

Index

- abortion, 4, 101, 133
 Abubikirova, Natalia, 189–90, 195, 237, 238, 239, 246 activists, 34–8
 age, 35, 36, 279–82
 and ambition as a post-Soviet phenomenon, 193–5 attitudes to feminism, 59–73
 combining work and family, 268–72
 contact with Westerners, 225–7 and democracy, 93–4
 on economic conditions, 175–6 education levels, 35, 36, 210–11, 279–82 on equal rights and equal opportunities, 90–2, 96
 and human rights, 94–5
 on lack of solidarity among women's organizations, 182–3 leaders of organizations, 36, 210 marital status, 35
 and mass mobilization, 213, 214–15, 216–18, 266 numbers of children, 34–5, 279 occupations, 34, 279–82
 oldtimers and newcomers, 189–92
 and organizational pluralism, 195–6 and resource mobilization, 169–71 suspicion and the state, 183–9 traditionalists vs. feminists, 192–3 transformation of consciousness, 44, 54, 54–9 universal concerns of, 272
 and WOR, 119–20, 127–8
 ADL, see Archive–Database–Library project advocacy organizations, 29, 30, 31, 41, 146
 and dues collection, 172
 and feminism, 62
 Western influences on, 224, 237
 see also Independent Women's Forum (IWF); Inform Center
 Agrarian Party, 117
 Aivazova, Svetlana, 76, 126, 127
 All-Russian Women's Congress (1995), 250
 Almanac group, 101, 102
 Almond, Gabriel, 181 ambition, as a post-Soviet phenomenon, 193–5 antinuclear movements, 211
 Arbatova, Mariia, 3–4, 7, 84
 Archive–Database–Library (ADL) project, 197, 250
 Argentinean women, and feminism, 72–3 artistic women, and Tvorchestvo, 4–5, 6–7
 Association of Independent Women's Associations, 205, 243
 Association of Women Entrepreneurs, 26, 31, 119, 170–1, 280
 Association of Women [Film and Theater] Directors, 27, 32, 58, 127–8, 166, 172, 184, 185, 280
 Association of Women Journalists, 79, 184, 251, 280 atomization, in women's movement, 196–7
 Azhgikhina, Nadezhda, 74, 84
 Babukh, Larisa, 127 baby-food production, 154 beauty contests, 78 beauty salons, newspaper advertisements for, 82–3 Beijing conference (UN World Conference on Women), 112, 131–2, 133, 187, 196–7, 248 importance of, 249–54
 and Western funding, 231, 233, 236, 238–9
 Beissinger, Mark, 211–12
 Belokopytova, Natalia, 209, 249–50
 Berezhnaia, Natalia, 197
 Beslepikina, Liudmila, 121, 129, 130, 135, 145, 250, 252, 253
 Bobbitt, Lorena, 79

Cambridge University Press

0521660173 - Organizing Women in Contemporary Russia: Engendering Transition

Valerie Sperling

Index

More information

Index

293

- Bolsheviks, and feminism, 64–5, 67–8, 90, 95, 259–60
- Brezhnev, Leonid, 17
- Buckley, Mary, 17
- businesswomen's organizations, 26, 31, 38, 163, 167–8, 169
- Association of Women Entrepreneurs, 26, 31, 119, 170–1, 280
- Businesswomen's Club (Cheboksary), 136, 164, 240
- Confederation of Businesswomen of Russia, 280
- Dzhenklub (Businesswomen's Club), 26, 127, 167, 172, 281
- CEDAW, see United Nations, Convention on Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women
- Center for Women's Initiatives, 173, 175
- Cheboksary, activists, numbers of children, 35 views on feminism, 60, 61, 63 Businesswomen's Club, 136, 164, 240 economic status of women, 157, 159 location, 22 population, 22 trade unions, 162 unemployment, 22 and WOR, 128 women's council (zhensovet), 40, 164, 167, 239–40, 279 Women's Initiative Club, 26, 37, 240 women's movement, 11–12, 24 cohesion, 39, 40 and economic crisis, 40 economic motivations for, 164–5 ethnic leadership, 38–9 funding, 228 networks, 37, 48 Western/international funding, 239–40, 241 women's political representation, 135–6
- Chechnia, war in, 12, 50, 201, 207
- childcare, lack of affordable, 43–4, 152–3, 267–8 protests against closure of childcare centers, 271–2
- Children of Russia program, 154
- Chile, urban protest movements, 212
- chivalry, and feminism, 69
- Chuvash parliament, 135
- Chuvash republic, 40 see also Cheboksary
- civil society in Russia, absence of, 14, 266 and lack of economic infrastructure, 258–9 and weakness of the state, 144 and Western funding, 241 and women's movement, 23–6, 45, 267
- class, ruling, in post-Soviet state, 73
- Clinton, Bill, 121
- coalition forming, see networks (women's movement)
- cognitive liberation, and development of Russian women's movement, 44
- collective action, and protest cycle, 211–16 repertoire, 208–11 survey data on public mobilization, 216–18
- Committee of Soldiers' Mothers (CSM), 12, 27, 72, 169, 206–7, 217, 280–1
- Committee on the Affairs of Women and the Protection of the Family, Motherhood, and Childhood, 112–13
- communication infrastructure, and economic opportunity structure, 261–2 in Russia, 170–1, 258
- Communist Party of the Soviet Union, 14 and civic associations, 23 and discrimination against women, 17 and political opportunity structure, 100 and SWC, 15, 18, 108 and trade unions, 161 and Women's Forums, 20 and women's organizations, 24, 39, 40 past affiliations with, 188–9 and women's political representation, 116 and zhenotdel (women's department), 16
- Confederation of Businesswomen of Russia, 280
- conferences, Western funding of, 230–1
- Congress of Soviet Women, 27, 30, 57, 281 and Beijing conference, 249–50 and demonstrations, 206, 217 and dues collection, 172
- consciousness, transformation of, 44, 54–9, 96, 98
- consciousness-raising groups, 18, 20, 27, 29, 30, 31–2, 34, 146 and activists' transformation of consciousness, 55–6 and feminism, 71
- Feminist Orientation Center, 32, 55, 224–5

Cambridge University Press

0521660173 - Organizing Women in Contemporary Russia: Engendering Transition

Valerie Sperling

Index

More information

294 Index

- constitution of Russia (1993), 75, 121–2
- Conversion and Women, 26, 57, 63, 139–40, 151, 160, 182, 191
and economic concerns, 165
- cosmetic representatives (saleswomen), 69–70
- Creativity, see Tvorchestvo
- crime rates, increase in, 44
- CSM, see Committee of Soldiers' Mothers
- culture, political, 181, 183
- cycles of protest, 211–16
- Czechoslovakia, and SWC, 110
- Dawson, Jane, 211
- Demeshina, Elena, 166, 184
- democracy,
and feminism, 87, 93–4
and First Independent Women's Forum, 106 and women's political representation, 120
- demonstrations, attitudes to public mobilization, 216–18
- International Women's Day (1996), 1–3, 6, 217–18, 219
- and protest cycle, 212, 214–15
- women's organizations engaging in, 206–7
- discrimination,
and activists' transformation of consciousness, 54–5, 56–7
and advocacy organizations, 31 and economic conditions, 176
and feminism, 86–7
and glasnost, 98
as international issue, 220
and Labor Code (1996), 130–1
labor market, 57, 59, 155–8, 160 lobbying against, 30 in post-Soviet Russia, 73–4 and practical women's groups, 29 protests against, 272 and sexism in Russian government, 137–9
- URW conference on (1992), 124
- women's movement focus on, 266
- dissidents, Soviet women, 101
- domestic violence, 1, 44 and Lakhova commission, 133
- Moscow Crisis Center for Women hotline, 167
- support groups for victims of, 27
and women's organization lobbying, 142
- women's press coverage of, 81
- “double burden,” 17, 67, 87, 95, 150, 151, 259, 269
- Drakulic, Slavenka, 68
- Dubna, Women's Forums at, 5, 8–10, 20, 106, 107
- Duma (Russian parliament), 82
- Committee on the Affairs of Women, the Family, and Youth, 115, 123, 125, 128
- Committee on Labor and Social Policy, 128–9 and gender expertise, 89
lobbying of, 19
and sex-based discrimination, 137–8
and WOR, 4, 40, 125, 126–7
women's representation, 117–18, 119
- Dzhenklub (Businesswomen's Club), 26, 127, 167, 172, 281
- East Germany (former), 260
- economic crisis in Russia, and international influences on women's movement, 52 and protective legislation, 92 and regional differences in women's movement, 40–1
and women's movement, 146, 174–6
and women's role, 145
- economic opportunity structure, and Russian women's movement, 49–50, 147–58, 174–8, 257–8, 259
and social movement theory, 261–2
- egalitarian approach, in post-Soviet Russia, 88–9
- Ekaterinburg,
Confederation of Businesswomen of Russia, 201
women's groups and unemployment, 166–7
- email networks, Western funding of, 232
- emancipation, public opinion on, 79–80
- employment-training organizations, 18, 19, 26, 29, 31, 41, 50, 141, 163, 169
- fees, 172
- Encyclopedia for Boys/Encyclopedia for Girls*, 75
- English language influences, 244–6
- entrepreneurs,
women, 168, 268
see also businesswomen's organizations
- equal rights,
and equal opportunities, 90–2, 96, 105
and WOR, 120–2, 123–4, 126
and Soviet ideology, 67–8
- Equality and Peace, 197, 200, 224, 247, 281
- equality of suffering, and feminism, 72–3
- Ershova, Elena, 36–7, 58, 60, 65–6, 126,

Cambridge University Press

0521660173 - Organizing Women in Contemporary Russia: Engendering Transition

Valerie Sperling

Index

More information

Index

295

- 152, 205, 215, 225, 243, 247–8, 255
- ethnicity and women's movement, 263
in Cheboksary, 38–9
in Moscow and provincial cities, 22–3
- FALTA (Feminist Alternative), 20, 27, 187, 189
- families,
division of labor within, 67, 68
economic status of, 157
women combining work and family, 268–72
- family-dependence, and feminism, 70–1
- family law, 114, 143
and WOR, 126–7
- February revolution (1917), 213
- Federal Assembly, 115
1993 elections, 116–18
1995 elections, 118
see also Duma
- Federation Council, 118
- Fedorov, Nikolai, 136
- Fedulova, Alevtina, 56, 119, 120, 124, 129, 137, 186
- femininity, and feminism, 7, 68–70
- feminism, 59–73
antifeminist sentiments, 259–60
Arbatova on femininity and, 7 attitudinal obstacles to, 64–73 corruption of, 64–6 and corruption of “equality,” 67–8 and equality of suffering, 72–3 and family-dependence, 70–1 and pursuit of “femininity,” 68–70 changing socio-cultural attitudes toward, 80–7
and democracy, 87, 93–4
equal rights and equal opportunities, 90–2, 96
gynocentric, 63, 64
and human rights, 94–5
in India, 265
international influences on, 221
interviewing women on meaning of, 11 in the media, 74, 78–9, 81–7 negative associations of, 60–3, 64, 65–6 and “pragmatic” women's organizations, 168 public opinion on, 66, 79–80
public use of, 88–9 and Rabotnitsa (Woman worker), 107 radical, 61–3, 122–3
and SWC, 109–10
and strategic women's groups, 28
traditionalist vs. feminist networks, 192–3
and WOR, 95, 96, 122–5
and women's movement ideology, 59–64
see also radical feminism; Western feminism
- Feminist Alternative, see FALTA
- Feminist Orientation Center, 32, 55, 224–5, 242, 281
- Finland, and SWC, 110
- First All-Russian Women's Congress, 216
- First Independent Women's Forum, 5, 20, 93, 103, 106, 190, 191, 198
Concluding Document, 229
and protest cycle, 212
- Fish, M. Steven, 144, 188, 199
- foreign influence, in Russian women's movement, 6
- Forums, see First Independent Women's Forum; Independent Women's Forum (IWF); Second Independent Women's Forum
- framing,
and activists' transformation of consciousness, 54–5 alternative frames, 90–5
and Russian women's movement, 44–5, 87–90, 95–7, 259–60
- Free Association of Feminist Organizations, see SAFO
- freedom, and feminism, 87
- Friedan, Betty, 76, 222
- Gabrielian, Nina, 72, 86–7, 192
- Gaidash, Mariia, 4, 242
- GALSI, 216
- Geidar, Laima, 2, 68, 184, 196
- gender analysis, 7, 89, 245–6
- glasnost,
and discrimination, 73
and political opportunity structure, 98, 101–3
and pornography, 77
and Russian women's movement, 44, 52
and SWC, 107–12
- globalization of women's movements, 263–5
- Gorbachev, Mikhail, 5, 15, 18, 52, 58, 59 political opportunity structure under, 101–3, 112
and SWC, 109, 110
and women's councils, 104, 108
on women's role in society, 153
- Gordeeva, Marina, 114
- gynocentric feminism, 63, 64

296 Index

- Harder, Sarah, 239
- hierarchy, fear of, in women's movement, 197–200
- housewives, 151
- amount of work undertaken by, 82
- human rights, and feminism, 94–5
- and WOR, 120
- Human Rights Watch, and employment discrimination, 156–7
- Ia Sama* (I myself; television talk show), 3, 7, 84
- Iakovchuk, Nina, 54, 127, 167
- Ianvarev, Valerii, 129, 130, 131
- Iarygina, Tatiana, 129
- ILO, see International Labor Organization
- IMF, see International Monetary Fund
- independence, and feminism, 70–1
- Independent Women's Associations, 185
- Independent Women's Democratic Initiative, see NeZhDI
- Independent Women's Forum (IWF), 20, 21, 28, 33, 37, 38, 59, 182
- and atomization, 197
- and Beijing conference, 250, 251
- and coalition-building, 242, 243–4
- and English language, 246
- Inform Center, 65, 85, 94, 172, 190–1, 197–8, 204, 226, 237
- network, 173, 190, 192, 193
- oldtimers and newcomers, 189, 190–2
- and political representation, 117, 120
- as umbrella organization, 200–1, 204
- Western funding of, 233, 237–8
- independent women's groups, conflict with Soviet state-identified organizations, 48–9
- Indian feminist groups, 265
- indigenous organizations, and women's movement in Russia, 23–6, 44, 45
- Inform Center, 142
- Innovation Fund of Women's Employment and Assistance to Entrepreneurship, 16
- Institute of Ethnology and Anthropology, 223
- International Association of Russian Women-Mothers, 26–7, 224, 227, 228, 250, 281
- international influences on Russian women's movement, 51–3, 220–56
- creating “artificial coalitions,” 241–4
- and English language, 244–6
- foreign lending agencies, 227
- and globalization, 263–5
- on organizational structures and priorities, 236–9
- see also* Western/international funding
- International Labor Organization (ILO), 126, 149, 220, 246, 247
- international laws and standards, 246–9
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 4, 227
- International Republican Institute, 230
- International Women's Day, 1–3, 6, 207, 213, 217–18, 219
- International Women's Forum, 36–7
- interviews with women activists, 11–13
- isolation, in women's movement, 196–7
- Italian political culture, 181
- Italy, and International Association of Russian Women-Mothers, 224, 228
- Ivanova, Eleonora, 63, 151, 182–3, 191
- Ivanova, Tatiana, 109, 186
- Ivanovo, activists, numbers of children, 35
- on public mobilization, 214–15, 217, 218
- views on feminism, 60, 61
- Businesswomen's Club, 37, 135, 163, 167, 171, 202, 215, 239
- Center for the Social Support of Women and Families, 26, 32, 37, 153, 163–4, 214, 239, 280
- Committee of Multi-Child Families, 35, 202, 239, 280
- Committee of Single-Parent Families, 135, 164, 172, 215, 239, 240, 280
- Committee of Soldiers' Mothers, 12, 239
- economic motivations for women's group formation, 163–4
- and idea of umbrella organization, 201–3
- location, 22
- networks, 189
- population, 22
- trade unions, 162
- unemployment, 22, 158–9
- Western/international funding, 239, 240–1
- women's council (zhensovet), 24, 39, 40, 164, 202–3, 214, 239
- women's economic status in, 157, 158–9
- women's movement, 11–12, 24
- cohesion, 39, 40
- and economic crisis, 40
- ethnic leadership, 39
- funding, 228
- networks, 48
- women's political representation, 134–5

- IWF, see Independent Women's Forum
- journals,
Almanac: Women and Russia, 101
FemInf, 20, 86, 229
 feminist, 86–7, 103
 Western funding of women's organization journals, 229
Women's Reading (Zhenskoe chtenie), 56
- Jowitt, Ken, 183, 194, 195
- Kazmina, Maia, 61, 215
- Khasbulatova, Olga, 37, 64, 163–4, 214
- Khotkina, Zoia, 111, 155
- Klimantova, Galina, 4, 6, 125, 242
- Klimenkova, Tatiana, 72, 198
- Klub F-1 (First Feminist Club), 7, 27, 33, 126, 127, 200, 226, 281
- Klub Garmonia (Club Harmony), 3–4, 7, 27, 31, 32, 84, 217, 218, 281
- Klub Zhenskaia Initsiativa (Club
 "Women's Initiative"), 40, 279
- Kochkina, Elena, 112, 243, 248
- Kollontai, Alexandra, 16, 70
- Komsomol (Soviet youth organization), 24, 48, 189
- Konstantinova, Valentina, 104, 109, 110, 193, 195–6, 223, 226–7, 254
- Konysheva, Tatiana, 138–9
- Kornilova, Svetlana, 201
- Kovaleva, Irina, 194
- Kovaleva, Natalia, 134–5, 162, 202, 214
- Kuznetsova, Larisa, 108–9
- Labor Code, 129, 130–1, 142, 248, 255
- labor market in Russia,
 discrimination, 57, 59, 155–8, 160
 and public expression of sexism, 74–5 sex segregation, 68
 and women's movement, 147–8
 women's participation, 17, 25–6, 43, 67 see also unemployment; work and women
- Lakhova, Ekaterina, 113, 119, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 133, 134, 135, 144
 and Beijing conference, 253
 on childcare costs, 153 on collective action, 215–16 on family law, 143
 on sexism in Duma, 137
- League of Women Voters, 230
- legal profession, lack of unity in, 195
- legislation, gender-based analysis of, 4
- Lenin, V. I., 16
- lesbians,
 and feminism, 62–4
 and the media, 85
- support organizations for, 27, 31, 32, 33
 and unemployment, 152
see also MOLLI
- liberal feminism, activists' identification with, 62, 63, 64
 public opinion on, 66
 and strategic women's groups, 29
- Liborakina, Marina, 76, 78, 85, 89, 90, 93, 142, 197–8, 252
- Lipovskaia, Olga, 4, 56, 82, 87, 190–1
- Lipovskaia, Tatiana, 84
- Lisiutkina, Larisa, 68–9
- lobbying, and women's movement in Russia, 113–15, 140–3
- LOTOS (League for Emancipation from Societal Stereotypes), 104–5, 106, 109–10, 123, 226
- Lozinskaia, Zhanna, 121
- Lukianenko, Tatiana, 96
- Luzhkov, Yuri, 74
- McAdam, Doug, 99
- Malakhovskaia, Anna Natalia, 55
- Maliutina, Tatiana, 167–8
- Mariia club, 101
- maternity leave/benefits, 130, 150
- MCGS (Moscow Center for Gender Studies), 28, 32, 38, 85, 105, 106, 114 and Beijing conference, 251, 253
 and draft labor code, 248 and economy, 177
 and gender analysis, 245–6 as mobilizing structure, 210
 and Soviet legacy, 184, 185
 Western contacts, 222–3, 226, 234–5
 and WOR, 121, 123
- media,
 and feminism,
 independent women's movement press, 86–7
 mainstream media, 74, 78–9, 83–6
 women's press coverage of, 81–3 glasnost and the women's press, 103
 and pornography, 77–8
 and post-Soviet woman, 97
- Melikian, Gennadii, 74
- Melnikova, Valentina, 72, 207
- men, and feminism, 69, 71, 72–3, 95
- Mexican women's movement, 260
- Meyer, John, 51
- middle-class women, in labor force, 147, 148
- Ministry of Internal Affairs (MVD), 102
- Ministry of Justice, 12, 119
 registration of women's groups, 18–19

Cambridge University Press

0521660173 - Organizing Women in Contemporary Russia: Engendering Transition

Valerie Sperling

Index

More information

298 Index

- Ministry of Labor,
Labor Code, 129, 130–1
and unemployment, 149
- Ministry of Social Protection, and Beijing conference, 250, 251, 253, 254
and independent women's movement, 131–3, 135, 145
and WOR, 125
- MOLLI (Moscow Organization of Lesbian Literature and Art), 27, 31, 32, 33, 85, 152, 281
conference on Women and Society, 230
Western contacts, 226
- Moscow,
activists,
and public mobilization, 218
views on feminism, 61
on Western funding, 225–6
- Center for the Social Support of Women, 26
- Crisis Center for Women, 27, 32, 167
- Dzhenklub (Businesswomen's Club), 26
- Institute of Ethnology and Anthropology, 223
- Klub F-1 (First Feminist Club), 7, 27, 33, 126, 127, 200, 226
- Klub Garmoniia (Club Harmony), 3–4, 7, 27, 31, 32, 84, 217, 218
- Moscow Center for Gender Studies, see MCGS
- Moscow Organization of Lesbian Literature and Art, see MOLLI public opinion on emancipation, 80
"Sisters" Rape Crisis Center, 1, 9, 27, 32, 84, 207
- Women of Krasnaia Presnia, 27
- women's movement, 12, 21–2, 24, 25
cohesion, 39, 40
and economic crisis, 40–1
economic motivations, 165–9 ethnic composition, 22–3
ethnic leadership, 39
fractionalization of, 49
funding, 228, 241
lack of collaboration between groups, 47–8, 48–9
size of, 39
umbrella organizations, 201–3, 203–5
- mothers,
and feminism, 70–1
and reductions in social welfare benefits, 152–4
support groups for, 26–7, 31, 32
see also single mothers
"multiple opportunity structure" model, 53
- mutual support organizations, see support groups
- National Association of Women Entrepreneurs, 167–8
- National Council on Preparation for the Beijing Conference, 131–2, 145, 251
- National Democratic Institute, 230
- National Endowment for Democracy, 233
- Navrodskaia, Tatyana, 70
- Nazarova, Larisa, 215
- Network of East–West Women, 232
- networks (women's movement), 11, 14, 20–1, 25, 36–8, 42, 44, 45, 107, 278
- Cheboksary, 27, 48
and communication problems, 170–1, 258
email, 232
factors contributing to lack of, 45, 46, 47–8, 182–205
ambition, 193–5
atomization, 196–7
fear of hierarchy, 197–200
former Communist Party affiliation, 188–9
suspicion and the state, 183–9
failure to unite across, 182–3
- Ivanovo, 48
- IWF (Independent Women's Forum), 173, 190, 192, 193
and sacrifice of independence, 203–5 traditionalist vs. feminist, 192–3 and umbrella organizations, 200–3
and URW, 187
- US–NIS Consortium, 4, 21, 39, 196, 204–5, 229, 231, 233, 241–4
- Western funding of, 231–6
see also Independent Women's Forum;
Union of Russia's Women; Women's League
- newspapers,
coverage of feminism,
mainstream media, 78–9, 83–6
women's press, 81–3
- Nezavisimaia gazeta* (Moscow newspaper), 3–4, 84
- Women's Games (Zhenskie igry)*, 8–9
women's press, 173–4
- Nezavisimaia gazeta* (Moscow newspaper),
3–4, 84
- NeZhDI (Independent Women's Democratic Initiative), 105, 106
- NGOs (nongovernmental organizations), lack of economic infrastructure, 177 opinion on public mobilization, 217

Cambridge University Press

0521660173 - Organizing Women in Contemporary Russia: Engendering Transition

Valerie Sperling

Index

More information

- Index 299
- and resource mobilization of women's organizations, 46–7
 - and social movement organizing, 147
 - and sponsorship, 172–3
 - and Western funding, 233
 - “nomenklatura privatization,” 168
 - Novikova, Elvira, 94, 174–5, 186, 254
 - Oparina, Alevtina, 128
 - organizational pluralism, and
 - fragmentation in women's movement, 195–6
 - Orthodox Church, and “return to the kitchen” campaign, 77
 - Our Bodies, Ourselves*, 229
 - Pamfilova, Ella, 117
 - Pavlova, Marina, 71, 170, 225
 - Perepodgotovka Center for Business Assistance to Women, 225, 227
 - perestroika,
 - and activists' transformation of consciousness, 57, 58–9
 - and discrimination, 73
 - and political opportunity structure, 98, 102–3
 - and “return to the kitchen” campaign, 75–6
 - and Russian women's movement, 44, 103–7
 - and SWC, 107–12
 - Petersburg Center for Gender Issues, 55, 78, 87, 190
 - Petrova, Nina, 37, 135, 136, 161, 239–40, 245
 - Playgirl*, 9
 - Podgorbunskaiia, Larisa, 224, 250
 - political culture, 181, 183
 - political history, 50–1, 179–219, 258
 - and cycle of social protest, 180
 - “defining events” of, 180
 - and framing, 259
 - impact of Soviet legacy, 179, 182–205
 - and nonmobilizational women's movement, 205–18
 - political-institutional history, 180
 - and social movement theory, 181, 262–3
 - political opportunity structure, 99–100, 257, 260–1
 - and elite alignments, 99, 139–44
 - and elite allies, 99, 115–39
 - and political transition period, 99, 100–15
 - political parties,
 - fragmentation in, 195
 - women's groups associated with, 27–8
 - see also* Women of Russia
 - political representation of women, 115–18
 - politicization, of women's organizations, 29, 30–1
 - Popova, Natasha, 87
 - pornography, 77–8
 - and WOR, 120
 - Posadskaiia, Anastasiia, 104, 105–6, 117, 123, 245–6
 - post-Soviet society, women's socio-cultural status in, 73–80
 - Potemkina, Anna, 186
 - poverty,
 - families living in, 157
 - feminization of, 152
 - and single mothers, 150
 - Preobrazhenie (Transfiguration), 192, 282
 - Presidential Commission on Issues of Women, the Family, and Demography, 133, 144
 - privatization,
 - and trade unions, 160
 - and women's unemployment, 150, 159–60
 - professional women, support groups for, 27, 163
 - Prolog, 239
 - protective legislation, 70–1, 91–2, 96, 112
 - and Labor Code (1996), 130
 - and WOR, 121
 - protest, 271–2
 - cycle of, 211–16
 - provincial cities, see Cheboksary; Ivanovo
 - public opinion,
 - on democracy, 93–4
 - on feminism, 66, 79–80
 - on public mobilization, 216–18
 - on trade unions, 161
 - on women and democratization, 103
 - women's attitudes to work and home, 76
 - publications, Western funding for, 229–30
 - publishing, women's organizations, 32, 173–4
 - Rabotnitsa* (Woman worker), 107, 149–50
 - radical feminism,
 - activists' rejection of, 61–3
 - and WOR, 122–3
 - Radio Nadezhda, 63, 69, 84, 91, 182
 - Rakhmanova, Marina, 113
 - rape, 1, 9, 44
 - by employers, 156
 - support groups for victims of, 27
 - RAUW, see Russian Association of University Women

Cambridge University Press

0521660173 - Organizing Women in Contemporary Russia: Engendering Transition

Valerie Sperling

Index

More information

300 Index

- Ray, Raka, 73
- Razina, Margarita, 135, 202, 215
- Regentova, Marina, 189–90, 195, 237, 238, 239, 246
- research institutes, as mobilizing structures for women's movement, 210
- “return to the kitchen” campaign, 75–7, 104, 174, 268
- Riabicheva, Tatiana, 132
- Riabikina, Tatiana, 5, 102, 194
- Rimashevskaja, Natalia, 105
- rural areas, 25, 80
- Russian Association of University Women (RAUW), 224, 239, 240
- Russian Confederation of Businesswomen, 166–7
- Russian Federation, Congress of People's Deputies, women's representation in, 116
- Russian Supreme Soviet, and women's movement lobbying, 113–15
- Russia's Choice (political party), 117
- Russianization of women's movement, 255–6
- SAFO (Free Association of Feminist Organizations), 20, 106, 189, 238
see also FALTA
- St Petersburg,
public opinion on emancipation, 80
women's organizations in, 25
see also Petersburg Center for Gender Issues
- Salam Bi, 279
- Samarina, Olga, 62, 131, 132, 233, 250, 251–2
- Samuels, David, 233
- SANTA (women's support organization), 102, 172, 282
- Second Independent Women's Forum, 8–10, 20, 106, 190 and fear of hierarchy, 198–9 funding of publications from, 229
- self-help groups, 18, 19, 29, 30, 31, 32, 41, 163, 176
and dues collection, 172
- sex-role stereotyping, confronting, 269 and equal rights, 91
and feminism, 79, 88–9
in post-Soviet society, 75–6, 97
and survival issues, 269–70
- sexism, 14
public expression of, 74–5 in Russian government, 137–9
women's movement focus on, 266
- sexual harassment, publications on, 229–30
of women in labor force, 155–6
- Sidorova, T. N., 154
- Sillaste, Galina, 82, 103, 137–8, 142, 170, 216, 217
- single mothers,
Committee of Single-Parent Families (Ivanovo), 135, 164, 172, 215, 239, 240, 280 outreach to groups, 272
Tolko Mamy group, 32, 37–8, 71, 282
and unemployment, 150
- “Sisters” Rape Crisis Center, 1, 9, 27, 32, 84, 207
- Skorokhodova, Galina, 63
- Smirnova, Sasha, 62–3
- social movement theory, 13, 43–53, 147
and collective action repertoire, 208–11 and cycles of protest, 211–13
and economic opportunity structure, 261–2
and framing, 44–5, 88, 259–60
international influences on, 221
and political history, 181, 262–3
and political opportunity structure, 99–100, 260–1
- social welfare benefits, and changes in political opportunity structure, 113 reduction in, 18, 98, 152–4
and WOR, 120, 121
- Sofia, 282
- Soviet legacy, impact on coalition-building, 182–205, 258
and women's movement mobilization, 179
- Soviet Peace Committee, 120
- Soviet state, affiliation of women's organizations with, 32–3, 39, 40 and attitudinal obstacles to feminism, 64–73, 95–6 and informal organizations, 58
and political opportunity structure, 100 strikes and protests, 213
and unemployment, 149
- Soviet Union, collapse of, 7, 21, 140
women's representation in Supreme Soviet, 116
see also Communist Party of the Soviet Union
- Soviet Women's Committee (SWC), 15, 18, 20, 21, 23, 24, 48, 105

Cambridge University Press

0521660173 - Organizing Women in Contemporary Russia: Engendering Transition

Valerie Sperling

Index

More information

Index

301

- and economic concerns, 165–6, 177
- and political opportunity structure, 100, 107–8
- as umbrella organization, 200, 203
- and URW, 185, 186, 187
- see also* Union of Russia's Women
- sponsorship of women's groups, 172–3
- Stalin, Joseph, 16–17
- Starovoitova, Galina, 138
- street traders, women as, 268
- strikes, and Russian women, 159–60
- support groups, 19, 26–7, 29, 30, 31, 32, 41
- SANTA, 102, 172, 282
- survival issues for Russian women, 267–72
- suspicion and the state, and women's movement in Russia, 183–9
- SWC, see Soviet Women's Committee
- Tarrow, Sidney, 211, 212, 213
- television,
 - and feminism, 84
 - and pornography, 77
 - talk show, Ia Sama (I myself), 3, 7, 84
- Temnikova, Nina, 35, 202
- Tilly, Charles, 147, 208–9
- Tishkovskaia, Evgenia, 138
- Tocqueville, A. de, 144
- Tolko Mamy (single-mothers group), 32, 37–8, 71, 282
- totalitarian control, 15, 45, 46
 - and democracy, 93
 - legacy of, and coalition-building, 182–205
- trade unions, and women's economic rights, 160–3
- Transfiguration, see Preobrazhenie
- transformation of consciousness, 44, 54, 54–9, 96, 98
- Troinova, Tatiana, 38, 65, 197, 272
- Tvorchestvo (Creativity), 4–5, 6–7, 102, 172, 236, 282
- Ukraine Center for Women's Studies, 251
- umbrella organizations, 200–5
- UN, see United Nations
- unemployment,
 - benefits, 158
 - and discrimination, 57, 148
 - and educated activists, 35
 - and educated women, 150
 - and growth of women's organizations, 176
 - “hidden,” 149, 151
 - Ivanovo, 22, 158–9
 - in Moscow and provincial cities, 22
 - Moscow-based women's groups response to, 166–9
 - and Presidential Commission on Issues of Women, the Family, and Demography, 133
 - and regional differences in women's movement, 40
 - and Russian women, 43, 50, 99, 130, 149–52, 227, 268, 270
 - and trade unions, 160
 - and Tvorchestvo, 5, 6
 - and WOR, 120
 - and women's support services, 19, 26
- Union of Navy Women, 119
- Union of Russia's Women (URW), 21, 26, 28, 30, 32–3, 56, 182
 - and atomization, 196–7
 - on childcare policies, 153
 - conferences, 124, 129–31
 - and economic concerns, 165–6
 - and family law, 114
 - and independent women's groups, 48–9
 - network, 37–8, 192
 - and political representation, 118–19
 - and Soviet legacy, 184, 185–7
 - and SWC, 111, 112
 - as umbrella organization, 203–4
 - Western funding and contacts, 233, 234
- United Nations, 52
 - Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), 111, 133, 138–9, 247, 248, 253, 254
 - Decade for Women (1976–85), 108, 111, 220
 - Fourth Worldwide Conference on Women, 85, 161, 248, 249
 - World Conference on Women, see Beijing conference
- United States,
 - and collective action, 209, 210, 218
 - fragmentation of social movements, 262–3
 - funding of social movements, 262
 - and middle-class women in labor force, 147, 148
 - political culture, 181
 - “rights” framework, 88
 - women's movement, 25
- Urals Association of Women, 167, 280
- URW, see Union of Russia's Women
- US–NIS Women's Consortium, 4, 21, 39, 196, 204–5, 229, 231, 233, 241–4
- Russianization of, 255–6

Cambridge University Press

0521660173 - Organizing Women in Contemporary Russia: Engendering Transition

Valerie Sperling

Index

More information

302 Index

- USAID (US Agency for International Development), 221, 230, 231, 232, 241
 Support for Women's Initiatives, 232
 USSR Council of Ministers, Committee on Women's Affairs, 95–6
- Valitskaia, Kreta, 136
 Vandenberg, Martina, 196, 197, 204, 231, 236–7, 242
 Venediktova, Galya, 117
 Verba, Sidney, 181
 Viatkina, Galina, 151
 violence against women, antiviolenace women's groups, 30, 32 demonstration (1996), 1–3 raising the issue of, 103
 and WOR, 126–7
 workshop on, 9
see also domestic violence
- Voronina, Olga, 60, 67–8, 75–6, 192, 222–3, 226–7, 230
 Vybornova, Irina, 127
- wages,
 discrimination against women, 155 wage arrears, 157
- weak state and society, 143–4
- Western feminism, access to literature, 220 activists' views on, 63 influence on Russian women's movement, 51, 52, 222–3 negative portrayals of, 78–9 and Soviet state, 65
 and WOR, 122–3
 and women's movement globalization, 264
- Western social movements, 45–6, 218
- Western/international funding,
 in Cheboksary, 239–40, 241
 in Ivanovo, 239, 240–1 of social movements, 262 of women's organizations, 39, 48, 49, 174, 220, 227–32, 255, 258 and organizational structures and priorities, 236–9 side effects of, 232–6
- Women for Social Democracy, 27, 60, 174, 255
- Women in Black, 1–3, 6, 207
- Women of Russia (WOR), 4, 7, 11, 40, 111, 118–29, 143, 145 and Children of Russia program, 154
 and collective action, 215–16
 and equal rights and opportunities, 120–2, 123–4, 126
 and feminism, 95, 96, 122–5
 First All-Russian Women's Congress, 125–6 and Independent Women's Forum, 193
 and independent women's movement, 125–9 in the mainstream media, 85
 and political representation, 117, 118
 publications, 173
 and US–NIS Women's Consortium, 242–3
- Women's Alliance, 23, 109, 172, 174, 282
 Women's Archive, 10
Women's Games (Zhenskije igry), 8–9
 Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, 224
- Women's League, 20–1, 28, 33, 36, 37, 38, 182, 192
 as umbrella organization, 201, 204, 205
 and atomization, 197
 and CEDAW, 247–8
 and coalition-building, 242, 243–4
 and collective action, 215
 and draft labor code, 248
 and dues collection, 172, 173
 and feminism, 60, 61
 networks, 187
 and political lobbying, 114–15
 and Soviet legacy, 184, 187
 Western funding of, 233
 Western influence on formation of, 225
- Women's Light, 62–3
- women's movement in Russia, aversion to public protest, 42, 47 brief history of, 16–23
 categorizing organizations, 28–34 collective action repertoire, 208–11
 and cycles of protest, 211–16 economic influences on, 146–78 economic obstacles to growth, 169–74
 and economic opportunity structure, 49–50, 147–58, 174–8, 257–8, 259
 and feminism, 59–64
 and framing, 44–5, 87–90, 95–7, 259–60
 globalization of, 263–5 and indigenous organizations, 23–6, 44 international influences, 51–3, 220–56 and lack of mobilization, 205–18 obstacles and opportunities, 7–8, 14
 and political history, 50–1, 179–219
 political lobbying, 113–15, 140–3 and politics, 98–9 allies and access points, 115–39
 openness in political system, 100–15

Cambridge University Press

0521660173 - Organizing Women in Contemporary Russia: Engendering Transition

Valerie Sperling

Index

More information

- Index 303
- prospects, 265–72
 - and resource mobilization, 169–74
 - Russianization, 255–6
 - and the state, 97
 - see also* activists; networks (women’s movement)
 - women’s organizations in Russia,
 - closure of, 173
 - collective members, 33–4
 - economic motivations for formation of, 163–9
 - formation of independent, 103–7
 - and gender expertise, 89
 - and group consciousness, 57–9
 - issue-focus of, 29, 30, 31–2
 - lack of membership-building strategies, 42, 46–7
 - leaders, 36
 - membership, 36, 277–8
 - “official and unofficial,” 184–5
 - and politicization, 29, 30–1
 - “practical” and “strategic” groups, 28–9
 - regional differences, 38–42
 - registration of, 18–19, 33
 - size of, 33–4, 39, 45
 - and Soviet party-state, 32–3, 39
 - traditionalists vs. feminists in, 192–3
 - types of, 26–8
 - Western funding of, 39, 48, 49, 174, 220, 227–39, 255, 258
 - WOR, see Women of Russia
 - work and women,
 - combining work and family, 268–72
 - and “double burden,” 17, 67, 87, 95, 150, 151, 259, 269
 - entrepreneurs, 168, 268
 - protective legislation, 70–1, 91–2, 96, 112, 121, 130
 - see also* labor market in Russia
 - World Bank, 227
 - “world society” theory, and social movement development, 51–2
 - Yeltsin, Boris, 15, 47, 118, 126, 133–4
 - and powers of implementation, 143–4, 145
 - shelling of Russian parliament (1993), 47, 50, 118, 139–40
 - Young Pioneers organization, 120
 - Zakharova, Natalia, 104
 - Zakharova, Valentina, 250
 - Zavadskaia, Liudmila, 121–2, 127, 128, 141–2
 - Zeleranskaia, Tatiana, 69, 182
 - zhenotdel* (Communist Party women’s department), 16
 - Zhenskie igry* (Women’s games), 8–9
 - zhensovety* (women’s councils), 23–4, 27, 34, 48, 108
 - Cheboksary, 40, 164, 167, 239–40, 279
 - Ivanovo, 24, 39, 40, 164, 202–3, 214, 239
 - in political transition period, 108, 109
 - Zhirinovskii, Vladimir, 138
 - Zimbabwe, 261–2
 - Zorkaltsev, V., 141