

Cambridge University Press 978-0-521-55783-2 - Emigration from Europe 1815-1930 Dudley Baines Table of Contents More information

Contents

|                     |                                                | page |
|---------------------|------------------------------------------------|------|
| 1                   | Problems in the history of European emigration | n,   |
|                     | 1815–1930                                      | 1    |
| 2                   | Sources of historical information              | 11   |
| 3                   | Emigration and economic change in Europe       | 15   |
| 4                   | Emigration regions                             | 26   |
| 5                   | Return migration                               | 35   |
| 6                   | Did emigration change in character?            | 39   |
| 7                   | Assisted emigration                            | 46   |
| 8                   | Emigration and urban growth                    | 49   |
| 9                   | The economic effects of immigration            | 54   |
| 10                  | The family and assimilation                    | 62   |
| 11                  | The end of mass emigration                     | 67   |
| Conclusion          |                                                | 70   |
|                     |                                                |      |
| Select Bibliography |                                                | 71   |
| Index               |                                                | 82   |

v