

Index

- ABNA (Anorexia Bulimia Nervosa Association), 137
- Aboriginal women, 21
- Abrahams S. F., 51
- acupuncture, 158
- addiction
and creative artists, 78
and theories of anorexia, 51–2
as way to self-knowledge, 131
- adolescence, and identity development, 52
- aerobics, 153
- ages of participants, 20, 194–6
- Al Anon, 35
- Alcoholics Anonymous (AA), 34, 35, 90, 92
- alcoholism, 90, 92
- Aleisha (participant), 22, 23
on food, 183
and New Age discourse, 174
profile, 196
on reconnecting with the world, 73
on spirituality, 98, 99
- alienation, from the body, 149–50
- American Psychiatric Association, xi, 48
- anorexia, defining, xi–xii
- anorexia nervosa defining, xi, 47–9, 62
numbers of sufferers, 50
- Anorexia and Recovery (Way)*, 42, 66
- anthropology, and subjectivity in research, 32–3
- Ariel (participant), 60
on the body, 98
and Judaism, 96, 98–9, 175
profile, 195
on swimming, 157
- ascetic ‘ego ideal’, 120–1, 128
- asceticism
anorexia nervosa as a ‘distorted’ form of, 101–2 contemporary meanings of, 110, 120–8, 129, 190–1
as distorted spirituality, 118–20, 124–5 Durkheim on, 103, 110
historical studies of, 112–17
James on, 106
Kovel on, 108
in Michael, 135
and non-recovery, 110, 111–12
Weber on, 105
- Atkinson, P., 17
- Atwood, Margaret, 42–3
- Augustine, St, 37–8
Confessions, 34
- autobiography, xii
Catherine (the author), 3–16
and conversations with participants, 25 dangers of, 35–6
and the politics of writing, 37
and sociology, 32–5
as a source of understanding, 189 spiritual, 34–5 ‘truth’ of, 36
- Bach, J. S., 6
- Baker Baumann, T., 169
- balance, in yoga, 178
- Banks, C. G., 113, 114–15
- Barthes, R., 33
- Bates, B., 54
- Beauty Myth, The (Wolf)*, 50
- Beauvoir, Simone de, 149
on pregnancy, 170–1
- Being and Nothingness (Sartre)*, 148–50
- being-in-the-world, therapies concerned with, 65
- Bell, Rudolph, Holy Anorexia, 113–14
- belly-dancing, 154, 157
- Ben-Tovim, D. I., 50
- Beresin, E. V., 165
- Berger, P., 34
- Bernard of Clairvaux, 10
- Beumont, P., xi, 21
- Bharati, A., 179

- bike-riding, 154, 157, 187
 body image, and theories of anorexia, 49–51 Body in the Mind (Johnson), 178 Body in Society, The (Turner), 56 body, the
 and asceticism, 111
 of the author, 151–2
 connecting with oneself, 98
 dualistic discourses, 10, 148–51, 160–1, 162, 164–5, 173, 177, 190, 192
 and the sexed body, 179–82
 imaginary body, 153, 154, 159–60, 161, 180, 183, 191 ‘inner’ and ‘outer’, 147, 150, 151–4, 178
 and knowledge, 173–83
 maternal body, 170–2
 and New Age discourses, 176–7
 place in recovery, 191–2 recreating, 147–61
 ritual transformations, 154–9, 161 and the self, 51, 117, 147, 148–51, 154
 in Michael, 135
 and pregnancy, 171
 sexed, 179–82
 and sexuality, 162–72
 and spirit, 104, 117, 164–5
 body-for-itself, 152–4, 163 body-for-myself, 149 body-for-others, 149, 150, 152, 163 body-in-itself, 149, 150, 163
 Boone O’Neill, C., 119
 Bruch, H., 38
 Conversations with Anorexics, 65
 Brumberg, J. J., 40, 41, 48, 51, 113, 127, 179
 Bruner, E., 32
 Buddhism, 34
 and the imaginary body, 160
 participants’ involvement in, 90, 91, 97, 98, 175 and time, 108
 bulimia nervosa
 and body boundaries, 51
 defining, xi
 as a ‘dependency’, 52 and Dominic, 135–7
 and Miranda, 137–40
 numbers of sufferers, 50
 and participants, 194–7
 psychiatric classification of, 48 transition from anorexia to, 125 and Vivienne, 90
 Bynum, C. W., 113, 115
 Campion, Jane, The Piano, 12
 capitalism and instrumental rationality, 174
 and mystic rationality, 104–5
 Carpenter, Karen, 112
 Catherine of Siena, St, 114
 Catholic Church, 175
 Ceaser, M., 123
 Celermajer, D., 53
 celibacy, 164, 165, 171
 Chernin, K., 58
 childbirth see pregnancy and childbirth Christianity
 and asceticism as distorted spirituality, 119, 124
 and death from anorexia, 112
 in Lesley’ story, 87
 and life-crisis liminality, 126–7
 and medieval fasting women, 40, 114
 narratives of, 101
 and New Age spirituality, 175
 and recovery, 97, 175
 Christine (author’s ‘kindred spirit’), 6–7
 Clare, St, 114
 class, of participants, 19–20, 21, 89
 Clément, Father, 124
 Clifford, J., 32
 Cline, S., 164, 165 clinical definitions of anorexia, 47–9, 62 coherence of recovery stories, 80–1, 186 compulsive eating, xi
 and anorexia, 58, 118
 and body boundaries, 51
 and clinical definitions, 48
 confession, and spiritual autobiography, 35 Confessions (St Augustine), 34
 connecting with oneself, 98
 connection with nature, 99
 connection with others, 98–9
 consciousness, and memory, 37–8 continuum model of anorexia, 49–50 contraception, and the maternal body, 171
Conversations with Anorexics (Bruch), 65
 Coopman, Veronica, ‘The Healing Force’, 76
 ‘copy-cat anorexia’, 127
 Cotterill, 18
 Cottom, D., 37
 Counihan, D. M., Holy Feast and Holy Fast, 115
 Crawford, J., 32, 38
 creative activities
 Miranda and, 137, 139–40

236 Index

- creative activities (cont.)
 Naomi and, 141–2
 and recovery, 77–9, 186, 187
 and ritual transformations of the body, 154
- Crites, S., 38, 40
 Csordas, T., 130
- Dally, P., 64
 Damien, Father, 5
 Dana, Mira, 51
 dancing, 154, 161
- death anorexia and, 55, 59–60, 108
 coming to terms with Dominic, 135–6, 137
 Miranda, 140
 deaths from anorexia, 63, 111–12, 114
 existentialism and, 100
 hidden death themes, 121, 122–4, 129
 and medieval and modern fasting, 191
 myths of, 81, 101
 and recovery, 125
 struggle between life and, 69, 112 symbolic death and rebirth, 125–8, 129
- depression
 and anorexia, 85–6, 88
 Naomi and, 141
- Descartes, René, 148
- desire
 and conversations with participants, 22, 25
 eating disorders as, 17
 and knowledge, 167
 and recovery, 162
- dietary taboos, 126
- diETING, and the continuum model of
 anorexia, 49–50
- ‘disconnected’ sexuality, 168–9, 173
- discourses
 on anorexia, xii, 49
 on human spirituality, 54
- disease, concept of, 54–5
- distress, anorexia as a means of communicating, 61–2
- Ditmar, H., 54
Divine Women (Irigaray), 150–1
 Dominic (participant), 78, 135–7
 Douglas, M., 58
 Dunbar, Catherine, 112
 Dunbar, M., 108, 112
 Durkheim, E., 35, 95, 104, 109, 188–9
 on asceticism, 103, 110
Elementary Forms of the Religious Life, 102–3, 125
 James and, 107
 Kovel and, 103–4
 and ritual, 125, 127, 129 on the sacred/profane distinction, 128
 and spirituality energy, 161
- Eating Disorders Anonymous, 35 educational qualifications of participants, 194–6
- eGO and the soul, 35, 104, 121
 and spirit, 104, 108
- Elementary Forms of the Religious Life* (Durkheim), 102–3, 125
- Eloise (participant)
 and asceticism as distorted spirituality, 119
 on connection with others, 99
 on elements of recovery, 67
 profile, 196
 on sexuality, 166, 167
 on stages and turning points, 69
 on therapy, 75
- empirical studies of recovery, 63–4
- Enlightenment rationality, and the meaning of spirituality, 100–1
- Epston, D., 41
- ethnicity of participants, 21
- exceptions to the rule, and asceticism, 121, 124–5
- existentialism
 and eating disorders, 92
 Michael and, 135
 and mind/body dualism, 148–50, 160, 163
 and recovery, 65
 and the search for self, 54
 and spirituality, 100, 191
- Fairy Melusina, 84
 Fallon, P., 65, 66
 Falstein, L. H., 123
- fathers
 anorexics breaking away from, 74
 author’s father, 4, 7, 8
 of participants
 Dominic, 136
 Jennifer, 83
 Michael, 133
 Miranda, 138–9
 Vivienne, 89, 92
- Female Eunuch, The* (Greer), 13
- feminist discourse on anorexia, 120
- feminist object relations theory, and the search for self, 52–3

- Feminist Perspectives on Eating Disorders* (Fallon), 66 feminist poststructuralism, and the search for self, 53 feminist research, 18, 23 and social forces, 185
 and subjectivity, 32–3 feminist therapists, and phenomenological studies of recovery, 65
 Finch, J., 18, 23
 food Dominic and, 136–7
 imagery in religion, 106
 metaphors, 115, 167, 182–3
 rituals, 137, 138, 139, 142
 Foucault, M., xii, 33, 56, 57, 192
 Freda (participant)
 and anorexia as an addiction, 52
 conversations with, 25, 26, 28
 and creativity, 78
 and defining anorexia, 58, 59
 on elements of recovery, 67
 imaginary body, 159
 profile, 194
 on therapy, 75
 on travel, 74
 Freud, S., 25, 34, 55
 studies of hysteria, 55, 71–2 friendship, recovery and, 71, 75, 76, 143
 Fry, Elizabeth, 5
Full Lives (Hall), 42

 Game, A., 31, 40
 Garfinkel, D. M., 48
 Garfinkel, P., 50
 Garner, D., 50
 Garner, P. E., 48
 Garrett, C., 18, 113
 Gatens, M., 159
 Gatens, Moira, 179–80
 Geertz, R., 32
 gender, and spirit, 97–8
 Gennep, A. van, 110, 121, 125–7, 142
 Giddens, A., 33, 149
 Glik, D. C., 130
 Goody, J., 143
 Gordon, C., 165
 Green, Lelia, 22
 Grene, M., 149
 Grosz, E., 72
 Gull, William, 47, 63
 Gusdorf, G., 34, 35

 Hall, Lindsey, Full Lives, 42
 Halling, S., 54

 Hamberg, P., 66
 Harding, S., 32
 Harmer, W., 42
 Haug, F., 32, 38
 healing
 and narrative, 31, 39–43, 66
 ritual self-healing, 129–31
 and spirituality, 101
 ‘Healing Force, The’ (Coopman), 76
 Heelas, P., 101, 105, 135, 160, 174, 175
 Hegel, G. W. F., 100
 Heilbrun, Carolyn, 37
 Henriques, J., 54
 heresy, asceticism as, 124
 Herzog, D., 66, 165
 hidden death themes, 121, 122–4, 129
 Hinduism, 179
 holocaust survivors, descendants of, 123
Holy Anorexia (Bell), 113–14
Holy Feast and Holy Fast (Counihan), 115
 Horin, Adele, 19
 Human Potential Movement, 97, 174 hunger
 and the body, 153–4
 and sexuality, 167–8
Hunger So Wide and So Deep, A (Thompson), 66
 hysteria, Freud’s studies of, 55, 71–2 identity development, and the search for self, 52–3 illness, concept of, 54–5 Illness as a Metaphor (Sontag), 54–5

Illness Narratives, The (Kleinman), 40–1 Ilse (participant)
 perspectives on anorexia, 62
 profile, 196
 on reconnecting with nature, 73, 99
 on sexuality, 166, 167
 imaginary body, 153, 154, 159–60, 161, 191
 and food metaphors, 183
 and sex differences, 180
 Inanna myth, 81–2
 and Jennifer’s story, 84–5 and Lesley’s story, 87–8 India
 anorexic woman in, 21
 author’s experience of, 15
 individual self-clarification, 17, 22 initiation rites, 126, 127
 instrumental rationality, 155, 174, 192
 Irigaray, Luce, 101, 150–1, 164, 177, 191

 Jackson, Craig, 122, 123

238 Index

- Jackson, Michael, 'Thinking through the Body', 178, 179
- Jacqueline (participant), 60
 bodily activities, 157–8
 conversations with, 26
 on creative activity, 78
 on elements of recovery, 67, 68
 profile, 195
 on the return of 'mystical' awareness, 71
 on travel, 74
- James, William, 101, 104, 109, 129
The Varieties of Religious Experience, 106–7, 121–2
- Jennifer (participant)
 on elements of recovery, 67
 on fears of death, 60
 perspectives on anorexia, 58
 on pregnancy, 76
 profile, 194
 on reconnecting with people, 74
 recovery story, 80, 82–5
 and sexuality, 165, 168
 weighing ritual, 155
- Joanne (participant), 25, 60
 profile, 195
 weighing ritual, 155
- Jodie (participant)
 and asceticism as distorted spirituality, 119–20
 and bike-riding, 157
 and the body-for-others, 152
 conversations with, 25–6, 27
 on food, 183
 profile, 196
 stages and turning points, 69
- Johnson, M., 178
- Johnston, W., 72, 175
- journalism, recovery stories, 42
- Judaism, and Ariel's recovery, 96, 98–9, 175 see also religion
- Jung, Carl, 34, 188
- Kaminer, Wendy, 175
- Kate (participant), 19
 conversations with, 24–5
 imaginary body, 159
 perspectives on anorexia, 61–2
 profile, 196
 on spirituality, 99
 on stages and turning points, 69–70
 surfing, 156
 weighing ritual, 155, 156
- Katzman, M., 65, 66
- Kessler, C., 124, 127–8
- Kierkegaard, S., 100
- Kimball, S., 110
- Kippax, S., 38
- Kirsner, D., 34
- Kleinman, A., 31, 55, 57, 191
The Illness Narrative, 40–1
- knowledge
 and the body, 173–83
 and food metaphors, 182–3
 and sexuality, 167
 spiritual forms of, 104–5, 109
 weighing as instrumental, 156
- Kovel, J. xiii, 76, 140, 174, 189, 192
 on asceticism, 125
 on ego, soul and spirit, 35–6 on spirit in nature, 73, 109
 on spirit and society, 102, 103–4, 106, 107, 108 on spirituality and sexuality, 164, 165
- Kristeva, Julia, 72
- Lacanian psychoanalysis, 33, 53, 150, 151
- Lakoff, G., 177
- language, and the body, 173, 177–8, 191–2
- Lauren (participant)
 and asceticism as distorted spirituality, 119
 and the body-for-others, 152
 conversations with, 26–7
 profile, 194
 on recovery, 58
 on spiritual quest, 96
- Lawrence, M., 20, 121
- laxative abuse, and clinical definitions of anorexia, 48
- Lesley (participant), 20, 60
 conversations with, 27–8
 on food metaphors, 183
 profile, 195
 recovery story, 80, 82, 85–8
 on the return of 'mystical' awareness, 71
 on spirituality, 96–7, 99
- liberating spirit, in Kovel, 103–4
- life-crisis liminality, 126–7
- Logacheva, Anastasiia, 116–17, 122, 124
- Lupton, D., 32, 154
- McAll, Kenneth, 122–3
- McFarlane, J., 169
- McGuire, M., 130
- MacLeod, S., 54, 55
The Snow White Soliloquies, 84

- McMaster, R., 74
madness, and creative artists, 78, 79 Maitland, Sarah, 116, 128
male gaze, and the body-for-others, 152
Malouf, D., 17
Mandel, B. J., 33, 36
Mannheim, K., 17, 22, 24
Marcus, G. E., 32
Margaret (participant), 60
 on the body, 148
 on food, 183
 on motherhood, 77
 profile, 195
 on spiritual quest, 96
 on therapy, 75
 weighing ritual, 155–6
Marilyn (participant), 60, 98
 and the body-for-others, 152
 on hunger, 154
 profile, 195
 and sexuality, 165
 on sexuality, 169
marital status of participants, 194–6 Marjorie (participant), 20, 60, 98
 on the body, 148
 profile, 195
marriage
 participants
 Jennifer, 82, 84–5, 86, 168
 Lesley, 86, 88
 Miranda, 138, 139, 140
 and sexual activity, 126
mask, anorexic, 126
master narratives, 40
meaning, autobiography as means of creating, 33–4
Mears, J., 23
media pressure, 185
medical profession, clinical definitions of anorexia, 47–9
medieval asceticism, 40, 110, 113–16, 125, 129
 and contemporary anorexia, 190–1 meditation, 13, 71, 154 Meehan, Brenda, 116–17, 129 memory, 37–9, 189
men
 as participants, 19
 proportion of anorexic, 19
 and the search for self, 52
 and women's psychological burdens, 85 see also Dominic; Michael; Philip Meredith (participant), 19
 on the body, 148, 160
 on food, 69, 183
 perspectives on anorexia, 62
 profile, 196
 on the return of 'mystical' awareness, 71 on the return of repressed traumas, 70–1
 and spirituality, 97, 98, 175
Merleau-Ponty, M., 17, 162–4, 165, 166, 170, 192
metaphor anorexia as, 54–6, 128, 181
 body, 178
 food, 115, 167, 182–3
 mirror, 150, 151
 poetic, 179
 and recovery, 181
Metcalfe, A., 31, 40
Michael (participant), 22–3
 and asceticism as distorted spirituality, 118–19
 conversations with, 26
 on defining anorexia, 58, 59 episodes of connectedness, 73
 mountain climbing, 134
 and parental relationships, 133 on personal relationships, 60
 profile, 194
 and sexuality, 133
 spiritual quest, 96, 132–5
mind/body dualism, 10, 148–51, 160–1, 162, 164, 177, 190
 and the sexed body, 179–82
Miranda (participant), 19, 20
 and bulimia as a 'dependency', 52 and connection with others, 99
 conversations with, 24, 27
 and food rituals, 138, 139
 and music, 137, 139–40
 on pregnancy, 77
 on the return of repressed trauma, 71
 profile, 196
 spirituality story, 137–40
mirror, Lacan's metaphor of the, 150, 151 modernism
 and rationality, 105
 and spirituality, 109
Mogul, S. L., 121
Morton, J., 50
mother-child relationships, and the search for self, 52–3
mothers
 anorexics breaking away from, 74
 author's mother, 3, 6
 and hidden death themes, 123

240 Index

- mothers (cont.)
 of participants
 Jennifer, 82–3
 Michael, 133
 Miranda, 138–9
 Vivienne, 89, 92
 women's relationship with, and the metaphor of the mirror, 151 see also pregnancy and motherhood
- mountain climbing, 134
- mourning rituals, 122–3, 129
- Mukai, Takayo, 147, 173
- Murray, M., 111
- music
 Miranda and, 137, 139–40
 Naomi and, 142
- mystic asceticism, 128
- mystic rationality, in Weber, 104–5
- mystical awareness body as source of, 192 return of, 71–3
- mystical knowledge, 109, 174, 176–7
- mystical states, 109
- mysticism
 and asceticism, 105
 and rationality, 107
- mythological structure, of recovery stories, 80, 81–2
- mythology, recovery and, 92, 186, 187, 188, 193
- myths, and spirituality, 101
- Naomi (participant)
 conversations with, 24, 27, 29
 creative activities, 78, 141–2, 154
 profile, 196
 on reconnecting with nature, 73
 spirituality story, 140–3
 on travel, 74
 and sexual abuse, 170
- narrative
 and creativity, 78
 and healing, 31, 39–43, 66
 master narratives, 40
 and the recovery movement, 40, 42, 92 sacred dimension of, 35
 and sociology, 31, 40
 and spirituality, 101
- narrative therapy, 41–2
- nature
 connection with, 99
 Michael's relation to the world of, 134 recovery and reconnecting with, 73
- negative rite, 110, 111–12
- negative to positive cult, 110, 121, 125–8
- New Age therapies, 97, 101, 105, 120, 174–7, 188, 192
- Nicki (participant)
 perspectives on anorexia, 60
 on pregnancy and motherhood, 76, 171–2
 profile, 195
 on stages and turning points, 69
 on therapy, 76
- Nietzsche, F., 33–4
- non-clinical studies of recovery, 63, 66
- non-recovery, and asceticism, 110, 111–12
- normal defining 'normal' eating behaviour, 85 participants' concept of, 67–8, 83, 153 weighing oneself as, 156
- Oakley, A., 18, 23
- object relations theory, and the search for self, 52–3
- occupations of participants, 20, 194–6
- older women, and the search for self, 52
- Olmstead, M., 50
- Olney, J., 33, 34
- Orbach, S., 52
 Hunger Strike, 55–6
- otherness, travel and images of, 74
- Otman, A., 66
- Overeaters Anonymous (OA), 51, 66, 92, 192
- Palazzoli, M. S., 38, 54, 65
- pantheism, 9
- parents
 relationships with Jennifer, 82–3
 Vivienne, 89, 92
 struggle for autonomy from, 52, 53
 see also fathers; mothers
- Parkin, D., 143
- participants, 18–22
 ages, 20, 194–6
 and asceticism as distorted spirituality, 118–20
 and the author's body, 25–6, 151–2 class background, 19–20, 21, 89
 conversations with, 22–8
 on eating disorder theories, 58–62 educational qualifications, 194–6 ethnicity, 21
 occupations, 20, 194–6
 on the 'outer' and 'inner' body, 150, 151–4
 and physical appraisals, 26

- profiles, 194–7
 recovery stories, 80–92
 and reinterpreting recovery, 66–79 relations with therapists, 74, 75–6 on sexuality and recovery, 165–70
 and spirituality, 95–100
 spirituality stories, 132–43
 stages and turning points, 68–70
see also recovered participants;
 recovering participants;
 unrecovered participants
- Patricia (participant), 58
 and creativity, 78
 on food metaphors, 183
 and the ‘inner’ and ‘outer’ body, 151
 profile, 194
 on spiritual quest, 96
 on therapy, 75
- Perera, S.B., 81–2, 88
- Persephone, myth of, 81
- Petrement, S., 108, 111
- phenomenological studies of recovery, 63, 64–5
- Philip (participant)
 and asceticism as distorted spirituality, 118, 119
 on food, 183
 profile, 194
 on recovery, 58
- physical appraisals, and participants, 26
- Piano, The* (film), 12
- Pierre, Brother, 5
- Pip (participant), 22
 perspectives on anorexia, 62
 profile, 196
 on reconnecting with nature, 73
 on sexuality, 170
 on stages and turning points, 69
- poetry
 metaphors, 179
 and reconnecting with the world, 73
 ‘The Healing Force’, 76
- political protest, and anorexia, 108
- politics of writing, 37
- positive rite, 110, 129–31
- postmodernism, and autobiography, 33
- poststructuralism
 and the meaning of spirituality, 101, 109
 and mind/body dualism, 150–1, 160
 and the search for self, 53–4
- power, awareness of a greater, 99–100
- pregnancy and motherhood and anorectics, 48–9
 author’s experience of, 13–14
 and the maternal body, 170–2 participants’ attitudes to, 76–7 and weighing, 155
- Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism, The* (Weber), 104–5
- psychiatric terminology, xi
- psychiatric treatment, 75–6
- psychiatry xii
- psychoanalysis, 34
- psychoanalytic theory, and sexuality, 163
- psychotherapy
 and memory, 37
 perspective on Michael, 135
 and recovery, 75–6, 186
 and ritual self-healing, 130–1
 see also therapists
- pure/impure, 128
 and medieval fasting women, 113
- purity
 and recovery, 124–5
 and sexual prohibitions, 126
- purity rituals, eating disorders as, 58
- Quadrio, Carolyn, 123
- Raimbault, G., 123
- Rampling, D., 121
- rape, 141, 142
- rationality
 and asceticism, 119, 120
 and the body, 177–8, 181–2
 instrumental, 155, 174, 192 mystical, 104–5
 and mystical awareness, 192
 and New Age thinking, 174–7 and social theory, 107
 in Weber’s sociology, 104–5, 109, 189
 and weighing rituals, 155
 yoga and, 158–9
- rebellion
 anorexia as, 56–7
 recovery as, 190
- rebirth
 myths of, 81–2, 101
 symbolic death and, 125–8, 129
- recidivism, and eating disorders, 20
- recovered participants and clinical definitions of anorexia, 48–9
 perspectives on anorexia, 61–2
 on pregnancy and motherhood, 77, 172
 profiles, 196–7
 spiritual quests, 97–8
 and transpersonal psychology, 54

242 Index

- recovering participants Lesley's story, 80, 82, 85–8
 perspectives on anorexia, 60
 profiles, 195
 spiritual quests, 96–7
- recovery, xii–xiii
 and anorexia as capitulation to social control, 56 and anorexia as ritual, 58
 and asceticism, 124–5
 and the body, 151–61
 as connected spirituality, 98–100 and conversion, 106–7
 creating a myth of, 92 and creative activities, 77–9, 186, 187
 and creativity, 77–9
 defining, 189–90
 elements of, 66–8
 and hunger, 154
 and medieval fasting women, 114
 and memory, 38, 39
 metaphors for, 56
 and mourning rituals, 122–3 and move from ascetic to a mystical path, 105 narrative and healing, 41–3 place of the body in, 191–2 rationality and New Age philosophies, 174–7
 as rebellion, 190
 and reconnecting with people, 74–7, 85 reconnecting with the world, 73–4 and the return of 'mystical' awareness, 71–3 and the return of repressed traumas, 70–1 and rites of passage, 127
 and ritual self-healing, 129–31
 rituals, 102, 103
 and the search for self, 53–4
 and sexuality, 71, 75, 162, 163–4, 169–72
 social sources of, 192
 as a spiritual quest, 95–8 stages and turning points in, 68–70, 106, 186
see also self-transformation
- recovery movement, 175 narrative and the, 40, 42, 92
- recovery stories
 and anorexia, 47
 and asceticism as distorted spirituality, 120
 Catherine (the author), 18
 coherence of, 80–1, 186
 Dominic, 135–7
 and false consciousness, 37
 Jennifer, 80, 82–5
 knowledge and, 173
 Lesley, 80, 82, 85–8
 Miranda, 137–40
 mythological structure of, 80, 81–2
 narrative and, 31, 39
 Naomi, 140–43
 participants, 80–92
 sociology as a, 35
 spirituality stories, 132–43, 187–8
 substantive conclusions drawn from, 185–8
 Vivienne, 80, 82, 88–92
- recovery studies, 63–6, 185
 empirical, 63–4
 non-clinical, 63, 66
 phenomenological, 63, 64–5
- Reich, Wilhelm, 176, 188
- reincorporation into the community, 127
- reinterpreting anorexia, 47–62
- relationships
 connection with others, 98–9
 Michael and rejection of, 133, 134
 recovery and, 74–7, 85, 86–7, 88
see also sexuality
- religion
 author's childhood experiences of, 4–5 conversion experiences, 187
 Durkheim's sociology of, 102–3, 109
 James and the experience of conversion, 106–7 Judaism, 96, 98–9, 175
 in Lesley's story, 87
 and mystical awareness, 72
 of participants, 194–6
 rationalization of, 105
 and spirituality, 95, 96–7, 101, 109
see also Buddhims; Christianity; Judaism; spirituality
- restorying, and narrative therapy, 41–2
- Ring, K., 123
- Rinpoche, S., 108
- ritual
 anorexia and, 57–8, 102–3, 108
 death and mourning, 122–3, 124, 129 food rituals, 137, 138, 139, 142 and the 'inner' body, 153
 Naomi's rituals, 142–3
 recovery and, 103, 108, 193
 religion and, 102–3
 salvation and, 105
 self-healing, 129–31

- and self-transformation, 102–3, 110–31, 188
- spirituality and, 96
- transformations of the body, 154–9, 161, 186, 187
- Robinson, S., 42
- Rosalie (participant), 20
- and anorexia as an addiction, 52
- on the body, 148
- conversations with, 28
- conversion to Christianity, 97, 175
- on food, 183
- on pregnancy and motherhood, 172
- profile, 196
- on stages and turning points, 70
- on swimming, 156–7
- on therapy, 75
- Rose of Lima, St, 116, 122
- Sacks, O., 31
- sacred narratives, 39, 40
- sacred/profane distinction, 128
- Said, E. W., 73
- St John of the Cross, 175
- sainthood, and death from anorexia, 112
- saints, fasting women, 113, 114, 116–17, 122, 125, 129
- Sally (participant)
- profile, 196
- and sexuality, 167
- and spirituality, 97, 175
- salvation
- and life-crisis liminality, 126–7
- looking for (Michael's story), 132–5
- Weber on, 104–5
- Sartre, Jean-Paul, 34, 148–50, 152
- Schwartz, D.M., 64
- Second Sex, The* (de Beauvoir), 149, 171
- self, xiii
- and the body, 51, 117, 147, 148–51, 154
- in Michael, 135
- and pregnancy, 171
- and boundaries with nature, 73
- boundaries with otherness and, 74
- connecting with oneself, 98
- denial of the, 108
- establishing a sense of, 113–14
- food and attempt to escape the, 183
- narrative and, 39
- and participants' stories, 37
- rediscovery of the, 65, 71
- sacred nature of the, 57
- search for, 52–4, 57
- sexuality and spirituality, 164
- self-loathing, and unrecovered participants, 59, 67
- self-transformation
- and the body, 147
- creativity and, 77
- myths of, 82
- pregnancy and, 77
- ritual and, 102–3, 110–31, 188
- salvation and, 105
- travel and, 74
- sexed body, the, 179–82
- sexual abuse, 8, 166
- Naomi and, 141, 142, 170
- sexuality, 126, 162–72
- and belly-dancing, 157
- 'disconnected', 168–9, 173
- early sexual experience, 166–8
- and the imaginary body, 160
- Michael and, 133
- Miranda and, 139
- and recovery, 71, 75, 162, 163–4, 169–72
- sexual prohibitions, 126
- and spirituality, 162–5, 192
- and yoga, 158
- Sheena (participant), 59, 60, 148
- bodily activities, 158
- and food metaphors, 183
- profile, 195
- Shorter, Bani, 130, 131
- Simone (participant), 19
- and the Human Potential Movement, 97, 174
- on the 'inner' and 'outer' body, 151
- profile, 196, 197
- and sexuality, 165, 167–8
- Slessor, Mary, 5
- Snow White, 84
- social control, anorexia as capitulation to, 56–7
- social 'rebellion', anorexia as, 125–6
- society, and spirituality, 95–109, 192
- sociological imagination, 30
- sociology
- and anorexia as synecdoche, 55–6, 57
- and autobiography, 32–5
- and narrative, 31, 40
- perspective on Michael, 135
- and spirituality, 101–7
- Sommer, D., 34, 37
- Sontag, S., Illness as a Metaphor, 54–5
- soul
- and the ego, 35, 104, 121
- and the self, xiii
- and spirit, 97–8, 104

244 Index

- speculum, metaphor of the, 151
- spirit, ontological and theoretical status of spirit, 191
- spiritual autobiographies, 34–5
- spiritual quest
anorexia and recovery as a, 62, 95–8, 187
Kovel and, 103–4
in Lesley's story, 87–8
- spirituality, xii, xiii
and asceticism, 114–15, 117, 118–20, 124–5
and the body, 161
and capitalism, 174
and conversations with participants, 23, 24
and creativity, 77, 78–9
and food, 182–2
of India, 15
meanings of, 100–7
and New Age discourses, 97, 101, 105, 120, 174–7
participants' accounts of, 95–100 recovery as connected, 98–100 and recovery stories, 80–1, 85, 87–8, 92, 187–8
and sexuality, 162–5, 192
and the social, 101–7, 189, 192 stories, 132–43
and transpersonal psychology, 54
see also Buddhism; Christianity; Judaism; religion
- Spitzack, C., 124
- stages in recovery, 68–70, 106, 186
- Steiner-Adair, Catherine, 53
- stones, weight in, xiii
- subjectivity
in research, 32–3
and the sexed body, 179–80
- substantive conclusions, 184, 185–8
- Sue (participant)
profile, 196, 197
and recovery, elements of, 67
and sexuality, 165
and spirituality, 95, 97
on stages and turning points, 70
on travel, 74
- surfing, 154, 156, 187
- survivor guilt, 123, 135
- Susanna (participant), 21
on eating out, 71
and the death theme, 123
and the 'inner' and 'outer' body, 151
profile, 195
and recovery, 60
and spirituality, 175
on therapy, 76
- Sutherland, C., 123
- swimming, 153, 154, 156–7, 161, 187
- symbolic social suffering, anorexia as, 121–2, 128
- Tai Chi, 159, 188
- Tait, G., 56
- Takaoka, K., 21
- Teresa of Avila, 165, 175
- Theander, S., 20, 38, 64
- theoretical conclusions, 188–93
- theories of eating disorders, 49–58
addiction, 51–2
anorexia as metaphor, 54–6 body image, 50–1
continuum model, 49–50
rituals, 57–8
search for self, 52–4, 57
social control and rebellion, 56–7
- theory, autobiography in the development of, 33–4
- therapists feminist, 65
and the Inanna myth, 82
Jill (Vivienne's therapist), 90, 91 participants' relationships with, 74, 75–6, 186
and ritual self-healing, 130
Vivienne (recovered participant), 88–9
- Thompson, B., xi, 21, 92
A Hunger So Wide and So Deep, 66
- Thompson, M. B., 64
- 'Throwing like a girl' (Young), 180–1
- time
and spirituality, 108
Vivienne and non-linear, 91
- Transcendental Meditation (TM), 13
- transpersonal psychology
and the search for self, 54
and spirituality, 100
- trauma
coping with, 85
and hidden death themes, 122, 123
recovery from, 66, 72–3
return of repressed, 70–1, 77, 134, 135 travel, and self-transformation, 74
- truth, autobiography and, 36
- Turnbull, E., 35
- Turner, B. S., 34, 55, 126
The Body in Society, 56
- Turner, Mr (dying man), 136, 137
- Turner, V., 32
on ritual, 125–7

- turning points in recovery, 68–70, 106, 186
- unconscious, and the sociological imagination, 30
- unrecovered participants
 Michael's story, 132–5
 perspectives on anorexia, 58–60
 on pregnancy and motherhood, 76–7
 profiles, 194
 recovery story (Jennifer), 80, 82–5
 spiritual quests, 96
- Valle, R., 54
- van Deth, R., 113, 115–16
- Van Gennep see Gennep, A. van
- Vandereycken, W., 113, 115–16
- Varieties of Religious Experience* (James), 106–7, 121–2
- vegetarianism, 13
- Veronica, St, 114
- Vico, G.B., 33
- Victoria (participant)
 conversations with, 27
 on food, 183
 perspective on anorexia, 58, 59
 on pregnancy and motherhood, 77, 172
 profile, 194
 and sexuality, 165, 168–9
 on travel, 74
 weighing ritual, 155
- Visser, 182
- Vivienne (participant)
 belly-dancing, 157
 conversations with, 27
 on elements of recovery, 68
 imaginary body, 159–60
 on the 'inner' and 'outer' body, 151
 perspectives on anorexia, 61
 profile, 196, 197
 recovery story, 80, 82, 88–92
 spiritual autobiography, 34
 on spirituality, 97–8, 175
 on transitions and setbacks, 70
- vomiting, and clinical definitions of anorexia, 48
- Walkerdine, V., 18
- Watson, E., 23
- Way, Karen, 49, 69
Anorexia and Recovery, 42, 66
- Weber, M., 101, 104–5, 107, 109, 122, 192
- weighing, 154–6
- Weil, Simone, 111–12, 114, 116, 118, 120, 122, 124, 125, 153
- What's the Matter with Mary Jane* (Harmer and Robinson), 42
- White, M., 41
- Wilhelm, R., 178
- Willis, E., 40
- Winnicott, D. W., 176
- Wolf, Naomi, 127
The Beauty Myth, 50
- women conflicting roles of, 126
 fasting saints, 113, 114, 116–17, 122, 125
- Woodman, Marion, 52, 131, 182
- Woodward, 25
- Wooley, S., 65, 66
- Woolf, Virginia, 79
- World Health Organization, xi
- 'writing down', 17, 18–28
- 'writing up', 17, 28–30
- yoga, 15, 71, 153, 158–9, 161, 176, 187
 and ambiguous transcendence, 180–1 language of, 178
- Young, Iris, 'Throwing like a girl', 180–1
- Zoe (participant), 21
 on the body, 153
 conversations with, 26
 on creative activity, 78
 perspectives on anorexia, 62
 on pregnancy and motherhood, 172
 profile, 196, 197
 on stages and turning points, 70