

Index

- 3M, 119
 advertising, and corporate investment, 185
 Agnew, J., 140
 Altomare, M., 195, 196, 198
 American Express 119
 Amin, A. 139
 Anheier, H. 201
 Arato, A. 142, 144
 Arendt, H. 93–4
 Aristotle 7, 13
   ethics subservient to politics 28, 30
   human flourishing 159
   notion of purpose 120, 128
   see also civic ethic
 Arthur Anderson 2
 Association for Professional and Practical Ethics 23 attachment theory 85–6 authority based on promises 219–20
   cooperation-facilitating 220–21
   of experts 219
 Badaracco, J. L. Jr. 215
 Barber, B. 26, 89–92
 Barrett, F. 6
 Bay Area Council, corporate/city relationship 153, 157
 Bayer Corporation, exactions to Berkeley 154
 Becker, L. C. 79
 Behrens, W. W. III 175
 Bello, W. 182, 183
 biomimicry 194
 Boatright, J. R. 14, 17
 Boeing 119
 bogus empowerment 217
 Bohman, J. 92, 94
 Boulding, K. 146
 Bowlby, J. 85–6, 88
 Boyatzis, R. 231
 Bradford, D. 78
 Bradsher, K. 186
 Braungart, M. 195
 Brenkert, G. G. 218
 Bretton Woods agreements 181
   free trade and deregulation 183
 Brown, M. T. 226, 229
 Brundtland Report 176
 Bruyn, S. T. 149
 Buber, M. 36, 58–60
 Buchholz, R. 184
 Buddhist economics 192
 Burke, K. 40
 business ethics 9, 12, 30
 calculative thinking 63
 Capra, F. 194, 200
 Carnegie, Andrew, corporate philanthropy 155
 Carson, R. 171, 191
 Castells, M. 187
 Chua, A. 188–89
 Citicorp 119
 cities
   connection with networks 139 missions of 159–160
   and corporations 160–62, 165
   regional places 140–42
   size of 139
   trustworthy government 165
 Ciulla, J. B. 217
 civic cooperation 4, 13, 218–21
 civic ethic
   Aristotle 28, 119
   business values 29–30 development of private ethic 29
   economy and politics 30, 31

- civic perspective, on corporate purpose
  - Aristotle's notion of purpose 119–21
  - environmental integrity 197
  - meaning for profit and nonprofit organizations 121, 131–32
- civic relationships, ideal images 89–92
  - thin and strong democracy 89–92
  - town hall meeting 92
  - see also* public deliberation
- civil economy 149
- civil society 142–43, 148
  - Boulding's system strategies 146–47, 148
  - contextual view 147–49
  - inclusion of businesses and corporations
    - as different sectors 144
    - embedded subsystem 144–46
    - global 161
    - interdependence of cities and corporations 158–59
    - liberal view 143
    - as separate spheres 144
- Coase, R. N. 109, 111
  - essay on the firm 109
- coercion
  - or influence, of leaders 211–12, 216, 216–18
  - or subordination 218
- Cohen, A. 78
- Cohen, J. L. 142, 144
- Coleman, D. 26, 231
- Collins, J. C. 35, 113, 118–19
- Committee to Encourage Corporate Philanthropy 155
  - and Enron 156
- communication patterns
  - awareness and reflection 39–40, 50
  - awareness of boundaries 206
  - city/corporation relationships 59, 165
  - contextual perspective 33–7
  - corporations as patterns 32
  - design of 36
  - evaluate integrity 3
  - leadership 209–11
  - moral agency 125, 126
  - openness 10, 40
    - and reciprocity 101
  - verbal and nonverbal 4, 72–3
- company towns 150
- competition and cooperation,
  - ethnocentric communication 47
- Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act 172
- consumer preference
  - prices 108
  - rationality 107
- consumption
  - and advertising 185–86
  - and Buddhist economics 192
  - global increase and environmental damage 184–85
  - sustainability 186
  - value of 183
- contextual force 43
  - in ethnocentric communication 46
- Convention on Biological Diversity 176
- cooperative relationship
  - among adults 86
  - development of infants 85–6
- corporate citizenship 26, 27–8, 31
  - cooperation with communities and governments 137
  - nonprofit corporations 137
  - stages of development 27
- corporate culture 9
  - example of four cultural types 50–2
  - need for openness 10, 40, chapter 2 passim
  - Pearce's typology 40–50
  - responses to differences and disagreements 52–4
- corporate dominance 181, 183
  - balance with corporate responsibility 27
  - disabling of democracy 23
  - protest against 22
- corporate integrity
  - civic case for 97
  - creation of 35–36
    - capacity for dialogue 36
  - see also* integrity
- corporate leaders, and trustworthy government 166
- corporate philanthropy 154–56, 162
- corporate responsibility 19, 22–3, 189, 208–09
  - citizen theory 20–1, 22

- classic theory 14–5, 21
  - role of financial institutions in
    - corporate governance 15–6
    - socially responsible investment 15
- contractual theory 17–8, 21
- corporate agent theory 19–20, 21
  - and integrity 21
  - interpretations of 13–4
  - and leadership 209–11
- corporate scandals 2
- corporations
  - acting as citizens 137
  - and city governments 150, 161
    - business leader model 152–53
    - competitive market model 153–54
    - interdependence 158–59
    - ownership model 150–51
    - partnership model 156–57
    - philanthropic model 154–56, 161
    - unconscious model 151–52
- definitions 4, 32
- development of internal purpose 129
- dimensions of integrity 2, 9
  - and environment 177, 179–80, 195, 198
    - setting boundaries 201–02
  - and global financial markets 188
    - ethnic hatred 188–189
  - partnerships with nonprofit organizations 24
  - relational awareness 7
    - see also* education funding
- cosmopolitan communication 49–50, 55, 68
  - corporate cultural integrity 69
    - response to differences and disagreements 53–54
- cultural pluralism, world of technology 65–6
- cultural relativism 39
- currency speculation, and goldstandard 182
- customer relations, view of work relationships 78
- De Simone, L. D. 56
- deep ecology movement 193
- DeGeorge, R. 4, 13
- Delucchi, M. 132–33
- democracy, and corporate dominance 24–5, 161
- Derr, Ken, and corporate philanthropy 155
- DesJardins, J. 196
- developing countries, and trade, see international financial system
- dialogue
  - acknowledgment of other's resources 61
  - awareness of others 60
  - developing thought 62
  - exploring the unknown 61
  - leadership 227–28
  - questions of inquiry 60–1
  - relationship through conversation 58–60
  - self-understanding 62
  - use in designing cultural integrity 68–9
- disenchantment, modernistic communication 48
- Disney 118–19
- Dolan, P. 208, 224
- Donaldson, T. 17
- downsizing, and company integrity 102
- Dream Works, corporate/city relationship 154
- Dreier, P. 141, 152, 154
- Dreyfus, H. 81–2
- Dunfee, T. 17
- earnings gap, in US 141
- Earth Day 171
- Earth Summit
  - Johannesburg 179
  - Rio de Janeiro 176
- Eckersley, R. 203
- ecological consciousness 191
- ecological denial 203
- ecological sustainability 194
- economic man image 88–89
- economic perspective, on corporate purpose
  - efficiency 111
  - for-profit terminology 108, 111
    - Adam Smith view 108–09
    - firms' existence 109
    - integrity of action 112

- economic perspective, on corporate purpose (cont.)
  - standard for evaluating conduct 112
  - individual level of analysis 110, 111
  - institutional economics 110
  - organizational theory 109
  - prices 108
  - see also* Bretton Woods; management perspective
- economizing, value of 64
- education funding by corporations 162, 163
  - business case for 164
  - control of funds 162–64
  - corporate culture 164
- efficiency, and integrity 8, 129
  - of nature 194
  - and political leaders 212
  - value of 63–64
- Ellsworth, R. R. 117, 215
- emotional maturity 231–32
- employee civic participation 156
- employee control 218
- employee/employer issues 72, 101
- employee treatment 207
- employee volunteers 156
- employees, nonprofits 123
- Enderle, G. 14, 116
- Engel, J. G. 176
- Engel, J. R. 176
- Enron 2, 156
- entrepreneurial image, of work
  - relationship 81–2, 83, 84, 100
- Environmental Defense Fund (EDF), partnership with McDonald's 173
- environmental integrity
  - appropriate questions 198–99
  - business case 197
  - changing attitudes of corporations 170–72
  - and consumption 186
  - Global Compact 23, 177, 179, 180, 203
  - integrity between corporations and nature 10, 166, 169–70
  - living system 193–94
  - natural prosperity 202–03
  - Natural Step program 195
  - partnerships between profits and nonprofits 173
    - exclusion of government agencies 174, 180–81
  - protection and human development 179
  - setting boundaries 201–02
  - subsidiarity principle 199–201
  - transport costs and consumption 184–85
  - see also* consumption; corporations, and city governments; international financial system; UN and sustainability
- Environmental Protection Act (1971) 171
- equality, condition of 94, 102
- ethics and corporate responsibility programs 208–09
- ethics of virtue 129
- Ethics Officer Association 23
- ethnic hatred, and financial inequality 188–89
- ethnocentric communication 46–7, 68
  - attitude to resources 55–7
  - response to differences and disagreements 52
- exchange strategy, to manage system 147–49
- fair wages 81
- family dinner image 87–8
  - and work setting 88–9
- family relationships, ideal images 84–9
- Feenberg, A. 63, 66
- feminist ethic 74
  - and economic man 88–9
- Ferrell, O. C. 8
- fiduciary capitalism 15
- Fitzer Vineyards, mission statement 207–08
- Flores, F. 81–2
- flourishing
  - human flourishing 193
  - human and nonhuman nature 166
  - nature 119, 159, 203
- Ford Motor Company 118–19
  - advertising 185–86
- Forest Principles 176
- for-profit organizations

- civic perspective on purpose 131–32
 comparison with nonprofits 122–23
see also civic perspective; economic perspective; management perspective
- Fort, T. L. 18
- Fraedrich, J. P. 8
- Framework Convention on Climate Change (FCCC) 176
- Frederick, W. C. 64
- Freeman, R. E. 18, 127
- French, P. A. 124–25
- Friedman, M. 14, 109
- Friedmann, J. 139, 141, 159
- function, and Aristotle's notion of purpose 120, 128
- Gadamer, H.-G. 34, 62
- Gaia hypothesis 193
- Galbraith, J. K. 94
 typology of power 94
- Gates, Bill and Melinda foundation 162
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) 181
- General Mills, corporate philanthropy 155
- Gewirth, A. 120
- Gilbert, D. R. 127
- Gilligan, C. 73–4
- Glasius, M. 201
- global capitalism, and ethnic conflict 188–89
- Global Compact 23, 177, 179, 180, 203
- Global Reporting Initiative 180
- Gould, C. 160
- Greenpeace, and worthwhile purpose 121
- Hackman, J. R. 222–23, 226, 231, 232
- Hartman, C. 153
- Hartman, E. 7, 18, 29, 30, 129
- Hartman, L. P. 226
- Hawken, P. 64, 186, 194
- Hawley, J. P. 15–6
- Heidegger, M. 63
- Held, V. 88
- Hertz, N. 186
- Hewlett-Packard 118–19
- history makers, and entrepreneurship 81
- Hoffman, A. J. 170–72
- Holliday, C. O. Jr. 14, 27, 157, 180, 181, 184
- Hooker Chemical Corporation 171
- Horth, D. M. 222
- hostile takeovers 151
- Housing Act (1949), and urban renewal 152
- human development, yardstick for technology 192
- Human Environment Conference 174
- human flourishing, see Aristotle
- hypernorms 18
- IBM 119
- Ichijo, K. 96–7, 224
- Ignatieff, M. 232
- implicative force 44
- Institute for Business Ethics 37
- insurance companies, and environmental disasters 172
- integration strategy, to manage system 147, 147–49
- integrity
 civic perspective on corporations 4, 97, 218–21 connection with systems 4 corporation/city relationship 160–62 development of 57–8
 dialogical process 63, 68–9
 dimensions of 10, 250
 challenges to 13
 issues of diversity 209
 mutual reinforcement 207
- Kaptein and Wempe theory 8–9
- meanings of consistency 5–6
 inclusion 8, 233
 worthwhile purpose 9, 207–08
- openness 13, 129
- of public education 162–64
- relational wholeness 5, 13, 53, 97, 99, 101, 129
- standard for corporate conduct 3, 138
- Interface Inc., and sustainability 196
- internal decision structure, of corporations 124
- International Bank for Reconstruction and Development 181

- international financial system
 Bretton Woods agreements 181
 dominance of US 181, 183
 gap between rich and poor 186–88
 International Global Forum 185
 International Monetary Fund (IMF)
 181, 182
 International Union for the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN) 176
 interpersonal dimension of corporate
 integrity 9
 relationship identity 11
 interpersonal relations, see relationship images
 Isaacs, W. 58
- Jefferson, Thomas 90
 Johnson and Johnson, responsible management 113, 118–19, 133
 Johnson, S. 86
 Jones 26
- Kaldon, M. 201
 Kaptein, M. 8–9, 16, 32, 64, 110, 121
 Keene, J. 146, 161
 Kegan, R. 96
 Kellerman, B. 211–14, 217
 King, A. 175
 King, Martin Luther Jr. 81, 95
 Kiser, K. J. 78
 Koehn, D. 74
 Korten, D. 23, 185, 187
 Krogh, G. von 96–7, 224
- labour law, transformation in US 77–8
 land ethic 190–92
 Law of Reciprocity 78
 leader-and-follower relationship 214, 226 importance of 215–16
 integrity in 215
 moral character of 217, 226
 separate category of managers 216, 230
 leadership
 emotional maturity 231–32
 dialogue 227–28
 asking questions 228
 sharing information 230 provision of signs of mystery 232 shared activity 232
 signaling expectations 227
 worthwhile purpose 214, 220, 221
see also leader-and-follower relationship; team leadership learning teams, in work relationships 80
 LeClair, D. Thorne 8
 Leipziger 26
 Leopold, A. 190–92
 liberal political tradition 89, 90, 91
 and public thinking 91
 Locke, John 89
 Logsdon, J. M. 20, 27–8, 164
 Lorins, A. 186, 194
 Lorins, L. Hunter 186, 194
 Love Canal incident 171
 Lovelock, J. E. 193
- MacDonald, M. 186
 McDonald's, and environment
 173–174
 McDonough, W. 195
 McGill, A. R. 20, 137
 McIntosh 26
 McKee, A. 231
 McMahan, C. 218–21
 management perspective
 for-profit and nonprofit 115–16
 profit distribution 118
 purpose other than profit 113, 117
 core ideology 118
 role of profit 116
 wealth creation 116–17
 market image, of work relationship 78–80, 83, 84, 99, 100
 market system, civic and government relations 144–46
 Markkula Center for Applied Ethics 23,
 37
 Marriott 118–19
 masculine versus feminine ethic 74
 master-and-servant image, of work relationship 76–8, 83, 84, 99, 100, 211
 Maxxam Inc., hostile takeover 151
 May, William, American Can Company
 212
 Meadows, D. H. 175
 Meadows, D. L. 175

- Meck 119
- Michels, R. 214
- micro, meso, macro levels 14, 111
- mission, corporate 4, 11, 20, 35, 108, 111, 156, 207
- mission statements, of cities 160
- Mitchell, W. 140
- Mitsubishi corporation 188
- modernistic communication 48–9, 68
- differences and disagreements 53
  - entrepreneurship 82
  - recognition of boundaries 57
  - technological efficiency 63–4
- Mollenkoph, J. 141, 152, 154
- monocultural communication 44–6, 64, 68
- and cosmopolitan communication 54–5
  - differences and disagreements 52
  - technology 64
- moral agency of corporations 13, 124–25
- response to mistakes 126
- mother-and-child image 85–7, 88
- Motorola 119
- Moura, Julio 13
- mutual dependency, see family relationships
- myth of scarcity 55–7, 190
- Nace, T. 24, 128
- Naess, A. 190, 193
- Narvesen 96
- Natural Semiconductor, moral responsibility 124
- Nattrass, B. 195, 196, 198
- natural dimension of corporate integrity 10
- inclusion in natural environment 12
- Natural Step 195
- and Interface Inc. 196
- nature, integrity of
- biosphere as living system 193–94
  - deep ecology 193
  - efficiency 8, 129
  - land ethic 190–92
  - natural prosperity 13, 202–03
- Natural Step 195
- perception of 197
- relationships with civil society 197–98
  - small is beautiful 192–93
- new knowledge, superior to old 48
- Newman, Paul, corporate philanthropy 155
- Newton, L. H. 67, 151
- Niebuhr, R. 94
- Nierenberg, D. 186
- Nonaka, I. 96–7, 224
- nonprofit organizations
- civic perspective on purpose 131–32
  - comparison with for-profits 122–23
  - defining characteristics 122
  - see also* civic perspective; economic perspective; management perspective
- non-tyranny, condition of 93, 102
- Nordstrom 118–19
- North, D. C. 110
- O’Meara Sheehan, M. 142
- O’Toole, J. 81, 93
- Olson, C. 156
- openness, see communication patterns; corporate culture; integrity
- Organization of Oil Producing Countries (OPEC), loans to developing countries 182
- organizational dimension, of corporate integrity 9
- purpose 11
  - consistent with actions 106
  - see also* integrity
- organizations, role in institutional economics 110
- original monoculturalists 45
- Orr, D. 194, 203
- Orren, K. 76–7
- Ostwald, M. 28
- overseas job transfer, and company integrity 102
- Pacific Lumber Company 151
- Packard, David, on corporate purpose 113
- Paine, L. Sharp 8, 23
- Palmer, T. G. 143
- Palus, C. J. 222

- partnerships, and environmental sustainability
  - between profit and nonprofit organizations 173
  - excluding government agencies 174
  - see also* Global Compact; UN and sustainability
- Pateman, C. 130
- Pearce, W. Barnett 33, 40–50, 59, 62, 69, 232
  - typology of culture 68, 165, 206
  - coherence, coordination and mystery 41, 49–50
  - temporal logic 43–4, 68
  - treatment of others 42, 68
  - treatment of resources 41, 68
- Peccie, A. 175
- performance reviews, work relationship images 83–4
- Petrick, J. A. 8
- Philip Morris 119
- political empowerment, and ethnocentric communication 47
- political power
  - through deliberation 93
  - through wealth and position 94
- Popoff, F. 56
- Porras, J. I. 113, 118–19
- Post, R. C. 142
- post office and contextual models 33, 39, 79, 125, 142, 210, 231
- Potlach Lumber Company 150
- poverty
  - in developing countries 186
  - in urban areas 141–42
- practical force 44
  - in cosmopolitan communication 50
  - in modernist communication 48
- precautionary principle 202
- prefigurative force 43, 45
  - in ethnocentric communication 46
- privatization of democracy 24–5
- Proctor and Gamble 119
- profit, role in organizations 116–18
- profit motive, and corporate responsibility 15, 16, 17, 108, 111, 113
  - of managers 115–116
  - meaning of purpose 121, 131–32
- public deliberation 91, 92, 92–5, 202
- publicity condition 95, 102
- Pullman Company 150
- purpose, of corporations 13
  - civic perspective 119–21, 131–32
  - economic perspective 107–12
  - management perspective 112–19
  - meanings of purpose 126–27, 130
    - agent and non-agent 127, 127–28
    - individual and organization 128
    - internal and external organization 129
- Quinn, J. F. 8
- Radin, T. J. 98
- Radner, H. 28
- Randers, J. 175
- rationality, and consumer preference 107
- reactionary monoculturalists 45
- reciprocity 79, 81
- Red Cross, and worthwhile purpose 121
- reflective logic 44–50
- relationship images 73, 75
  - drawings of family, civic and work images 74–6, 99
  - realistic 74–6
  - Gilligan's work 73–4
  - Johnson and Johnson credo 133
  - official images of work relationships 76–84
    - ideal 74–6
- religious fundamentalists 45
- republican theory of citizenship 90–1
- Research Foundation for Science, Technology and Ecology 184
- response, failure of 74
- responsibility, individualist view 124–26
  - see* corporate responsibility
- Rio Declaration 176, 202
- Rion, M. 7
- risk, and Pearce's typology 42, 46, 48
- Robert, K. H. 195
- Rosenblum, N. L. 142
- Rosenthal, S. 184
- Rost, J. C. 215–17

- Sagoff, M. 24
 Salamon, L. M. 116, 121–23
 San Francisco City Charter 160
 Sandel, M. J. 30, 90
 Sashkin, M. 78
 Sassen, S. 140–141
 Scalet, S. 143
 Schmidheiny, S. 14, 27, 157, 179, 180, 184
 Schmidt, D. 143
 Schmookler, A. 55
 Schumacher, E. F. 190, 192–93
 Sclore, R. 66
 Scott, A. 140
 self, notions of 6–7
   in civic relationships 218
   and entrepreneurship 82
   public and private 24
   see also interpersonal dimension of integrity self-governing organizations 123, 126 self-governing republic 90, 91, 93
   town hall meeting 92
 self-government 30
 Sen, A. 111
 Senge, P. M. 80
 September 11 attacks
   and consumption 183
   and interdependence of corporations and cities 158
 servant status 77
 Shiva, V. 185
 Shorebank Corporation, corporate and civic partnership 156
 Siegel, D. 85
 simplicity movement 67
 Simpson, L. 66
 slow-food and slow-town movements 67
 Smith, Adam 108–09
 social contract theory 88
 social dimension, of corporate integrity 10 relationship with public/government agencies 12 social empowerment, ethnocentric communication 47
 Soja, E. W. 140
 Solidarity movement (Poland) 142
 Solomon, R. 6, 7, 29–30, 129
 Sony 118–19
 Soros, G. 187–88
 Spinoza, C. 81–2
 Srivastra, S. 6
 St. Clair, L. 20, 137
 stakeholders 18–9, 102, 110, 115, 209
 Storper, M. 140
 subsidiarity principle 102, 199–201, 209
 sustainability, see consumption; environment; UN and sustainability
 Swanstrom, T. 141, 152, 154
 Taub, R. C. 156
 team leadership
   communication patterns 223
   attention to context 224 expectations 225
   levels of management 222
   participants in deliberations 225–26
   relational view teamwork image, of work relationship 80–1, 83, 84, 99, 100 technical information, and tacit knowledge 228–29
 technological rationality 63
 technology
   impact on experience of time 66–7
   mix with traditional culture 67 and modernistic culture 63–4, 139 and natural environment 169, 171, 192–93, 202
   and open culture 68
   relationship with democracy 66 relationship between world and culture 65–6 threat strategy, to manage system 146–47, 147–49
 Thrift, N. 139
 Tichy, N. M. 20, 137
 Total Quality Management (TQM) movement 78
 trade and development
   Bretton Woods 181
   problems with US control 183
   UNCTAD 182
 traditional culture 45

- transportation system 134
  - public and private costs 132–33
  - role of profit and nonprofit organizations 133
  - types of agencies in 132
- Trevino, L. K. 226
- triple line reporting 180
- trust, link with integrity 3

- Ulrich, P. 31, 146
- Unilever 96
- United National Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), withdrawal of US support for 182
- United Nations Environment Program (UNEP) 175, 176, 180
- United Nations, and sustainability
  - 2002 Earth Charter 197, 201
  - Framework Convention on Climate Change 176
  - global climate change 174
  - Global Compact 23, 177, 179, 180, 203
  - Kyoto conference 177
  - national agendas and global agreement 174, 176
  - scientific and economic analysis 175–176
  - World Conservation Strategy 176
- universal owners 16
- Unwanted Repetitive Patterns (URPs) 46
- urban renewal movement 152–53

- value, and price 108
- values, and assumptions 229–30
- Van Til, J. 115, 144
- Velasquez, M. 124–26
- Velvet Revolution 142

- Waddock, S. 14
- Wal-Mart
  - core ideology 118–19
  - people as consumers 151
  - size of economy 188
- Walzer, M. 24, 150, 163, 224
- Watson, C. 5–6
- Watts, P. 14, 27, 157, 180, 184
- Weisbord, M. 80
- Wempe, J. 8–9, 16, 32, 64, 110, 121
- Werhane, P. H. 98
- wholeness, see integrity, meanings of
- Williams, A. T. 15–6
- Wood, D. J. 20, 27–8, 164
- work experience, participation in democracy 130
- work relationships
  - connection with relationships of nature 207
  - need for cooperation 79
  - need for security 95–100, 96–7
  - reciprocity 76–8, 99, 100
    - secure civic reciprocity 101–03
  - relational wholeness 73, 101
  - right to participate 97–9, 100
  - see also* relationship images
- worker participation 218
  - see also* authority; coercion
- World Bank 181, 182
- World Business Council for Sustainable Development (WBCSD) 37, 157, 179–80, 181, 184
- World Economic Forum 25
- World Social Forum 25
- World Trade Association (WTO) 181
  - and free trade 183
- world trade, gap between rich and poor 186–88
  - see also* consumption
- World Wildlife Fund (WWF) 176
- World-Com 2
- worthwhile purpose, see integrity; leadership; purpose
- Zadek, S. 27–8, 31, 180