Index to the Notes and Further Reading

The notes in the Notes and Further Reading sections are more than appendages to the main text; they offer their own introductions to the topics they cover (which include topics not treated in the main text). This index is intended to help make them useable as such. In the abbreviated form of reference used here, the leading number is the chapter (o is the Introduction; 8<sup>E</sup> the Excursus to Chapter 8). The note reference follows.

Notes relating specifically to figures who feature in the Catalogue of Platonists are incorporated into, or listed under, their entries there.
