

Index

References to Figures are in italics, and pseudonyms of personal narrators are within quotation marks.

- Abrahams, Roger 11, 80, 120, 192
 academic theories, as stories 5–6, 14–23, 100, 122, 157, 163, 170–1, 191
see also intellectuals
 actor-narrator, in personal stories 101,
 105–6, 114–23, 158–64, 173–9, 192
see also ‘I’/ reflectiveness actors, in stories, see protagonists actors’/theorists’ models xi, 166, 169–71, 180
 adventure, as theme in stories 118–19, 147–53, 158, 164, 177
 agency, individual, see individuals alienation, as theme in stories 16–17, 19, 22, 155, 160, 171, 174
see also binary opposition myth
 artificiality of cities, as theme in stories 19, 44–7, 54, 154–5, 157–8
see also binary opposition myth
 arts, in story-telling 7, 78, 81, 177–80
see also conventions in story-telling;
 resources
 audience for stories 11, 12, 22, 30, 35–6, 44, 55, 73–6, 79, 120, 173,
 174
 author, see narrators
 autobiography, see personal stories;
 avocation, as theme in personal stories, 103–5
- Bakhtin, M. M. 11, 178, 191
 Barthes, Roland 7, 191
- battles, as theme in stories, see
 struggles
 Bauman, Richard 12, 172, 178, 190, 192 belonging, sense of, as theme in stories
 19, 124, 138, 145, 159
 Bennett, Gillian 92, 192
 binary opposition, as theme in stories
 academic urban tales 19–20, 47
 concrete cows tales 44–7
 personal tales, 154–5, 162
see also binary opposition myth
 binary opposition myth 19–20,
 44–7, 55, 154–5, 158, 161, 164, 170–1
 challenged 39, 47–54, 160–4
 ‘Birch, Leila’ 115, 159, 183
 ‘Blackwell, Jill’ 99, 118, 148, 183
 Briggs, Charles 74, 178, 190, 192
 ‘Brown, Ernest’ 134, 136, 162, 183
 Bruner, Jerome 4, 80, 90, 114, 117,
 137, 176, 178, 180, 192
 Buckinghamshire countryside, as theme in stories 41–7
- ‘Candy, Judy’ 91, 134, 135, 150, 151, 183–4
 capitalism, as theme in stories 16–19, 174
see also political economy stories causality, in stories, see plot
 character, in personal tales, 114 Chicago school, see ‘classic’ urban theory

206 Index

- chronicle 10, 191
see also story
- circulation, mode of 9, 12, 174
 academic urban tales 21–3
 concrete cows tales 45–6
 garden city tales 39
 humanistic–historical tales 47–54
 personal stories 73–81
 planners’ tales 35–6, 37
- citizens, in stories, see ‘people, the’
- city, the
 abstract tales of 14–23
 as created through multiplicity of stories 1, 3, 9, 165–71, 176–80
 definition of 1, 190
 as formulated through personal stories 155–64
 the ‘good city’ 23, 34, 38–41
 as inimical to humanity, see binary opposition myth liberalising role of, see freedom
 as narrated in tales of a specific city 24–55, 155–64
 as natural setting for human life 158–64, 175–6
- ‘classic’ urban theory, as story 14–23, 173
- Clifford, James 12, 190
- Cohen, Anthony 21, 58, 190, 192
- coherence in stories 9, 10–11
 academic urban tales 18–20
 concrete cows tales 44–7
 garden city tales 37–9
 personal tales 101–6, 118
 planners’ tales 33–6
see also plot
- coincidences, in stories 90–1
- communication of stories, see circulation; performance
- communicative event 12, 73–5
- community, as theme in stories 16, 19, 21, 34, 36, 38, 41, 124, 131–8, 152, 153–5, 164, 171, 174, 175–80
see also binary opposition myth
- conclusions, see endings
- concrete cows 44–51, 45, 51, 54, 55, 157, 163, 165–6, 170–1, 173–9 consumption, as theme in stories 21, 100, 174
- contexts for story-telling 7, 12, 22, 35–6, 38–9, 73–81, 174
see also communicative event
- continuity, sense of, in stories 174, 176–80
 in personal tales 99, 101–2
- control, personal, in stories 81, 114–19
see also individuals
- conventions, in story-telling 9, 11–13, 173–7
 academic urban tales 21–3
 concrete cows tales 45–7
 humanistic–historical tales 49–54
 personal tales 57–9, 73–81, 89–93, 98–106, 114–23, 138, 147–64
 planners’ tales 35–6
- country/countryside, see binary opposition myth; ‘green’ city; rural/urban juxtaposition
- Cowper, William 47
- cultural studies, urban stories in 14–23
- ‘Cunningham, Andrew’ 103, 117, 149, 161–2, 183
- ‘Curtis, Ruth’ 155, 184
- cyclical time 101–2, 173, 177
- ‘Dale, Lucy’ 115, 119, 124–31, 135, 136, 147, 148, 152, 154, 155, 161, 184
- ‘Dawson, Brenda’ 2, 59–72, 73–8, 89, 90, 98, 104, 114, 116, 119, 148, 155, 156, 159, 161, 162, 184
- delivery of stories, see circulation; performance; style
- destiny, as theme in stories 25–36, 55, 175

- see also* teleology
- deterioration, as theme in stories 15, 136–7, 154
- determination, as theme in stories, 114–19
- Dial-a-bus, in local mythology 33, 47, 50, 151
- distancing, in story-telling 78, 118, 120–3
see also actor-narrator; reflectiveness
- distribution of stories, see circulation
- dramatis personae, see protagonists
- Durkheim, Emile 5, 14, 15
- ‘Dyer, Frank’ 91, 98, 119, 120, 159, 160, 184
- ‘Eaton, Janet’ 91, 135, 159, 184
- economic forces, as theme in stories 17, 21, 35
- ‘Ejikame, Patricia’ 98, 136, 152, 156, 157, 185
- emotions, in stories 118, 119
see also experience
- endings to stories 55, 118–20, 164, 175
 happy 33–6, 37–41, 119, see also success stories sad 17, 19–20, 40, 47, see also binary opposition myth; Golden Age story
- enterprise, in personal tales 114–15
- environment, as theme in stories, see ‘green’ city
- evaluation, see moral ordering
- events, in story-telling 90–2, 106
- evolution, in stories
 in academic urban tales 15–18, 23
 in garden city tales 37–8
 as hero tale 6
 as stages of human history 15–18, 177
see also organic imagery
- experience in stories 49, 118, 119, 122
see also individuals;
 ‘life-as-narrative’ explanation
- fall, the, see Golden Age story
- family relationships, in personal tales 98–9, 174
- ‘family time’ 89–90, 173
- ‘Farley, Agnes’ 98, 102, 119, 185
- fate, in stories, see coincidences
- first-person narratives, see personal stories
- Fishermead 57, 68, 126, 131–8, 132, 153, also 56–164 passim
- fluency 58, 76, 79
- folk models, see actors’/theorists’ models
- Foucault, Michel 6
- fracturing, fragmentation, as theme in story 16–17, 171
see also binary opposition myth
- freedom, as feature of city life 19, 33, 34, 37–9, 156–7, 179
- friends, in personal tales 99–100
- Fukui, Katsuyoshi 21, 58, 190
- garden city stories 36–41, 173, 174
- Geertz, Clifford 5
- generalisation in story, see ‘universal-in-particular’
- generations, in personal tales 99
see also continuity
- genre 11–13, 178
see also conventions, in story-telling
- Giddens, Anthony 17, 21, 191, 192
- globalisation, see world system stories
- Golden Age story 10, 14–23 passim, 47, 175, 176–7
- good and evil, see moral ordering; struggles
- Gramsci, Antonio 6, 168
- grandparents, in personal tales 98
- ‘green’ city, the 36, 50–2, 160–4, 161

208 Index

- Hall, Stuart 7, 80, 192
 Hannerz, Ulf 21, 171
 'Hardy, Emma' 120, 155, 160–1, 185
 Harvey, David 17, 19
 'Henderson, Sarah' 116, 134, 185
 hero tale 5, 6, 10, 16, 18, 34, 55
 heroes of stories, see protagonists
 history, in stories
   as broad sequential eras 15–18, 177
   in humanistic-historical tales 47–54
   as realm for human action 47–54, 102
   see also binary opposition myth; continuity; evolution; temporal framework home, in personal stories 90, 117, 138, 149–53, 155, 158–9, 164 homelessness, in personal stories 150–1
 'Hopkins, Timothy' 79, 91, 92, 104, 120, 155, 161, 185
 horror tales 151
 hospital, in local mythology 47, 50, 119, 151
 housing, in personal stories 90, 147–53
 Howard, Ebenezer 36–9, 191
 human will, as theme in stories 33–4, 38–9, 55, 114–19
   see also I; individuals
 humanistic-historical tales 47–55, 166, 171, 173–9
 'I', in personal stories 92, 101, 105–6, 114–23, 158–60, 164, 174, 176–9, 192
   see also actor-narrator
 identity
   created through stories 22, 41, 55, 103, 115, 136–7, 172
   as theme in stories 17, 22, 60, 98, 103, 106, 115, 119, 136
 individualism 22, 38, 176, 192
   see also actor-narrator; individuals individuals, in stories
   garden city tales 37–9
   humanistic-historical tales 52
   personal tales 98–101, 105–6, 114–23
   portrayed as active and conscious actors 39, 92, 114–23, 158–60, 164, 171, 174, 176–80 industrialisation, as theme in stories 18, 21, 174
   see also binary opposition myth
 information age 17–18
 informational city 17
 intellectuals, stories of 3, 5–6, 14–23, 24, 165, 170
   see also academic theories irony 78
 'Jacobs, Rachel' 115, 119, 137, 138–47, 148, 152, 153–4, 157, 160, 161, 185
 Johnstone, Barbara 82, 137, 166, 191, 192 journey, personal, as theme in story 118, 119–20, 145
   see also travel
 'Lambert, Lesley' 100, 117, 119, 149–50, 155, 156, 186
 'Lambert, Shirley' 78, 91, 99, 106–14, 115, 116, 118, 120, 121, 149, 154, 186
 'life-as-narrative' 4, 80–1
 life cycle, in stories 89–90
 life history 192
 life story 4, 73, 192
   see also personal stories
 Linde, Charlotte 76, 92, 114, 166, 191, 192
 Linn-Cole, Jenny xii, 100, 116, 148, 161, 186
 listeners, see audience
 Living Archive Project 48
 locality, in stories, see place

- Lord, Albert 177
- Marcus, George 12, 190
- market, as theme in stories 28, 35
- Marx, Karl 5, 14, 15, 16, 17, 169
- Marxian/marxist, see Marx
- maturity, as theme in stories, see
 organic imagery
- media, for story-telling 12, 174, 191
 academic urban tales 22
 concrete cows tales 45–6
 garden city tales 39
 humanistic–historical tales 47–54
 personal tales 73–81
 planners’ tales 29, 35–6, 37
see also circulation
- meta-narratives 5–6, 168
see also story
- Milton Keynes 26, 30, 68
 artificial 41–7, 154–5, 157–8
 created through human action 37–41, 47–55
 engineered concrete jungle 41–7
 epitome of urban stories x, 55 ‘green’ 36, 50–2, 160–4, 162
 locale for freedom/opportunity 156
 Master Plan for, 25–36, 30, 54, 177
 mythical goals for, 27–31, 34
 natural organism 27, 33, 35, 157
 planned 25–36, 41–7
 stories about 24–55, 155–64
 stories by residents of 56–164
passim
 subject for poetry 43, 44, 52, 163
see also Fishermead; mythology (local)
- Milton Keynes Development Corporation 25–36, 54
- Mitchell, W. J. T. 13, 191
- MKDC, see Milton Keynes
 Development Corporation
- modernity, as theme in stories 5, 19, 21, 22, 174
see also binary opposition myth;
 evolution
- ‘Moore, Jim’ 92, 156, 187
- moral ordering, in stories 10, 19, 33–4, 38–9, 101, 155, 175
- moving, in stories 147–51, 158–9
see also travel
- mud, in local mythology 33, 50, 119, 148, 151
- music, as theme in personal tales 103–4
- myth 4, 23, 27, 42, 80, 164, 175–6, 179
see also story
- mythical charter 27, 172
- mythology
 of cities ix, 155, 158–64, see also
 binary opposition myth
 local, of Milton Keynes 50, 151, 155–64
- narrative, see story
- narrators 12, 114–23, 158–64, 173
 academic tales 22
 concrete cows tales 43, 45–6
 humanistic–historical tales 52, 54
 personal stories 56, 57, 183–90
 planners’ tales 35–6
see also actor–narrator
- ‘natural forces’, as theme in stories 35, 174
- neighbourhood 131–8, 153–5
- ogres, in stories 100
- opportunity, as feature of city life 19, 33, 34, 37–9, 156–7
- opposition, binary, see binary
 opposition
- organic imagery, in stories 10, 33–6, 37–9, 157
see also evolution
- ‘Osborne, Joy’ 104, 136, 137, 152, 153, 154, 161, 186
- Pahl, Ray 21, 192

210 Index

- panegyric 33, 49
see also hero tale
- parents, in personal tales 98
- partner, in personal tales 99
- 'people, the', in stories 34, 38–9
- performance of stories 7, 9, 11–12, 73–81, 174, 190
see also circulation; media; style
- personal relationships and community 134–5, 138, 147, 153–5, 159, 160
 as theme in stories 98–100, 138, 147, 153, 164
- personal stories x, 2, 4, 73, 166, 171, 173–9, 181–2, 191–2, also 56–164
passim
- presentation of x, 56–7, 181–2, see also transcription
- 'Phillips, Alice' 118, 186–7
- pioneer tales 49–50, 118, 119, 147–8, 164
- place, in stories 5, 90, 131–7, 153–5, 160, 164
- planners' tales 25–36, 165, 169, 173–9
- planning, in stories
 as beneficial 25–39
 as devaluing 41–7, see also binary opposition myth
- plot 9, 10–11, 174–5, 177
 academic urban tales 16, 18–20
 concrete cows tales 44, 47
 garden city tales 37–9
 humanistic–historical tales 52
 personal tales 92, 101–6, 114–20, 147–53
 planners' tales 33–6
- Plummer, Ken 22, 168, 172, 190, 191
- political economy stories 14–23
- postmodernism 5, 6, 7–8, 15
- postmodernity, as theme in stories 15–18, 21, 174
see also binary opposition myth; evolution
- power, as theme in stories 21, 117
 in analysis of story-telling 6–7, 168–9, 173, 191
- premodernity, as theme in stories 15–18
see also binary opposition myth; evolution
- Prince, Gerald 10, 191, 192
- principle, sense of, in personal tales 103–5
- progress, as theme in stories 15, 18, 21
see also evolution; success stories
- prophecy, see teleology
- Propp, Vladimir 10
- protagonists in stories 9, 11–12, 174
 academic urban tales 11, 20–2
 concrete cows tales 41–7
 garden city tales 11–12, 37–9
 humanistic–historical tales 52
 personal narratives 12, 92, 98–101, 105–6, 114–23, 160, see also 'I' planners' tales 11–12, 33–6
- pseudonyms, use of xii, 59, 181–2
- 'rags-to-riches', see success stories
- 'Ramsey, Douglas' 187
- readers, see audience
- recording of personal stories 57–9, 73–81, 192
- reflectiveness, in story-telling 73, 78, 106, 118, 120–3
see also actor–narrator
- relativism 8, 166
see also 'truth'
- religion, in stories 104
- reported speech/thought in stories 78, 122
- resources, narrative 16, 79–81, 158, 173–80
- 'Richards, James' 187
- roundabouts, in local mythology 42, 45, 50

- Rowe, George xii, 82–9, 119, 148, 156, 187
- rural/urban juxtaposition 16, 19, 37–9, 38, 40, 160–4, 175–80
see also binary opposition myth; Buckinghamshire countryside; ‘green’ city
- Sanjek, Roger 1, 21, 191
- self, theories of 17
see also identity; individualism
- self-narratives, see personal stories
- settling, as theme in stories 151–3
see also home
- Sherzer, Joel 178, 190
- Simmel, Georg 5, 14
- ‘Simmons, Elsie’ 119, 150–1, 187
- Smith, Barbara Herrnstein 12, 190
- social engineering 41–7
see also planning
- spouse, in personal tales 99
- ‘Stanley, Alison’ 98, 187
- Stanley, Liz 192
- story/ies
 definition of 9, 190–1
 features of 9–13
 interactions between ix, 9, 166–71
 multiplicity of 3, 8, 9, 165–72, 178–80
 theories of 4–9, 190–1
see also story-telling
- story-telling
 as basic human activity 6, 13
 as creative 24, 54, 55, 80–1, 114–23, 158–64, 171–2, 176–80
 as going beyond the cognitive 23, 121–2, 171
 as organising experience 1, 4, 24, 55, 80–1, 123, 158, 172
 as personal control 23, 81, 106, 114–19
 processes of 12, 73–81, 169, 171–80, 190
 uses of 22–3, 81, 169–80 struggles, as theme in stories 16–17, 19, 21, 117–18, 164, 175, 177 style, in stories 11–12, 21–3, 35–6, 38–9
see also conventions; media; performance
- success stories 10, 17, 18–19, 33–6, 37–9, 119, 174, 177
see also endings; evolution
- ‘Sutton, Peter’ 90, 98, 104–5, 115, 154–5, 157, 188
- tale(s), see story
- ‘Tan, Andrea’ 104, 161, 188
- teleogy in stories 15, 19, 33–6, 177
see also destiny; evolution; organic imagery
- teller/actor, teller/hero, see actor-narrator
- temporal framework 9, 173–4
 academic urban tales 15–18
 concrete cows tales 44, 47
 garden city tales 37–9
 humanistic–historical tales 52
 personal tales 89–93, 101
 planners’ tales 33
- text, concept of 7, 12, 169, 190
 oral performance as, see transcription
- theorists’/actors’, theorists’/folk models 166, 169–71, 180
- Tonkin, Elizabeth 6, 190, 191, 192
- Tönnies, Ferdinand 15
- town, see city
- tradition, as theme in stories 16, 19, 44–7
see also binary opposition myth; continuity
- transcription 57–9, 73–8, 121–2, 181–2
- transport, in local mythology 32, 33, 151, 155
see also Dial-a-bus

212 Index

- travel, as theme in stories 5, 90, 118, 164
- 'Travers, Dennis' 102, 116, 119, 159, 188
- trees, in local mythology 37, 160–2
- trickster 21
- 'troubles', in stories, see struggles
- 'truth', of stories 2, 5, 23, 55, 166–8, 191
- Turner, Victor 11
- 'Tyler, Jonathan' 103, 155, 188
- 'universal-in-particular' 9, 11, 175
 academic tales 20–1
 concrete cows tales 46–7
 garden city tales 39
 humanistic–historical tales 52, 54
 personal tales 118, 120–3, 164
 planners' tales 36
- see also* coherence; plot; reflectiveness
- Urban, Greg 190
- urban ecology stories 14–23
- urban life/urbanism, see city
- urbanisation, as theme in stories 18, 19, 21, 22
- 'Vaughan, Roger' 156, 188
- victim, in stories 106, 118
- villainy, in stories 10
- 'Vincent, Sally' 114, 134, 161, 189
- 'Walker, Richard' 134, 135, 149, 156, 159, 189
- Weber, Max 5, 15
- world system stories 14–23
- 'Wyatt, Bessie' 93–7, 99, 118, 189