
Index

Note: Page numbers in italics refer to tables.

- academic performance see school performance access, to official documents, 34–5
 adolescence
 development of offenders, 156–61
 subject risk groups, 151–4
 substance abuse, 131–3 suicides, 24, 25
 adolescence-limited offenders, 15–16
 adult education, 64–5
 adult-start offenders, 16
 see also late-start offenders
 affective psychoses
 co-morbidity, 128, 138
 and criminality, 94, 95–6, 117
 after-care treatment, 121, 122, 123, 124, 188, 189
 see also community care
 age
 at first conviction, 85–7, 94
 of cohort members, 30, 79
 see also cohort effect
 aggregate fallacy, 30 aggressive behaviour, 14–15, 111–12, 125–7
 see also violent behaviour alcohol consumption and policy, 65–6
 see also substance use; substance use disorders
 Allebeck, P., 98, 120–1
 Andrews, H., 98, 111
 antipsychotic medications, 114
 antisocial behaviour, 11–15, 170, 171, 172
 antisocial personality disorder (ASPD), 80–1, 137–8 arrest of mentally ill, 109–11, 112, 186–7 assessment see risk assessment attention deficit disorder, 168–9
 Australia, studies in, 95–6, 99–100
 Baxtrom case, 114, 115
 Beaudoin, M.N., 131
 behaviour problems as factor in offending, 146, 164–5, 166, 168, 175
 adolescence, 158, 160, 161
 comparative analysis, 147, 148, 149
 middle childhood, 156, 158
 see also antisocial behaviour Belfrage, H., 99
 benefit expenditure, 57–8
 bipolar disorder, 21–3, 25, 26–7, 128, 138–9 birth
 data on, 181–2, 183
 see also pregnancy and birth problems
 birth cohort studies, 90–5, 96–7
 see also Project Metropolitan Böker, W., 117–19
 Brennan, P.A., 128
 Chawky, N., 171–2
 child allowance, 68
 child care, 58–9
 child welfare authorities, 41
 Child Welfare Committee (CWC), 69, 70, 145, 146
 childhood
 antisocial behaviour in, 11–15, 137, 170, 171, 172 factors in later offending, 145–50, 175–6, 197–8

Cambridge University Press

0521580730 - Criminality and Violence among the Mentally Disordered: The Stockholm Project Metropolitan

Sheilagh Hodgins and Carl-Gunnar Janson

Index

More information

- development of offenders to
 - adolescence, 154–8
 - subject risk groups, 150–1
 - substance abuse in, 131–3
- childhood early intervention programmes, 176–7
- children
 - of cohort members, 72–3
 - impact of women's behaviours on, 1
 - school surveys, 32–3
 - see also* early-start offenders; school performance; schooling
- civil commitment warrants, 114
- clinical predictions, 7–8
 - see also* risk assessment
- co-morbidity
 - major and non-major mental disorders, 25–6, 137–9
 - substance use and mental disorders, 26–7, 127–30
- cohort effect, 180–1, 190–2
- cohort members
 - criminality of see criminality
 - early and late-start offenders, 175–7
 - outline of, 69–73
 - register data on, 37–8
- cohort studies see birth cohort studies; longitudinal cohort studies; population cohort study
- cohorts, defining, 30, 31–2
- Coid, B., 116–17
- colleges and universities, 64, 65, 70–1
- community care, 9–10, 113–14, 121, 122, 123, 127, 188
 - see also* after-care treatment
- conduct disorder, 138, 139, 175
 - see also* behaviour problems
- confidentiality, 35
- configural frequency analysis, 150
- consistency of results, 89, 96–8
 - other birth cohort studies, 90–5, 96–8
 - population cohort study, 95–6
- control group see non-disordered subjects
- convictions
 - age at first, 85–7, 94
 - of mentally ill, 109–12, 186–7
 - number of, 79–81
 - see also* offences; offenders
- Copenhagen, birth cohort study in, 90
- cost-of-living index, 57
- Côté, G., 169–70, 171–2
- crime
 - ethnic and socio-economic factors, 56, 59–60
 - and justice in Sweden, 67–9
 - predictions of see risk assessment
 - research on mental disorders and, 6–10
 - see also* offences
- criminal justice
 - research implications for policy, 193–4
 - Swedish system, 67–9
- criminal records, 46
- criminalisation of mentally ill, 109–10
- criminality
 - antecedents of see developmental trajectories of offenders
 - consistency of results on, 89–98
 - and gender see gender
 - generalization of results on, 88–9
 - prevalence among subjects, 77–8, 87–8
 - age at first conviction, 85–7, 94
 - duration of criminal activity, 87
 - factors in evaluating, 78–9
 - number of convictions, 79–81
 - types of offences, 81–5
 - and socio-economic status, 59–60, 96
- criminality of mentally ill, 104–5
 - age at first conviction, 85, 86–7
 - arrest and conviction, 109–12, 186–7
 - birth cohort studies on, 90–5, 96–8
 - cohort effect, 190–2
 - and deinstitutionalization, 113–22, 187–9
 - duration of criminal activity, 87
 - early and late-starters, 136–9, 189–90
 - impact of, 1
 - inadequate treatment, 122–5, 188
 - number of convictions, 79, 80–1
 - population cohort study on, 95–6
 - prevalence, 77–9, 88, 195–6
 - principle Metropolitan results, 183–6
 - psychotic and TCO symptoms, 125–7
 - research on etiology of, 10
 - research implications, 192–8
 - studies of discharged patients, 98–101
 - and substance abuse, 127–36
 - supporting evidence, 90, 92–4, 95, 96–8
 - types of offences, 81, 82, 83, 84
 - see also* developmental trajectories of offenders
- criminality of non-disordered, 77, 78, 88
 - age at first conviction, 85, 86
 - duration of criminal activity, 87
 - early and late-starters, 141, 142–3, 144
 - number of convictions, 79, 80–1
 - supporting evidence, 90, 91–4, 95
 - types of offences, 81, 82, 83, 84
 - see also* developmental trajectories of offenders
- Cullen, F.T., 98, 111
- cultural homogeneity and heterogeneity, 54, 55
- CWC see Child Welfare Committee

Cambridge University Press

0521580730 - Criminality and Violence among the Mentally Disordered: The Stockholm Project Metropolitan

Sheilagh Hodgins and Carl-Gunnar Janson

Index

More information224 INDEX

- dangerousness, predictions of, 7–8
- data collection of, 181–3
see also register data; surveys
- Data Inspection Board (DI), 35–6
- death, premature, 24–5, 94
- deinstitutionalization, 113, 121–2, 187–9
criminality before and after, 116–20
in Sweden, 68–9, 120–1
in USA, 113–16
- delinquency
adolescence-limited offenders, 15–16
ethnic and socio-economic factors, 56, 59–60
and intelligence, 181
see also early-start offenders
- delusional disorder, 172–3, 177
- Denmark, studies in, 90–5, 167
- depression see major depression
- detection of offenders, 110–11, 186–7
- developmental trajectories of offenders, 11–17
adolescence to adulthood, 158–61
antecedents of offending, 145–9 conception to adulthood, 161–4
conclusions, 164–5
early to middle childhood, 154–6 empirically derived risk groups, 150–4 implications of research, 165–9
Metropolitan cohort, 175–6 middle childhood to adolescence, 156–8
statistical procedures, 149–50
- discharged patients
studies of criminality of, 98–101
see also after-care treatment; community care
- disease, 27
- disorders see mental disorders; substance use disorders
- Dixon case, 114, 115
- drug users
police and social agency responses, 46–7
see also narcotic offences; substance use disorders
- drugs
use and policy in Sweden, 66–7
see also medication
- dwellings see housing
- early-start offenders, 11–15, 136–9, 190
childhood characteristics, 146–9
clinical studies of, 169–74, 177–8
developmental trajectories, 166–9
future research on, 196–7
in Metropolitan cohort, 175–7
offending patterns, 141–3
prevalence of, 141, 142
preventive intervention, 165–6, 176–7
risk factors, 158, 161–5
- ECA (Epidemiological Catchment Area) study, 20, 26, 122
- economic depression, 74
- economic differences, in Sweden, 56–60
- education
of cohort members, 70
Swedish system, 63–5
see also school experiences; school performance; school surveys
- employment, of cohort members, 72
- employment benefits, 59
- environmental pollutants, 191
- Erb, M., 118, 131
- Eronen, M., 129
- ethnic composition
of cohort members, 69
of Sweden, 53–6, 74
- ethnic segregation, 63
- ethnicity, and crime, 56, 59–60
- etiology
of criminality among mentally ill, 10
of major mental disorders, 19, 21, 23
see also developmental trajectories of offenders
- family background of cohort members, 37, 69
- family problems as factor in offending, 145, 164–5, 168
adolescence, 158, 160–1
childhood, 154–6
comparative analysis, 147, 148
- Felson, R.B., 111
- females see gender; women
- films, violence in, 192
- financial crisis, 74
- Finland, studies in, 95, 99
- Födes, P., 171
- fraud, 81, 82, 83, 84
- gender
of adolescence-limited offenders, 15
and bipolar disorder, 22
of cohort members, 32
and criminality, 77–8, 88, 92–4, 95, 184–5
age at first conviction, 85–6
major disorders, drug use and, 135
number of convictions, 79
types of offences, 83, 85
early and late-start offending, 12, 16, 141–4, 175
and major depression, 19–20
and research on offenders, 11
and schizophrenia, 17, 18

Cambridge University Press

0521580730 - Criminality and Violence among the Mentally Disordered: The Stockholm Project Metropolitan

Sheilagh Hodgins and Carl-Gunnar Janson

Index

More information

- generalization of results, 88–9
 Goodman, N., 48
 governmental files see register data
 Grumet, B.R., 117
 Grunberg, F., 117
 Guze, S.B., 115–16
- Häfner, H., 117–19
 Härnqvist, K., 33
 health care, 58
 see also interventions; mental health policy;
 treatment
 higher education, 64, 65, 70–1
 Hodgins, S., 90, 169–70, 172
 holistic interactionism, 8–9 homelessness, 27
 homicide, 99, 103–4, 129, 130
 hospitalization
 and criminality, 78–9
 criminality of discharged patients, 98–101
 as indicator of disorder, 97
 involuntary, 114–15, 116, 121–2, 187
 to limit offending, 9
 see also after-care treatment; community care;
 deinstitutionalization; In-patient Care
 Register
 housing, 60–3, 69, 72
- immigration, 53–6, 74
 imprisonment
 Swedish policy, 68
 see also prisoners
 In-patient Care Register (ICR), 44–8 income, of cohort members, 73 infectious disease, 27
 informed consent, 35–6
 Inghe, G., 120
 institutionalization see deinstitutionalization;
 hospitalization
 intellectual performance, as factor in offending, 146, 147, 156, 158
 intelligence, and delinquency, 181 interventions
 to prevent offending, 165–6, 176–7
 see also treatment
 intoxication at time of offence, 130–1
 involuntary hospitalization, 114–15, 116, 121–2, 187
- juries, 67–8
 justice see criminal justice
- Klerman, G.L., 20
 Klinger, B.I., 117
 Knecht, G., 171
- late-start offenders, 16, 136–9, 190
 childhood characteristics, 146–9
 clinical studies of, 169–74, 177–8
 future research on, 196–7
 in Metropolitan cohort, 175–7
 offending patterns, 141–3, 144
 prevalence of, 141, 142
 risk factors, 161–4, 165
 law see criminal justice
 Lesage, A., 171–2
 Lewis, S.W., 116–17
 Lindqvist, P., 98, 120–1, 130
 Link, B.G., 98, 111, 126, 131, 144 longitudinal cohort studies, 30 advantages of, 2, 49–50, 180–3
 birth cohort studies, 90–5, 96–7
 disadvantages of, 50
 see also Project Metropolitan Loyer, M., 171–2
- Magnusson, D., 8
 major depression, 19–21, 24–5, 26, 128, 138, 139
 major mental disorders see mental disorders (major) males see gender; men
 Maria Youth Clinics, 46–7
 marital status, of cohort members, 71
 medication, 114, 124
 Mednick, B.R., 167
 men
 early and late-start offenders, 141–2, 143, 144 research focus on, 11
 schizophrenia in, 17, 18
 see also gender
 mental disorders (major) applied research on crimes and, 6–10
 co-morbidity with non-major disorders, 25–6, 137–9
 co-morbidity with substance use disorders, 26–7, 127–30, 188
 of convicted offenders, 101–4
 criminality among subjects with
 age at first conviction, 85, 86–7
 duration of criminal activity, 87
 number of convictions, 79, 80–1
 prevalence, 77–9, 88, 195–6
 principle Metropolitan results, 183–6
 supporting evidence, 90, 92–4, 95, 96–8
 types of offences, 81, 82, 83, 84
 see also criminality of mentally ill
 early and late-start offenders with, 141–3, 144, 169–74, 177–8, 196
 and homelessness, 27
 of homicide offenders, 103–4
 and infectious disease, 27

Cambridge University Press

0521580730 - Criminality and Violence among the Mentally Disordered: The Stockholm Project Metropolitan

Sheilagh Hodgins and Carl-Gunnar Janson

Index

More information

226 INDEX

- mental disorders (cont.)
 - and level of impairment, 23–4
 - and premature death, 24–5
 - sub-types of offenders with, 196–7
 - and substance abuse in childhood, 131–3
 - types of, 17–23
 - see also* bipolar disorder;
 - deinstitutionalization; major depression; schizophrenia
- mental disorders (other) and criminality, 77
 - age at first conviction, 85
 - duration of criminal activity, 87
 - number of convictions, 79
 - supporting evidence, 90, 97
 - types of offences, 81, 82, 83, 84
- mental health, of convicted offenders, 101–4
- mental health care see interventions;
 - treatment
- mental health policy, 193
- mental hospitals see deinstitutionalization;
 - hospitalization
- mentally ill
 - criminalization of, 109–10
 - criminality of see criminality of mentally ill
 - development of offenders see
 - developmental trajectories of offenders
 - see also* mental disorders
- mentally retarded subjects and criminality, 77
 - age at first conviction, 85
 - duration of criminal activity, 87
 - number of convictions, 79
 - types of offences, 82, 83, 84
- Metropolitan Project see Project Metropolitan
- movies, violence in, 192
- murder see homicide
- narcomania, 47–8
- narcotic offences, 82, 84
- National Police Board register of offenders, 40
- neighbourhoods
 - of cohort members, 69
 - in Stockholm, 62–3
- non-disordered subjects
 - childhood characteristics, 146–9
 - see also* criminality of non-disordered
- non-offenders, childhood characteristics, 146–9
- non-violent offending patterns, 141–3, 144
- obstetrical complications see pregnancy and
 - birth problems
- offences
 - intoxication at time of, 130–1
 - register data on, 40–4
 - trends in Sweden, 67
 - types of, 81–5
 - see also* convictions; crime; criminal justice
- offenders
 - age of first conviction, 85–7, 94
 - arrest and conviction, 109–12, 186–7
 - mental health of, 101–4
 - number of convictions, 79–81
 - register data on, 40–4
 - types of, 11–16
 - see also* developmental trajectories of
 - offenders; early-start offenders; late-start offenders
- offending
 - antecedents of, 145–9
 - see also* criminality
- official documents see register data
- Ortmann, J., 90
- 'other' crimes, 81, 82, 83, 84
- out-patient care, 122, 124, 188, 189
 - see also* after-care treatment; community care
- parental leave, 58–9
- parents
 - of early-start offenders, 13, 167–8
 - see also* pregnancy and birth problems
- patients see after-care treatment; community
 - care; hospitalization
- pensions, 59
- personality disorders, 25
- police
 - arrest of mentally ill by, 109–11, 112, 186–7
 - and drug users, 46–7
- policy implications of research, 192–4
- population cohort study, 95–6
- population of Sweden
 - economic and social differences, 56–60
 - ethnic composition, 53–6, 74
- predictions
 - of dangerousness, 7–8
 - see also* risk assessment
- pregnancy and birth, data on, 181–2, 183
- pregnancy and birth problems
 - and cohort effect, 190–1
 - as factor in offending, 145, 147, 154, 156, 161, 167–8, 197–8
- premature death, 24–5, 94
- prenatal complications see pregnancy and
 - birth problems
- preventive interventions, 165–6, 176–7
- principle of right of access, 34–5
- prisoners
 - mental health of, 101–4
 - in Sweden, 68
- Project Metropolitan
 - aims, 29–31

Cambridge University Press

0521580730 - Criminality and Violence among the Mentally Disordered: The Stockholm Project Metropolitan

Sheilagh Hodgins and Carl-Gunnar Janson

Index

More information

- cohort see cohort members
 consistency of results, 89–98
 context of, 2, 53, 74, 180–1
 see also Sweden
 criminality of cohort see criminality data from registers, 36–40, 48
 on in-patient psychiatric diagnoses, 44–8
 on offenders and offences, 40–4
 designing, 31–6
 generalization of results, 88–9
 longitudinal approach of, 30, 49–50, 180–3 studies based on, 48–9
 value of, 49–50, 180–3
- prosecution
 of mentally ill, 109–12, 186–7
 process of, 42
- prospective data, 31, 181
 see also longitudinal cohort studies
- psychiatric diagnoses, register data on, 44–8 psychiatric disorders see mental disorders psychiatric records, 44–8
 psychopathy, 80–1, 174
 psychosocial impairment, 24
 psychotic symptoms, and aggression, 125–7
- public prosecutors, 40–2, 67
- Rabkin, J.G., 117
 refugees, 54, 74
 register data, 34–6, 182
 on in-patient psychiatric diagnoses, 44–8
 on offenders and offences, 40–4
 policy on research registers, 35–6 possibilities and limitations, 48 range in space and time, 39–40
 types of, 36–8
- relative risk estimate, 78
 religious composition of Sweden, 55, 74 research, implications for future, 195–8 research registers, policy on, 35–6 retrospective data, 31–2, 181
- Reveley, A.M., 116–17
 risk assessment, 6–8, 96–7, 194
 risk factors for adult criminality, 145–6, 149–50
 see also developmental trajectories of offenders
- Robertson, G., 110–11
- Schanda, H., 171
 schizophrenia
 co-morbidity, 25, 26, 128, 129, 137–8
 criminality, violence and, 94–5, 96, 98, 99–100, 103–4, 118, 119–21, 129, 131
 early and late-start offenders with, 170–1, 172
 nature of illness, 17–19, 23, 24
 school experiences, of early-start offenders, 13–14 school performance as factor in offending, 146, 164–5
 adolescence, 156, 158, 160, 161
 comparative analysis, 147, 148, 149
 middle childhood, 156
 school surveys, 32–3
 schooling
 of cohort members, 70
 Swedish system, 63–4
 self-report data, 42, 43–4 sentences, 42, 68
 social agencies
 and drug users, 46–7
 see also Child Welfare Committee
 social assistance, 69–70, 73
 social class
 of cohort members, 69–70, 73
 see also socio-economic status social class segregation, 63 social policy, in Sweden, 56–60 societal context of cohort, 2, 53, 74, 180–1 socio-economic status
 and criminality, 59–60, 96
 see also social class
- stable early-start offenders see early-start offenders
- standard of living, 56
 statistical procedures, 149–50
 Stattin, H., 8
 Steadman, H.J., 111, 112, 117
 Stockholm
 ethnic composition, 55
 geography, 61
 housing and neighbourhoods, 61–3
 studies of discharged patients, 98, 99
- Stueve, A., 111, 126, 131, 144
 sub-types of offenders, 196–7
 see also early-start offenders; late-start offenders
- substance use
 in childhood and adolescence, 131–3
 and criminality, 133–6
 drug users, 46–7
 intoxication at time of offence, 130–1
- substance use disorders
 co-morbidity with mental disorders, 26–7, 127–30, 188
 criminality among subjects with, 77, 88
 age at first conviction, 85, 86
 duration of criminal activity, 87
 number of convictions, 79, 81
 supporting evidence, 90, 97
 types of offences, 81, 82, 83, 84
 narcomania, 47–8
 suicide, 24–5

Cambridge University Press

0521580730 - Criminality and Violence among the Mentally Disordered: The Stockholm Project Metropolitan

Sheilagh Hodgins and Carl-Gunnar Janson

Index

More information

228 INDEX

surveys, 32–4, 37

Swanson, J.W., 122, 125, 131

Sweden

alcohol and drugs, 65–7

changing societal context, 74

crime and justice, 67–9

deinstitutionalization, 120–1

economic and social differences, 56–60

education system, 63–5

ethnic composition, 53–6, 74

housing, 60–3

studies of discharged patients, 98, 99

Swedish Data Act (1973), 35

TCO (threat-control/override) symptoms, 125–7

television violence, 192

Tengström, A., 144, 173

Teplin, L.A., 110, 136

Thase, M., 22–3

theft, 81, 82, 83, 84

threat-control/override (TCO) symptoms, 125–7

Tiihonen, J., 95, 99

time, age and cohort, 30

Topitz, A., 171

traffic crimes, 81, 82, 83, 84

treatment

deinstitutionalization, 68–9, 113–22, 187–9

implications of research for, 193, 194–5

inadequate and inappropriate, 122–5, 188

for major depression, 20–1

for schizophrenia, 18

to limit offending, 9–10

see also discharged patients;

hospitalization; interventions

unemployment, 57, 74

unions, 59

USA

criminality, 89

deinstitutionalization, 113–16

study of discharged patients, 98–9

vandalism, 81, 82, 83, 84

violent behaviour

in film and television, 192

of mentally ill, 111–12

predictions of, 7–8

and psychotic and TCO symptoms, 125–7

violent crime

by discharged patients, 98, 99

by people with affective psychoses, 94, 95

by people with schizophrenia, 94–5, 96,

98, 103–4, 129, 131

and deinstitutionalization, 117–19, 120–1

early and late-starters, 141–3, 144

gender differences, 185

homicide, 99, 103–4, 129, 130

prevalence of, 81, 82, 83, 84, 88

and substance abuse, 128–9, 131–3

violent crimes, homicide, 99, 103–4, 129, 130

Wallace, C., 95

Weissman, M.M., 20

welfare society, 57–8

welfare state, recent changes, 74–5

women

early and late-start offenders, 142–3, 144

impact of behaviour on children, 1

schizophrenia in, 17, 18

see also gender

youth gangs, 63

Zachau-Christiansen, B., 167