

CONTENTS

Preface to the second edition page xxi
List of abbreviations and conference references xxii

Introduction 1

1 Historical development of rules of procedure of conferences and attempts to establish model rules 7

 1.1 Development of conference rules of procedure 7

 1.2 Proposals for drafting model codes of conference rules
 of procedure 12

 1.2.1 League of Nations codification 12

 1.2.2 UN codification 15

2 Adoption of rules of procedure 19

 2.1 The adoption of conference rules of procedure 19

 2.2 The independence of an international conference 19

 2.3 Independent right of conferences to adopt their own rules
 of procedure 22

 2.4 The majority required to approve rules of procedure 26

3 Rules of procedure and international law 31

 3.1 The obligation of States attending a conference to comply with the rules of procedure of that conference 31

 3.1.1 Obligation of States to comply with the rules of procedure of an assembly of an international organisation 31

 3.1.2 Obligation of States at an international conference to comply with the rules of procedure adopted at the conference 32

 3.2 Are procedural precedents binding? 42

 3.3 Disclaimers as to setting a precedent 48

4	Invitations, participation and credentials	51
4.1	Invitation and participation	51
4.1.1	Who issues the invitations?	51
4.1.2	Participation of States	51
4.1.3	Participation of non-State entities	53
4.2	Credentials	58
4.2.1	Submission of credentials	59
4.2.2	Invalid credentials	60
4.2.3	Credentials committee	64
4.2.4	Which body should decide disputes as to credentials?	65
4.2.5	Provisional admission	66
4.2.6	Credentials of observer organisations	67
5	Presiding officer and other officers of the conference	68
5.1	Presiding officer	68
5.1.1	Appointment of presiding officer	68
5.1.2	The obligation of impartiality of the presiding officer	72
5.1.3	Functions of the presiding officer	73
5.1.4	Right of presiding officer to change his decisions	93
5.2	Rapporteur	93
5.3	Secretariat	94
5.4	Vice-presidents of a conference or assembly	95
6	Meetings	96
6.1	Quorum	96
6.1.1	Quorum for a motion to adjourn a meeting	101
6.1.2	Is it sufficient that there be a quorum at the opening of a meeting?	101
6.1.3	Calculating a quorum	101
6.1.4	Voting again in the absence of a quorum	102
6.2	Suspension or adjournment of meetings	103
6.2.1	Suspension or adjournment of a meeting 'during the discussion of any matter'	104
6.2.2	Time limit for speaker moving suspension or adjournment	104
6.3	Adjournment of a meeting	105
6.3.1	When can a motion for adjournment be proposed?	105
6.3.2	Adjournment of a meeting to a particular date	105
6.3.3	Adjournment of a meeting 'during the discussion of any matter'	106

6.3.4	Interrupting a speaker to move adjournment of a meeting	106
6.3.5	A representative who had requested the floor prior to the motion for adjournment of the meeting	107
6.4	Suspension of a meeting	107
6.4.1	Suspension or adjournment of a meeting during voting	108
6.5	Closed meetings	109
7	Statements by delegations	110
7.1	The right of representatives to speak	110
7.1.1	Limiting the number of times a representative may speak	111
7.1.2	Length of statements	113
7.1.3	Limiting the number of speakers	114
7.1.4	Statements by observers	115
7.1.5	List of speakers	115
7.1.6	Closing the list of speakers	117
7.2	Right of reply	120
7.2.1	Discretion of president to grant right of reply	121
7.2.2	Right of reply and closure of debate	123
7.2.3	At what stage of a debate can the right of reply be exercised?	123
7.2.4	Right of reply by observers	125
7.2.5	Right of reply to statements made by heads of State and non-delegates	126
7.2.6	Relevance of right of reply	127
7.2.7	Time limit on right of reply	127
7.2.8	Under what circumstances does a right of reply arise?	128
7.2.9	Limit on number of interventions in exercise of right of reply	130
7.2.10	Right of reply to explanation of vote	131
7.2.11	Right of reply to a statement made in right of reply	131
7.2.12	Closure of debate on right of reply	131
7.3	Explanation of vote	132
7.3.1	Discretion of president to allow explanation of vote	133
7.3.2	Explanation of vote on procedural motions	134
7.3.3	Explanation of vote on motions to adjourn the debate or close the debate	134
7.3.4	Explanation of vote on motions to adjourn or suspend a meeting	135
7.3.5	Length of explanations of vote	135

7.3.6	Explanation of vote by proposer	136
7.3.7	Discretion of conference or assembly to allow proposer to explain a vote	137
7.3.8	Explanation of vote by proposer voting against the resolution or withdrawing sponsorship	138
7.3.9	Explanation of vote on a resolution proposed by a committee	138
7.3.10	Explanation of vote by co-sponsor	138
7.3.11	Explanation of vote on a consensus	139
7.3.12	Explanation of vote on a secret ballot	139
7.3.13	Explanation of vote on non-participation in voting	139
7.3.14	Explanation of vote should not include comments on other delegations	140
7.3.15	Explanation of vote on voting taken paragraph by paragraph	140
7.3.16	Explanation of vote by a representative of an inter-governmental organisation	140
7.3.17	When to explain a vote?	140
7.3.18	Explanation of vote after the list of speakers has been closed	141
7.4	Offensive or irrelevant statements	141
7.5	Clarity of speech	143
7.6	Personal attacks	143
7.7	Speaking to substance on procedural motions	143
8	Submission of proposals	145
8.1	The difference between proposals and motions	145
8.2	Order of discussion of proposals	146
8.3	Sponsors	146
8.3.1	Limitation on number of sponsors	146
8.3.2	Agreement to join list of sponsors	147
8.3.3	Withdrawal of sponsorship	148
8.3.4	Seconding of motions	149
8.4	Notice of proposals	150
8.4.1	Notice of submission of written proposals	150
8.4.2	Notice of procedural motions	151
8.4.3	Notice of substantive proposals	153
8.4.4	Discretion of presiding officer to allow discussion of amendments submitted without due notice	154
8.4.5	Discretion of presiding officer to allow voting on amendments submitted without due notice	154
8.4.6	Substantive proposals submitted without due notice	155

CONTENTS		ix
8.4.7	Practice in international conferences regarding discussion and voting on substantive proposals and amendments submitted without due notice	156
8.4.8	Practice in UN bodies regarding dispensing with the need for due notice of submission of substantive amendments	161
8.4.9	Summary as to requirement that motions be in writing and due notice be given of their submission	163
8.4.10	Procedural motions to enforce the rule on due notice	164
8.5	Time limits for submission of amendments and proposals	164
8.6	Time limit for submission of sub-amendments	165
8.7	Revision of proposals by the sponsors	165
8.8	Submission of proposals by the secretariat?	166
8.9	Submission of proposals by observers	166
8.10	Decisions on competence of a conference to deal with an issue	168
8.10.1	Can legal counsel give an opinion on competence?	170
8.10.2	Voting procedure on a question of competence	171
8.10.3	A vote on competence regarding part of a proposal	171
8.10.4	Priority as between a motion on competence and a motion for inclusion in the agenda	172
8.10.5	Debating a motion on competence in the UN General Assembly	172
8.10.6	Competence of conferences to discuss an issue as opposed to competence to vote on an issue	173
8.11	Basic texts	175
9	Adjournment and closure of debate	177
9.1	Adjournment of debate	177
9.1.1	Effect of adjourning the debate	177
9.1.2	A motion not to take a vote on a proposal as a motion for adjournment of debate	179
9.1.3	Difference between a motion not to vote and a motion to adjourn the debate	180
9.1.4	A motion to 'refrain from making a decision' as a motion for adjournment of debate	180
9.1.5	A motion for 'postponement of consideration' as a motion for adjournment of debate	180
9.1.6	Is a motion for postponement synonymous with a motion for adjournment of debate?	181
9.1.7	A motion to adjourn a vote as a motion for adjournment of debate	182

9.1.8	A motion for referral as a motion for adjournment of debate	182
9.1.9	A motion to adjourn the debate after the debate is completed and before voting	182
9.1.10	A motion to adjourn the debate on a resolution until completion of discussion on another resolution	183
9.1.11	A motion to adjourn the debate on a procedural motion	183
9.1.12	A single motion to adjourn the debate on two separate resolutions	184
9.1.13	What is 'an item under discussion' for purposes of adjournment of debate?	184
9.1.14	Adjournment of debate on specific proposals or amendments	185
9.1.15	Limits on number of speakers on a motion to adjourn the debate	187
9.2	Closure of debate	188
9.2.1	Closure of debate and protection of minority	189
9.2.2	Motion for immediate vote as motion for closure	190
9.2.3	What is an item under discussion for purposes of closure of debate?	191
9.2.4	Process of voting on a motion for closure	191
9.2.5	Voting on proposals after adoption of a motion for closure	191
9.2.6	Right of reply after closure of debate	192
9.2.7	Explanation of vote after closure of debate	193
9.2.8	Right to complete a statement after closure of debate	194
9.2.9	Speakers who had requested the floor before the closure of debate	195
9.2.10	Right of proposer, after closure of debate, to introduce a previously submitted proposal	196
9.2.11	Right of proposer to reply to questions after closure of debate	197
9.2.12	Right to propose procedural motions after closure of debate	197
9.2.13	Submission of amendments after closure of debate	198
9.2.14	Submission of sub-amendments after closure of debate	199
9.2.15	Closure of debate and revision of amendments	199
9.2.16	Closure of debate before its commencement	200
9.2.17	Closure of debate on points of order	200

CONTENTS xi

10	Amendments	201
10.1	Distinguishing between separate proposals and amendments	201
10.1.1	Definition by the Legal Counsel of the UN as to the difference between amendments and separate proposals	203
10.1.2	Practice regarding distinguishing between amendments and separate proposals	203
10.1.3	Can an amendment call for the removal of the substance of a proposal?	207
10.1.4	Can an amendment call for deferment of discussion?	208
10.1.5	Can an amendment call for taking no decision on a committee report?	209
10.1.6	Can an amendment call for referring an issue to a different committee?	209
10.1.7	Can an amendment call for deleting some existing paragraphs, revising others and adding a new paragraph?	210
10.1.8	Can a separate proposal be transformed into an amendment?	211
10.1.9	How are decisions made whether a proposal is an amendment to another proposal?	211
10.1.10	Adoption of an amendment by the proposer	212
10.1.11	Presenting an amendment before presenting the resolution itself	212
10.1.12	A series of amendments as a package	212
10.2	An inadvertent oral amendment	213
10.3	Amendments to procedural motions	213
10.4	Revising amendments by proposer	214
10.5	Voting on an amended proposal	215
10.6	Prohibition of amendments	215
10.7	Sub-amendments	216
10.7.1	Adoption of a sub-amendment and subsequent rejection of the amendment itself	218
10.7.2	Adoption of a sub-amendment implying rejection of another sub-amendment that had been accepted by the sponsors of the original amendment	219
11	Withdrawal and reconsideration of motions	220
11.1	Withdrawal of motions	220

11.1.1	Withdrawal of a motion adopted by a committee	220
11.1.2	Withdrawal of part of a motion	221
11.1.3	Resubmitting a proposal previously withdrawn	221
11.1.4	Time limits for withdrawal	222
11.1.5	Agreement by all sponsors for withdrawal	222
11.1.6	Meaning of the qualification that the motion 'has not been amended'	222
11.1.7	A motion not to vote on a proposal as an alternative to withdrawal	224
11.2	Reconsideration of proposals	225
11.2.1	Majority required for reconsideration	225
11.2.2	Reconsideration in committees	226
11.2.3	Reconsideration in regard to proposals in different committees	229
11.2.4	Reconsideration in plenary of decisions of committees	229
11.2.5	Is it a reconsideration when there is a request for a separate vote on part of a text on which there had been a previous request for a separate vote?	229
11.2.6	Is it reconsideration to request a separate vote on a text when an amendment for deletion of the text has been defeated?	230
11.2.7	Is a request to vote again, due to misunderstandings during the vote, a request for reconsideration?	231
11.2.8	Is voting again due to discrepancy in language versions to be considered a reconsideration?	233
11.2.9	Is a motion to vote on an amendment inadvertently not voted on to be considered a motion to reconsider?	233
11.2.10	Recounting the vote as reconsideration	234
11.2.11	Is a motion not to discuss an item inscribed on the agenda a motion for reconsideration?	234
11.2.12	Where a decision has been taken not to inscribe an item on the agenda, is a draft resolution on that item a motion for reconsideration?	234
11.2.13	Is a motion to change the order of items in an agenda a reconsideration of the adoption of the agenda?	235
11.2.14	Is a motion for adjournment of debate a motion for reconsideration of the decision to hold the debate?	235
11.2.15	Reconsideration of invitations to multi-session conferences	236

CONTENTS xiii

11.2.16	Can a conference decide to reserve the right to reconsider an item in the future?	237
11.2.17	Where there has been a vote on a proposal, is it reconsideration to then convene a discussion group?	238
11.2.18	Relocation of part of a paragraph as reconsideration	238
11.2.19	An interpretive vote as reconsideration	238
11.2.20	After a motion not to vote on a resolution has been defeated, is it reconsideration to move that the conference is not competent to discuss the issue?	239
11.3	Reconsideration of amendments	239
11.3.1	Where an amended basic text is defeated, is it reconsideration to revert to the original basic text?	241
11.4	Reconsideration of procedural decisions	242
11.4.1	Does the rule on reconsideration apply to motions for adjournment or suspension?	243
11.4.2	Does the rule on reconsideration apply to motions to suspend the rules of procedure?	244
12	Procedural motions and points of order	245
12.1	Procedural motions	245
12.1.1	Definition of a procedural motion	245
12.1.2	Examples of decisions as to what is a procedural motion	246
12.2	Points of order	247
12.2.1	Distinction between a point of order and a procedural motion	249
12.3	Categories of points of order	250
12.3.1	A point of order requesting a decision by the presiding officer	250
12.3.2	A point of order raised in order to submit a procedural motion	251
12.3.3	A point of order requiring neither a vote nor a presidential decision	252
12.3.4	A point of order on a matter of clarification	253
12.3.5	A point of order on technical arrangements	253
12.4	Decisions by presiding officers on points of order	253
12.5	Discretion of presiding officer to allow a delegation to raise a point of order	254
12.6	Can a conference or assembly decide a point of order?	254

12.7	Raising a point of order while a representative is speaking on an earlier point of order	257
12.8	Limiting the duration of statements on points of order	258
12.9	Limiting the number of points of order	258
12.10	Challenging a decision of a presiding officer	258
12.10.1	The process of voting on a challenge to a decision by a presiding officer	259
12.10.2	Can a challenge to a ruling be debated?	260
12.10.3	Can there be separate votes on parts of a challenge to a ruling by the presiding officer?	261
12.11	Speaking to the substance during a statement on a point of order	261
13	Priorities between different proposals	263
13.1	Order of voting on proposals	263
13.1.1	When is a proposal considered to have been submitted?	267
13.1.2	Decision not to vote on subsequent proposals	267
13.1.3	How is a decision made about whether to vote on a subsequent proposal?	268
13.1.4	Is a decision granting priority to a proposal affected by a subsequent revision of the proposal?	269
13.1.5	Do subsequent revisions of proposals affect the rule as to voting on proposals in the order in which they were submitted?	269
13.1.6	Order of priority of reintroduced proposals	269
13.2	Priority of procedural motions over substantive motions	270
13.2.1	Does a motion not to take a vote on a proposal have priority over the substantive proposal?	270
13.3	Priority between procedural motions	271
13.3.1	Priority of motion for suspension of meeting	272
13.3.2	Priority of motion for adjournment of meeting	272
13.3.3	Priority of motion for adjournment of debate	273
13.3.4	Priority of a motion for adjournment of debate coupled with a substantive motion	274
13.3.5	Priority as between different motions for adjournment of debate	274
13.3.6	Order of priority between different procedural motions not entitled to special priority under the rules of procedure	274
13.3.7	Order of priority between different motions to grant priority	275

CONTENTS		XV
13.4	Voting on amendments prior to voting on the proposal itself	275
13.5	Voting on the main proposal when the voting on an amendment is tied	278
13.6	Priority between amendments	278
13.6.1	Decisions as to which amendment is ‘furthest removed in substance from the original proposal’	282
13.7	Can a conference decide not to vote on an amendment?	283
13.8	Order of voting on sub-amendments	283
13.8.1	Voting first on the sub-amendment furthest removed from the amendment	284
14	Decision taking and method of voting	285
14.1	Determining the issue to be voted on	285
14.1.1	Reading out proposals or amendments prior to the vote	285
14.1.2	Declarations as part of a decision?	285
14.2	Method of voting	286
14.2.1	Voting by the European Commission	287
14.2.2	Voting by show of hands	287
14.2.3	The right to call for a recorded vote	287
14.2.4	Disclosing who requested a recorded vote	290
14.2.5	A recorded indicative vote?	291
14.2.6	When can a recorded vote be requested?	291
14.2.7	Recording delegations present and not voting	291
14.2.8	Recording abstentions	292
14.2.9	Order of voting in a roll-call vote	293
14.2.10	Voting by mechanical or electronic means	294
14.3	Secret ballot	294
14.3.1	Representatives absent when their names are called in a secret ballot	298
14.4	Voting by proxy	298
14.5	Decision taking without voting	298
14.6	Voting on principles	299
14.6.1	What is the effect of having a vote on principle?	301
14.6.2	Decision making as to whether to hold a vote on principle	302
14.7	Indicative vote	303
14.7.1	Indicative vote by roll call	306
14.8	Voting on preferences	306
14.9	Voting in elections	309

14.10	Request not to vote	310
14.11	Invalid vote	311
15	Majority required	312
15.1	Unanimity	312
15.1.1	Unanimity and consensus	315
15.1.2	Unanimity in the UN	316
15.1.3	Do abstentions negate unanimity?	316
15.2	Majority voting	317
15.3	Simple majority	318
15.4	Two-thirds majority	320
15.4.1	Majority required for amendments to proposals requiring a two-thirds majority	323
15.5	‘Representatives present and voting’	324
15.6	Calculating fractions of votes	326
15.7	Absolute majority of all States represented	327
15.8	Two-thirds majority of all States represented	329
15.9	Weighted majority	330
15.10	Equally divided votes	332
15.11	A situation where two alternative proposals each receive equally divided votes	333
16	Consensus	335
16.1	Defining consensus	335
16.1.1	Taking decisions by ‘general agreement’ or ‘without a vote’	338
16.2	Background to the increased use of consensus	338
16.3	Consensus at the Third Law of the Sea Conference	340
16.4	Use of the word ‘consensus’ in the rules of procedure of the UN General Assembly	343
16.5	Consensus without possibility of voting	344
16.6	Consensus with possibility of voting	344
16.7	Reservations to a consensus	345
17	Separate votes	347
17.1	Separate votes on parts of proposals and amendments	347
17.2	Consequence of holding a separate vote	348
17.3	The right of a delegation to have a separate vote on parts of a proposal	348
17.4	The IMO formula for authorising requests for separate votes	351

CONTENTS xvii

17.5	Does a delegation requesting a separate vote need to submit a motion?	352
17.6	Voting on request for a separate vote	352
17.7	Form of voting on the separate vote	353
17.8	Number of speakers on a motion for a separate vote on part of a proposal	353
17.9	Right to object to a motion for a separate vote on part of a proposal	354
17.10	Can a motion be submitted for a separate vote on a particular sub-paragraph after defeat of a previous motion for a separate vote on every sub-paragraph?	356
17.11	What are 'parts of a proposal' for purposes of a separate vote?	356
17.12	A motion for a separate vote on a paragraph after such a motion had been defeated regarding other paragraphs of the resolution	357
17.13	A motion for a separate vote on a phrase after the failure of a motion for deletion of the phrase	357
17.14	Status of preambular parts of an amendment when operative parts have been rejected	359
17.15	Can a motion for a separate vote be amended?	360
17.16	Voting on the proposal as a whole following a separate vote	360
17.17	Voting on parts of a resolution rejected in a separate vote	364
17.18	A motion to vote on the text as a whole, paragraph by paragraph, after each paragraph had been earlier voted on separately	364
17.19	Voting on the remainder of a proposal after voting on separate paragraphs	364
17.20	Priority as between voting on amendments and voting on a separate part of a proposal	365
17.21	Combining the vote on several proposals	366
17.22	Separate votes on two amendments submitted together	367
17.23	Does a decision to have separate discussions on parts of a proposal also imply holding separate votes?	368
17.24	A separate vote on parts of a procedural motion	368
18	Conduct of voting – interruption of voting and correction of vote	370
18.1	Interruption of voting	370
18.2	Interruption when voting on individual proposals	370
18.3	When does voting commence?	371

18.3.1	When does voting commence during a connected series of voting?	374
18.3.2	When does voting commence in elections?	374
18.3.3	When does voting commence in a vote paragraph by paragraph?	375
18.3.4	When does voting end?	375
18.4	Interruption of voting	376
18.4.1	Is an adjournment of a meeting an interruption of the voting procedure?	376
18.4.2	Is a suspension of a meeting an interruption of the voting procedure?	377
18.4.3	Interruption of voting between votes on a series of amendments	378
18.4.4	Interruption of voting for points of order	379
18.4.5	Interruption of voting for proposal not to vote	380
18.4.6	Interruption of voting for proposal to defer the vote	381
18.4.7	Interruption of voting to make comments	381
18.4.8	Interruption of voting with a request for explanation	382
18.4.9	Interruption of voting due to discrepancy in language versions	382
18.4.10	Interruption of voting in order to submit an amendment	382
18.4.11	Interruption of voting to submit an oral amendment	383
18.4.12	Interruption of voting to submit an amendment where the right to do so had been previously reserved	384
18.4.13	Interruption of voting to submit sub-amendments	384
18.4.14	Interruption of voting to ascertain what majority is required	385
18.4.15	Interruption of voting to withdraw sponsorship of a resolution	385
18.4.16	Interruption of voting to allow explanation of vote on a separate paragraph	385
18.4.17	Interruption of voting to revise a proposal	386
18.4.18	Interruption of voting to request reconsideration	387
18.4.19	Interruption of voting for withdrawal of candidatures	387
18.5	Correction of vote	388

CONTENTS		xix
18.5.1	The report of the UN Secretary-General on correction of vote	388
18.5.2	Practice as to correction of votes before announcement of results	389
18.5.3	Correction of votes after announcement of results	390
18.5.4	Correction of votes in a roll-call vote	393
18.5.5	Correction of votes – indication in the records	393
19	Languages, records and documents	395
19.1	Languages of the conference	395
19.1.1	Official languages	395
19.1.2	Working languages	397
19.1.3	Voting on one language version of a text	397
19.1.4	Authentic language	397
19.1.5	Voting again because of a discrepancy between different language versions	398
19.2	Records and documents of the conference	398
19.2.1	Documentation	398
19.2.2	Distribution of documentation submitted by observers	399
19.2.3	Summary and verbatim records	400
19.2.4	Adding written statements to the record	402
19.2.5	Correcting the record	403
19.2.6	Adding to the record	403
19.2.7	Deleting from the records	404
19.2.8	Final Act	407
20	Committees	408
20.1	Committees	408
20.2	Procedure of committees	408
20.3	Relations between committees and plenary	408
20.4	The different committees	409
20.4.1	General committee	409
20.4.2	Main committees	411
20.4.3	Drafting committee	412
21	Suspension and amendment of rules of procedure	427
21.1	Suspension of rules of procedure	427
21.1.1	Practice in international conferences as to suspension	428

Cambridge University Press
0521545552 - Procedure at International Conferences: A Study of the Rules of Procedure at the UN and at Inter-governmental Conferences, Second Edition
Robbie Sabel
Table of Contents
More information

xx

CONTENTS

21.1.2	Practice in the UN General Assembly as to suspension	430
21.1.3	Practice in international organisations as to suspension	432
21.2	Amendment of rules of procedure	434
21.2.1	Majority required for amending rules of procedure	435
	Bibliography	437
	Index	446