

Index

- a priori* method of moral law, 145
 absolute, moral law as, 135
 academic organicism, 47–8, 64
 agnostics, 31
 altruism, 103–4, 121–2
 Amiel, Henri-Frédéric, 112–13
 analogy, in scientific method, 133
 anomie, 291–6
 anticlericism Church role in education despite, 24–5 concept of lay morality, 33
   end of, 42–3
   evident in elections, 28
   and laicization, 34–43
   origins of, 31
   scholarly works, 32
   similar to Catholicism, 32–3
 antiquity, Renaissance focus on, 56, 57, 60, 79 Aristotle, 53, 54, 241, 242, 246
 association see social dimension of morality
 authority
   link with morality, 88
   Montesquieu's view of, 249–50
   see also discipline; law
 autonomy, 96–8, 109
   see also free will; freedom; liberty
- Bacon, Francis, 68, 69
 Bastille, 39
 Bayle, Pierre, 151
 Berlin, Isaiah, 233, 234–5
 Biblical criticism, 27, 32
 biologism, Tarde's critique of, 259
 Bloom, Allan, 294–5
 Bonaparte, Napoleon, 21
 books
   Renaissance use of, 59
   Scholastic emphasis on works, 52, 55–6
   see also literature
 bourgeois, 295
 Boutroux, Emile, 107, 153–60, 180
- Cartesianism
   Durkheim's critique of, 4–5, 66, 107
   legacy in education of, 72–3 Montesquieu's ambivalent commitment to, 233–40, 256–7
   replacing rationalism of, 78
 categorical imperatives, 136
 Catholic Church
   influence on education, 24–5
   internal difficulties, 26–8
   popularity and power, 22–6, 28
   problems of adapting to change, 28–30
   reforms to destroy, 38–9
   relationship with state, 21–2
   see also anticlericism Catholicism, similar to anticlericism, 32–3
 causality, Boutroux' work on, 153–6
 Central Schools, 72, 73–5
 centripetal patriotism, 93
 certainty, 132
 charity
   morality of, 91–2
   positive duty of, 145
 children
   development of morality in, 98–109
   role of family in raising, 140–1 Christianity
   division of sacred and profane, 67
   idea of duty, 61
   origins of education in, 46–8, 79
 Church see Catholic Church; Christianity; Protestantism
 civic morality, 142
 civil state, Rousseau's concept of, 276
 class see social class
 clergy, 26–7
 collective life
   in German higher education, 184–5
   see also social dimension of morality collective will, 282–4
 colonial expansion, 38, 42
 Comenius, 68–71

318

common interest, 283, 284
 communication, influence on Church, 29–30
 comparative method, 252–3 Montesquieu's use of, 244–7, 253–6
 competition, in education, 64–5
 Comte, Auguste, 200–1, 246, 256
 Concordat (1801), 21–2, 26, 33
 Condillac, Étienne Bonnot de, 114, 115
 consciousness
   Durkheim's views on study of, 78
   and internal perception, 124–6
 constraint
   as feature of social facts, 267
   necessary for happiness, 287–9, 292–3
   see also authority; discipline
 contingency, Boutroux' work on, 153–6, 158
Contrat Social, Durkheim's study of, 271–2 corporations, 50, 51, 207–8 Cousin, Victor, 114–17, 118
 criminology, Tarde's work, 258–9
 cultural change, as problem for Church, 29–30
 curriculum, secular reforms of, 41
 custom, 88, 217–19, 223

De la division du travail social, 159, 228–9
   Tarde's review of, 259–62
   Durkheim's response to, 262–3 debate, role of dialectic and, 53–6
 deduction, 220, 252, 253–4
 Deploige, Simon, 172, 202
 Descartes, René
   historical reconstruction of work, 3
   view of history, 155
   see also Cartesianism
 determinism, free will and, 130–2
 dialectic, role of debate and, 53–6
 discipline
   as element of morality, 88–90, 92–3
   relationship with social dimension, 92–6
   and morality in schools, 99–103
   in Rousseau's theory, 289
   see also authority; constraint; punishment disease, as metaphor, 251
 divine providence, 151
 division of labour, 142, 159–60, 247, 284–5
   see also De la division du travail social doctrinaires, 115
 domestic morality, 140–1
 duality of human nature, 83–4
 Durkheim, Emile
   evolution of ideas, 302

Index

historical reconstruction of work, 3–6, 8, 307–8
 ironist and metaphysical approaches to, 305–6
 duty
   Christian idea of, 61
   concept of, 138, 139
   positive and negative, 144–5
   relationship with good, 94–5

 Ecole du Palais, 49
 economics
   classical approach to, 188–9 List's views of, 188
 economy
   in nineteenth century France, 11
   see also political economy
 education
   Central Schools, 72, 73–5
   Church influence in, 24–5
   see also laicization
   and development of morality
     autonomy, 109
     discipline and punishment, 100–3
     social dimension, 103–9
   emerging role of state, 40–2
   origins and evolution of Christian and Roman, 46–8, 79
     medieval, 49–50, 51–3, 54–6, 113
     nineteenth century reform, 75
     Protestantism and realism, 67–75
     Renaissance, 58–60, 61, 62–6, 79–80
     role of Jesuits, 24, 40, 62–5
   role of, 48, 83
   Rousseau's theory of, 141, 285–90
   study of things
     Durkheim's views of, 76–82
     neglected by Christianity, 67 Protestant and realist influences, 67–75
   see also higher education; scientific education; secondary education educational formalism, 67
 educational theory course, 45–6, 82
   see also pedagogy course
 egoism, 103–4, 121–2
Emile, Durkheim's study of, 271–2
 empiricism
   Durkheim's critiques of, 129, 229
   method of moral law, 145
 English educational reform, 69
 Enlightenment
   critique of education in, 79–80
   Montesquieu's position in, 233–40, 244, 257
 epistemological relativism, 81

- equilibrium
 and anomie, 291–2, 294
 in Rousseau's theory, 287–8
- Erasmus, Desiderius, 59–60
- Espinas, Alfred, 179–81, 225–6
- ethical relativism, 80–2, 86
- ethical traditionalism, 86
- ethics
 critique of rationalist and empiricist, 229
 Durkheim's lecture on, 135–46
 Durkheim's vocabulary of, 138–9
 German philosophy of law and, 199
 German political economy and, 191–5
 in Greek and Roman society, 164
 method of studying, 220–1
 pagan ethics, 61
 positive science of, 229–30
 Renouvier's work on, 168
 Schaeffle's views of, 208
 separation from philosophy, 219–22
see also morality
- ethnography
 German approach to, 201–5
see also observation
- Europe, French position in, 16
- evil, 151–2
- evolutionary perspective
 and comparative method, 255–6
 Durkheim's critique of, 129
- experimental method, 227, 244, 252
- experimental psychology, 209–16
- experimental reasoning, 55–6
- externality, 122–4, 267
- family
 changing in nineteenth century, 10, 12
 and domestic morality, 140–1
 Durkheim's Bordeaux lectures on, 227–8
 in Greek and Roman society, 163
 morals of state and, 93
- Fechner, Gustave, 120, 210, 211
- Ferry, Jules, 34, 36, 38, 39, 41
- Fichte, Johann Gottlieb, 186
- final vocabulary, 302–3
- finality
 in moral law, 138
 theory of God, 149–50
- Fouillée, Alfred, 180, 182
- France see French character; French civilization; French culture; Third Estate
- free will
 determinism and, 130–2
 and social laws, 243–4
see also autonomy
- freedom
 as condition for moral responsibility, 135 Rousseau's notion of, 288
see also liberty
- freemasons, 30
- French character, 65–6, 112–13
- French civilization, and Greco-Roman society, 161–2
- French culture, German imitation of, 185–6
- Freud, Sigmund, 83
- Fustel de Coulanges, Numa Denis, 57, 161–7
- Gambetta, Léon Michel, 16, 17–18
- general will, 282–4
- Germany
 eighteenth century nationalism, 185–6
 experimental psychology in, 209–16
 higher education in, 177–8, 183–5
 realism in, 68–72
 scientific education in, 175–6, 177–8
 social science in, 186
 ethnography, 201–5
 influence on Durkheim, 172–3, 182, 205–9
 philosophy of law, 195–200
 political economy, 187–95
- girls, education of, 24–5, 40–1
- God, Durkheim's lectures on, 148–52
- good
 concept of, 138
 relationship with duty, 94–5
- government
 Durkheim's view of, 143–4
 in Greek and Roman society, 163–4
see also political authority
- Greek society
 Durkheim's comments on, 79
 Fustel's work on, 161–6
- Grotius, Hugo, 281–2
- group attachment see social dimension of morality
- Gumplowicz, Ludwig, 182, 259–60
- happiness
 constraint necessary for, 287–9, 292–3 equilibrium leading to, 287–8
 and finality in moral law, 138
- Hartmann, 149–50, 152
- health, as metaphor, 251
- Helmholtz, Hermann Ludwig von, 211
- Herbart, Johann Friedrich, 210
- Herder, Johann Gottfried von, 186
- higher education
 Church influence on, 25
 Durkheim's views of German, 183–5

higher education (cont.)
 laicization of, 39, 41
 moral education in, 222
 nineteenth century reforms of, 173–4, 176
 resistance to new ideas, 51
see also scientific education Hildebrand, Bruno, 189
 historical reconstructions, 2–6, 8, 307–8
 historical school of economics (Kathedersozialismus), 189–95
 historical school of law, 196
 history
 and Boutroux' contingency theory, 155, 158–9
 of Greek and Roman society, 161–6
 history of ideas, approaches to, 1–6 Hobbes, Thomas, 138–9, 273–4
 human nature, duality of, 83–4
 humanism, Durkheim's critique of, 78–9 Humboldt, Wilhelm von, 201–2
 hypothetical imperatives, 136

 identity of self, 135
 Ihering, Rudolf von, 196–7, 198, 199, 218, 219, 223
 imitation, Tarde's theory of, 259, 263, 265, 266
 immigrants, in France, 11
 inclination, 121
 individual morality, 139–40
 individualism
 in Jesuit education, 64–5
 moral individualism, 271
 induction, 220, 253
 inequality, 293
 innovation, Tarde's view of, 261
 integration see social dimension of morality intelligence, moral duty to develop, 140
 interdependence, 276–7, 281–2
 internal perception, 124–6
 interpsychological theory, 259
 introspection, 86
 ironists, 303, 304, 305–6, 307

 Janet, Paul, 170
 Jesuits, role in education, 24, 40, 62–5
 Judaism, 30
 judgements, 126
see also reason
 justice
 Montesquieu's concept of, 238–9
 negative duty of, 144
see also law

 Kant, Immanuel
 on God, 150

on knowledge, 127, 129
 on moral law, 96–7, 136–7
 on noumenal and phenomenal worlds, 131–2
Kathedersozialismus see historical school of economics
 Keylor, William, 173
 Knies, Karl, 189
 Komensky, Jan Amos (Comenius), 68–71

 'La Science positive de la morale en Allemagne', 183
 Lachelier, Jules, 118, 153
 laicization
 aims of, 36–7
 as civil religion, 35
 growing popularity of, 35–6
 implementation of reform, 36–43
 and patriotism, 34–5
 Lalande, André, 118–19, 169–70
 Latin literature, preeminence of, 79
 law
 German philosophy of, 195–200
 governing social phenomena, 243–4, 248–52
 in Greek and Roman society, 163–4
 Montesquieu's concept of justice, 238–9
 and Montesquieu's societal types, 244–6, 248–52
 in Wundt's Ethik, 218
see also authority; discipline; punishment
 lay morality, 33
 Lazarus, Moritz, 202, 203
 Le Play, Frédéric, 10
Le Suicide, 110, 291
L'Éducation Morale, 83, 110
 legal punishment, 143
 legislators, role of, 249–50
 Leibniz, Gottfried Wilhelm, 71, 148, 151–2
 'L'Enseignement de la philosophie dans les universités allemandes', 182–3
 Leo XIII, 33
L'Évolution Pédagogique en France, 45, 82
 Liard, Louis, 45, 226
 liberalism, Durkheim's defence of, 271
 liberty
 in Greek and Roman society, 165–6
 Montesquieu's concept of, 238
 Wagner's discussion of, 191
see also autonomy; free will; freedom Ligue de l'enseignement, 35
 Ligue pour la Défense des Droits de l'Homme, 271
 List, Georg Friedrich, 187–8

- literature
 preeminence of Latin, 79
 Renaissance focus on, 56, 57, 60
see also books
- Locke, John, 139
- logic, 132–3
- Lotze, Rudolf Hermann, 210, 214–15
- Lukes, Stephen, 173
- Marion, Henri, 179
- materialism, 147
- mathematics, 53–4
- matter
 nature of mind and, 146–7
 primary and secondary qualities of, 122
- mechanic solidarity, 262
- media, influence on Church, 29
- medieval period
 Durkheim's interest in, 48–9, 57
 origins of education in, 49–50, 51–3, 54–6, 113
- Menger, Carl, 190, 193
- metaphysicians, 303–4, 305
- metaphysics, Durkheim's lectures on, 146–50
- method
 Durkheim's Bordeaux lectures on, 227–8
 Durkheim's views of, 120–1, 133–4
 ethnography, 201–5
 experimentation, 227, 244, 252
 Montesquieu's use of observation, 235, 236
 of social science, 244–56
 in study of ethics and morality, 145–6, 208, 220–1, 222–3, 229–30
see also scientific method
- Michelet, Jules, 31–2
- Mill, John Stuart, 128
- mind, nature of matter and, 146–7
- Montaigne, Michel de, 62, 71–2, 234
- Montesquieu, Charles Louis de Secondat
 ambivalent commitment to Cartesianism, 233–40, 256–7
 comparative method of, 244–7, 253–6
 and conditions for social science, 240, 242
 Durkheim's thesis on, 232, 240, 256–7
 laws of social phenomena, 244–6, 248–52
 position in French Enlightenment, 233–40, 244, 257
- moral education
 Cousin's contribution to, 116
 Durkheim's course on, 82–3
 in higher education, 222
 and Rousseau's work, 290
- moral facts, 87
- moral individualism, 271
- moral judgements, 132–3
- moral law
 Durkheim's formulations of, 137–8
 features of, 135–6
 injunctions of, 139–42
 Kant's work on, 96–7, 136–7
 methods of, 145–6
- moral responsibility, conditions for, 135
- moral rules
 Durkheim's method of studying, 229–30
 Durkheim's theory of, 87, 101
- moral sentiment, 135–6
- morality
 anticlericalism and lay morality, 33
 and arguments for existence of God, 150–1
 basic elements of, 86–8
 autonomy, 96–8, 109
 discipline, 88–90, 92–3
 relationship between, 92–6
 social aspect, 91–4, 103–9
 and custom, 88, 218
 development in child, 98–109
 and Durkheim's view of Renaissance, 60–1 function of, 224–5
 methods of studying, 220–1, 222–4
 substituting religious concept of, 84–6, 96
 types of, 95–6
see also ethics
- Müller, Adam Heinrich, 187
- Müller, Johannes, 210
- nationalism
 in Germany, 185–6
see also patriotism
- natural law, economist attacks on, 194–5
- natural science
 emphasis in Central Schools on, 74
 influence on religion, 32
- nature
 Durkheim's views on study of, 76–8
 equilibrium in, 287
 link with discipline, 88–9
 link with society, 279–82
 Montesquieu's concept of, 239–40
 Rousseau's state of nature, 272–5
 society as part of, 142, 257, 300
- necessity
 Boutroux' work on, 153–4, 159–60
 in Rousseau's theory, 288–9, 290
 newspapers, influence on Church, 29
 Novicow, 259–60
- obligatory, moral law as, 135
- observation, Montesquieu's use of, 235, 236
- Opportunists, 18, 20, 33, 37
- organic solidarity, 262

322

- organism, society as, 278
- pagan ethics, 61
- parents, duties to children, 141
- Paris Commune, 15, 22–3
- Parsons, Talcott, 173
- patriotism
  - centripetal patriotism, 93
  - link with secular education, 34–5
  - see also* nationalism
- pedagogy course, 225–8
  - see also* educational theory course
- perception see internal perception
- Perrier, Edmond, 179
- person
  - as an end, 137
  - study of, 78
- personality, nature of, 125–6
- philosophy
  - Cousin's work, 114–17, 118
  - Durkheim's scientific approach to
    - logic, 132–3
    - psychology lectures, 119–32
  - Durkheim's Sens lectures, 112, 118–19, 168–71
  - German teaching of, 183–4
  - and rise of social science, 180
  - separate from psychology and ethics, 219–22
  - taught in French schools, 113–14, 116–18
- philosophy of law, German approach to, 195–200
- pilgrimages, 25
- Pius IX, 22, 26
- Plato, 4
- political authority
  - Montesquieu's view of, 249–50
  - see also* law
- political context of Third Estate, 13–20
- political economy
  - historical school approach to, 189–95
  - Müller's views of, 187
  - see also* economics
- population, in nineteenth century France, 9–11
- positive law, 196
- positive science of ethics, 229–30
- Post, Albert-Hermann, 199–200
- professors, 176, 177
- Protestantism
  - in nineteenth century France, 30
  - and study of things, 67–8
- providence, 151
- psychology
  - distinct from sociology, 291, 298

Index

- Durkheim's lectures on, 119–32
- ethnographic approach to, 202–4
- experimental psychology in Germany, 209–16
- separation from philosophy, 219–20
- and Wundt's concept of custom, 218–19
- punishment, 100–3, 143
  - see also* law
- Rabelais, François, 58–9, 62
- rational judgements see reason
- rational reconstructions, 1–2, 306–7
- rationalism
  - and educational realism, 78
  - see also* Cartesianism
- realism
  - and external world, 123–4
  - and internal perception, 125
  - and study of things
    - Durkheim's views, 76–82
    - German origins, 68–72
    - influence in France, 72–5
  - see also* social realism
- reason
  - Durkheim's account of, 126–7, 129
  - Mill's account of, 128
  - Montesquieu's concept of, 239
  - society as product of, 277
  - Spencer's account of, 129
- reflection, Durkheim's views of, 75–6
- regulation see authority; constraint; discipline; law
- relativism, 80–2, 86
- religion
  - in Greek and Roman society, 163, 164–6
  - influence of natural science on, 32
  - integrative function of, 96
  - link with morality, 84–6
  - in medieval education, 51–2
  - popularity in nineteenth century, 23
  - and Republicanism, 30–1
  - and social facts, 298–9
  - in Wundt's Ethik, 217–18
  - see also* Catholic Church; Christianity; God; Protestantism
- Renaissance
  - education of, 58–60, 61, 62–6, 79–80
  - Enlightenment concept of, 56–7
  - rise of, 57–8
- Renan, Ernest, 32, 178
- Renouvier, Charles, 167–8
- Republicanism
  - distrust of, 13–14
  - and religion, 30–1
- Revue internationale de l'enseignement*, 36

- Ribot, Théodule, 202–4, 209–10
 right, concept of, 138–9
 Roman society
   Fustel's work on, 161–6
   origins of education in, 46, 79
 romantic movement
   influence on Wundt, 216
   origins of German social science in, 187, 195
 Rorty, Richard, 1–2, 302–4, 306
 Roscher, Wilhelm Georg Friedrich, 189
 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques
   Durkheim's criticisms of, 269–70
   Durkheim's study of, 271–2
   education, 285–90
   emergence of society, 275–7, 280
   and general will, 282–4
   indivisible sovereignty, 284–5 relationship between society and nature, 279–82
   state of nature, 272–5
   influence on Durkheim, 268–9, 291, 300
   on punishment, 101, 102
   theory of education, 141, 285–90
- sanctions
   in moral education, 100
   see also punishment
- Savigny, Friedrich Karl von, 195–6
 Schaeffle, Albert, 180, 181, 182, 206–9
 Schmoller, Gustav, 190
 Scholasticism, 51–3, 54–6, 57
 Schopenhauer, Arthur, 149–50, 152
- science
   Boutroux' work on causality and, 153–6
   influence on religion, 32
   in moral education, 108
   philosophy as Durkheim's lectures on logic, 132–3
     Durkheim's lectures on psychology, 119–32
   see also natural science
- scientific education
   Durkheim's views of, 76–8
   French compared with German, 175–6, 177–8
   in Germany, 175
   limitations in France of, 174–5, 176–7
   reforms of, 173–4, 176, 177
- scientific laws, 157–8
- scientific method
   Durkheim's views of, 133–4
   ironist and metaphysical approaches to, 305–6
   of studying morality, 223–4
   see also experimental method; experimental psychology
- secondary education
   Durkheim's goals for, 75–6
   philosophy classes in, 113–14, 116–18
- secular education
   in medieval period, 51–2
   see also laicization
- Sée, Camille, 40–1
- self
   consciousness and, 125
   identity of self, 135
   nature of, 125–6
   self-knowledge, 302–3
   self-sufficient moral agent, 86
- sensibility, 121–2
   moral duty to develop, 140
- Simmel, Georg, 205–6
- Skinner, Quentin, 3
- social actions, Tarde's concept of, 264–5
- social class
   and inequality, 293
   and political allegiance, 19–20
   and popularity of Church, 28–9
   structure of, 11–13, 17–18
- Social Contract*, Durkheim's study of, 271–2
- social dimension of morality, 91–4
   development in children, 103–9
   relationship with discipline, 92–6
- social facts
   Durkheim's concept of, 262–3, 265–6, 267
   Montesquieu's scientific approach to, 235–6
   studied as things, 291, 296–300
   Tarde's view of, 264–7
   see also social things
- social organization, in Greek and Roman society, 164–5
- social realism
   historical reconstruction of, 3–6, 8
   see also realism
- social realist vocabulary, 109–10
- social science
   beginnings in France of, 178–82
   conditions for, 240–4
   development in Germany, 186
   ethnography, 201–5
   influence on Durkheim, 172–3, 182, 205–9
   philosophy of law, 195–200
   political economy, 187–95
   Durkheim's Bordeaux lectures on, 226–8
   methods of, 244–56
   experimentation, 227, 244, 252

social services, run by Church, 23–4
 social things
   laws governing, 243–4, 248–52
   study of, 240–4
   see also method
   see also social facts; things
 social volume, 248–9
 ‘socialists of the chair’ see historical school of economics
 Société pour l’étude des questions
   d’enseignement supérieur, 35–6
 society
   as art, 241–2
   as artificial and organism, 277–9 classifications of, 236–7, 242–3, 244–7
   comparative approach to, 244–7, 253–6
   ethnographic study of, 201–5
   and function of morality, 224–5
   link with nature, 279–82
   as part of nature, 142, 257, 300
   Rousseau’s emergence of, 275–7, 280
   as a thing, 93
 Society of Jesus see Jesuits sociological laws, Boutroux’ concept of, 157–60
 sociology
   approaches to history of theory, 1–6
   contribution of political economy and law
   to, 200
   distinct from psychology, 291, 298
   Durkheim’s Bordeaux lectures on, 226–8
   Tarde’s scope and limits of, 264–5
 Socrates, 4
 solidarity, 262
 soul see metaphysics
 sovereignty, Rousseau’s concept of, 284–5 Spencer, Herbert, 101, 102, 127, 129, 149, 289
 spirituality of soul, 146–7
 state
   morals of family and, 93
   provision of education by, 40–2
   relationship with Catholic Church, 21–2
 state of nature, Rousseau’s concept of, 272–5 Steintal, Heymann, 202, 203
 suicide
   and Durkheim’s concept of anomie, 291–6, 297
   injunction against, 140
   see also Le Suicide
 taboo, 84–5
 Taine, Hippolyte-Adolphe, 72, 125
 Tarde, Jean-Gabriel
   background, 258–9

conflict with Durkheim, 259–68, 297–300
 teachers
   as corporate group, 50
   laicization of, 41
   role in moral education, 99–100, 106–7
   and scientific education in France, 176
   status of philosophy teachers, 117
   see also educational theory course;
   pedagogy course
 Thiers, Adolphe, 14–15, 16–17
 things
   Durkheim’s preference for, 61–2 Durkheim’s view of studying, 76–82
   neglected in Christian education, 67 Protestant study of, 67–8
   Renaissance consideration of, 59
   see also realism; social things Third Estate
   coalition of, 19–20
   France’s position in Europe, 16
   political reforms, 13–20
   socio-economic situation, 9–13
 Tolstoy, Leo Nikolaievich, 101, 102–3 Tönnies, Ferdinand, 205
 traditional rationalism, 86–7
 truth
   Durkheim’s account of, 132
   metaphysicians’ concept of, 304
 unconscious phenomena, 124–5
 universal, moral law as, 135
 universities, resistance to new ideas, 51
 University of Paris, 50, 51
 urbanization, 10–11
 virtue, 138
 Vives, Juan Luis, 68
 vocabulary
   final, 302–3
   social realist, 109–10
 Wagner, Adolf Heinrich Gotthelf, 190–1
 Waitz, Theodor, 202
 war, Rousseau’s and Hobbes’ concepts of, 273–4, 275–6
 Weber, Ernst Heinrich, 210–11
 Weber-Fechner law, 120, 211
 Wundt, Wilhelm, 120–1, 211–14, 215, 216–19, 222–5, 229–30
Zeitschrift für Völkerpsychologie und Sprachwissenschaft, 202–3
 Zeldin, Theodore, 112, 113