

Contents

	Series Editor's Introduction	page ix
Part One
Gerald Dworkin and R. G. Frey
	Introduction	3
1	The Nature of Medicine	6
	Professing Ethically	12
	The Limits of Medicine	13
2	Distinctions in Death	17
3	The Fear of a Slippery Slope	43
4	Public Policy and Physician-Assisted Suicide	64
Part Two
Sissela Bok
5	Choosing Death and Taking Life	83
	Individual Control at the End of Life	84
	Two Debates	85
	Three Main Categories of Contemporary Views	88
	A Reexamination	90
6	Suicide	93
	The Freedom to Choose Death	94
	Christianity and the Prohibition of Suicide	97
	Arguments Invoking the Law of Nature	100
	Longing for Easeful Death	101

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-58246-9 - Euthanasia and Physician-Assisted Suicide
Gerald Dworkin, R. G. Frey and Sissela Bok
Table of Contents
More information

viii CONTENTS

7	Euthanasia	107
	Autonomy and Mercy	110
	Societal Risks and Slippery Slopes	112
	Neglect and Maltreatment of the Dying	118
	Euthanasia in the Netherlands and Beyond	122
8	Physician-Assisted Suicide	128
	Assistance	129
	The Role of Physicians	133
	A Cry for Help?	136
	Treatment	137