54, 57–59
- competence-based strategic positioning 50–53
- competences (organizational) 42
  - as a strategic resource 42–53
  - definition 46–47
  - development of the analytical framework 395–398
  - distinction from resources 46–47
  - for internationalization 212–213, 395–398
  - for the entry phase 210–212
  - in emerging country MNEs 395–398
  - in internationalization theories 80–81
  - MNE as a network of competences 120–130
  - new architecture of organizational competences 118–120
  - strategies and competences of Brazilian MNEs (survey) 204–225
  - to compete in Brazilian domestic markets 208–210
  - see also* core competences
- competitiveness
  - competence-based strategic positioning 50–53
  - of emerging country MNEs 399–403
  - resource-based view 45–46
  - World Economic Forum (WEF) definition 59
- Confab 149, 323–324, 325, 338
- construction industry 281–282
- construction materials industry in Latin America 271
- core competences
  - and strategic positioning 50–53
  - approaches to mapping 48–50
  - as competitive advantage 47–48
  - competitive locus 48
  - corporate scope 48
  - definition and attributes 47–48
  - dynamism and flexibility 48
  - learning by doing 48
  - marketing core competence 52–53
  - product development core competence 52
  - production core competence 51
  - relation to three core functions 49–50
  - stability across time 48
- corporate social responsibility (CSR) competence 243
- Coteminas 405
- country-based competitive advantages 54
- creative industries, born-globals in Brazil 294–298
- CSN (Companhia Siderúrgica Nacional) 174–175, 256, 259–260
- Cuervo-Cazurra, Álvaro 301, 316–317
- culture
  - and values 56, 57
  - Hofstede's model 56
  - influence on competence-based competition 54, 55–57
  - influence on management style 54, 55–57
  - Schein's view 56–57
- customer orientation strategy, marketing core competence 52–53
- Cyert, Richard 77
- da Gama, Vasco 14
- Daewoo 101–102
- Dell 51
- Dell'Acqua 143
- developing countries, definition 31
  - see also* emerging countries; third world countries
- DHB 273
- Dicken, Peter 16
- Disney 110
- DKB 92
- Dunning, John 73–75, 81
- Dupont 52

- Duratex 271, 329
 Dutch East India Company 24
- eclectic paradigm of international production 73–76, 81
- economic globalization indicators 18
- EFFA 169
- Electrolux 149
- electro-metal-mechanics industry in Brazil 273
- Embraco 149, 161, 208, 273
- Embraer 150, 174–175, 207, 274–275,
 316, 338–339, 399, 404
 1990s crisis 246
 aircraft industry market niches 243–244
 case study 243–251
 creation of an innovative business model 247–248
 ERJ-145 project 247
 expansion and diversification 249–250
 global aeronautical chain of
 production 249
 Harbin subsidiary (China) 250
 integrator of global production networks 249–250
 offset agreements 250
 origins 244
 privatization 247
- Embratel 174
- emerging countries
 definition 31
 growth of MNEs 25
see also BRICs; RICS
- emerging countries FDI North–South FDI 31
 shift in patterns of investment flows 31–33
 South–North FDI 33
 South–South FDI 31–33
- emerging country MNEs appearance of 130–133
 Boston Consulting Group assessments 2
 competences for
 internationalization 395–398
 conditions for internationalization 130–133 development of international management models 405–406
 impacts of the 2008 financial crisis 406–409
 international competitiveness 399–403
 internationalization strategies 403–405
 late-mover and early-mover strategies 399–403 sustainability of
 internationalization 406–409
see also third world MNEs
- emerging economies 31, 33–35
- Engesa 150
- Ericsson 149, 157
- experiential knowledge 44, 78,
 79–80, 81
- factors endowment and competence formation 54–55
- FDC index of Brazilian firms
 197–204
- FDI (foreign direct investment) evolution of Brazilian outward FDI (OFDI) 184–187
 inward FDI (IFDI) as globalization indicator 18, 19
 North–North investments 31
 North–South investments 31 shift in flows of investments
 31–33
 South–North investments 33
 South–South investments 31–33
- Femsa 331, 334
- FFS Filmes 264
- FIAT 110, 157, 169
- financialization 117–118
- first world countries 62
- Flextronics 170
- focusing (upstream restructuring process) 113–114
- Ford 3, 24, 51, 110, 142, 149, 157, 169, 305–306
- Ford, Henry 65
- Fordism (Ford production model) 66
- foreign direct investment see FDI
- Fortune 500 rankings
 Brazilian multinationals 191–197
 emerging country multinationals 2
- Friboi see JBS-Friboi
- Fujitsu 93
- Fuyo 92

- Garantia Group 268–269, 271
 Gazprom 36, 131–132, 382–383
 GE 110, 114, 125
 General Motors (GM) 24, 97,
     101–102, 109–110, 142, 149,
     169, 305–306
 Gerdau 36, 132, 143, 160, 176, 207, 338–339, 404
     case study 259–263
     international business model 262–263
     origins 260–261
     steel industry in Brazil and worldwide 259–260
 GERPISA, hybridization in Japanese subsidiaries 96–97
 global consolidator strategy 404
 global first-mover strategy 404 global markets, governance of 22–23 global production networks of competences 129–130
 global value chain climber strategy 405 global value chains 161
 globalization
     agents of globalization 16
     context for emerging countries 14–15
     definitions 15–16
     history of 13–15
     phases of 14–15
     globalization indicators 17–23
 GM see General Motors governance of global markets 22–23
 Gradiente 104
 Griaule Biometrics
     case study 294–295, 297–298
     origins 297
 Gruma 331, 334
 Grupo Alfa 331
 Grupo Azteca 334
 Grupo Bimbo 331, 338–339
 Grupo Brasil 273
 Grupo IMSA 331
 Grupo Macri 323
guanxi (China) 361–362
 Gulf oil company 228

 Hamel, Gary 49
 hardware production, Bematech 289–291

 headquarters–subsidiaries
     relationships 121–122,
         216–217, 218–220
 Hindalco 370
 Hitachi 92
 Hoechst 121
 Hofstede, Geert 56
 Honda 94–96, 169
 HSBC 170
 Huawei 170, 356–358
 Hudson's Bay Company 63
 Hymer, Stephen 68–69, 80–81
 Hyundai 169

 Iberian globalization, fifteenth and sixteenth centuries 13–14
 IBM 53, 109–110, 117
 IBOPE 404
     case study 291–294
     origins 292
     services sector in Brazil 291–292
 Imperial Chemicals 24, 64
 Implac 264
 Impsa 320, 323
 IMVP International Motor Vehicle
     Program 96–97
 InBev 269–270
see also AB Inbev
 Inco 242, 243
 India 366–381
     business houses 369
     early internationalization of Indian MNEs 104–105
     Indian model of international
         management 378
     Indian MNEs 368–370, 373–378
     international competitiveness of Indian firms 380–381 investment abroad 368–370
         political and economic history 366–368
     second wave of internationalization
         83–84
     Tata Group 369, 370, 373–375
     trade relations with Brazil 375, 378–380
     Wipro 370, 375–378
         see also BRICs; RICS
 Infosys 370, 376
 institutional factors in globalization 22–23

- institutional influences
  - on competitiveness 54, 57–59
  - on management styles 54, 57–59
- integrator role
  - Embraer 249–250
  - in global production networks 249–250
  - in global value chains 274–275
  - Marcopolo 274–275
- Intel 52
- Interbrew 267, 269–270
- internalization theory of
  - internationalization 72–73, 81
- international business theory, origins of 62–63
- international management models 124–128
  - and management styles 128
  - global model 126, 128
  - metanational model 126–128
  - multidomestic model 125–126, 128
  - transnational model 126, 128
- international service system 110
- internationalization 24–31
  - agents of globalization 24
  - definition of a multinational enterprise 25–26
  - emerging country MNEs 25
  - generations of MNEs 24–25
  - global or regional multinationals 30–31
  - global production networks of competences 129–130
  - indices and indicators of internationalization 26–30
  - internationalization paths/trajectories 27–30
  - liability of foreignness 31
  - MNE as a network of competences 120–130
  - new international management models 124–128
  - TNI (transnationality index) 26–27
- internationalization (first wave, 1950s to 1970s) 67
  - early MNEs 63–65
  - effects of the first world war 67
  - expansion of American manufacturing MNEs 65–67
  - mass production organizational model 65–67
- internationalization (second wave) 82–108
  - Brazil 83–84
  - change to a buyer's market 82–83
  - emergence of Korean multinationals 98–102
  - emergence of the Japanese production model 82–84
  - impacts of the 1970s oil crises 82–83
  - Korean companies 83
  - rise of Japanese companies 82–84
  - third world MNEs 83–84, 103–107
- internationalization theories 62–81
  - competence and competition 62–63
  - eclectic paradigm of international production 73–76, 81
  - FDI versus portfolio (indirect) investment 68–69, 80–81
  - internalization theory 72–73, 81
  - market power theory 68–69, 80–81
  - markets or hierarchies issue 72–73, 81
  - Nordic school 76–80, 81
  - origins of international business theory 62–63
  - product life cycle theory 69–71, 81
- Ithaca* (Konstantin Kavafis) 394–396
- J-mode (Japanese horizontal coordination model) 89–90
- Jaguar 3
- Japan
  - changes as of the 1990s 93–94
  - emergence as an industrial power 84
  - internationalization process 365
- Japanese firms
  - entry into the international market 82–84
  - internationalization 94–98
  - investment and divestment strategy 88–89
  - lessons from successful internationalization 107–108
- Japanese Management Model (JMM) as a competitive advantage 89–92

- influence on productive restructuring 111, 113, 114–115, 120
- internationalization of the model 98
- Jaraguá 149
- JBS-Friboi 338–339, 407
  - case study 251–255
  - origins 253
- JC Penney 170
- Johnson & Johnson 157
- Kao 92
- keiretsu* (Japanese) 92
- KIA Motors 101–102
- kigyo shudan* (Japan) 92
- Klabin 256
- knowledge
  - objective and experiential 44
  - tacit and explicit 44
- Komatsu 82
- Korean MNEs
  - chaebols* 99–100
  - emergence of 98–102
  - internationalization of Korean firms 100–102
    - lessons from successful internationalization 107–108
- Kyowa Hakko 92
- Land Rover 3
- Latin America see multilatinas
- lean production model 96–97, 98
- learning theory of the firm 44
- Lenovo 358–360, 399
- Leroy Merlin 170
- Levitt, Theodore 15
- LG Electronics 101–102
- Li & Fung 400
- liability of foreignness 31, 68–69, 81, 408
- local optimizer strategy 404
- Lukoil 382–383
- Mabe 331, 334
- machine-tool industry in Brazil 277–278
- machinery and equipment
  - manufacturing in Brazil 273
- Madeco 329
- Magnesita 256
- Mahindra Group 169, 370
- make-or-buy decisions 72, 81, 114–115
- management models
  - development of international management models 405–406
  - new international management models 124–128
  - productive restructuring 109–120
- management styles 42
  - influence of culture 54, 55–57
  - institutional influences 54, 57–59
  - sociopolitical influences 54, 57–59
- March, James 25, 77
- Marcopolo 404, 408
  - case study 274–276
  - integrator role in global value chains 274–275
  - origins 275
- Marfrig 252–253
- Mariani Group 150
- Masisa 328–330
- mass production organizational model 65–67
- Mastellone 323
- Matsushita 92, 93, 94–96
- Mauá, Baron of (Irineu Evangelista de Souza) 1, 323–324
- Maxxion 273
- McDonald's 110
- meat industry, Brazil and worldwide 251–253
- Mendes Junior 281–282
- Mercedes-Benz 149, 169
- Mercosur regional trade agreement 183–184
- mergers and acquisitions (M&As)
  - cross-border M&As 18–21
  - globalization indicator 18–21
- Metagal 161, 208, 273
- MetalLeve 104, 149, 161, 175
- metanational management model 126–128
- Mexican multinationals 330–337
  - Cemex case 335–337
  - institutional and economic context 330
  - investments abroad 330–331
  - Mexican firms 331–337

- mining industry multinationals 236–237
- MIT Commission on Industrial Competitiveness 111
- Mitsubishi 92, 94–96, 169
- Mitsui 90–91, 92
- MNEs (multinational enterprises)
  - beginnings in emerging countries 25
  - definition of a multinational enterprise (MNE) 25–26
  - global or regional multinationals 30–31
  - history of 24–25
  - indices and indicators of internationalization 26–30
  - internationalization paths/trajectories 27–30
  - TNI (transnationality index) 26–27
- MNEs as networks of competences 120–130
  - buyer-driven production networks 129–130
  - competences development and transfer 122–124
  - global production networks of competences 129–130
  - headquarters–subsidiary relationships 121–122
  - new international management models 124–128
  - non-local competences 122–124
  - producer-driven production networks 129–130
  - specific competences 124
  - subsidiaries as sources of competences 121–122
  - typologies of subsidiaries 122
- multidomestic management model 125–126, 128
- multilatinas 301–339
  - Argentinean MNEs 318–325
  - Chilean MNEs 325–330
  - competitiveness of Latin America 337–339
  - cultural diversity of Latin America 302
  - definition 301–302
  - economic development of Latin America 303–306
  - FDI flows 306–309
  - geography of Latin America 302
  - import substitution period 304–306
  - Mexican MNEs 330–337
    - opening to international markets 306–309
  - productive restructuring 306–309
  - rankings in international business lists 309
  - sources of international competitiveness 317–318
  - trade agreements 303
  - see also* Brazilian MNEs
- multinationals see MNEs (multinational enterprises)
- Nakata 161, 175
- Naspers 390
- National Innovation System (Brazil) 144–145, 151, 162
- National Quality and Productivity Program (PBQP) 176
- Natura 338–339
- NEC 94–96
- Nissan 87, 96
- Nordic school theory of internationalization 76–80, 81, 152
  - change mechanism 79–80
  - experiential knowledge 78, 79–80, 81
  - psychic distance 78–79, 80
- Norilsk Nickel 382–386
- Nortel 170
- Odebrecht 149–150, 160, 187
  - petrochemicals 264–265
- Odebrecht Engineering case study 281–286
  - building the management model 282–283
    - competences for large construction projects 283–284
    - internationalization path 283
    - origins 282
    - strategic learning process 284–286
- offshoring 114–115
- Ohmae, Keniche 16

- oil crises (1970s) 82–83
- oil industry multinationals 228–229
- OPEC 228
- opinion research, IBOPE 291–294
- organizational competences
  - see* competences; core competences
- outsourcing 114–115
- outward FDI (OFDI), evolution of
  - Brazilian OFDI 184–187
- Oxiteno 150, 264

- Parke-Davis 142
- Penrose, Edith 43–45, 77
- Pérez Companc 318, 320, 323
- Petrobras 36, 149–150, 174–175, 176, 187, 404
  - acquiring competences in services 231–232
  - case study 228–236
  - CENAP/CENPES R&D centre 229–230
    - deep water offshoring innovations 235
  - oil industry multinationals 228–229
  - origins 229
- petrochemical industry in Brazil 263–264
- Petrofertil 231
- Petroquisa 231
- Peugeot-Citroen 169
- Philco 306
- Philips 64, 142, 157
- Pilgrim's Pride 253, 254
- Pinto, Luis Fernando 13–14
- Porter, Michael 43, 45
- Portuguese globalization, early
  - maritime expansion 13–14
- Pro-Alcool program 160–161
- Procter & Gamble 125
- producer-driven production networks 129–130
- producer-driven value chains 161
- product life cycle theory 69–71, 81, 152
- production globalization indicators 18–21
- productive restructuring 83, 109–120
  - business alliances 114–115
    - definition 109
  - financialization 117–118
  - focusing 113–114
  - impacts in Brazil 164, 165–168
    - indicators restructuring 113, 117–118
  - influence of the Japanese
    - Management Model 111, 113, 114–115, 120
    - make-or-buy decisions 114–115
    - new architecture of organizational competences 118–120
  - offshoring 114–115
  - outsourcing 114–115
  - partnering 114–115
    - productization of services 117
    - servitization 115–117
- Promon 149
- psychic distance 78–79, 80

- Quilmes brewery 323

- regional consolidator strategy 404
- Renault 306
- Renault-Nissan 169
- resource-based view of the firm 42–46
- resource positioning strategy 45–46
- resources
  - definition 46–47
  - distinction from competences 46–47
- Rhone Poulenc 142
- RICS (Russia, India, China, South Africa) 340–393
  - China 345–366
  - economic development in Asia 342
  - India 366–381
  - Russia 381–386
  - South Africa 343, 386–390
  - see also* BRICs and individual countries
- Rio Tinto Company 236, 241
- Rolls-Royce Aerospace 115–117
- Romi
  - capital-goods production in Brazil 277–278
  - case study 277–281
  - origins 278–279
- Royal African Company 63
- Royal Dutch Shell 64, 228

- Rugman, Alan 30–31
- Russia 381–382
 Russian multinationals 382–383
 trade relations with Brazil 383
 transition into the global economy 381–382
see also BRICs; RICS
- SAB-Miller 36, 131–132, 267, 387
- Sabó 149, 161, 208, 273, 320, 405
- Sagres, School of 13–14
- SAIC 349–350
- Saint-Gobain 24, 64, 170
- Samsung Electronics 101–102
- San Luís Rassini 331, 334
- Santander 170
- Sanwa 92
- São João Del Ray Mining Company 64
- Scania 149
- Schein, Edgar 56–57
- scientific management 66
- Sears 109–110
- Sebago 278.4,
- second world countries 62
- Securit 104
- servitization 115–117
- Shell 117, 228
- SIAM di Tella 103–104, 319, 320
- Siemens 215.1124, 64, 121
- Singer (sewing machines) 24, 65
- Skinner, Wickham 113–114
- SOBEET ranking of Brazilian firms 197–204
- Société des Sucreries Brésiliennes 143
- sociopolitical structure
 influence on competence-based competition 54, 57–59
 influence on management styles 54, 57–59
- software industry
 CI&T Software SA 294–297
 Stefanini 286–289
- Solectron 170
- Sony 93, 96
- South Africa 343, 386–390
 internationalization 386
 paths of South African multinationals 387–390
- South African multinationals 387
see also RICS
- Souza, Irineu Evangelista de (Baron of Mauá) 1, 323–324
- specific competences 124
- Stakanovism 66
- stakeholder business models 118
- Standard Oil Company 228–229
- Stefanini
 case study 286–289
 internationalization 287, 288
 origins 287
- strategic intent concept 82
- strategic positioning 43, 45 and core competences 50–53 marketing as core competence, customer orientated strategy 52–53 production core competence, operational excellence strategy 51 product development as core competence, product innovation strategy 52
- strategy formulation, and competence development 50–53
- subsidiaries
 as sources of competences 121–122
 competences development and transfer 122–124
 headquarters–subsidiaries relationships 121–122, 216–217, 218–220 local competences 124
 non-local competences 122–124
 specific competences 124
 typologies 122
see also Brazilian MNEs
 subsidiaries
- Suckoi 383, 386
- Sumitomo 92
- Suzano Group 150, 256
- Suzlon 370
- Swedish enterprises,
 internationalization theories 71, 76–80
- tacit and explicit knowledge 44
- Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) 373, 376–377

- Tata Group 104, 369, 370, 373–375, 399
- Tata Motors 3
- Taylor, Frederick 65–66
- Techint 316, 317, 318, 320, 323–325, 338
- Tecumseh 149
- Telebras 173–174
- telecommunications industry in Brazil 173–174
- Televisa 316
- TELMEX 331
- Tenaris 36, 132, 324, 325
- Texaco 228
- Thapar Group 104, 369
- third world countries, definition 62
- see also* emerging countries
- third world MNEs
- catch up efforts in the 1980s 105–107
  - evolution of technological capabilities 105–106
  - impacts of policy changes 107
  - lessons from early internationalization attempts 107–108
  - management upgrading 106–107
  - second wave of internationalization 83–84
  - spread in the early 1980s 103–105
  - see also* emerging country MNEs
- Tigre 104, 404
- case study 271–272
  - construction materials industry in Latin America 271
  - internationalization 272
  - origins 272
- TNI (transnationality index) 26–27
- Tordesillas, Treaty of 14, 138
- Toshiba 94–96
- Toyota 51, 92, 94–96, 97, 169, 365
- transaction costs theory 72, 81
- transition/transitional economy, definition 31
- translatinas see multilatinas
- transnational companies see MNEs (multinational enterprises)
- transnational management model 126, 128
- TRW 149
- Ultra Group 150, 160
- UNCTAD rankings 26–27
- Brazilian multinationals 191–197
- Unilever 64
- Uppsala model see Nordic school theory of internationalization
- Vale 36, 131–132, 152, 174–175, 176, 187, 207, 404, 407, 408
- case study 236–243
  - corporate social responsibility (CSR) competence 243
  - focus on ore exporting 238–239
  - innovative management strategies 242–243
  - international operations after privatization 240–241
  - internationalization of exploration and research 241–242
  - mining industry multinationals 236–237
  - operational excellence strategy 239
  - origins 237–238
  - partnerships and joint ventures 241–242
- value concept, indicators restructuring 117–118
- values and culture 56, 57
- Vargas 149, 175
- Vernon, Raymond 69–71, 152
- Villares Group 149, 159–160
- Volkswagen 149, 157, 169
- Volvo 149
- Votorantim Group 143–144, 160, 408
- case study 255–258
  - cement industry worldwide 255–256
  - competences for internationalization 258
  - internationalization of cement business 257–258
  - origins 256–257
- wage goods industry in Brazil 267–268
- Wal-Mart 51, 170

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51948-9 - Brazilian Multinationals: Competences for Internationalization

Afonso Fleury and Maria Tereza Leme Fleury

Index

More information

440

Index

WEG 149, 161, 176, 208, 405
  case study 273–274
    machinery and equipment
    manufacturing in Brazil 273
  origins 273–274
Wells, Louis 103
West India Company 63
Whirlpool 149
Wipro 370, 375–378
Woodward, Joanne 48–49

World Economic Forum (WEF), definition of competitiveness
  59
Xerox 110
Yacimientos Petrolíferos Fiscales (YPF) 320, 323
zaibatsu structure (Japan) 91–92