Contents

- List of plates: vii
- Preface: xi
- Preface to the English edition: xiii
- Foreword by Jaš Elsner: xv
- Chronology of Greek art and artists: xxxii
- Glossary: xxxiv

1 Introduction

- The Greek paradigm: a model for life-style, a case of academic classicism, or a building block of Imperial culture: 1

2 The monuments: how the language works

- Battle-scenes: the tradition of Hellenistic pathos: 5

3 Battle-scenes: their reception in Rome

- State ceremonial: the tradition of Classical dignity: 38

4 The semantic system: the elements and their use

- Figures in the round: 47
- The décor of the Villa dei Papiri: 74
- The reliefs of the Ara Pacis: 76

5 The semantic system: premisses and structure

- General premisses: 86
- The abstraction of content and the standardisation of form: 88
- The structure of the semantic system: 92
  a. Theoretical views of art: 92
  b. Sculptural practice: 98
Contents

9 The origins of the system: dynamics and statics 103
10 Language of imagery and style 113
11 Formal system and style in the theory of rhetoric and of imagery 119
12 Conclusion: language of imagery and culture of empire 125

References 128
Further reading by Jaś Elsner 141
Index 148