

Contents

Preface	page ix
Abbreviations used in the footnotes	xi
Introduction	I
PART I BEGINNINGS
1 The Quaker movement in northeastern Massachusetts	25
2 A “pretended church” in Charlestown and Boston	44
PART II DEVELOPMENT
3 Sectarian communities	65
4 Organizational maturation	85
5 Leadership	102
6 Boundaries between sectarians and others	120
7 The politics of religious dissent	145
PART III CULMINATION
8 Denomination and sect, 1740–1780	167
Index	187