

Contents

List of illustrations v
Foreword by Sir Gustav Nossal vii
Acknowledgments ix
Prelude: Dual allegiances xi

FUGUE FOR SIX VOICES 1

Theme I Talking: the language of landscape 5

- 1 The nature of Nature 7
- 2 Words and weeds 15
- 3 Journeys through a landscape 28
- 4 On The Road to Botany Bay 35
- 5 A Snowy River reader 49

III

Theme II Perceiving: the eyes and the mind 61

- 6 The evolution of perceptual attitudes 64
- 7 Eurocentrism and Australian science 73
- 8 Figures in the landscape 83
- 9 Dreaming up a rainforest 90
- 10 Home thoughts from abroad 99

Theme III Locating: the sense of place 105

- 11 Sense of place 109
- 12 The genius loci and the Australian landscape 113
- 13 Cuddlepie and other surrogates 119
- 14 Jet-set and parish pump 127
- 15 Placing the debate 136

Contents

Theme IV Making: creating gardens and the evolution of styles 145

- 16 The suburban garden in Australia 149
- 17 The Australian backyard 153
- 18 Gardening across Australia 164
- 19 The garden as Paradise 176

Theme V Analysing: ideologies and attitudes 187

- 20 The rhetoric and ethics of the environmental protest movement 189
- 21 The perfectibility of Nature 200

Theme VI Sharing and caring: ecological frameworks 209

- 22 Biological pollution 211
- 23 The lie of the land 221
- 24 Eating the future 232
- 25 Felling the ‘Groves of Life’ 241

Coda Learning to be at home: ‘and then came Venice’ 246

Index 249