

Index

References are confined to names of puppets and major characters, puppeteers and companies, theatres, plays and relevant writers and artists. Where several names appear belonging to the same family, or when the puppeteer's name and that of the family troupe are the same, a single entry is used. Variants on spelling of a name are grouped under a single heading. A single entry is also used for major works with an eponymous hero (e.g. Don Juan).
