

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-66446-2 - Struggles for Subjectivity: Identity, Action and Youth Experience

Kevin McDonald

Index

More information

Index

- Aboriginality 200–1
 action cognitive models 121, 174
 three fields of 21, 111 addiction 153–4
 and routines 168, 174
 anger and crisis of positive identity 70 and positive identity 66, 108
 and young women's experience 172–3 anorexia, approaches to study of 155–8 anthropology psychoanalytic, and racism, 86
 Augé, Marc, 45, 148
 Australia
 policies of assimilation 198 postwar development 16–17

 Barrère, Anne
 on subjectivity in learning 213 Bauman, Zigmunt
 on flawed consumers 110
 beauty reconciling autonomy and dependence 178
 Bell, Daniel 184
 Bermann, Marshall 45 body
 and beach culture 163
 and society 156–8
 and subject 167
 communicating 158, 171
 de-eroticisation 175, 179
 experience of beauty 178
 new female body 163–4 objectified through behaviour management 170
 Bourdieu, Pierre 117
 on strategies of distinction 162 Brumberg, Joan
 on anorexia 157–8
 Chicago School 10–11, 126

 city
 and immobility 46
 and modernity 45
 non-places 148
 sociology of 125
 class and generation 4
 consciousness 19, 49–56, 60–1
 structural accounts 18
 clasement, system of, among young women 161–3
 Cohen, Albert 100 community 23–6
 and gangs 130
 and meals 166
 constraining 190–2
 constructed against police 67–70 death of 97–9
 marginalisation from 186–9 conflictualising relationships difficulty of, in anorexic experience 173 difficulty of, in experience of urban youth poverty 58–62 consumption and identity 117–18
 crime
 and community 99–103
 theft 30–2

 deinstitutionalisation of education 5
 of family 5, 175
 delinquency 100–1
 demodernisation 5–6, 119–20
 de Singley
 on success and authenticity in family 165 desocialisation 6 defined 6
 disorganisation 26, 101
 personal experience 38–41
 disaffiliation 150
 Douglas, Mary 82

- on individualism 110, 180
- dualisation of society 109
- Dubet, François
 - on dilemma of contemporary subjects 209
 - on disrespect 112
 - on fields of action 21, 111
 - on gangs 126
 - on over-exposed personality in learning 213
 - on social problems 10
 - on sociology of experience 9
- Durkheim, Emile
 - on norms and socialisation 206
- Ehrenberg, Alain
 - on entrepreneurs of the self 121–2
 - on individuality 6, 176, 207
 - on intensity and visibility 151–3
- ethnicity
 - and gangs 218
 - as field of tension 192–5
 - as mode of integration 182
 - constructed against universal 188–9
 - instrumental 184
 - two-sided 180
- exclusion
 - from consumer society 131
 - from work 41–3
 - urban 41–6
- family
 - and discipline 94–5
 - authenticity and competition 164–6
 - defended against police 32–4
 - deinstitutionalising 5–6, 165–6, 175
 - roles to communication 165
 - sociology of 95
 - weakening symbolic capacity 209
- Fischler, Claude
 - on body and subject 167
 - on gastro-anomie 166
 - on lipophobia 177
 - on new female body 163–4
- flow
 - and graffiti writers' identity 147
 - and social models 117–19
 - urban 46
- gangs
 - and rituals 128
 - and social regulation 27
 - sociological approaches to 12, 67
- Gauchet, Marcel
 - 'ideal types' of personality 205–7
 - on individualism 109–10
- pathologies of contemporary individuality 208
- Giddens, Anthony
 - on addiction 152–3, 168, 174
 - on reflexivity 7, 8, 120–1
- globalisation 203
 - and disassociation 5
 - as ideology 218
- Goffman, Erving
 - on role distance 151, 213
- Hage, Jerald & Powers, Charles
 - on postindustrial selves 7–8, 112, 118
- Hebdige, Dick 141
 - on style 151
- hierarchy
 - amongst graffiti writers 143
 - in gang experience 130
- individuality
 - and consumerism 118–19
 - destruction of 134
 - increasingly problematic, approaches to 8
 - uncertain 119–22
- institutions
 - weakness of 149
 - (see also deinstitutionalisation)
- intensity
 - and addiction 171–2
 - and graffiti writers 144
 - and racist fusion 88
 - and visibility 151–3
 - replacing emotion 175
- Jankowski, Martin 125–7, 136–7
- Jeammet, Pierre
 - on addiction and individuation 174–5
- Kaufmann, Jean Claude
 - on beauty 178
 - on the female body and beach culture 162–3
- Lipovetsky, Gilles
 - on consumer identity, 117–19
- marginalisation
 - and destruction of capacity for action 190
 - and mental health system 133–5
 - exclusion from market and community 189
 - new experience of 136–8, 187
- Mead, George Herbert 175–6
- Melucci, Alberto
 - on body culture 158
- memory 200

230 Index

- norms
 and community 23, 94–7
 and socialisation 94
 and violence 28
 replaced by strategy in theories of action 207
 weakness of 26
- police
 young men's relationship with 68–9
 young women's relationship with 69
- poverty
 new urban experience of 17
 underclass accounts of 110
- racism 75
 and modernity 86
 and purity/impurity 82
 and sexuality 84–6
 sociological models of 86
- rational action
 and gangs 125–6
 and opportunity structures 126
- recognition
 and gangs 129
 and graffiti writers 144–6
- reflexivity
 and expert systems 8
- relational capacity loss of 190
- religious experience 194
- respect and disrespect 153
 and graffiti writers 142–4, 150
- Riesman, David, 117, 162
 from inner-directed to outer-directed individuality, 206–7
- ritualisation
 and addiction 169
 cycle of intensity 172
- roles
 replaced by imperatives of communication 121–2 replaced by imperative of relationship-to-self in learning 213 role distance 114, 141
 weakening, in education 152
- Rose, Nikolas 8, 202
- self-esteem 6
 replacing roles 152
 replacing socialisation 121
- Sennett, Richard 45
- sexuality and racism 84–8
 as embodied communication 178–9
- social movements 66, 87–8
 and anti-movements 88
- social policies and questions of identity 216–17
- social problems 10
 and dominant mode of social management 216–17
 from language of justice to psychology 122 (see also marginalisation)
- sociological intervention 19–20
 stages 89–90
- sociology
 approaches to research 10 of experience, defined 9
- stigmatisation 46, 80–2
- subculture, sociology of 141, 147
- subjectivation 11, 115, 204
- subjectivity
 and society 205–7
 embodied 155–79
 new dilemmas of 207
 struggle for 115, 201, 210–11
- substance abuse
 and death of community 97–9
 and personality 134
- suffering and anorexic experience 179
 and experience of personal fragmentation 12, 115
- symbolic boundaries 23–4, 130
- Touraine, Alain
 on ethnicity 195
 on globalisation 203
 on recomposition of social life 11–12, 200, 214
 on religious experience 194
 on remembrance 200
 on sociology of the subject 7
 on subjectivation 115, 176
- Turner, Bryan
 on presentation of self 162
 on the body 156–8
- underclass 17
 and globalisation 109
 neofunctionalist accounts 18 opposed to consumer society 119
 urban polarisation 17
- Vietnamese
 polarisation of experience 184–5
- violence 26–9
- visibility
 and gangs 137

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-66446-2 - Struggles for Subjectivity: Identity, Action and Youth Experience

Kevin McDonald

Index

More information

Index 231

in the flow 146
Vulbeau 150

Whyte, William 126
Wieviorka, Michel
on racism 86
on three dimensions of ethnicity 193
work
and class consciousness 42, 60–1

and personality 60
exclusion from 41–3, 63

youth and class 3–4
and industrial society 40
and new terrains of the social 213–16 forms of marginalisation 4
new social experience 3–4, 11