

Contents

|                                                                                 |                |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| Notes on the contributors                                                | page ix |
| Acknowledgements                                                         | xiii    |
| 1 Power in global governance                                             | 1       |
| Michael Barnett and Raymond Duvall                                       |                |
| 2 Power, institutions, and the production of inequality                  | 33      |
| Andrew Hurrell                                                           |                |
| 3 Policing and global governance                                         | 59      |
| Mark Laffey and Jutta Weldes                                             |                |
| 4 Power, fairness, and the global economy                                | 80      |
| Ethan B. Kapstein                                                        |                |
| 5 Power politics and the institutionalization of international relations | 102     |
| Lloyd Gruber                                                             |                |
| 6 Power, governance, and the WTO: a comparative institutional approach   | 130     |
| Gregory Shaffer                                                          |                |
| 7 The power of liberal international organizations                       | 161     |
| Michael Barnett and Martha Finnemore                                     |                |
| 8 The power of interpretive communities                                  | 185     |
| Ian Johnstone                                                            |                |

Cambridge University Press
0521549523 - Power in Global Governance
Edited by Michael Barnett and Raymond Duvall
Table of Contents
More information

Contents

|           |                                                                                                                                          |     |
|-----------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 9  | Class powers and the politics of global governance                                                                                | 205 |
|           | Mark Rupert                                                                                                                       |     |
| 10 | Global civil society and global governmentality: or, the search for politics and the state amidst the capillaries of social power | 229 |
|           | Ronnie D. Lipschutz                                                                                                               |     |
| 11 | Securing the civilian: sex and gender in the laws of war                                                                          | 249 |
|           | Helen M. Kinsella                                                                                                                 |     |
| 12 | Colonial and postcolonial global governance                                                                                       | 273 |
|           | Himadeep Muppidi                                                                                                                  |     |
| 13 | Knowledge in power: the epistemic construction of global governance                                                               | 294 |
|           | Emanuel Adler and Steven Bernstein                                                                                                |     |
|           | References                                                                                                                        | 319 |
|           | Index                                                                                                                             | 354 |