

Contents

Preface	page xi
Part I The pre-political context	1
1. Politics and communism: figure and ground	3
2. Regime and opposition in the pre-political period	28
Part II Perestroika and the return of political life	53
3. Perestroika: renewal, transition or transformation?	57
4. Glasnost, mass media and the emergence of political society	75
5. The informal movement: politics on the margins of the Soviet order	95
6. National elections and mass politics	119
Part III Politics and revolution	145
7. The politics of opposition	147
8. The 1990 elections and the politics of national liberation	172
9. Parties in movement: the articulation of Russian political society at the close of the Soviet period	201
10. Restoration and revolution	234
Part IV Ground up: politics in post-communist Russia	255
11. Reform, reaction and rebellion: the calamity of the first republic	257
12. Neither democracy nor dictatorship	291
Notes	311
Index	415
	ix