Contents

List of tables and figures   page xi
Preface  xiii
Acknowledgments  xvii

1 Apocalypse now or never?  1
Some challenges  2
The role of technology  7
Markets and market failures  9
Standard remedies  12
Collective action at the supranational level  14
Global and regional treaties  15
Some key issues  19
Purpose of the book  21
Plan of the book  22

2 Global interdependencies: Basic tools and principles  23
“He made me do it”: The Prisoners’ Dilemma  26
Other games and their applicability  34
External effects: Further considerations  39
Public goods  43
Public goods with selective incentives  45
Public supply aggregation considerations  47
Contents

Concluding remarks 50

3 For our children’s children 52
   Irreversibilities and first-mover advantage 54
   The role of discounting on irreversible decisions 62
   Sustainable growth 64
   An expanded taxonomy for public goods 67
   Authoritarian versus democratic regimes 69
   The impact of income inequality on intergenerational choice 72
   Missing markets and intergenerational choice 76
   Institutional aspects 82
   Concluding remarks 83

4 Global house 84
   People and more people 86
   Tropical deforestation 91
   Global warming 99
   Ozone shield depletion 106
   Acid rain 115
   Transnational terrorism 129
   Peacekeeping missions 139
   Concluding remarks 141

5 Architecture of institutions 142
   The need for supranational infrastructure 144
   Design principles 147
   Linkage benefits and costs 150
   Linkage formation 153
   Linkage structure 154
   Nongovernmental alternatives 155
   A supranational link case study: LRTAP 158
   Other design-promoting factors 163
   Concluding remarks 163
Contents

6 Change we must: Evolutionary concerns 165
   On repeated games 167
   Evolutionary games 173
   Evolutionary games and global challenges 176
   Evolution and the effects of income distribution 180
   Concluding remarks 181

7 Equity among nations? 182
   Causes of increased global income inequality 183
   Trade and the environment 190
   When is income inequality a good thing? 193
   When is income inequality a bad thing? 195
   Implications for income policies 196
   Intergenerational problems once again 197
   Concluding remarks 198

8 Near horizons 199
   Global crises: Myth or reality? 201
   Global conflicts: The outlook 203
   Problems of the next millennium and beyond 207
   Wither the nation-state? 211
   Key conclusions of the book 212

References 215
Author index 227
Subject index 230