

Contents

Preface	page ix
List of abbreviations	xiii
1 Interpreting the nineteenth-century Church	1
2 Lay religion	21
The problem of identity: Anglican or Methodist?	24
The construction of Anglican piety: the Bible and the Prayer Book	36
The essence of Anglican belief: salvation and the last things	46
3 Church and community	61
Providing churches	61
Parochial responsibility redefined: the poor and the ratepayer	67
Sunday church-going	75
The rites of passage	86
4 Clerical life	106
Ordination: a trap baited with flowers?	107
Curates: a clerical underclass?	116
Incumbents: winners and losers in the livings lottery?	130
Two clergymen: a glimpse into the interior	141
5 Relations remoulded	151
Bishops, patrons and recalcitrant clergy	153
The rise of middle management: archdeacons and rural deans	167
The eclipse of lay authority: churchwardens, parish clerks, sextons and schoolteachers	182
The layman redefined	195
6 Conclusion	201
Select bibliography	212
Index	222