

Contents

Acknowledgments	page viii
Introduction Testing claims to grace: the intensification of time	i
1 Silent anguish: distinguishing the cure for soul-loss from the disease	39
2 Purgatory as a way of life: time as the essence of the soul	54
3 The modern self emerges: Baxter, Locke, and the prospect of heaven	73
4 Locke, reason, and the soul	93
5 The American purgatory and the state	111
6 Protestants and Catholics in the American purgatory	129
7 Charles Dickens in the American purgatory: the eternal foreground	157
Epilogue	177
Bibliography	198
Index	207