

Index

- access to benefits 130–42
 trends 176 (table 8.1), 180–1 (table 8.3), 186 (table 8.4), 193–4 (table 8.5) women's compared to men's 131–42
see also coverage; utilization rates
- access–benefit levels trade off 156–7
- active labor market policy 20–1, 32, 67, 145, 193, 203, 217
 impact of 20
- additional qualifying conditions for work related benefits 104–5, 113–26, 118
- continuous service 119, 227n
- exclusionary effects of 113, 119, 121–2, 122–3, 124, 125–6, 145–6
- minimum earnings requirement 114, 117–18, 120, 122–3, 136, 227n, 228n
- minimum hours requirement 117, 120–1, 123, 228n
- for unemployment benefits 114–15, 118, 123–4, 210, 228n
- years of employment 114, 122, 220 see also contributions; vesting rules
- advanced maintenance allowances, Sweden 65, 85, 87, 144, 219
- Aid to Families with Dependent Children 61, 81–4, 201, 203–5
- altruistic welfare 24–5, 189, 226n
- assistance 19–20, 30, 31, 61, 76–7, 78–84, 133, 141–4, 146, 154, 181–2, 183, 187, 189, 201, 206
see also means tested benefits
- autonomy 38–9, 86
- availability for work test 185 impact on women's employment 124 and solo mothers 77, 79, 83, 204, 214 and unemployment benefits 118, 123, 210
- bases of entitlement 33–4, 44–6 citizenship 32, 42, 45–6, 63–4, 71, 143–4, 147
- labor market status 44, 46, 94–5, 100–2, 113–26, 144
 need 44, 46, 100–1, 102, 142, 146 and stratifying effects 145–7 tension between entitlements as workers and wives 126
see also care, principle of; maintenance, principle of
- benefits inequalities 149–59 levels 14, 69, 81, 93, 149–59
see also replacement rates trends 153–3 (table 7.2), 155, 157–9 (figure 7.1)
- Beveridge, William 30–1, 55, 56, 153, 205, 226n
- Bismarckian insurance schemes 18, 29–30, 51, 70, 153, 189
see also insurance model
- Bradshaw, Jonathan and Millar, Jane, survey of solo mothers, Britain 86
- breadwinner model see male breadwinner model; universal breadwinner model
- care duty of 41, 57, 77–8, 95–6, 190
 principle of 45–6, 54, 56, 63, 65, 74, 79, 93, 94, 95, 146–7, 174, 182–3, 189, 191–3, 195, 222
 work 35, 41–3, 102–3, 121, 189–90, 192
- caregiver model 72, 73
 caregiver parity model 45, 194
- Carter administration 179
- Chamberlayne, Prue, on strategies to influence gender relations 173–4
- child allowances 189, 223
- child benefit 79, 93, 182
- child support see maintenance obligations
- Child Support Act of 1991, UK 81, 184, 211
- childcare 85, 95–101, 190, 193, 203, 216

- maximum private responsibility model 95–6, 190
 - maximum public responsibility model 96
 - utilization by solo mothers 85
- Childcare Incentive Act of 1990, Netherlands 216
- Civil Rights Act of 1964, US 50
- cohabitation
 - and social rights 61, 65, 93, 205, 211, 214
- conservatism 12, 37, 44, 129, 145, 199
- Contract with America 200, 204–5, 221
- contributions 21–2, 55–6, 59, 66, 69, 92–3, 113, 117, 131, 134, 150, 180–1 (table 8.3), 187, 205, 227n
 - funding benefits 21–2
 - and part-time work 117–18
 - requirements 55–6, 92–3, 117, 131, 134, 187
- corporatist welfare 23, 30, 225n
- coverage 17, 70, 114–15, 123–4, 187–8, 205, 206, 207–8, 223–4
 - childcare 99 (figure 4.1), 193, 216
 - occupational pensions 115–16, 118, 121, 124, 152–3
 - pensions 110, 114
 - sickness compensation 134–5
 - unemployment benefits 123
- Davis, Bryn and Ward, Sue, on future pension benefits, UK 209
- decommodification 32, 36, 75, 78, 85, 88, 102–3, 225n
- defamilialization 39, 75
 - effects 45, 86–7, 116, 119–20, 122, 126
 - potential of citizen benefits 71, 87
 - see also* individualization
- dependency, economic 69
- dimensions of variation
 - gender relevant 41–3 (table 2.1)
 - mainstream 11, 13 (table 1.1)
 - and retrenchment 198–9
- disability benefits (tables 6.2, 7.1, 8.3–5), 51, 57, 64, 114, 123, 135–7, 149–50, 154, 155, 180–81, 182–3, 185–6, 202, 215, 228n
- disentitlement 200–2, 205
- distribution
 - ideology of 27
 - original and disposable income 160–2 (table 7.3)
- divorce
 - Dutch reform 226n
 - entitlements of divorced women 53, 56, 60, 65, 78–9, 93, 176, 214
- dual entitlement 58, 114, 131, 176–8 (table 8.2) (figure 8.1)
- Dual Wage Earners Act of 1984, Netherlands 184
- dual welfare 28–9, 58–61, 89, 200, 204, 206, 221–2
 - thesis 129, 141–2
 - limitations of 131, 142–5
- early retirement 202
- earned income tax credit 83, 204
- earnings 110–12
 - disregards 78, 81, 83, 201, 203, 204
 - female/male differentials 67, 110–12
 - trends (tables 5.4), 111
- earnings related benefits 19, 91–3, 94, 121, 122–3, 148, 151, 154, 155–9, 167–9, 205, 208–9, 214–15, 220, 226n, 229n
- equalizing effects 168–9
- Ellwood, David, on the earnings of solo mothers 226n
- emancipatory potential of social rights 38–9, 75, 126
- employment 67, 81, 82, 85, 106–10, 121
 - part-time among women 106–9
- Employment Protection Act of 1975, UK 93
- equality 27, 32, 173–4
 - as a goal of social policy 27, 32
 - equal access 18, 141, 147, 154, 156, 173, 175, 180
 - equalization 148, 153–4, 157, 160–1, 165–6, 167–9, 185, 187, 190–2
 - see also* gender equality reforms
 - equivalence, principle of 30, 213, 215
- Esping-Andersen, Gøsta 12–13, 31, 33, 36–7, 44, 75, 88, 129, 145, 149, 154, 155, 159, 225n
- expenditures
 - cuts 201–2, 205, 208–9, 212–15, 217–20
 - on private welfare 29, 222
 - for social purposes 14–15 (table 1.2), 17, 19, 30, 225n, 229n
- family 44
 - allowances 18, 51–2, 56, 65, 79, 182
 - credit 183, 210–11
 - distribution of spouses' income 62, 116, 177–8, 187
 - ideology 41–2, 184, 191
 - income supplement (FIS) 80, 81, 183, 210
 - minimum 51, 77, 189, 214
 - as a unit of benefit 41–2, 51, 86, 189
 - wage 41, 52, 66, 182
 - and welfare state analysis 36–7
- Family Support Act of 1988, US 203–4
- fathers, entitlements as 52, 56, 68, 79, 94, 174, 183, 188, 191–2, 196

254 Index

- feminist analysis 1–2, 34–40, 45, 49, 73, 104, 129, 145, 173–4
- fiscal welfare 96–7, 98, 179, 200, 203, 216, 222
- flat rate benefits 30–1, 32, 94, 136, 148, 149–51, 153–4, 167–9, 192
- Flora, Peter, on stateness 22
- for-profit provision 96, 202–3
- Fraser, Nancy, on feminist models of social policy 45, 174
- Furniss, Norman and Tilton, Timothy, on types of welfare states 10–11
- gender and benefit inequality 146, 150 bias and retrenchment 200, 206–7, 212, 213, 215, 218 differential in entitlements 129, 142, 144–7, 149–50, 156–7, 175–6, 193–4, 221–4 and distributional outcomes 37–8 division of labor and gendering of social rights 35–6, 40
 equality 154, 173–4
 equality reforms 173–97, 229n poverty gap 162–4 reconstruction 174, 183–4, 188, 191–4, 196 relevant dimensions of variations 41–3 separate gender roles variant 71, 184
- Germany
 1884 insurance scheme 65
 pensions 159, 229n
- Hernes, Helga, on women's relationships to the state 34–5, 37, 38
- Hobson, Barbara, on solo mothers 45, 73
- husbands, entitlements as 52, 59, 175–6, 182, 183, 191, 195
- Hutton, Sandra and Whiteford, Peter, on types of benefit and distributional outcomes 148, 153, 159
- ideology familial 41–2, 184, 191
 of state intervention 25–7
- immigrants' social rights 205, 228n
- independence
 care 188, 189
 financial 188
- individual entitlement 63–4, 68, 114, 116, 133, 134, 182
- individual model of social policy 42–3, 74, 184, 222–3
- individualization 171, 178, 180, 184–8, 190–1, 196–7, 216–17, 219, 223
- definition of 174
- institutional model of social policy 10–11, 13, 28, 31, 33, 44, 95, 198, 218, 223
- insurance model 21, 28
- Jones, Catherine, on welfare state typologies 11
- Kammerman, Sheila, survey of maternity benefits, US 90
- Karleby, Nils, on citizenship 226n
- Korpi, Walter and Palme, Joakim, on the encompassing model of social insurance 167
- labor legislation 54, 69, 89
- labor market allowance, Sweden 123–4, 140–41
- labor market participation 20 (table 4.1), (table 5.2), 105–10, 226n employment/population ratio 20, 225n
 female/male differentials 145
 rates 54, 57, 62, 76–7, 92, 98, 105 trends 105 (table 5.1), 227n
- less eligibility, doctrine of 27
- Lewis, Jane and Ostner, Ilona, on breadwinner typology 43, 45, 73
- liberalism 12, 26, 39, 44, 70, 129, 199
- Lister, Ruth, on defamilialization 39
- maintenance obligations 52, 61, 79, 81, 83–4, 101, 184, 211, 214, 219
 principle of 42, 45–6, 50–3, 61, 79, 101
 and stratification 146–7
- Major, John 207, 209
- male breadwinner model 41–2, 49–72, 73, 74–5, 146–7, 149, 153, 155, 167, 176, 179, 184, 189–90, 212, 221–2 limitations 70–2
 two variants 71
- marriage
 marital status and social rights 45, 86–7, 134, 143–4, 153 preferential treatment in legislation 67–8, 93, 183
- married woman's option, UK 55–6, 57, 92, 117, 119–20, 131, 143, 180
- Marshall, T. H., on social citizenship 35–6, 39
- maternity benefits and rights 54, 65, 89–95, 189, 207–8, 227n, 230n
- means tested benefits 32, 64, 79–80, 86–7, 101–2, 141–2, 146, 148, 151, 153, 154, 168–9, 185, 189, 197, 206–7, 209–12, 214, 215, 218, 223

- and poverty trap 81, 82–3
- take up rates 80
- and unemployment trap 80, 211
- medical benefits 21, 24, 30–1, 51, 57, 81, 82, 89–90, 92, 185, 189, 201, 204, 216
- men
 - claimants of caregiver benefits 188, 192, 194
 - disability beneficiaries 150 (table 7.1)
 - early retirement, US 202
 - exclusionary effects of additional qualifying conditions 131, 133, 145–6
 - insured status 131, 136
 - pension beneficiaries 131–3
 - role as carers 42, 184, 188, 191
 - unemployment beneficiaries 137–40
 - working hours 107, 109
 - see also* fathers; husbands; widowers
- Millar, Jane, survey of low-income solo mothers, Britain 80
- minimum wage 52, 214, 226n
- and minimum benefits 30, 51, 213
- right to 121
- Mishra, Ramesh, on social policy models
 - based on the residual/institutional distinction 40, 229n
 - on retrenchment 220
- Mitchell, Deborah, ten country study of income transfers 164
- model recipients 3, 225n, 227n
- models of social policy see breadwinner model; caregiver model; individual model; institutional model; residual model
- mothers, entitlements as 44, 73–103
 - see also* care, principle of
 - solo mothers 68, 74–89, 201, 203–5, 210–11, 214, 218–19
- National Assistance Act of 1996, Netherlands 214
- national insurance scheme see UK
- Nelson, Barbara, on the two channel welfare state 35
- Netherlands
 - administration of social benefits 23–4
 - benefit levels 14, 90–1, 121, 154
 - Bismarckian insurance schemes 18, 29–30, 51, 153, 189
 - care, principle of 54, 189
 - childcare 98, 190, 216
 - citizen benefits 29, 133
 - corporatist welfare 23, 225n
 - coverage 19, 120–1, 133–4, 187–8, 223
 - density of union organization 225n
 - distribution of disposable income 160–1
 - employment 20, 54, 76, 105–9, 120, 121
 - entitlements based on need 26, 27, 30, 78–9, 189, 214, 223
 - entitlements as workers 91–2, 120–2
 - equivalence, principle of 26, 213, 215
 - expenditures 14–15, 17, 30
 - family minimum 51, 77, 189, 214
 - female/male differentials 109, 111–12, 131, 138–9, 142, 154
 - individualization 184–8, 216–17
 - male breadwinner model 50–5, 189–90
 - maternity benefits 54, 90–2, 189
 - occupational welfare 121–2
 - poverty 76, 78, 162–4, 214, 223
 - privatization 216–17
 - redistributive impact of transfers and taxes 160–2
 - retrenchment 212–17
 - solidarity, principle of 26, 30, 50, 213
 - solo mothers 77–9, 189, 214, 223
 - support ratio 212
 - taxation 53–4, 185
 - universalism 18
- occupational welfare 22–3, 29, 82, 89–90, 93, 115, 121, 124, 152–3, 154, 156, 157–8, 175, 206, 212, 222, 223
- pensions 115, 118–19, 121–2, 152–3, 154, 156, 175
- Orloff, Ann, on reconceptualizing decommodification 39
- Parental Insurance Act of 1974, Sweden 94, 191
- parental leave 184, 188–9, 191–2
- parenthood
 - pension benefits 220
- Pateman, Carole, on the patriarchal welfare state 38–9
- poverty 75
 - feminization of 38, 222
 - rates 60, 76, 78, 80, 84, 119, 162–4, 229n
 - reduction 78, 80, 82, 84, 201–2
 - solo mothers 76–8, 80, 84, 210, 214
 - trap, UK 86, 210; trap, US 82–3, 204, 210
 - widows with children 60
- private and public sphere 37
 - dynamics of 37, 101–3, 192–3
- privatization 203, 207–9, 216, 224
- profile approach 3, 227n
- protective labor legislation 89
- public services 87, 103, 202–3, 219–20, 224
- Reagan administration 179, 200–4, 206, 221

256 Index

- redistribution 160–9 in the institutional model 11 logic of 168
 outcomes 160–1, 167–8
 paradox 148, 164–9
 and welfare state policies 160–2 replacement rates 51, 90–1, 94, 121, 154, 155 reduction of 214, 218, 219, 220 residual model of social policy 10–11, 13, 28, 44, 95, 198, 221 retirement pensions 15, 63, 114, 122–3, 131–4, (table 6.1) 150–2, 154, 155–6, 157–9, 165–6, 167–8, 175–8, 180–1, 187, 202, 208–9, 214, 219–20 citizen pensions 133, 187 pension income, Sweden 165–6 (figure 7.3) see also occupational pensions retrenchment 198–224, 230n
 definition of 198–9
 and gender bias 200, 206–7, 212, 213, 215, 218 Ruggie, Mary, on women in British and Swedish welfare states 2
- self-employed and social rights 18, 19, 91, 120–1, 181, 189 separate gender roles model 71, 184 sickness benefits 15, 64, 102, 120–1, 134–5, 156–7, 169, 180–1, 207, 218, 228n Skocpol, Theda, on paternalist and maternalist welfare states 35 Social Assistance Act of 1965, Netherlands 52 social citizenship 2, 27, 32, 35–6, 39, 45–6, 70, 226n social democracy 12, 26, 37, 70, 129–30, 145, 199, 217, 219 social minimum 26–7, 30–31, 51, 52, 77–9, 146, 212–14, 215 social rights
 emancipatory potential 38–9, 75, 126 marital status 45, 67–8, 86–7, 93, 134, 143–4, 153, 183
 Social Security Act of 1935, US 113
 Social Security Act of 1986, UK 208
 Social Security Act of 1989, UK 209
 Social Security Pensions Act of 1975, UK 180 social service state 32, 102–3, 193, 224 origins and development 102–3 solidarity 26–7, 30, 32, 130, 147, 213, 215, 217 Spain
 employment/population ratio 225n sphere sovereignty, doctrine of 26, 50 spouse benefit 58–60, 116, 155, 175, 227n state
 conceptions of the state 25–6, 38 intervention 25–6 state–family relationships 37 stateness 22
 women's relationships to 34–5 stratification 12, 129–30, 145–7 subsidiarity, principle of 26, 37, 50 survivor benefits 58–60, 155, 175–7, 191
 Sweden active labor market measures 20, 32, 67, 145, 193, 217
 administration of social benefits 23–4
 benefit levels 14, 157–9
 care, principle of 63, 65–6, 95
 childcare 97–8, 193, 218, 224
 coverage 17, 91, 94, 224
 density of union membership 225n
 distribution of disposable income 85–6, 160–2, 165–6 earnings related benefits 32, 94, 156–9
 entitlements as wives 64–5, 190–1, 194 entitlements as workers 94, 122–6, 144, 157–9, 193–4 (table 8.5) entitlements as citizens 32, 63–4, 143–4, 197, 220, 224
 employment 20, 67, 76, 85, 105–9
 equality 27, 32
 expenditures 14–15, 17, 19, 20
 female/male differentials 109, 111–12, 133, 138, 140, 157–9, 165–6 funding 21, 221
 gender reconstruction 191–4, 196
 individualization 190–1, 219
 maternity benefits 65, 94
 means tested benefits 32, 141–2, 169, 226n
 occupational welfare 124, 157, 159
 parental leave 94, 191–2
 poverty 84, 162–4
 public services 32, 85, 219, 220, 224
 redistributive impact of transfers and taxes 160–2
 retrenchment 217–21
 solidarity, principle of 32, 217
 solo mothers 68, 84–6
 taxation 21, 66–7, 165, 191, 218–19
 universalism 19
 taxation 21, 53–4, 56–7, 61–2, 66–7, 81, 160–1, 164–7, 178–9, 183, 185, 203, 218–19, 229n of benefits 165, 167, 179 and community property 61, 179
 funding benefits 21, 32

- redistributive effects 160–1, 164–8
- Thatcher, Margaret 97, 205–7
- Therborn, Göran, on full employment and typologies 11–12
- Titmuss, Richard, on three model typology 10–11, 44
- unemployment
 - benefits 20, 23, 114–15, 118, 123–4, 137–40, 154, 180–1, 187, 201, 205, 210, 214, 223n
 - rates 20, 137–40 (table 6.3), 224
- United Kingdom
 - administration of social benefits 24
 - benefits levels 14, 16, 31
 - childcare 97–8
 - contributions 21, 31, 92–3, 117–18, 131, 134, 150, 180–1 (table 8.3) 205
 - coverage 91–3, 118, 206, 207–8
 - employment 20, 56, 76, 81, 105–9
 - entitlements based on need 141, 143–4, 146, 151, 209–12
 - entitlements as wives 55–7, 93
 - entitlements as workers 92–3, 116–20
 - expenditures 14–15, 17
 - female/male differentials 109, 111–12, 131, 138–9, 149–53
 - fiscal welfare 206, 208–9, 211
 - flat rate benefits 31, 149–53
 - gendered differentiation in entitlement 149–50
 - male breadwinner model 55–8, 149, 153, 167, 212
 - married woman's option 55–6, 57, 92, 117, 119–20, 131, 143, 180
 - maternity benefits 91, 92–3
 - means tested benefits 79–81
 - national insurance scheme 19, 55–6, 92–3, 116–18, 131, 134, 136, 139, 149–51, 180–1 (table 8.3), 205–8, 210
 - occupational welfare 93, 118–19, 152–3, 206, 212, 222–3
 - poverty 76, 80, 162–4
 - privatization 206–9
 - redistributive impact of transfers and taxes 160–2
 - retrenchment 205–12, 222–3
 - separate gender roles variant 184
 - solo mothers 79–81, 210–11
 - taxation 56–7, 81, 167, 183, 205
 - universalism 19, 30–1, 70, 81, 100–1, 206
- United States
 - administration of social benefits 25
 - benefit levels 29, 81, 149–52, 155
 - bifurcation of welfare provision 28–9, 58–61, 89, 200–2, 204
 - childcare 96–7
 - coverage 29, 90–1, 113–14, 205
 - employment 20, 62, 76, 82, 105–8
 - entitlements based on need 61, 81–4, 201, 204–5
 - entitlements as wives 58–60, 112, 116, 131, 175–8, 202
 - entitlements as workers 113–16, 131, 176–7
 - expenditures 14–15, 28–9
 - federalism, impact of 29, 81, 114, 204–5
 - female/male differentials 109, 110–11, 131, 135–6, 155–6
 - fiscal welfare 96–7, 179, 200, 203
 - gendered differentiation in entitlements 175–8, 194–5
 - male breadwinner model 58–63, 155–6, 176, 179, 221
 - maternity benefits 89–90
 - occupational welfare 22, 29, 82, 89–90, 115, 156, 175, 222
 - poverty 60, 82–3, 162–4
 - privatization 202–3
 - redistributive impact of transfers and taxes 160–62
 - retrenchment 200–5, 221–2
 - solo mothers 81–4, 201, 203–5
 - taxation 61–2, 167, 178–9, 203
 - universal breadwinner model 45, 104, 194
 - universalism 18, 19, 30–1, 70, 81, 100, 116, 133, 153, 187, 206
 - definition of 18
 - utilization rates
 - assistance benefits 76 (table 4.1) 140 (table 6.4) 230n
 - disability benefits (table 6.2)
 - maternity benefits 90–4, 91 (table 4.2), 207–8
 - occupational pensions 115, 118, 121–2, 124, 152–3
 - parental leave 188, 192, 229n
 - survivor benefits 175 (table 8.1)
 - unemployment benefits 138 (table 6.3)
- vesting rules 115
- wages 115
 - see also earnings
- welfare state regimes 12–13, 28
 - and the bases of entitlement 44
 - and stratification 129–30, 145
- welfare state typologies 9–13
- widowers 175
- widows, entitlements as 53, 56, 59–60, 65, 87, 122, 155, 175–8, 191, 202, 226n, 229n widows, entitlements as (cont.)

258 Index

see also survivor benefits gap 60, 202

with children 60, 87, 175, 191, 202

wives, entitlements as 55–7, 58, 64–5, 114,

116, 126, 133–4, 150, 152, 155–6,

175–8, 190–1, 194, 202

see also dual entitlement; spouse benefits

work

female/male differentials 109

hours of paid work 107, 109

irregular hours 112, 113

requirement 123

short part-time 109–10

unpaid 35, 40, 42, 45, 102–3, 189, 193–4, 217, 224

see also employment; labor market participation

Work Incentive Program 201, 203

work performance model 10–11, 44

workfare 203–4