

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-66446-2 - Struggles for Subjectivity: Identity, Action and Youth Experience

Kevin McDonald

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

---

Acknowledgements	ix
Research participants	xi
1 Introduction: subjectivity and social experience	1
PART I The end of a working-class experience	15
2 You come from the bad side: exploring social experience	23
3 Something's gotta start: class consciousness	48
4 We're the scum: stigmatisation, racism and crisis	66
5 Morals is all you've got: in search of community	89
6 I want to get out of this: the struggle against social logics	104
PART II Postmodern crisis: navigating the flow	117
7 None of the above: contemporary experiences of the gang	125
8 You'll be forgotten: visibility and mobility of graffiti writers	139
9 Between the body and the self: the anorexic terrain	155
10 We stand up for what we are: ethnicity and Aboriginality	180
11 Conclusion: struggles for subjectivity	202
Bibliography	219
Index	228