

Contents

List of illustrations	page viii
List of tables	ix
Preface	xi
List of abbreviations	xix
1 Prologue: a provincial metropolis in the sixteenth century	1
PART I: A CITY DIVIDED, 1560–1571	47
2 The rise of Protestantism and the outbreak of religious violence	49
3 The sociology of the rival confessions	71
4 ‘The most difficult inhabitants of the kingdom’	95
PART II: IN THE WAKE OF ST BARTHOLOMEW’S DAY, 1572–1584	123
5 A massacre and its impact	125
6 Interlude	151
PART III: THE CRISIS OF THE LEAGUE, 1585–1594	165
7 The Sainte-Union comes to power	167
8 Penitents as well as militants	190
9 Sacrifice and disaffection	209
10 Conclusion: the Wars of Religion and the people of France	233
Appendix 1: The evolution of Protestant strength, 1557–1600: a comparative look at eight congregations	251
Appendix 2: Protestant names, Catholic names	256
Appendix 3: An indication of population trends: the movement of baptisms	261
Appendix 4: The movement of house rents	263
Bibliography	265
Index	289