

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-57849-3 - Mourning Becomes the Law: Philosophy and Representation

Gillian Rose

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

Introduction 1

- 1 Athens and Jerusalem: a tale of three cities 15
- 2 Beginnings of the day: Fascism and representation 41
- 3 The comedy of Hegel and the Trauerspiel
of modern philosophy 63
- 4 'Would that they would forsake Me but observe my Torah':
Midrash and political authority 77
- 5 Potter's Field: death worked and unworked 101
- 6 O! untimely death. / Death! 125

Notes 147*Index* 152