

Cambridge University Press

0521536693 - The Household and the Making of History: A Subversive View of the Western Past

Mary S. Hartman

Index

More information

Index

- adolescence
 comparison in early- and late-marriage settings, 53–57
 in contemporary northern versus southern Europe, 250–56
 in medieval northwestern Europe, 71, 83, 92
 sexual behavior during, 57–64
see also Ben-Amos, Ilana Krausman; Bennett, Judith M.; Gillis, John R.; life-cycle domestic service; Hajnal, John; Hanawalt, Barbara; Laslett, Peter; McDonald, Michael; servants
- adulthood and old age
 comparison in early- and late-marriage settings, 64–68
 widows and widowers, 66–67, 68; in Montaillou, 117; in Salem, 168–71
see also early-marriage households; late-marriage households; sati; witch-hunts
- agricultural societies
 constraints on sexual behavior in, 81 effects on sexual stratification in, 80 models of household formation in, 82
 origins of, 79–80
see also early-marriage households; late-marriage households; Western (or northwestern European) family pattern
- Amussen, Susan, An Ordered Society: Gender and Class in Early Modern England, 222–24
- Astell, Mary, 225–27
- authority
 concern about from late medieval era, 39
 connections between domestic and extra-domestic sites of, 202–41
 of fathers in Western family pattern, 65–66
 of husbands and wives in early- versus late-marriage settings, 66–67 links between domestic and public, 218–31 of popular religion in late medieval and early modern era, 213–15, 218 search for credible bases of in late-marriage societies, 227–31 of women in late-marriage households, 69; in seventeenth-century Salem Village, Chapter 4, 111–43; in Utopia, 68–69; in nineteenth-century late-marriage societies, 265–68
see also early-marriage households; gender and power arrangements; late-marriage households
- Bartlett, Robert, The Making of Europe: Conquest, Colonialization and Cultural Change, 89–90

Cambridge University Press

0521536693 - The Household and the Making of History: A Subversive View of the Western Past

Mary S. Hartman

Index

More information

286

Index

- Beik, William, Absolutism and Society in Seventeenth-Century France: State Power and Provincial Aristocracy in Languedoc, 227
- Ben-Amos, Ilana Krausman, Adolescence and Youth in Early Modern England, 55–56
- Bennett, Judith M., 60
significance of medieval women's purchase of marriage licences, 70–72
Women in the Medieval English Countryside, 60n76, 45, 60
- Bever, Edward, 171
- Bossy, John, collapse of popular Catholicism in late eighteenth-century, 218
- Boyer, Paul, and Nissenbaum, Stephen, Salem Possessed, 159–60
- Braudel, Fernand, 1–2
- Briggs, Robin, 165
- Calvinism, 217
- Cambridge Group for the History of Population and Social Structure, 11, 16, 17, 24, 92, 233 contrast with John Hajnal's account of late-marriage pattern, 17, 21–22
Family Forms in Historic Europe, 13, 26, 92–93; discussion of John Hajnal's essay in this collection, "Two Kinds of Preindustrial Household Formation System," 26 findings since the late 1980s, 14–15
Household and Family in Past Time, 13n29 portrayal of nuclear household as centerpiece of the Western family pattern, 21, 25 response to early critics, 13n30, 13
- Catharism, see heresy
- Catholicism
alleged role in averting true patriarchy in western Europe, 98 alleged role in creating late-marriage pattern, 85 influence of in Montaillou heretical outbreak, 147–59 response to sixteenth-century religious upheavals, 217–18
upsurge in Catholic piety in late medieval era, 210–11
- children and child-rearing practices childlessness compared in early- and late-marriage societies, 42
congruity of experience for non-elite boys and girls in early modern England, 50 early- and late-marriage societies compared, 48–53 explanation for reduced liability for raising girls in late-marriage settings, 48
French and English elites, 44 naming practices in early- and late-marriage households, 45 poorer classes in late-marriage households, 44
see also adolescence; life-cycle domestic service
- Coleman, Emily
high male sex-ratios in ninth-century Saint-Germain des Prés, 96–98 support for peasantry as creators of late-marriage pattern, 98
- Cornell, Laurel L., 94–95
- Cotton, John
recommendation that victims marry their rapists, 136, 138
spiritual mentor of Anne Hutchinson, 166
on women, 112
- cross-dressing, see gender and identity; gender and power arrangements
- Davidoff, Leonore, and Hall, Catherine
Family Fortunes: Men and Women of the English Middle Class, 1780–1850, 257–58
- Davis, Natalie, 238
discussion of "Ghosts, Kin and Progeny: Some Features of Family Life in Early Modern France," 103–9

Index

287

- on Protestantism and purgatory, 42
  - and reinterpreting the “woman-on-top,” 204–8
- democracy, 31, 33, 219–22
  - see political developments in early modern Europe
- Dickmann, Mildred, 79n29, 79
- Diefendorf, Barbara B., Catholics and Huguenots in Sixteenth-Century Paris, 217
- early-marriage households, 7–8, 30, 33
  - absence of need for couples’ economic independence at marriage, 28
  - age at marriage of men in, 22
  - care for older generation in, 26
  - comparison with late-marriage households, 6, 34–69, 105–6;
    - alleged contemporary convergence of, 280–82; greater longevity of than late-marriage households, 82; role of each in meeting common needs of agricultural societies, 82–84; in southern and northern contemporary Europe, 250–56
  - description of, 6
  - fertility control in, 84n41, 84
  - gender roles and sexual hierarchy in, 51–53
  - high male sex-ratios in, 22
  - illegitimacy rates higher in than late-marriage households, 29
  - longevity of, 30, 177
  - marital fertility in, 43n21, 42–43
  - planning for future less urgent in, 105
  - see also adolescence, children and child-rearing practices; gender and power arrangements; Montaillou, rape and violence against women
- elites
  - feudal, 92–93, 99–100
  - landed and commercial, 31
  - strategies of, 245–48
- Europe, northwestern
  - comparison of middle- and working-class experience, 268–69
  - as site of late-marriage pattern, 1, 3–5
  - as site of major change introducing first “models for modernity,” 1, 243–50
  - summary of thesis of region’s dynamism owing late-marriage system, 243–50
  - trends in, 262–74
  - see also late-marriage households; Tilly, Charles; Western (or northwestern European) family pattern
- Evans, Richard J., 267
- extra-domestic institutions
  - courts, manorial, 90, 90n60, 91
  - evolution of influenced by late-marriage households, Chapter 7, 202–41
  - expansion of by modern era, 246
- family
  - altered theory and practice of in early-modern Europe, 107–8
  - breakdown alleged, 38–39, 270–71
  - comparison of weak and strong family regions of contemporary Europe, 250–56
  - economic and social roles of in early modern England, 219–22
  - members of late-marriage societies as agents of change, 104
  - “uterine” families in China, 65
  - see also adolescence; children and child-rearing practices; early-marriage households; late-marriage households; Western (or northwestern European) family pattern
- fertility
  - comparative practices in premodern populations, 84n41, 84
  - contemporary global trends, 280–82
  - effort to limit fertility fails to explain Western family pattern, 84–85
  - among nineteenth-century white American women, 266
  - trends in contemporary southern and northern Europe, 254–55

fertility (cont.)

see also early-marriage societies;
late-marriage societies; Western (or northwestern European) family
pattern

Filmer, Robert, 20, 224–27

Flandrin, Jean-Louis, 58, 62

footbinding, 52, 52n54, 53

Fournier, Jacques, Bishop of Pamiers and later Pope Benedict XII, 114

Freud, Sigmund, 176, 180, 186, 196

gender and identity

abandonment of gender as marker of identity, 265, 274–78

comparison of manhood and womanhood in Salem, 173–75

comparison of witchcraft and heresy
as male strategies, 171–73

confusion over owing to shifts in the sexual order, 282

control of property and male identity, 127–29, 192–93

cross-dressing, 204n8, 203–4, 207, 226 difference over time in sexual attributes as components of

identity, 194–95, 265, 274–78

equality between the sexes “gendered male,” 282

erosion in modern era of ingredients of manhood, 263

explanation of sexual hierarchy
favoring men, 193–97

gender more salient to identity in Montaillou than Salem, 126–29, 159

loss of perceived symmetry between bodies and social roles, 192

male identity more derived from social activity, 193

manhood and relationship to physical characteristics, 193

manhood and womanhood as social constructs, 199–201

middle-class men and doctrine of separate sexual spheres, 263–65

revisionist feminist views on, 186–88
see also gender and power

arrangements

gender and power arrangements

articulation of through theories

favoring male dominance, 51

assumptions about in northwestern European societies, 15–16

carryover from domestic to public arenas, 202–41

claims for by sociobiologists and psychologists, 182–88

comparison of modern working- and middle-class experience, 267

cross-dressing reinterpreted in early modern England and France, 202–8

effects upon in late-marriage
societies, 32

as evidenced across evolutionary time, 197–201

example of confusion over in colonial Salem in 1630, 165–66; in England, 38; in Utopia, 35, 36

expansion of women’s domestic power in modern late-marriage
societies, 265–74

and exposure of early modern women
to accusations of sexual immorality, 138–39

and the “gender order” in the modern and contemporary era, 259–62

as influenced by marriage and household systems, 34–38, 68; case study in Montaillou and Salem Village, Chapter 4, 111–43 and Chapter 5, 171, 197–201; case
study in early modern England, 222–24

and interpretations of the “woman-on-top,” 204–8

among New England women singled out as witches from the 1640s, 168–71

patriarchal reaction as response to growing proximity of sexes, 38–39, 68

rape and gender violence, 132–42

- relative authority of husbands and wives in early- and late-marriage settings, 66–67, 108–9
- resolution of nineteenth-century interpretive impasse over, 262–68
- role of late-marriage system in generating novelties in, 4
- roots of household instability and men's obsession with gender order, 38–39
- scholarship on influence of work roles upon, 236–41
- sexual hierarchy favoring males a variable, not a constant, 196
- status of gender arrangements in contemporary late-marriage societies, 249–50
- theoretical approaches to, 178
- trajectories of men's and women's lives in early- and late-marriage systems, 40
- and women's shifting place in the "gender order," 272–74
see also gender and identity
- Gilbert, W. S., H.M.S. Pinafore, 260
- Gillis, John R., 57n70, 57
A World of Their Own Making: Myth, Ritual and the Quest for Family Values, 271
- Goldberg, P. J. P., Women, Work and Life Cycle in a Medieval Economy: Women in York and Yorkshire, 77–78
- Good, Sarah
background of, 170–71
last words as convicted witch, 164
- Goody, Jack
as critic of theories of Western "difference," 25n58, 25 theory of "diverging devolution" of inheritance summarized, 81n36, 81 theory of on Church and property challenged, 150 theory on origins of late marriage in Europe, 85, 150
- Gottlieb, Beatrice, 63
- Gowing, Laura, Domestic Dangers: Women Words and Sex in Early Modern London, 138–39
- Greven, Philip J., 126n29, 126, 221
- Hajnal, John, 11, 14, 17, 20, 39, 40–41, 72, 77, 81, 96, 81n36, 109, 231 contrast with Cambridge group in assessment of northwestern European marriage pattern, 17 discoverer of late-marriage system in northwestern Europe, 5, 6, 8 late-marriage as one of two household systems in agricultural societies, 78–79 links between women's postponed marriage and productive activity, 90 Montaillou as example of "mixed" household system, 114
summary of findings in major articles of 1965 and 1982, 21–27 uniqueness of European pattern in high marriage age of women, 8, 16 views on links between women's work and economic change, 232–33
- Hammer, Carl I.
equal sex-ratios in ninth-century Bavaria, 96–98
and thesis of Western family pattern masterminded by feudal elites, 92–93
- Hanawalt, Barbara
Growing Up in Medieval London, 43–44
The Ties That Bound: Peasant Families in Medieval England, 49–50, 60, 71
- Hareven, Tamara, 10
- heresy, Chapter 5, 171
Catharism in Montaillou, 113, 116, 147–59
comparison of witchcraft and heresy as male strategies, 171–73
see also Hutchinson, Anne

- Herlihy, David
 age at marriage of women and men in medieval Europe, 86–88, 88n54, 89 Christianity credited for single sexual standard, 48n40, 48 findings support hypothesis for origins of Western family pattern, 86–89 and high male sex-ratios in ninth-century Saint-Germain des Pres, 96 history
 cultural, 5
 demographic, 5, 8; Demography (journal), 15–16; relationship between household size and industrialization, 12–13; see also Cambridge Group for the History of Population and Social Structure; Hajnal, John; Laslett, Peter family, 5, 9–10; comparison of family and women's history, 8–9; status of family history in England, 7n15, 7–8 social, 4, 5, 7, 8, 26
 Western, 4, 8
 women's, 4, 5, 8, 9, 11; discussion of, 1960s through 1990s, 256–62
 homosexuality, 33, 196, 280
 households, nuclear, 6, 13, 14, 17–18, 29
 as central feature in Peter Laslett's account of Western family pattern, 7, 8, 13, 19–20
 as comparable in size to multifamily households, 1 explanation for dominance of in late-marriage societies, 99 identity of over time difficult to maintain, 109 industrialization not a causal factor of, 10, 11–12
 as sites of historical transformation, 105 thesis statement on households and the making of history, 31–33
see also early marriage households; late-marriage households; Western (or northwestern European) family pattern
- Howell, Martha, 106
The Marriage Exchange: Property, Social Place, and Gender in the Cities of the Low Countries, 1300–1550, 100–2
Women, Production and Patriarchy in Late Medieval Cities, 237
- Hrdy, Sarah B., 182–84
- Huber, Joan, 80
- Hunt, Margaret R., The Middling Sort: Commerce, Gender and the Family in England, 1680–1780, 239–41
- Hutchinson, Anne, excommunicated for heretical teachings, 166–67
- illegitimacy, 64
 early modern Europe, 29
 among late medieval youth in England, 60n76, 60
 low rates in late-marriage societies, 60–61
see also adolescence; Bennett, Judith; sex and sexuality
- Illich, Ivan, 192
- industrialization and economic change, 12, 17–18, 29, 33
 arguments for extra-domestic causal factors, 231–32 exaggerated in causal analyses of change in modern era, 259
 as hypothesized effect of late-marriage pattern, 12–13, 12n27, 231–42
 and proto-industrialization, 235–36
 and recent scholarship on work and gender, 236–41
 and role of “middling” classes in England, 239–41, 247–48
 thesis of Alan Macfarlane, 17–18, 233–34
- infanticide and neglect, female, 22, 24
 in China, 44n28, 42–43, 44–45

Index

291

- evidence for in fourteenth-century
 Montaillou, 158–59
 in medieval ninth-century medieval France, 96–98
 in 1960s in northern India, 47–48
 in northwestern Europe, 43–44
see also Hajnal, John; Sen, Amartya;
 son-preference
- inheritance practices
 in agricultural societies, 10n21, 10;
 hoe and plow societies compared,
 80–81
 in aristocratic England, 1300–1800, 247–48
 in determining household
 composition, 75n17, 73–75
 in early-marriage settings, 75
 as factor in son-preference, 40–48
 in late-marriage settings, 67–68, 83
 in medieval northwestern Europe,
 73–75, 85, 86–89, 100–2
 in Montaillou, 118
 Inquisition, 113, 115, 116
- James VI and I, and the cross-dressing controversy, 203–4, 207
- Johnson, Kay Ann, *Women, the Family
 and Peasant Revolution in China*, 65
- Jordon, William, 149
The Great Famine, 149
- Karlsen, Carol F.
*The Devil in the Shape of a Woman:
 Witchcraft in Colonial New England*,
 165–66; summary of all New England witches from the 1640s,
 168–71
- Klaits, Joseph, 165
- Ko, Dorothy
*Every Step a Lotus: Shoes for Bound
 Feet*, 53n55, 53
*Teachers of the Inner Chambers:
 Women and Culture in Seventeenth-Century China*, 52
- Kussmaul, Ann, 54–55
- Larner, Christina, 165
- Laslett, Peter, 6, 14, 17, 26, 65, 77, 90
 assessment of life-cycle service, 56–57
 “Characteristics of the Western Family Considered over Time,” 19–20
 creator of term “Western family
 pattern,” 18–20
 on industrialization as effect of the Western family pattern, 12n27,
 key figure inspiring this study, 6n13,
 6–7
 leader of Cambridge Group for the History of Population and Social Structure, 11
 on liberal political theory as effect of the Western family pattern view of paternal authority in Western family pattern contested, 65n88, 65–66
 views on origins of Western family
 pattern, 76
The World We Have Lost, 6–7
see also Cambridge Group for the History of Population and Social Structure; Western (or northwestern European) family
 pattern
- late-marriage households, 29, 176
 age at marriage of men and women in early modern Europe, 22, 39n13, 39–40
 appearance of among rural and urban masses, 31
 as catalyst for change beyond
 households, 69
 as catalyst for industrial transformation, 12
 and change beyond households, 202–41
 as clue to near universality of gender hierarchy favoring men, 176–97
 comparison of middle- and working class experience, 268–69
 comparison with early-marriage
 households, 6, 34–69, 105–6

- late-marriage households (cont.)
- decisions about when to marry, 54–55
  - description of features, 6, 39
  - evidence for continuing trend of parallel lives for sexes in modern era, 268–74
  - evidence for in medieval England, 49n43, 49, 92–93, 96–98
  - example from sixteenth-century England, 27–28
  - as explanation for assessments of women in early modern era, 207
  - as explanation for change in early modern era moving from households to the wider world, 209–10
  - features of in ninth-century Carolingian Bavaria, 92–93
  - fertility control in, 84n41, 84, 266, 269–70
  - influence of in contemporary northern and southern Europe, 250–56
  - influence of on political evolution of northwestern Europe, 218–31
  - influence on living standards, 23
  - influence on women's independence and social agency, 26
  - instability of, 33
  - link between household governance in and extra-domestic democratic ideals, 218–19
  - major focus of this study, 4, 5, 31–33, 176
  - medieval coroners' rolls and female and male activities, 49–50
  - molders of collective experience and mentality in northwestern Europe, as one of two household formation models in agricultural societies, 78–84, 86
  - origins of, 69, 70–110; see also Western (or northwestern European) family pattern, origins of; Hajnal, John
  - re-marriage in late- and early-marriage households, 66–67, 68
  - role of in shaping developments beyond households, 202–41
  - role of women in, 8, 25–26, 34–69, 70–110
  - sex-ratios in, 20–21
  - shift from aberration to norm in contemporary global era, 30
  - as source of early modern misogyny, 38
  - and thesis of northwestern Europe's dynamism, 243–50
  - versatility of interpretive framework for other investigations, 279–84
  - “Western” traits and qualities as normative behavioral requirements in late-marriage settings, 270
  - see also* adolescence; Cambridge Group for the History of Population and Social Structure; Catholicism; children and child-rearing practices; households, nuclear; industrialization and economic change; Laslett, Peter; life-cycle domestic service; political developments in early modern Europe; Protestantism; sex and sexuality; rape and violence against women; servants; Salem Village and Town; and Western (or northwestern European) family pattern
- Lee, James Z. and Wang Feng, One Quarter of Humanity: Malthusian Mythology and Chinese Realities, 1700–2000, 43
- LeRoy Ladurie, Emmanuel, 115
- chapters 4 and 5, passim
  - Montaillou: The Promised Land of Error*, 115
  - view of violence against women and rape in Montaillou, 121
- life-cycle domestic service, 25, 26, 27
- appearance of in medieval era, 91
  - comparison of in northern versus southern Europe in modern era, 251
  - example of family of seventeenth-century vicar Ralph Josselin, 55

- importance for women, 55–56 sexual experience of youth in early- and late-marriage settings, 57–64, 91
see also adolescence; Ben-Amos, Ilana Krausman; Bennett, Judith M.; Gillis, John R.; Hajnal, John; Hanawalt, Barbara; Laslett, Peter; late-marriage pattern; McDonald, Michael; servants
- Locke, John, 20, 224–27
- Luther, Martin, 215–16
- Lynch, Katherine, 267
- Macfarlane, Alan, 17, 18, 77, 233–34
The Family Life of Ralph Josselin, 55
Origins of English Individualism, 17–18
The Savage Wars of Peace, 29n70, 29
- Mack, Phyllis, Visionary Women: Ecstatic Prophecy in Seventeenth-Century England, 216–17
- male dominance, see gender and power arrangements; gender and identity
- manhood, see gender and power arrangements; gender and identity
- Malthus, Thomas, 22
- marriage, see early-marriage households; late-marriage households; Western (or northwestern European) family pattern
- Marx, Karl, 232
- Massachusetts Bay Colony, 112
- Mather, Cotton
as defender of “spectral evidence” in 1692, 164
on wife-beating, 134
on women and witches, 112
- Mather, Increase
and new charter for Massachusetts Bay Colony in 1692, 163 “spectral evidence” declared insufficient to convict a witch, 164
- McDonald, Michael, Mystical Bedlam: Madness, Anxiety and Healing in Seventeenth-Century England, 53
- McIntosh, Marjorie, 61
- medieval northwestern Europe
evolution of features of late-marriage pattern in, Chapter 3, 70–110, 243 late medieval Montaillou, chapter 4, 111–43, 171 rise of popular religiosity in later period, 210–11
see also late-marriage household men
- and attention to gender relations, 143, 263–65 and comparison of witchcraft and heresy as male strategies, 171–73 concerns about women compared in Montaillou and Salem case studies, 144–45, 147 and evolution of late-marriage pattern, 136, 138
and heresy in Montaillou, 147–59
and household structures, 142–43
see also adulthood and old age; early-marriage households; family; gender and identity; gender and power arrangements; history; inheritance practices; late-marriage households; sex and sexuality; Western (or northwestern European) family pattern; women
- Mendels, Franklin, and proto-industrialization, 235–36
- merchets*, 70–72
- Mernissi, Fatima, Beyond the Veil: Male-Female Dynamics in Modern Muslim Society, 56
- Middle Ages, see medieval northwestern Europe
- misogyny, 38, 198
see also early-marriage households; gender and power arrangements; late-marriage households; Montaillou; witchcraft

Montaillou

- absence of life-cycle service in, 117
- attitudes toward work compared to those in Salem, 125–26
- description of village and its inhabitants, 114–19
- evidence for household stability in, 119
- explanation of men's failure to prescribe women's behavior in, 132
- gender divide in allegiance to heresy, 147–59
- households “mixed” in, 114, 118
- husband-beating in, 134
- marriage and property arrangements in, 118
- omnipresent misogyny in, 111–12
- ostal* as primary social unit, and chapters 4 and 5, 117 passim
- servants in, 117
- sexual division of labor in, 122–24
- singleness among men in, 118
- usefulness of comparison with Salem Village, 113–14, 197–201
- wife-beating in, 133–34
- see also* early-marriage households; late-marriage households; heresy; witchcraft

More, Thomas, Utopia

- as critique of sixteenth-century English household structures, 37
- description of, 34–38, 68
- gender division of labor in, 36
- relevance to this study, 35, 35n5, 68–69

Norton, Mary Beth, 115, 131

- Founding Mothers and Fathers: Gendered Power and the Forming of American Society*, 115n16, 115, 166–67, 226n49, 240
- In the Devil's Snare*, 115, 159, 161–64

Otis, Leah Lydia, Prostitution in

- Medieval Society: The History of an Urban Institution in Languedoc*, 59

Ozment, Steven, When Fathers Ruled:

- Family Life in Reformation Europe*, 212

parenthood

- in early- versus late-marriage settings, 64–66
- see also* childhood and childrearing practices; early-marriage households; late-marriage households

Parris, Samuel, profile as minister of Salem Village church, 159–60

political developments in early modern Europe, 218–31

- and attributions of egalitarian and democratic systems to elites, 220–22
- democratic and industrial revolutions overlaid in historical explanation, 259
- households as influence on monarchical reaction, 224–25
- influence of domestic power relations on early modern English political theory, 219–22, 224–27
- thesis summary on origins of liberal and egalitarian movements, 227–31
- undercutting of patriarchal power from medieval era, 220–22

Poos, Lawrence R., A Rural Society After the Black Death: Essex, 1350–1525

- case for late marriage by at least fourteenth century, 49n43, 49, 72n8, 72
- evidence for life-cycle service, 73
- high mobility of late-medieval population, 73

Protestantism, 31

- comparison to Catharism, 211–12
- and disappearance of purgatory, 42
- and doctrine of salvation through grace, 166–67, 168
- household enshrined as origin of earthly authority, 214
- and links to prior late-marriage pattern, 210–17
- and women, 212–13

Index

295

- Puritans, see Protestantism; Salem Village and Town; witch hunts
- rape and violence against women patterns of in early- and late-marriage households, 132–42 rape in Montaignou and colonial New England compared, 135–38 view of Le Roy Ladurie on rape as widespread in Montaignou, 121
- Reformation, 210–17
see also Catholicism; Protestantism
- Reher, David S., comparison of family ties in contemporary northern and southern Europe, 250–56
- Roper, Lyndal, The Holy Household: Women and Morals in Reformation Augsburg, 213
- Rubin, Gayle, 178
- Ryan, Mary, Cradle of the Middle Class: The Family in Oneida County, New York, 1790–1885, 258
- Salem Village and Town, 119–21
 age of women at marriage and lifetime celibacy in compared to Montaignou, 120 attitudes toward work compared to Montaignou, 125–26
 description of, 119–21
 differences from Montaignou in gender and power arrangements, 112–14 divisions within, 120–21
 and greater respect accorded to wives than in Montaignou, 131–32 links between Salem outbreak and Indian frontier wars, 161–64
 men's attitudes toward women compared with those in Montaignou
 sexual division of labor in, 125
 summary of early events of witchcraft outbreak, 145–46 usefulness of comparison with Montaignou, 113–14, 197–201
 wife-beating in colonial New England, 134
- see also* gender and identity; gender and power arrangements; late-marriage households; Western (or northwestern European) family pattern; witchcraft; witch-hunts
- sati*, 67–68
- Sen, Amartya, 46n36, 45–47
- servants, 6–19, 20, 82, 117
see also adolescence; life-cycle domestic service; Montaignou; Salem Village and Town
- sex and sexuality
 among early modern women accused of sexual misbehavior, 138–39 evidence from primate anthropology for competitive female behaviors, 182–84 shift in lay morality in early modern Europe, 58–59 shift in mechanisms to control youthful sexuality, 62–63
 as shifting marker of social identity, 4; in Utopia, 35 surgical methods to prevent female sexual intercourse, 184–85 switch in Victorian era in declared female and male sex drives, 265 women and the right to refuse sexual advances, 139–42 among youth in early- and late-marriage societies, 57–64, 99
see also adolescence; Bennett, Judith M.; gender and power arrangements; homosexuality; rape and sexual violence
- singleness
 among early modern English women, 240
 in early modern Europe, 6
 increasingly voluntary status in modern era, 17–29, 270
 among Montaignou men, 118
- Smith, Bonnie G., Ladies of the Leisure Class: the Bourgeoises of Northern France in the Nineteenth Century, 257

Cambridge University Press

0521536693 - The Household and the Making of History: A Subversive View of the Western Past

Mary S. Hartman

Index

More information

296

Index

- Smith, Daniel Scott, 45
and married women's household power in the nineteenth century, 266
- Smith, Richard M., 16, 39n13, 39–40, 72, 73–75, 75n17, 77 contests Jack Goody's theory of origins for late-marriage, 85–86 evidence in late-marriage settings for retirement contracts from at least 13th century, 83n39, 83
- son-preference
in early- versus late-marriage settings, 40–48
rationales for in rural India in the 1960s, 41
see also infanticide and neglect, female; Sen, Amartya
- Spring, Eileen, 220
Law, Land and Family: Aristocratic Inheritance in England, 1300–1800, 247–48
- Stone, Lawrence
on families in northwestern Europe, 99
and Keith Wrightson on his legacy, 7n15, 7–8
and sexual repression in the early-modern West, 58n73, 58
- Taiwan, example of contemporary shift to late-marriage system, 281–82
- Tilly, Charles, 1, 4, 5, 250
Big Structures, Large Processes, Huge Comparisons, 1–3, 33
- Tilly, Louise, 8–9
- de Tocqueville, Alexis,
- Trumbach, Randolph, 220, 222
- Ulrich, Laurel, 130, 142
- Verdury, Katherine, 150
- Walzer, Michael, 127
- Watkins, Susan Cott, 15–16
- Weber, Max, The Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism, 232
- Western (or northwestern European) family pattern, 6, 11, 13, 15, 21, 26, 28, 30, 176
example from sixteenth-century England, 27–28
and influence after 1800, 248–49
label of Peter Laslett for northwestern European late-marriage pattern, 18 notions of manhood and womanhood compared and contrasted for Salem and Montaignou, 173–75 origins of, chapter 3, 70–110;
alternative explanations for, 84–86, 92–93; correspondence with classical European feudal region, 75; evidence for effects in late-medieval legal developments, 100–2; evidence for features in modern Japan, 94–95; evolution of features in medieval era hypothesized, 90–92, 96–103; examples of features in medieval era, 71, 72–78; as one of two systems of family formation in agricultural societies, 78–84, 86 opinion on of Peter Laslett, 76; postponement of women's marriage hypothesized as initial feature, 87–90, 93–96, 98–99 portrayal as cluster of features, 102 and the recreation of gendered selves over time, 181, 188–93
and responses to the fourteenth-century plague, 77–78 thesis of dynamism of region owing to late-marriage system, 243–50 as tool for assessing existing historical accounts, 102–3, 244–46
see also Cambridge Group for the History of Population and Social Structure; Hajnal, John; Laslett, Peter; late-marriage pattern; Poos, Lawrence R.

- Whyte, Martin King
 critique of Jack Goody's dismissal of late-marriage, 81n36, 81
 on riddle of origins of first industrial transformation, 231
The Status of Women in Pre-industrial Societies, 191
- Winthrop, John, 127, 166
- witchcraft
 compared with heresy as male strategy, 171–73
 differing views toward female practitioners of, 146
 recent commentators on, 146–47
 in Salem, 113, 159–71
- witch hunts, 38
 as extreme reactions to women's enhanced domestic authority, 38, 165 in late medieval and early modern Europe, 113, 166–67, 168 in late seventeenth-century Salem, 115, 171; summary of early events of 1692 outbreak, 145–46; summary of course and end of outbreak, 161–64 link between female heirs of property and accusations of witchcraft, 170–71 role of witches in early modern era, 199–201 and seventeenth-century New England women named as witches, 168–71
see also gender and power arrangements; witchcraft
- Wollstonecraft, Mary, 262
- womanhood, see gender and identity; gender and power arrangements; women
- women
 and argument for enhanced household authority of in nineteenth century, 265–68
 and control of fertility in modern era, 269–70 and defense of honor in defamation suits in late-marriage contexts, 138–39 differences among illuminated by differences in household structure, 121–22 and gender violence in early- and late-marriage societies, 132–42
 and heresy in Montaillou, 147–59
 and inheritance practices in hoe and plow societies, 80–81 and late ages at marriage as precondition for change in early modern era, 202–41 and misogyny and early modern witch-hunts, 37–38
 and popular English Civil War movements, 218–19
 the “woman-on-top,” 204–8
 and work, 23; contrast between early- and late-marriage societies, 64; in early marriage societies, 82; increased demand for in late-marriage societies, 91; link between absence of productive labor and exposure to neglect or infanticide, 46–47; medieval women and, 70–71; in Montaillou and Salem, 129–131; as purchasers of marriage licenses in medieval England, 70–72
see also adulthood and old age; early-marriage households; family; history; gender and power arrangements; heresy; inheritance practices; late-marriage households; political developments in early modern Europe; sex and sexuality; singleness; Western (or northwestern European) family pattern; witchcraft; witch-hunts
- Wood, Charles, 244–46
- Wrightson, Keith, 7n15, 7–8
- Wrigley, E. Anthony
 on family structure and inheritance patterns, 10n21
 on the preindustrial family, 19n44