The Examination of Eliz. How. 31. May. 1692.

Mary Lewis & Mary Walot fell in a fit quickly after the examinant came in Mary Walot said that this woman the examinant had pinched her & caught hi' ³²² mouth. Ann Putman said she had hurt her there nippes.
 What say you to this charge? Here am I then that charge you w^t wife w^t wife w^t wife
 If it was the last moment I was to live, for I know I am innocent of any thing in this nature.

Did not you take notice that now when you looked upon Mary Lewis she was shuch
 I cannot help it.

You are charged here, what do you say?

I am innocent of any thing of this nature.

Is this the first time that ever you were anguft to you son

Do we you know that one at yegwink hath anguft you?

This is the first time that ever I heard of it

You say that you never heard of these folkes before.

Mary Lewis at length grapp'd & charged this woman with twisting & pinching her. And then Abigail Williams eyerd she hath hurt me a great manys times, a great while & she hath brought me on the boord.

Ann Putman had a pinch in her hand.

What do you say to this?

I cannot help it.

What congeft have you given?

Mary Warren eyerd she was pinched
 Abig. Williams eyerd out that she was pinched, & great pinches were seen in her arm.

Hath not you seen some apparition?

No, never in all my life

They that have seapped, they tell us they used images & pictures, now tell us what you have seapped.

You would not have me confeft that which I know not.

She lookt upon Mary Warren, & said Warren violently fell down.

Look upon this maid w^t Mary Walot, her back being towards the examinant

Mary Warren & Ann Putman said they saw this woman upon her.

Suzan. Sheldon saith this was the woman that carryed her yesterday to the pond

Suzi. Sheldon carried the examinant in a fit & was well upon grapping her arm.

You said you never heard before of these people

Not before the warrant was serv'd upon me last sabbath day

John Justian eyerd out th^t she did, & fell into a grievous fit, & so carried to her in his fit & was well upon her grapping him.

What do you say to these things, they cannot come to you?

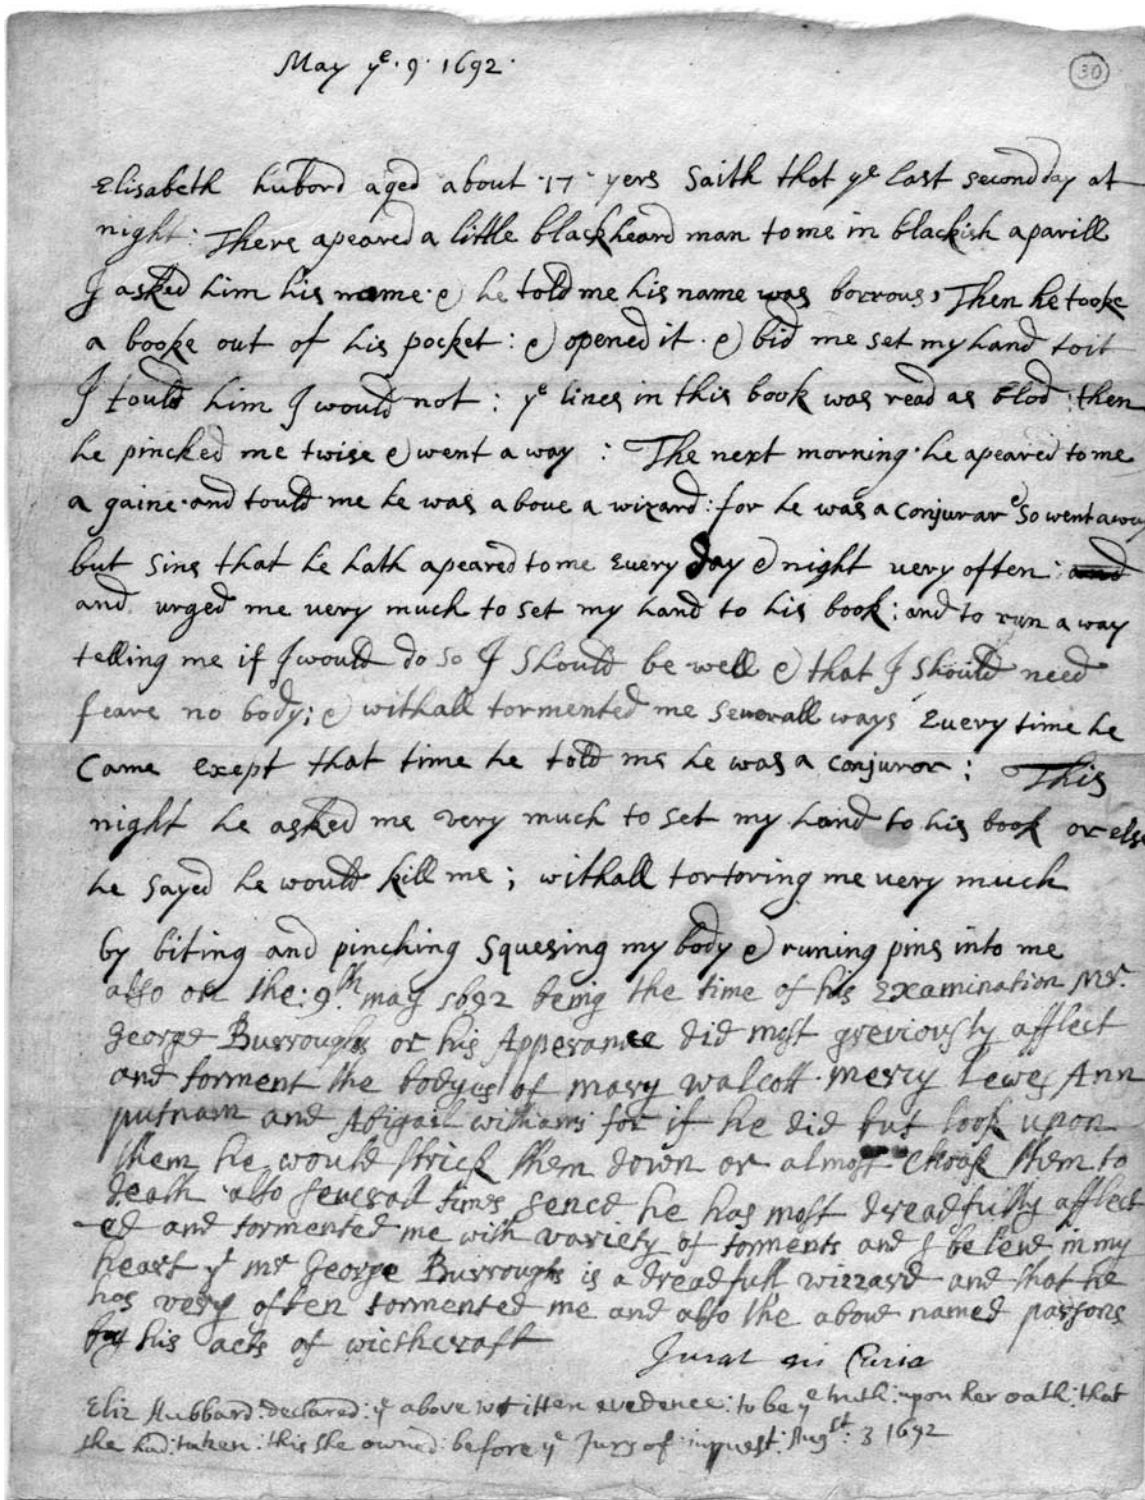

Si. I am not able to give account of it.

Canst thou tell what keep them off from your body?

I cannot tell, I know not what it is?

That is strange that you shouldest do these things & not be able to tell how.

This a true account of the examination of Eliz. How taken from my character ^{written} at the time thereof witness my hand Sam. Harris
