

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71155-5 - Chica da Silva: A Brazilian Slave of the Eighteenth Century

Junia Ferreira Furtado

Index

More information

INDEX

- African slaves
  - cultural changes in Brazil, 15
- Agostinho, José, 267
- Amador, Paulo (writer)
  - White King, Black Queen*, 300–301
- Andrade, Carlos Drummond de (poet), 291
- Andrade, Gomes Freire de (governor), 211
  - baptismal alliances, 127
  - diamond contract negotiations, 76, 77
  - re-opening mines with concession contracts, 26–27
- Antônia (nun) (Chica's daughter), 282
- Araújo, Pedro Álvares de (Sergeant Major), 171
- João Fernandes (judge) and, 171–172
- baptism and godparentage, 162
  - creating and strengthening social alliances, 127–129
  - ritual clothing for, 162–163
- Barreto, Tomás Robi de Barros
  - diamond intendant, 101
- Batista, Joana
  - free woman sold herself into slavery, 113
- Brant, Caldeira Felisberto
  - baptismal alliances, 127
  - defraying rent of slaves, 224
  - diamond contract with the Sergeant Major, 84
  - illegal over-limit extraction of diamonds, 99
- Brazil
  - Portugal economic center shift to, 5
- Brazilian mines
  - Portugal reaps wealth from, 21–22
- Brazilian society
  - exclusion mechanisms preventing social ascension, 262
  - myth of racial democracy in, 11, 12–14
- Brotherhoods, 174–175
  - black brotherhoods, 175
  - Brotherhood of Amparo, 186
  - Brotherhood of Michael of the Souls, 180
  - Brotherhood of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, 187–190
  - Brotherhood of Saint Francis of Assisi, 190, 260
  - Brotherhood of the Holy Land, 179–180, 205–206
  - Brotherhood of the Mercies, 158–159, 184–186
  - Brotherhood of the Most Holy, 81, 176–178
  - Brotherhood of the Most Holy Sacrament, 44, 173–174
  - Brotherhood of the Rosary, 109, 112, 176, 181–183

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71155-5 - Chica da Silva: A Brazilian Slave of the Eighteenth Century

Junia Ferreira Furtado

Index

More information

316

INDEX

- Brotherhoods (cont.)
 Brotherhood of the Souls and Mercies, 38 hiring of parish priests, 33
 slave participation in, 148–149
- Caetano, Antônio
 military career in Minas Geras, 266
- Callado, Antônio (playwright)
Chica da Silva's Treasure, 299
- Castanheira, Maria Martins
 active in Brotherhood of the Rosary, 182
- Catholic Church
 religious orders prohibited in Minas Gerais, 33 standards for family behavior, 285
- Chaves, Bento Dias (2nd lieutenant), 265, 282
- children
 charity for abandoned, 172–173
- children (Chica's)
 as godparents, 169–170
 baptized, 126–127
 children with João Fernandes, 124
 education of, 199–200, 261
 illnesses at Macaúbas, 207–208
- colored women, See women (colored)
- concubinage
 advantages for women, 109
 crimes of, 49
 ecclesiastical visits and, 65–67
- Costa, Maria da
 ecclesiastical visits and, 65–67
 mother of Chica da Silva, 40, 59–62, 67–68
 obtained manumission, 63–64
- Couto, Soter
 author of Vultos e fatos de Diamantina, 292–293
- Cruz, Manuel da (Bishop)
 ecclesiastical visit to Tejuco, 45–46
- Diamantina (Tejuco), See Tejuco (Diamantina)
- Diamantine Demarcation
 administration for, 26
 boundaries established, 24–25
 controlled entry to, 29
- diamond contractor
 illegal prospecting investigation, 228–229
 José Álvares Maciel, 84, 102, 221
 misappropriation of a diamond, 225–226
 Royal Extractor and monopoly declared, 235–236
- diamond contracts
 Caetano José de Sousa, administrator, 228 contract renewal, 1770, 229
 fifth contract, 27
 first negotiations and agreement, 76–77
 fourth contract, 27, 28, 84
 owners rented slaves to, 151–152
 second contract, 78
 termination of, 235–236
 third contract, 27, 81–83, 84
- Diamond Intendant
 Count of Valadares verifying performance of, 236–237
 Francisco José Pinto de Mendonça, 237
 José Antônio de Meireles, 269–270
 Rafael Pires Pardiniho, 26
 Tomás Robi de Barros Barreto, 101
 weighing of the diamonds, 33
- diamond supply
 official diamond production (table), 222
 price sensitivity and production control, 24
- ecclesiastical visits
 concubinage and, 65–67
 to Tejuco, 45–46, 47–48, 104
- Emboabas*, war of, 5–7

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71155-5 - Chica da Silva: A Brazilian Slave of the Eighteenth Century

Junia Ferreira Furtado

Index

More information

INDEX

317

- Ferreira, José Gomes, 171
     with Maria parda, 120
- Ferreira, Luís Gomes
     cured slave of João Fernandes (SM), 70–71
- Francisco da, Cruz, 212
- freed slaves
     census of 1774, 38–39, 131
     Mesquita, Lobo de (composer), 37 property owners, 131
     social and financial accession of,
         37–39, 146–147
- freedwomen
     histories of women, 106–109
     participation in brotherhoods, 190–191
     social dressing and church, 140–142
- Freyre, Gilberto
     The Masters and the Slaves, 11
- Germano, João
     eldest son of João Grijó, 264
- godparentage, See baptism and godparentage
- gold (Brazilian) Minas gold rush, 38
     used for palace convent and basilica, 21
- Gold Coast of Mina
     source of African slaves, 62–63
- Gold Intendancy, 22, 23
- Gomez Maria parda
     Chica's relationship and godmother to daughter, 168–169
- Gouveia, Manuel de Soto
     João Fernandes sponsored marriage, 165–166
- Grijó entail characteristics, duties, and conditions of, 250–252
     heirs disregarded instructions, 282–283 preserving estate and inheritance for future generations, 247–248
- Grijó, João Fernandes de Oliveira administering entailed assets, 263–264
     chief judge's immediate heir, 262 contesting father's will, 254–255
     marriage and two sons, 262 wins contest for father's will, 256–257
- Grijó, Lourenço João de Oliveira
     Chica's and João Fernandes grandson, 40–41, 58
     judgeship of Oeiras near Lisbon, 220
- hospitals
     miners' hospital, 32, 152, 172
     village hospital, 142
- housing
     religious images and oratories, 139–140
     tableware and utensils, 136–138
- Jesuits
     roles in education, 92–93
- Joaquina, Maria (Maria's daughter) marriages and children, 279–280
- Landim, Manuel Batista (sergeant
     major)
     guardian appointed by João Fernandes for his daughters, 208
- Lavradio, Marquis of Caetano José de Sousa
         correspondence with, 229
- Lisbon (Portugal)
     earthquake 1755 destroys, 212–213
     rebuilding and urban transformation of, 214–215
- Lourenço João
     legal career of, 264–265
- love
     consensual and illicit relationships, 118–120
     divine and profane, 116–117

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71155-5 - Chica da Silva: A Brazilian Slave of the Eighteenth Century

Junia Ferreira Furtado

Index

More information

318

INDEX

- Macaúbas school and convent, 199–202
Chica called back three daughters
from, 207–208
daily routine at, 202, 203–204
eldest daughters enrolled in, 205 illnesses at, 206–207
income from interns' families, 206 internal environment of, 204–205
João Fernandes (judge) benefactor to, 204–205, 209
staff misbehavior at, 202–203
- Maciel, José Álvares, 222
diamond contractor, 220
expelled from the Diamantine Demarcation, 102, 222
fourth contract, 84
- manumission, xxi–xxii
Chica and children granting,
158–160
Chica receives, 105–106
Maria da Costa obtained, 63–64
standard behavior for, 160–161
- Maria (Chica's daughter), 278–279
- Maria I (Queen of Portugal) ascension of, 253
- marriage
advantages and disadvantages for women, 109–111
love and, 116–117
rules and restrictions for, xxiii–xxiv, 117
- Meireles, Cecília (poet)
author Romanceiro da Inconfidência, 298–299
- Meireles, José Antônio de
ex-diamond intendant's arrest, 269–270
- Melee, Sebastião José de Carvalho e Fernandes de Oliveira family ties
with, 220–221
Marquis of Pombal, 212, 241
- Mendes, José Antônio (doctor), 172
- Mendonça, Francisco José Pinto de
Diamond Intendant, 237
- Mendonça, José Pinto de baptismal godparents with Chica, 167–168
- Mesquita, Lobo de
composer and freed slave, 37
- Milho Verde village
birthplace of Chica da Silva, 40–41
- Minas Gerais control of mines and War of Emboabas, 5–7
gold and diamonds found in, 4–5 growing settlements in, 5–7, 8–10, 22, 31–32
racial interbreeding in, xxii religious orders prohibited in, 33 rise of urban society in, 10, 71
- Mirandas, Pinto de (family)
wealthy family business as wine producers, 211–212
- Monteiro, Isabel Pires
dispute of inheritance of the Sergeant Major, 244–246, 253, 256–257
induced husband to alter his will, 230–231
locked up at Convent of Our Lady of the Powers for 3 years, 245–246
second wife of the Sergeant Major, 79
- mortality rate
infant, 42
slaves and children, 149–150
- Neto, Antônio Pinheiro, 212
- Neves, Inês Fernandes
freedwoman and slave owner, 147
- Neves, José Teixeira
editor 3rd edition of Joaquim
Felício's book, 292–294
- nobility
prejudice preventing racial intermarriage, 263

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71155-5 - Chica da Silva: A Brazilian Slave of the Eighteenth Century

Junia Ferreira Furtado

Index

More information

INDEX

319

- Nossa Senhora do Carmo church
chief judge João Fernandes charity for, 173
- Oliveira Inácia da Silva de
João Fernandes sponsored marriage, 165–166
- Oliveira, Domingos Fernandes de (captain) diamond contract administrator, 173
- Oliveira, Donna Ana Maria da Silva Fernandes de João Fernandes de Oliveira Grijó's
wife, 262
- Oliveira, Donna Francisca da Silva de
death of, 259
official name in Tejuco documents,
146. See also Silva, Chica da
- Oliveira, Francisco Xavier de, 57
- Oliveira, Frutuosa Batista de (daughter), 273, 284
- Oliveira, João Fernandes de (chief
judge)
appointed chief judge, 99
Brazilian assets, 284
charities from, 172–173, 252, 254–255
complexity of relationship with Chica Da Silva, 259
Diamond contractor performance, 222–223
early life in Brazil, 86 enrolled at São Patrício Seminary in Lisbon, 92
godparentage used in developing alliances, 162
illness and death of, 253–254
journey back to Tejuco, 100–101
journeys to Portugal, 86–88, 90–91, 232–233
legal arrangements for last, 232 Macaúbas school and convent
benefactor, 209
music and theater interests, 194 preserving father's estate and inheritance, 240–241, 246–247, 254–255
purchase of slave Chica, 99
real estate in Brazil, 248–250
real estate purchases in Portugal, 248
in Rio de Janeiro, 88–90
sent to manage concession contracts, 28
servants at Lapa mansion, 240
wedding sponsorships, 164, 165–166
- Oliveira, João Fernandes de (Sergeant Major)
concession contracts in Tejuco, 27–28
description of Lapa mansion, 215–219
first partnership with Manuel Mateus Tinoco, 71
first trip to Brazil, 69–71
illness and death of, 230
investment diversity, 71
return to Portugal, 83–84
servants at Lapa mansion, 219–220
settled in the Realm, 211
social and business life, 73–74 takes Isabel Pires Monteiro as 2nd
wife, 79
total asset value of estate, 250
- Oliveira, José da Silva de (sergeant
major)
wedding sponsor with João Fernandes, 165
- Oliveira, Juscelino Kubitschek de (Brazilian president)
Diamantina native, 290–291, 295
- Oliveira, Laureana da Silva de Chica's literate slave, 186
- Oliveira, Manuel Fernandes de
cousin to João Fernandes de Oliveira, 71
- Oliveira, Miguel Fernandes de
cousin to João Fernandes de
Oliveira, 72

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71155-5 - Chica da Silva: A Brazilian Slave of the Eighteenth Century

Junia Ferreira Furtado

Index

More information

320

INDEX

- Oliviera, Frutuosa Batista de
(daughter), 275
- Order of Christ
Simão's application to, 53–56
- Palha farmhouse
balls, operas and plays held at, 194–198
chapel built on, 165–166
gardens of, 198
- Pardinho, Rafael Pires
Diamond Intendant, 26
- Paula, Francisca de (Chica's daughter)
time as nun and marriage, 272
- Pereira, Fernando José da Cunha judge overseeing inheritance dispute, 242
- Pereira, João Azevedo (Captain)
house of, 134
- Pinheiro family
wealthy family business owners, 211–212
- Pinheiro, Francisco, 212
- Pombal, Marquis of João Fernandes (SM) expenses on Lapa mansion, 215 rebuilding and transformation of Lisbon, 214–215
rhetoric in defense of the chief judge's inheritance, 242–243
- Portugal
courts transferred to Brazil, 5 economic center shift to Brazil, 5 political upheaval at beginning of Marian era, 253
wealth from Brazilian mines, 21–22
- Portuguese Empire
power relations form from family/business relations in, 211–212
- Portuguese history
treasure hunting in Brazil, 1–5
- Portuguese law
rules and restrictions for marriage,
xxiii–xxiv
- Prazeres, Maria dos (nun), 281
- Quitéria, Ana (Chica's daughter), 275, 276
- Quitéria, Rita (Chica's daughter), 274
concubine of Fr, Rolim, 280–281
marriage, children and family business, 272–275
- race relations
gender and sex interconnected in society, 111–112
- Real, Teresa de Jesus Perpétua Corte
Tejuco's Virgin of the Light church, 213–214
- Reis, Joaquim Silvério dos
testimony regarding Chica, 286
- religious images and oratories
in houses, 139–140
- religious orders
prohibited in Minas Gerais, 33
- Rosário church, 180–181
- Royal Extractor
constitution of, 235
- Sá, Antônio Caetano de
father of Chica da Silva, 40, 59
- Saint Quitéria
Chica's private chapel and,
133–134
- Santo Antônio church
Chica's children baptized at, 126–127
first church built in Tejuco, 176
- Santos, Feliciano Atanásio dos, 284
- Santos, João Felício (script writer)
Xica da Silva movie, 12, 301–302
- Santos, Joaquim Felício dos (attorney)
biography of Chica da Silva, 286–288
division of Brazilian assets of the chief judge, 284–285
Furtado's research on confirming Santos' affirmations, 295–297

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71155-5 - Chica da Silva: A Brazilian Slave of the Eighteenth Century

Junia Ferreira Furtado

Index

More information

INDEX

321

- São José, Maria de
 death of, 79
 wife to the Sergeant Major, 74–75
- São Patrício Seminary
 João Fernandes (chief judge)
 attended, 92
- São Salvador de Grijó monastery
 returned to previous owners, 255–256
- Sardinha, Manuel Pires
 Chica sold to João Fernandes
 (judge), 104
 Simão Sardinha Pires (first son of Chica), 54
 slaves of, 45
- Sardinha, Simão Pires (first son of Chica), 46, 55, 170, 267–269
 arrest of ex-diamond intendant
 José Antônio de Meireles, 269–270
 legitimacy and nobility claim strategy, 54–55
 Literary Society and the Inconfidência Mineira, 270
 Minas Gerais's first fossil analysis by, 269
 Order of Christ investigation process, 53–56
 time in Portugal, 271
- Silva Leite, Antônio da
 composer (lyrics quoted), 114–115
- Silva, Antônio José da plays, 195–196
 playwright, 195
- Silva, Chica da
 Antônio Caetano de Sá, 59
 as freedwoman and slave owner, 146–148, 153–155
 baptism of, 41–42
 benefactor to Brotherhood of the Rosary, 182
 birth of, 26, 40
 Chica's house declared national
 heritage in 1950, 291
 children, 124, 126–127, 169–170, 198–199
 church and family, 191–192
 cinema propelled to national figure, 12 complexity of relationship with chief
 judge, 259
 concern for daughters' marriages, 271–272
 cultural and historical context,
 xix–xxi
 death of, 259
 funeral rites typical of the Brotherhoods, 260
 historical figure emerging, 285
 house description and furnishings, 132–133, 134–135
 image of slave redeemer, 157
 literacy gained under the chief judge, 193–194
 manumission granted, 105
 membership in brotherhoods, 176 modern historical distortions from novels, movies, and TV soaps, 301–303
 myth and legend of, 290
 neighbors in 1774, 131
 pregnancies, 121–123
 private chapel and Saint Quitéria, 133–134
 Simão Sardinha Pires (first son of Chica), 46, 53–54, 56
 sponsored baptisms and weddings, 165–170
- Siqueira, Jacinta de
 house of, 136
- slavery and slaves
 baptism and catholic ceremonies for, 148 crafts and skills of, 152–153, 157
 freedwomen and slaves, 146–147
 freewoman sold herself into, 113 inventories taken, 155–157
 owners rented slaves to the diamond contract, 151–152, 223

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-71155-5 - Chica da Silva: A Brazilian Slave of the Eighteenth Century

Junia Ferreira Furtado

Index

More information

322

INDEX

- slavery and slaves (cont.)
     role of women and family, xxi slaves earning liberty (manumission), 15–16
- Sousa, Caetano José de
     diamond contract administrator, 226, 228
     Marquis of Lavradio correspondence
         with, 229
- Sousa, Joaquim Silvério de
     book on historical persons in Minas Gerais, 289
- Sousa, Maria Inês de (Sergeant Major's mother), 88
- Stedman, John Gabriel
     writer (quoted), 115
- tableware and utensils, 136–138
- Tejuco (Diamantina), xvii, 29
     bishop's ecclesiastical visit to, 45–46
     census of 1774, 38–39
     Chica da Silva's birth, 26
     Chica's house declared national
         heritage in 1950, 291
     description of town, 31–32
     distribution of properties in, 131–132
     intellectual environment in, 33–35
     libraries in, 35–36
     routes to, 30–31
     social standing in, 163–164
     Virgin of the Light church, 213–214
- Tinoco, Manuel Mateus
     first partnership with João Fernandes
         (Sergeant Major), 71
- Torres, Antônio
     Chica's corpse in church, xvii–xviii
- University of Coimbra, 92–93
     final exams, 96
     student life at, 94–95
     taking course in canonical law, 93–94
- urban society
     Minas Gerais rise of, 10
- Valadares, Count of illegal prospecting investigation, 227–228
     investigation of misappropriation of diamond, 225
- Vasconcelos, Agripa de (writer)
     Chica que manda novel, 299–300
- Veiga, José Ferreira da host to João Fernandes (judge) in Portugal, 91
- Veiga, Xavier da
     book Efemérides mineiras, 289–290
- Velho, Paulo José (colonel)
     house of, 135
- Versiane, João Antônio Maria
     Chica's neighbor, 131
- Vicência, Mariana
     marriage and divorce, 281
- Vila do Príncipe (Serro) parish, 40–41
     gold discovered in, 22
- Vila Rica, 70, 232
     diamond exploration negotiations
         held at, 70
     governor's palace in, 228
     Sergeant Major's real estate in, 83
- Virgin of the Light church (Tejuco)
     Lisbon quake survivors' promise, 213–214
- War of Emboabas, 5–7
- women (colored) advantages and disadvantages of
         marriage, 109–111
     attraction of, 114–116
     dual exploitation of, xxii–xxiii freedwomen social dressing and church, 140–142
     jewelry, 142–144
     slaves earning liberty and financial gains, 15–18
- Xica da Silva* movie, 12, 301–302