

Index

- academic achievement, and selection process 5–6, 241
- academic high schools 64
 - elite 64
 - non-elite 65, 67–72
 - post-school destinations of graduates 65, 67–72
- academic study, Mori's view of 17
- acculturation of children 4, 6, 240
- Ad-Hoc Council on Education 157, 170, 194–5, 210–26, 232, 246
- criticisms of reports 212–13
- implementation of
 - recommendations 213–26
 - curriculum 215–18
 - high-school education 214
 - Internship Program 221–6
 - lifelong learning 218–19
 - teacher education reforms and certification 219–21
 - tertiary education 214–15
 - report recommendations 211–12
- adult education 22, 29, 218–19
- after-school clubs 71, 94
- Akagi High (ordinary agricultural high school) 104, 108
 - dropping out of school 106–7
 - schoolwork 105–6
 - student culture 104–5
 - students' perceptions of the school 107
- agricultural high schools 101, 108
 - decline of 103–4
 - elite (case study) 107–8
 - ordinary (case study) 104–7
- Ainu 110–11
- All Japan Teachers Union 35
- All Nippon Teachers' Federation 223
- Allied Occupation Forces
 - education agenda 30–1, 47, 48, 50
 - requirement for teachers 143
- amae* relationships 5
- appointments
 - principals and vice-principals 148–9
 - teachers 145–7
- 'appropriate' social values, instilling of 7–8, 240
- associations of teachers of specific subjects 163, 164
- bullying 60, 133, 154, 194, 195–201, 240
 - and youth suicide 195–6
 - case study 199–200
 - comparison with other societies 198–9
 - realities of 196–8
 - schools' responses to 200–1
 - see also ijime*
- buraku* children
 - awareness of being buraku 126
 - intragroup diversity 125–6
 - retention rates 121
 - school performance 121, 127
 - schooling 44, 45, 110, 121, 122–5, 127, 138
- buraku* communities 121, 138

- case study 122–7
- Buraku Liberation League 44, 128
- buraku* people 121, 138
- urban 128
- career trajectories see promotions of teachers; transfers of teachers
- career women 78, 79–80, 81
- Central Education Council 39, 40, 210, 214
- recommendations (1971) 45–6
- recommendations (1996, 1997) 237–8
- reports 227–8
- Century of Education Group 23
- Chian Iji Hō* 21
- child development, practice of guiding 157–63
- children with disabilities
 - at correspondence high schools 99
 - education for 45, 55–6, 66
- Children's Charter 154
- children's education, families and community roles in 161–3, 227–8
- children's rights 154–5, 156
- chogori* 113, 116
- Chūritsu Rōren* 169
- chūsotsu burabura zoku* 85
- civil movements in education 40–5, 50–1
- class sizes
 - middle schools 56
 - primary schools 55, 58
- classroom teaching time 151
- Clean Government Party 169
- co-education 14, 16, 34, 55, 56
- cognitive development 4, 6
- colonial education, Taiwan and Korea 28–9
- Committee of Educational Professionals 31, 32
- common schools 29
- community, involvement in schooling 161–3, 227–8
- compulsory schooling 19, 30–1, 48, 55, 56, 60
 - for Japanese nationals 135–6
 - six-year secondary schools 228, 233
- conflict theories 8–10
- Confucian values, in education philosophy 14, 16, 18
- consensus theories 6–8, 9–10
- contemporary 'problems' 195–210
- Convention on the Protection of the Rights of all Migrant Workers and their Families 136–7
- Convention on Children's Rights 136, 154
- corporal punishment 154, 155, 156, 191, 194, 207–9
 - prohibition on 207
 - student views on 209
 - teachers, official punishment of 209
 - teachers, official reprimands of 208
- correspondence courses 56, 214
- correspondence high schools 66, 97–101
 - case study 98–9
 - types of students 98–9, 100
- correspondence school diploma 100
- Course of Study (MOE) 35, 39, 215–18, 220, 240
- curriculum
 - middle schools 60
 - military training in 25
 - moral education in 16, 22, 26, 58, 216, 233, 240
 - neonationalist moves 216–17, 233–4
 - neutral and 'true' 241
 - primary schools 59–60
 - social studies in 35, 39, 216–17
 - training of elites 216, 217–18, 234
- Curriculum Council report 215, 230
- delinquency 72, 74, 104, 106, 125
- Democratic Socialist Party 169
- differentiation of young people 6
- disciplinary problems 72, 73, 94, 106, 125, 133, 154–5
 - see also* corporal punishment
- domain schools 14, 15
- Dōmei* 169, 171
- Dōwa* Education 45, 245
- dropping out of school
 - agricultural high schools 103, 106–7
 - case studies 91–2
 - young people's experiences 90–3

- education
 and economic growth 39–40
 civil movements in 40–5
 flexibility and diversity of choice in 232, 233, 246–7
 liberal opposition on 36–9, 49
 Mori's view of 17
 post-war 30–5, 47, 48, 50
 reform, since mid 1990s 226–31, 232–4, 246–7
 education boards 147, 148, 149, 196, 245
 Education Law (1872) 15, 142
see also Gakusei
 Education Policy for Greater East Asia (1942) 28
 Education Reform Council 31, 32
 Education System Research Council 211 educational qualifications (of students), and status 76 elite academic high schools 64, 69
 case study 93–7
 elite agricultural high schools 107–8
 elite students, training of 216, 217–18, 234
 employment
 discrimination against Koreans 115–16, 119–20
 of teenagers 85, 89–90
 of women 75–6
 Essay Writing Education Movement
 26–7
 ethnic minorities 110, 111–21
 ethnicity 110
 evening high schools 66, 214
 expatriate Japanese returnees,
 children of 132–4, 134–5
 Extraordinary Education Committee
 22
 F Primary School, parent and community involvement (case study) 162–3
 family poverty, and children's
 schooling 84–8
 female middle-school teacher (case study) 188–9
 female principals 185, 187
 female teachers 179, 185–90 demand high-school education for anybody who desires it 41–2 numbers 55
 orientations 186
 promotional opportunities 187 ratios at school levels 186 typical day 152, 153, 179
 foreign nationals appointment as teachers 146
 children of 128–37
 foreign workers
 children of, rights to education 136–7
 illegal 129–30
 Japanese Constitution and status of 135, 136
 Freedom and People's Rights Movement 16
fukoku kyōhei 15
 Fundamental Education Law (1947)
 31–3, 47, 143–4
 realities of 33–5
gakumon 17
Gakusei 15, 16, 142
see also Education Law (1872)
 gender of teachers 179–90
 gender-specific differences, in post-secondary education 75
 gender-specific roles, women's perceptions of 78–83
 gendered value, and the meaning of
 schooling 74–8, 82–3
 girls' education
 gender and the meaning of
 schooling 74–8, 244
 Imperial Rescript philosophy 18
 New Education philosophy 23 post-primary 20–1
 girls' high schools 21
 subcultural groups 81–2
gōgaku 14 government influence over educational practice 36–9
 National Academic Achievement
 Test, implementation of 41, 245
 Teacher Performance Assessment, introduction of 38–9
see also MOE
 government ideology 24–6, 48
 resistance to 26–7
 government school teachers appointment of foreign nationals 146

- initial appointment 145–6
- selection examinations 146
- government schools 60
- use of corporal punishment 208
- Hana (buraku community)
 - case study 122–7, 140, 244
 - children's awareness of being buraku 126
 - intragroup diversity among children 125–6
 - schooling in 122–5
 - schooling's unintended effects on children 127
- hankō* 14
- hekichigakkō* 55, 102
- high-school diploma 56, 63
 - impact on poverty cycle 90
- high-school education, Ad-Hoc Council recommendations 214
- high-school entrance examination 42, 62
- high-school principal, male (case study) 183–5
- high-school students
 - national distribution 63
 - recruitment process 116
- high-school teachers, male 179–85
- 'High Schooling for Everybody Who Desires It' Movement 41–2, 50
- high schools 22, 33, 56, 62–4
 - extended range of subjects 218
 - for girls 21, 81–2
 - for seikatsuhogo children 90
 - typology 64–7, 244–5
 - see also specific types of high schools, e.g. academic high schools, agricultural high schools etc.*
- higher schools 19, 22, 219
- Hinomaru* 216
- Hiroyuki's story (bullying) 199–200
- history textbooks, criticisms of 47
- homeroom teachers
 - approach to bullying 198, 200
 - approach to school refusal 205–6
- housewives 80
- human resource development 39–40, 48, 49
- human rights
 - heightened awareness of in 1970s 44–5
 - international conventions on 136
- Ienaga, Saburō 42–3, 50
- ijime* 60, 133, 154, 194, 195–201, 240
 - see also* bullying
- illegal foreign workers 129–30
- Imai, Mr (high-school principal) (case study) 183–5, 190, 191
- Imai Tech High (municipal technical high school) 73, 74
- Imperial Rescript on Education (1890) 18–19, 32–3, 47, 48, 142, 143
 - see also Kyōiku Chokugo*
- Imperial Rule Assistance Association 25
- Imperial Subject Service Society 29
- imperial universities 17, 22
- Imperial Universities Ordinance (1886) 17
- in-service education of teachers 149–51, 226
 - see also* Internship Program
- Indo-Chinese refugees 130
- industrialisation
 - impact on rural communities 101–3
 - impact on schooling 19
- institutionalised protective care of children 84, 88–90, 92
- integrated study course 214
- interactionist interpretations of schooling 10–12
- Internship Program 151, 221–6, 245 and teachers' professional status 223
 - background 221–3
 - implementation 224–6
 - realities of 224
 - supervision of interns 224–6
- Japan Association of Teachers 164
- Japan Communist Party 44, 169, 222
- Japan Educationalist Union 35
- Japan Federation of Employers 39
- Japan Socialist Party 35, 44, 169, 222
- Japan-South Korea Agreement 136
- Japan Teachers' Union 35–9
 - see also Nikkyōso*
- Japanese nationals, participation in compulsory schooling 135–6
- Japanese orphans (from China) 129
- Japanese women, duty of 18
- Jidōkenshō* 154

- Jinjin* 157
jitsugyōgakkō 19
Jiyū Minken Undō 16
 Job Referral System 116
jōseki 187
juku 60, 100
 junior colleges 56, 57, 219
- kakushugakkō* 34, 56
 Kama middle school, newcomers at 132–4
 Kane's story (dropping out) 91–2
 Kawa, Ms (middle-school teacher) (case study) 188–9, 190, 191
 Kayo's story (child in single-mother family) 86–7
Keimeikai 24
 Kieko's story (dropping out) 92
kikokushijo 132–4
Kimigayo 216
kinshin 106
kizuna 172–3
 knowledge
 legitimation of 6 transmission of 3–4, 48
kōgakkō 29
kokumingakkō 25
Kōmin Hōkō Kai 29
 Korea, colonial education in 29
 Korean Cultural Study Club 114, 117
 Korean women
 Japanese schooling (case study) 118–19
 North Korean ethnic schooling (case study) 116–18
 Koreans
 diversity in Japan 111–13
 employment barriers 115–16, 120–1, 243
 ethnicity 113, 114
 marriage to Japanese 113
 newcomers 111, 112
 oldtimers 111–12
 participation in schooling 113–15 schooling (case studies) 116–20
 third-generation 110, 111–21, 138 university admission 114–15
kōtōgakkō 19, 33
Kyōgaku Sasshin Hyōgikai 25
kyōiku 17
Kyōiku Chokugo 18–19
- see also* Imperial Rescript on Education (1890)
Kyōiku Kihonhō 31–3
see also Fundamental Education Law (1947)
Kyōiku Sasshin Linkai 31
Kyōiku Senmonka Linkai 31
Kyōrō, socialist platforms 27
- labour rights of teachers 157, 166, 245 labour unions, ban on 27
 length of service, of teachers 152
 Liberal Democratic Party 194, 210, 222
 'liberal education' system 16, 21–4
 lifelong learning 218–19
 Lifelong Learning Council 218
 Lifelong Learning Promotion Law (1990) 218 literacy rate 4
 local educational administration, resident participation in 43
 local schools 14
- macrostructural approaches 11–12
 mainstream schooling 57–74
 male high-school principal (case study) 183–5 male high-school teachers 179–85
 categorisation 181
 orientations 179–81, 186–7
 union teacher (case study) 181–3 male teachers 179
 marriage and careers 79, 81
 Japanese–Korean 113
 MEd-based teaching certificate 220
 Meiji schooling 14, 15–16, 21, 47, 48, 142 merit-based selection 4, 5–6, 241 micro-interactionist approaches 11, 12
 middle-school teacher, female (case study) 188–9
 middle schools 56, 60–2
 ability-based teaching 217–18
 curriculum 60
 increase in optional subjects 217
 'lifestyle guidance' 62, 131
 newcomers at (case study) 132–4

- student hierarchies 62
- tests 62
- use of corporal punishment 208
- Middle Schools Ordinance (1886) 17
- militarism in education 24–6, 48
- military service, for students 22, 28
- Ministry of Education see MOE
- Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI) 218
- minorities' experiences of schooling 110–40
- modern schooling
 - beginning of 15–16
 - four major functions of 3–6, 48
 - module-based high schools 214, 233
- MOE (Ministry of Education) 9
 - contract employment of university academics 230–1
 - Course of Study 35, 39, 215–18, 220, 250
 - educational funding 17, 22
 - management allowance for principals 166
- National Spiritual Mobilisation Policy 25
- New Guidelines for Education 31
 - partnership with Nikkkyōso 170, 171, 246
- permanent councils 218, 227–32
- post-war education 30
- power in running of schools 16
- Principles of National Policy 25
- restriction on teachers' labour rights 37–8, 49
- survey on bullying 196
- teachers' mission 143
- textbook authorisation challenged 42–3, 50, 240
- textbooks based on Rescript 18–19
- moral education
 - cessation of teaching 30
 - in the curriculum 16, 18, 22, 26, 58, 216, 233, 240
 - Japanese Language Schools 29
 - Mori's nationalist education 17–18
 - mothers, demand high-school education for anybody who desires it 41, 42
- multi-track school system 228, 233, 246
- Nada High School (elite private high school) 64, 69, 74, 93–7, 243
 - academic success 93–4
 - family advantages and destinations in students' adult lives 96
 - students and teachers 94–5
 - students who get 'behind' 95
- Nagano Nishi High School
 - Correspondence Program 97–100, 101
 - accommodating different needs 100
 - types of students 98–9
- Nakamoto, Mr, practice of (case study) 160–1, 191, 242
- Nakasone, Yasuhiro 210, 211, 232, 233, 246
- Nana Nursery School, newcomers at 130–1
- National Academic Achievement Test 41, 245
- national anthem 216
- National Association of Deputy-Principals 164
- National Association of Principals 164
- national flag 216
- National Income Doubling Plan 39
- National Personnel Authority, salary-fixing arrangements 165, 166
- national schools 25, 29
- National Spiritual Mobilisation Association 29
- National Spiritual Mobilisation Policy 25
- nationalist schooling
 - Mori's master plan 17–18
 - pre-war 14–27, 48
- neoliberalist curriculum 215, 216–17, 233–4
- 'New Education' movement 23–4
- New Educational Research Institute 27
- newcomer children 128–37, 243
 - assumptions being challenged 137
 - at middle school (case study) 132–4
 - at nursery school (case study) 130–1
 - at primary school (case study) 131–2

- newcomer children (cont.)
 groups of 129–30
 population data 129
 responses at the individual school level 134–5 rights and the state 135–7
 newcomers 110, 128
Nikkōkyō-uha 163
Nikkō 35
Nikkōsō 40, 41, 45, 163, 164, 165
 and trade union ‘national centres’ 169–70, 171
 Code of Ethics for Teachers 37
 conservatives campaign against 168
 criticises Internship Program 222 ‘Education Reform in Japan’ report 46 establishes citizen’s federation 46 formation 36
 members cynical about 171
 opposition to government control 37–9, 46, 50 partnership with MOE 170, 171, 190, 246 platforms on peace 36
 political affiliations 163, 164
 push for salary increases 166
 split 46, 169–71
 Nishi Program see Nagano Nishi High School Correspondence Program Niwa, Ms, practice of (case study) 158–60, 191, 242
 non-elite academic high schools 65, 67–72
 Normal School for Women 21
 normal schools 142
 primary teacher training 17–18, 142–3
 Normal Schools Ordinance (1886) 17
 North Korean school system 114–15, 120
 case study 116–18
 numeracy rate 4
 nurse-teachers 200, 206, 207
 nursery schools, newcomers at, case study 130–1
 Occupation forces see Allied Occupation forces
 Okada prefectural academic school 69–70, 71, 73
 Okinawans 110, 111
 older teachers 179
 oldtimer Koreans 111–12
 Ordinance Review Committee (1951) 37
 Otani municipal academic high school 70–1 overwork of teachers 152
 parents
 and sex-specific roles of children 77 demand high-school education for anybody who desires it 41–2 involvement in schooling 161–3, 227–8
 preferential allocation of resources 76–7 patriarchal family system 18
 peace education 36
 Peace Preservation Law (1925) 21
 peer groups, and students’ socialisation experiences 5 physical punishment see corporal punishment political activity, restrictions on teachers 156–7 post-primary schooling, for girls 20–1
 post-secondary education, gender-specific differences 75
 post-war education 30–5, 47, 48, 50
 post-war teachers 143–4
 poverty and schooling 83–93
 level of 83–4
 pre-war nationalist schooling 14–27
 prefectural education boards 145, 168 primary schooling, expansion in early 1900s 19–20
 primary schools 55, 58–60
 curriculum 59–60
han in 59
 Internship Program implementation 224–6 moral education in curriculum 16, 22, 58
 newcomers at (case study) 131–2 ‘peer supervision’ 59
 training of able students 217 ‘whole person’ education 58–9
 Primary Schools Ordinance (1886) 17
 primary teachers 58

- training, normal schools 17–18
- principals
 - advice of teachers in policy making 175, 246
 - appointments 148–9
 - career path (case study) 183–5
 - female 186
 - salary structure 147, 166
- private academies 14, 15
- private boys' high schools 93–7
 - academic success 69
- private girls' high schools, academic success 68, 69
- private schools 56
 - teacher appointments 145
- private sector
 - involvement in lifelong learning 218
 - participation in education 234
- private specialist schools 65, 214
- private universities 56
- probationary program 221–2
- professional associations 26–7, 163, 164
- professional journals 26, 27
- professional responsibilities of teachers 158–61, 172, 191, 242
- promotions of teachers 148, 149, 181–5, 188–90, 191, 245–6
- regional environment, and teaching culture 176–7
- remote rural schools 55, 56
- Rengō* 170, 171
- Rescript on Education see Imperial Rescript on Education (1890)
 - see also* Kyōiku Chokugo
- retention rate 42, 56
 - and poverty 85, 89
 - buraku* children 121
- returnee children from China 132–4, 134–5
- Rinchō* 210
- Rinji Kyōiku Kaigi* 22
- rōnin* 71
- rural buraku youth, indifference to schooling 122–7, 140, 243
- rural farming communities
 - decline of 101–3
 - educational participation rate in 102
- rural schooling 101–8
- Sachiko's story (Korean attending Japanese schooling) 118–19, 120
- Saka Primary School, newcomers at 131–2
- salary structure, teachers 147, 165–6
- samurai* 14, 15
- Sasaki High (municipal comprehensive high school)
 - academic success 71–2
 - graduates entering employment 73
- school age 55
- school attendance rate
 - early 1900s 19
 - Meiji schools 15
- School Education Law (1947) 207, 209
- school phobia 7, 203
- school refusal 60, 194, 201–7, 240
 - case studies 205–7
 - categories 201–3
 - causes 199, 203–4
 - school's response to 205, 206
 - statistics 203, 204
- school sizes 55
- schooling 20, 34, 54, 240
 - and gendered value 74–8, 82–3
 - and poverty 83–93
 - buraku* children 44, 45, 110, 121, 122–5
 - challenges over present system 241–2
 - changes since 1970 45–7
 - children's reaction to 242–3
 - civil movements in 40–5
 - during World War Two 28
 - English-language studies of Japanese schooling 3
 - girls' perception of 78–82
 - interactionist interpretations 10–12
 - Koreans' participation in 113–15, 116–20
 - mainstream 57–74
 - major functions of 3–6, 48
 - newcomer children 128–37
 - post-war 30–5, 47, 48, 50, 239–40, 242
 - pre-war nationalist 14–27
 - resistance from teacher unions 35–9
 - social groups' uses of 138–40, 243–4
 - statistical sketch 55–7
 - structuralist interpretations 6–10
 - teachers' experiences of 141–91

- schools
- cultural differences between 175–7
 - influence over career women 81
 - new types introduced 214
 - non-sexist education 77–8
 - responses to bullying 200–1
 - selection based on ‘merit’ 5–6, 241
 - see also specific types of high schools, e.g. academic high schools, agricultural high schools etc.*
 - schools for the handicapped 45, 55–6, 66
 - Seikatsu Tsuzurikata Kyōiku* 26–7
 - seikatsuhogo* families 12, 83, 84, 89, 91, 92
 - case study 86–7
 - seinen-dan* 22
 - seitoshidō* 62, 148
 - seikatsushidō* 131
 - selection of students 4, 5–6, 42, 241
 - senmongakkō-rei* 19
 - senshūgakkō* 34, 65, 69, 72, 214
 - shakai kyōiku* 22
 - shiho seido* 221–2, 223
 - shijuku* 14
 - Shin Kyōiku* 23–4
 - Shinkō Kyōiku Kenkyūsho* 27
 - Shizu Agricultural Management High School (elite agricultural high school) 107–8
 - shōgunate schools 14
 - shokusan kōgyō* 15
 - Shoninsha Kenshū* 221–6
 - shunin* 148, 166, 175, 245
 - shūshin* 16
 - sick-bay schooling
 - for bullied children 200–1
 - for school refusal 205
 - case study 206–7
 - single-mother families 85
 - case study 86–8
 - social groups
 - experiences of schooling 53–109
 - uses of schooling 138–40, 243–4
 - social minorities, experiences of schooling 110–38
 - social studies, in curriculum 35, 39, 216–17
 - socialisation of children 4–5, 6, 240
 - sociological theory, general properties 1–3
 - sōgōgakka* 214, 233
 - Sōhyō* 169–70, 171
 - South American Japanese 129
 - special education homeroom classes 55
 - special education institutions 45, 55–6, 66
 - Specialised Schools Ordinance (1903) 19
 - strikes 166
 - structuralist interpretations of schooling 6–10
 - students
 - military service for 22, 28
 - mobilisation into labour service, war years 28
 - students’ experiences of schooling minorities 110–40
 - social groups 53–109
 - Suja’s story (North Korean ethnic schooling) 116–18, 120
 - superintendent of education 145
 - supervising teachers, Internship Program 224–5
 - ‘support schools’ 100
 - Taiseiyokusan-kai* 25
 - Taishō liberalism, and educational reform 21–2
 - Taishō ‘New Education’ movement 23–4
 - Taiwan
 - colonial education in 29
 - middle-school military drills 25
 - Takashi’s story (sick-bay schooling) 206–7
 - Takeuchi, Mr (union high-school teacher) (case study) 181–3, 185, 189–90, 191
 - teacher certification 144, 145, 220
 - Teacher Certification Act (1890) 142–3
 - Teacher Certification Law (1949) 144
 - teacher education 144–5
 - Council recommendations 228–9
 - Internship Program 221–6
 - reforms 219–21
 - Teacher Education Council report 223, 228–9
 - Teacher Performance Assessment Program 38
 - teacher qualifications 145, 220
 - teacher unions 9, 27, 35–9, 148, 163–4, 190, 245
 - activities 165

- agreements with MOE 36
 attempts to raise salaries 165–7
 criticisms of 165
 first 24
 membership decline 167–9, 191
 and MOE policy proposals 246 opposition to government ‘control’ of education 37–9
 political affiliations 163, 164, 165
 reorganisation 169–71, 191
see also specific unions, e.g. Nikkyōso, Zenkyō etc.
- teachers
 adjustment allowance for 166
 age of 179
 civil rights of 156–7
 comparison with US counterparts 172–5 contribution to school-level policy making 175, 246 equality in status among 174–5
 experiences of schooling 141–91
 gender of 179–90
 guiding child development 157–63
 as imperial civil servants 143
 in-service education 149–51 informal interaction with colleagues 173–4, 175–6
 initial appointment 145–7
 Internship Program 221–6
 kizuna 172–3
 labour rights 157, 166, 245
 length of service 152
 political activity restrictions 156–7, 245
 post-war, to serve the whole community 143–4
 probationary program 221–2
 professional responsibilities 158–61, 172, 191, 242
 promotions 148, 149, 181–5, 189–90, 191, 245–8 resistance to imperial education program 27
 salary structure 147, 165–6
 transfers 147–8, 246
 under the Imperial Constitution of Japan 142–3 union involvement and promotion 149 union membership 164
 workloads 151–4
 young 179
 see also specific groups of teachers, e.g. male high-school teachers, primary teachers etc.
- teachers’ rights to educate children 155–6
- teaching
 attraction as career 152–4
 institutions of 142–54
 teaching children to enjoy learning (case study) 160–1 teaching, culture of 172–90, 191
 comparison with the US 172–5
 interschool differences 175–7
 teaching staff composition, and teaching culture 177
- teenagers
 attending correspondence programs 99–100, 243
 entering the workforce 85, 89–90
- temple schools 14
- terakoya* education 14
- tertiary education 56
 Ad-Hoc Council recommendations 214–15 expansion 19–20
 for girls, early 1900s 21
 implementation of lifelong learning 218–19
 post-war 33–4
 see also universities
- textbooks 15, 25, 27
 authorisation by MOE challenged 42–3, 50, 240
 criticism of in 1980s 46–7
 post-war censorship 30
- third-generation Koreans 110, 111–21, 138
- ‘Three Education Bills’ (1956) 38
- Tokugawa education 14, 15–16
- Tokyo Metropolitan Teachers’ Union’s case 38–9
- Tokyo School for Girls 21
- Tokyo University
 as top university 93, 94, 95, 97
 importance of 17
- Tomoe Gakuen (private school) 23, 24
- trade union ‘national centres’ 169–70
- transfers of teachers 147–8, 246
- truancy 203
- true feelings of children, understanding (case study) 158–60
- Tsuda, Ume 21

- ultranationalism in education 24–6
- unemployed middle-school graduates 85
- union high-school teacher, male (case study) 181–3
- union teachers, criticisms of 165
- United States culture of teaching, comparison with 172–5
- United States Education Mission 30–1, 32
- universities 17, 56–7
 - contract employment for academics 230–1
 - expansion in early 1900s 19–20
 - for women 21
 - Korean women's experiences of 117–18, 119
 - see also specific universities*
- University Council 214, 230–2
- university entrance examination 5, 71, 95, 114, 134, 194
- university management, government intervention in 40
- University of the Air 219
- university students, military service for 28
- upper-secondary education, MOE selection mechanisms 42
- urban vocational high schools 72–4
- veteran female teachers 187
- vice-principals
 - appointment 148
 - female 187
 - salary structure 166
- vice-principals' examination 148
- vice-principals' union group 164
- vocational high schools 65–6, 72–4
- vocational preparation 4
- vocational schooling 19–20, 56
- Vocational Schools Ordinance (1899) 19
- vocational subjects, compulsory 22
- wartime education 28
- Wataru's story (school refusal) 205–6
- welfare agencies, and families in poverty 86–8
- women
 - difficulties of career and family responsibilities 76, 81
 - diversity of views on gender roles and career plans 78–82
 - employer discrimination against 77, 80
 - employment prospects 75–6
- workloads of teachers 151–4
- workforce, teenagers entering 85, 89–90
- World War Two, schooling during 28
- Yama municipal commerce high school 72
- yōgoshisetsu*, children in 84, 88–90
- youth suicide, related to bullying 195–6
- youth training institute 22
- youths, lacking protective care 89
- zainichi* Koreans 117, 118, 119, 120
- Zenkankyō* 164
- Zenkoku Hahaoya Renrakukai* 42
- Zenkyō* 35, 163, 170, 171
- Zen' nichūkyōren* 164
- Zenrōren* 170, 171