

Contents

|                                                                                                                                                                   |                 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|
| List of Contributors                                                                                                                                       | page vii |
| Preface                                                                                                                                                    | ix              |
| Introduction   Stabilization After Five Years of Reform:Issues and ExperiencesMario I. Blejer and Marko Škreb                                      | 1               |
| PART I   GENERAL STUDIES                                                                                                                                          |                 |
| 1   From Plan to Market: Patterns of TransitionMartha de Melo, Cevdet Denizer, and Alan Gelb                                                           | 17              |
| 2   The Great Contractions in Transition EconomiesRobert A. Mundell                                                                                    | 73              |
| 3   Enterprise Credit and Stabilization in TransitionEconomies: Experience with Enterprise IsolationProgramsMarcelo Selowsky and Matthew Vogel | 100             |
| 4   Employeeism: Corporate Governance and EmployeeShare Ownership in Transitional EconomiesD. Mario Nuti                                           | 126             |
| PART II   COUNTRY STUDIES                                                                                                                                         |                 |
| 5   Inflation and Stabilization in Poland, 1990–95Stanislaw Wellisz                                                                                    | 157             |
| 6   The Political Economy of the Hungarian Stabilizationand Austerity ProgramJános Kornai                                                          | 172             |

|    |                                                                                                                         |     |
|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| vi | Contents                                                                                                         |     |
| 7  | Preparation and Implementation of a Credible Stabilization Program in the Republic of CroatiaNikica Valentić | 204 |
| 8  | Exchange Rate and Prices in a Stabilization Program: The Case of CroatiaVelimir Šonje and Marko Škreb        | 212 |
| 9  | Stabilization in Slovenia: From High Inflation to Excessive Inflow of Foreign CapitalVelimir Bole            | 234 |
| 10 | Macroeconomic Stabilization in the Baltic StatesArdo H. Hansson                                              | 256 |
| 11 | Economic Reform in UkraineOleh Havrylyshyn                                                                   | 281 |
|    | PART III AFTERWORD                                                                                                      |     |
| 12 | Economic Transformation and the Policies for Long-Term GrowthVito Tanzi                                      | 313 |
|    | Index                                                                                                            | 327 |