

Index

- agency relationships 325–6, 335–6
see also principal-agent problem
- Alberti, Leon Battista, correspondent relationship 374
- alien merchant guilds 15, 20, 23, 24–5, 94–159, 202
- barriers to entry 96, 108, 111–13, 115, 158
- collection of taxes for rulers 173–5
- compulsory staple rights 68–9, 172
- dependence on local ‘home’ guilds 25, 108
- efficiency view of 96, 107, 157
- embargoes 213–15
- enforcement of monopolies 132–4, 137–41, 142, 156–7
- communication between branches over penalty enforcement 141
- complaints against 126–30, 132
- inter-guild conflict over monopolies 134–6, 137
- expansion of privileges 106
- financial contributions from members 168–9
- financial support for rulers 169–70, 176–80
- granting of rights by foreign rulers 102, 105, 107
- guest membership of 108
- and guild/consular courts 253–5, 258
- and ‘home’ governments 230–2, 233–5
- individual security guarantees 212–13
- limitations on authority 202–3
- monopolistic behaviour 127, 158
- and competition 97–8, 99
- enforcement of legal monopolies 100
- monopsony rights 122–3
- price collusion 115–17, 118–19
- pursuit of legal entitlements 99
- over specific lines of trade 97, 107
- restriction of supply 121–2, 217
- and rivals’ trading costs 124–5
- political domination of 181
- purchase of licences and exemptions 142–4
- redistribution of benefits 100
- regulations of 152–3, 154
- German and Spanish merchant guilds in Bruges 153–4
- internal regulation and monitoring 154
- and record-keeping 141–2
- tax advantages 164, 165
- trading at fairs 96–7
- trading privileges 23–4, 97, 106–7
- variation across Europe 155–6
- weakening of 34–5, 183
- see also* associate membership, of alien merchant guilds; English Merchant Adventurers; German Hanse; legal monopolies; monopoly power, and merchant guilds
- Alpert of Metz, Tiel merchant guild 263
- American market, and Seville consulado 143–4, 147
- Amsterdam
- antagonism towards merchant guilds 183, 399
- commercial security in 245
- decline of merchant guilds 32, 34–5
- global entrepôt role 396, 397, 398
- and guild courts 254
- municipal jurisdiction in 307–8
- newsletters from 377
- price stability in 398, 399, 410–11, 412
- sources of information in 366, 368, 370
- notarial system’s role in 369
- Antwerp
- bourse in 368, 369
- brokerage system and information 370
- decline of merchant guilds 32
- and guild courts 253
- information places in 368

- membership of alien merchant guilds in 101
- municipal jurisdiction in 307–8
- newsletters from 377
- security guarantees for traders 211
- staple town 104
- Aoki, M., cultural theory of institutions 416–17
- arbitration 297–9, 313
 - alternative to litigation 297
 - arbiters 297, 298
 - and public legal system 299–300
- Armenian merchants 11, 105, 332
- Ashtor, E., peer pressure 269
 - use of Muslim courts 261
- Asian merchants, competition from 403–4, 413
- asiento* 106
- Aslanian, S., New Julfa colony 352
- Assises de Jérusalem* 301
- associate membership, of alien merchant guilds 108
 - cessation of 110–11
 - competition from rival cities 111
 - conduct of associate members 111
 - entry barriers to 111–14
 - in times of threat 109–10
 - trade in new locations 108–9
- Attaliates, Michael, monopolistic grain exchange 407
- bandwidth hypothesis 347, 351–2, 362
- Bania traders, efficient use of information 357
- Bassermann, E., Champagne fair-bans 282
- Benson, B. L., guild courts 252, 258
 - peer pressure 268
- Bergen, Norway 119, 264
- Blanchard, I.
 - censorship by merchant guilds 354
 - correspondent relationships 374
 - urban information meeting-places 366
- Bohemian merchant guilds in Spain, and intermarriage 11
- Bosco, Bartolomeo, reprisals 284
- bourses, development of formal exchanges 368, 386
- Bowsky, W. M., collective reprisals 282
- Brück, T., merchant guilds' sociability 9
- Brügelmann, Johann Gottfried 79
- Bruges
 - bourse in 368–9
 - brokerage system and information 370
 - brokers' guilds 72
 - control of alien merchant guilds by their home towns 234
 - credit-based trading 355–6
 - embargoes against 148, 149, 150, 152–3, 154
 - and Flemish Hanse of London 27
 - generalized commercial security in 209–10, 243
 - replacement for Champagne fairs 243–4
 - and sophistication of local government 244
 - individual traders in 353
 - jurisdiction in 254–5, 260, 262, 298, 300, 307, 309, 369
 - key harbour 70
 - loans from foreign merchants 178
 - merchant guilds in 388
 - movement of merchants from 183
 - restriction of supply by Hanse Kontor 120
 - retailing in 47
 - tax advantages to merchants 165
 - time limits on Venetian merchants 73
 - use of local infrastructure 74
 - violence between local guilds 224
- Brulez, W., legal monopolies 99
- Burt, R. S., networks 363
- Butler, Nathaniel, trade with freebooter 411
- Carlos, A. M.
 - commercial security 195–6, 206, 391
 - efficiency of privileged companies 416
 - Hudson's Bay Company 392, 397, 402
 - principal-agent problems 322, 324, 326
 - Royal African Company 327
- cartels 41–2
- Casanova, E., collective reprisals 278
- Catalan guilds, and shipping services 72
- central entrepôts 396–7, 398, 410
- cession of credit 289–90
- Champagne fairs
 - and alien merchant guilds 207–8, 209
 - annexation by French king 241, 248–9
 - and decline of fairs 243, 246
 - conduit des foires* 209
 - consuls at 207–8
 - contract enforcement at 300, 301–2, 304
 - church courts 303
 - material pledges 288
 - municipal jurisdiction 306–7, 308–9
 - princely courts at 256–7, 302
 - correspondence from merchants 365, 375

478 Index

- Champagne fairs (cont.)
 costs and uncertainty at 282 exchange rates 376
 fair-bans, formality of 273
 family-oriented partnerships 331
 freedom from collective reprisals 277–8 and hanse-like organizations 27–9 individual legal responsibility 275–6, 281 individual traders at 353 jurisdiction at 255 appointment of consuls 255–6 limits to 260 public legal system 256–7, 259
 use of arbitration 298, 300 legal agency relationships 334
 and merchant guilds 388
 price lists 376 security provision 238, 239, 241
 trade by foreign merchants 96
- Chartres 46
- Chaudhuri, K. N., English East India Company 327, 329
- chirograph 292–3
- Chrysobull of 1082 166
- church courts 303
- closed networks, and information transmission 362
- closure, and social capital 428
- Coleman, J. S., generation of social capital 347, 428 social networks as providers of information 347
- collective liability, in European law codes 274
- collective reprisals 251, 270–1 between England and Flanders 283 community responsibility system as alternative term for 271, 272, 281, 300, 312–13 collective vs individual responsibility 275, 276 and written records 290 component of public legal system 272–5 efficiency of 281, 285
 costs of reprisals 282–4 individual vs collective responsibility 281 uncertainty of benefits 282 violent retaliation 283 insurance against 282
 and peer pressure 269
 pressure for abolition 278–80
 as redistributive instrument 285 source of profit 284
 suing for 271, 272
 suspension in foreign trading 277 threat to trade 277
see also Champagne fairs; individual responsibility, and reprisal system
- collegia* 20, 21, 22, 26
- Cologne, merchant guilds in 22, 24, 69, 71
- colonies, and alien merchant guilds 94
- colonna* contract 334
- commenda* contract 334, 339, 340
- commercial education 371–2 and literacy rates 372
 and merchant correspondence 372–3
- commercial privileges and loans to rulers 175, 176–8
- commercial security
 availability of alternative institutions 246, 247, 248 damaged by merchant guilds 206–7, 216, 219, 230, 247 and formation of alien merchant guilds 27–8, 211–12, 216 in Antwerp 211
 in Bruges 209–10
 in French trading centres 212
- forts, building of 215, 229
- generalized provision of 422–3
- guarantees for individual traders 207, 208, 209, 230
- organization of convoys 215, 229, 238
- provided by merchant guilds 193, 207, 246–7
- provided by ruler 192–3
- trade embargoes by alien merchant guilds 213–15
see also conflict between guilds; piracy; public-order institutions; warfare
- community
 and collective reprisals 300
 and development of economies 272
- compagnia* contract 334
- competitors' costs, increased by merchant guilds 66 access to infrastructure 74 limits on volume of wares 74–5 mobility restrictions 73–4 non-local merchants 66–7 right of brokerage 72 shipping services 72–3 time limits on traders 73
see also staple rights

- conflict between guilds 82, 102–3, 134–6, 137 between local and alien merchant guilds 134, 224–6 between local merchant guilds 224 between rival alien merchant guilds 226
 over guild payments 168
- Constantinople, silk trade 63, 64, 74, 165
- contract enforcement
 arbitration 297–300
 cession of credit 289–90
 competition 314
 decline of merchant guilds 39
 efficiency of merchant guilds 287 fair-courts 253
 guest law 288–9
 institutional systems for 285, 296, 310–11, 423
 generalized institutions 313–14
 merchant guilds 16
 need for institutions 250
 particularized institutions 311, 314 merchant courts 254–5, 264, 312
 pledges 287–8
 and public legal system 256–8, 339–40
 transaction within trusted circle 286, 287
 written records 290, 291, 292–3
see also Champagne fairs; collective reprisals; guild courts; litigation, and contract enforcement; peer pressure, and contract enforcement; Skåne fairs
- convoys 215, 229, 238, 400–1
- Coornaert, E., agency problems 329
- copper trade 408
 and merchant syndicate 408–9
- correspondent relationships 337, 371, 374
 choice of agents 338 effectiveness of 338, 374–5
 transaction costs 337
- Cotrugli, Benedict 217
- Cour des Bourgeois* 301
- courier services 375, 381–2, 386
- Croft, P., English Merchant Adventurers 354
- customs barriers, and guild monopolies 98
- Cyprus, tax advantages to merchants 165
- Das Gupta, A., information and prices 403
- Dasgupta, P., informal institutions 421
- Datini, Francesco, correspondence of 372, 373
- Daubenton, Ambrosio, complaint against consulados 130
- Davies, K. G., Royal African Company 327, 357
- De Roover, R.
 decentralization of house of Medici 360
 Italian merchants and censorship 354 kinship in business relationships 286 Lucca merchant guild in Bruges 101
 merchant churches 10
 merchant guild sociability 9 merchant guilds as providers of information 345
 principal-agent problems 317
- De Vries, J., Dutch East India Company 328
- Del Vecchio, A., collective reprisals 278
- Denmark 36, 46
- Derby merchant guild, complaints against 76
- devaluation, of Flemish groten 356–7
- distribution, effect of merchant guilds on 160, 162, 188
 and security 206
- Dodd, G., English wool staple 146
- Doehaerd, R., agency relationships 333
- Dollinger, P.
 Bruges riots 214
 German Hanse 392, 400, 401
 piracy 228
 principal-agent problems 321, 324
 social networking 351–2
- Dutch East India Company (VOC) 37 action against individual competitors 350 centralization problems 361
 complaints against 131
 conflict over monopolies 228–9
 information systems 355, 357–8, 380–1
 insider dealing by agents 359
 investment in 114–15
 monopoly pricing strategies 118
 and price volatility 397, 401–2 monopoly privileges 35, 106
 principal-agent problems 323, 328, 329
 restriction of supply 122
- Dutch intercontinental merchant companies 35
 information gathering 382–3
- Dutch merchant guilds, inclusion of women 114
- Dutch West India Company (WIC)
 pricing policy 118
 violence and financial success 228
- ecclesiastical courts
 echo effects, of social networks 348, 365

480 Index

- efficiency
 economic efficiency 2, 42, 63
 and institutions creation of informal sector 421 importance of institutional framework 425, 426 view of merchant guilds 415–16, 419, 420
- of merchant guilds 5, 160, 188, 191
 and black market 92 collaboration with rulers 161, 163 economic stability 17 and free entry 90–1
 and monopolies 90, 91–2, 126
 and security 206, 216
 and trade embargoes 213
- Egypt, tax advantages to merchants 166
- embargoes 148, 215
 by alien merchant guilds 213
 by Genoese merchants 149, 151–2
 by German Hanse 148–9, 213–14 by Venetian merchants 149, 150, 151–2 and volume of trade 150–1
 in Byzantine empire 151
 in Golden Horde territory 151–2
- endogamy, within merchant guilds 11–12
- England
 intercontinental merchant companies 35, 183
 merchant guild privileges in 47
 merchant trading rights 52
 municipal jurisdiction in 308
 participation in international trade 200 tax privileges granted to merchants 165
 town citizenship 56
 and merchant guild membership 57 weakening of merchant guilds 183 wool subsidy, collection of 171
- English Bermuda Company, effect of monopoly 411
- English Company of the Staple 49
 alien staple rights 68 complaints about competition 128–9 effect on markets 145–7 embargoes by 150
 enforcement systems 138, 139, 140
 financial support for military activity 178 legal privileges in Europe 104–5, 157
 lobbying by 132
 Partition Ordinance 116
 price-fixing 115–16
 purchase of exemptions 143
 staple privileges 172
 tax exemptions 166
- English East India Company (EIC) 37 conflict over monopoly 228
 information systems 361, 370, 380–1
 investment in 114
 monopoly over trade with East 106
 price-fixing 127
 principal-agent problems 322–3, 327–8, 329, 332
- English Merchant Adventurers 30, 34, 94, 112 admission fees 16, 127
 complaints against 132
 conflict over monopolies 136
 dependence on local guilds 205 domination by London interests 237 enforcement of privileges 138, 139
 export quotas 122 restriction of information flows 354 and social gatherings 8 support from Mayor of London and English king 236–7 and textile exports 49
- English Muscovy Company 37
- entrepreneurs, and new merchant trading 183
- entry barriers 51, 62
 complaints against alien merchant guilds 126 group affiliation 57
 town citizenship 51–7
 within-hanse complaints 126–7
- Epstein, S. A., business contracts 365
- Ewert, U.-C., German Hanse
 cartels 157
 closure to outside information 362 efficiency theory 416
 principal-agent problems 317, 319, 320
- exchange rates, information on 376, 378
- fair-courts 253
 reliance on princely justice system 257, 259
see also Champagne fairs; Skåne fairs
- Fender, A., Hudson's Bay Company 358
- Finland, merchant guild privileges in 47
- Flanders, and Flemish merchants and Champagne fairs 241, 242–3
 collective reprisal system 274 and Hanse of the Seventeen Towns 27–8, 103 provision of generalized security 244
- Flemish Hanse of London 27
- Florence, separation of merchant guilds in 22

- Fondaco dei Tedeschi 30, 101, 121–2, 126, 174, 253
fondaco system 73–4, 94
foundax, in Rhaidestos, effect on prices 406–7
- France 200–1
 privileged merchant companies 36 competition from private traders 330 restrictions on town citizenship 55–6
- Frankopan, P., Venetian merchants in Constantinople 161
- freight prices, comparison between German Hanse and Dutch merchants 117
- Fugger, in-house newsletter 377
- Furber, H., Dutch East India Company 357
- Galenson, D. W., Royal African Company 327
- Gauci, P., London livery companies 352
- Gdansk, restrictions on citizenship of 55
- Gelderblom, O.
 alien merchant guilds and entry barriers 107
 bandwidth and information dissemination 351
 Castilian merchant guild 153
 consulados' principal-agent problems 318
 Dutch merchant guilds 318
 merchant guilds and price stability 392
 merchant guilds and tax rebates 161
 monopoly control of guilds 152
 peer pressure 268, 269
 value of hostels for information 367
- Genoa
 and alien merchant guilds 24–5
 citizenship of 53
 merchant guilds abroad conflict with other merchant guilds 135, 226–7
 enforcement of privileges 138
 evidence of legal monopolies 102–3 independence of 234
 price-fixing 123
 merchant trading rights 52
- Genoese merchants information processing by individuals 380 loans to rulers for military purposes 178–9 local government support for 240
 principal-agent problems 318
 support for privateers 220–1 tax collection by 173
 taxes on 169
 use of courts 339
 use of firms 336
 use of legal contracts 333
- geographical advantages, and guild monopolies 97, 98
- geographical rents, and compulsory staple rights 69 travel on mandatory roads 70
- German Hanse 20, 26, 34, 95
 and alien merchant guilds 101
 attacks on other merchant guilds 82, 225–6 ban on partnerships with outsiders 141
 cash payments to rulers 170, 177, 179
 citizenship privileges 55, 57–8
 complaints against 129–30, 132
 dependence on local merchant guilds 203, 236 counting-house ordinance 234
 enforcement of privileges 99, 139, 140, 156
 family-oriented partnerships 331–2
 information systems
 accuracy of information 362 censorship of information 354 centralization 360, 390 drinking societies 352 exchange of information 351, 352 information processing 384, 388–9 information transmission and credit-based trading in Bruges 355–6, 390
 devaluation of Flemish groten 356–7
 principal-agent problems 359
 transaction costs reduction 349
- input costs 123
 legal forms of enterprise 103–4, 335 membership of 112, 113–14, 169 monopoly at Skåne fairs 144–5 monopoly strength and trade 87 open warfare 227–8
 price-fixing 116
 ratification of agreements by individual town councils 235 regulations on travelling in convoy 400–1 and price fluctuation 401 renegeing on agreements by individual towns 237 revision of ordinances 141–2
 social networks and principal-agent problems 317, 319, 320, 342

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-74792-9 - Institutions and European Trade: Merchant Guilds, 1000-1800

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

482 Index

- German Hanse (cont.)
 inflexibility of centralization 323, 325–6
 limits to trade from network closure 320 monopoly position and principal-agent problems 321
 staple rights 68, 70, 172
 supply restrictions 75, 119–20
 efficiency view of 120
 tax privileges 165
 trade embargoes 148–9 Flemish textile market 149 against Norway 148
 with Spanish merchant guilds against Bruges 148, 150, 152–3, 154, 213–14 trading in Bruges 210
 use of courts 262–3, 340
- German Imperial law, and reprisal system 273
- Germany
 intercontinental merchant companies 36
 merchant associations, cash transfers to political groups 184–5
 participation in international trade 200
- Gil, M., Geniza merchants 292
- Glamann, K., Dutch East India Company 328
- Golden Horde, the 109, 173
- Gotland community 26, 30, 203
 formation of German Hanse 203 military support for rulers 179–80 support from home towns 231
- Grafe, R.
 bandwidth and information dissemination 351
 Castilian merchant guild 153
 consulados' principal-agent problems 318
 German Hanse and transaction costs 349
 merchant guilds and price stability 392
 merchant guilds and tax rebates 161
 monopoly control of guilds 152
 peer pressure 268
- Gravesteijn, C., censorship of information 354
- Greek merchant guilds, legal monopolies of 50
- Greif, A.
 alien merchant guilds and entry barriers 107
 Bruges embargo 214
 community responsibility system 271, 272, 275
 contract enforcement 300
 cultural theory of institutions 416–17 efficiency theory of merchant organizations 194–5, 206, 213, 391, 415
 Geniza merchants' principal-agent problems 318
 Italian trade with Flanders 210 merchant guilds and social capital 45
 openness of German Hanse 107
 ruler–guild relationship 161
 guest law 47, 288–9
 guild courts 251, 253, 254–5
 commercial expertise 251–2 culturally specific legal services 252
 independence of 258
 licensed by public authorities 258 merchant preference for public legal system 260–1, 264, 285 demand for better enforcement 263 demand for impartiality 263 judges 264
 in North Africa and the Levant 261 in north-west Europe 262–3
 and public legal system 257–8
 appeals to 260
 contractual rules 267 shared values of judges and litigants 252 superior information 252
see also lex mercatoria; maritime law
- Habib, I.
 Dutch East India Company 358
 Indian external trade 404 insecurity and merchant companies 229
- Hanse of Ghent, legal monopolies of 103
- Hanse of the Seventeen Towns 27–8
 Champagne fairs 208
 lack of jurisdiction at fairs 256
- Hanseatic drinking societies 352, 354, 363
- Hanseatic League, first general diet 26
- hanse 5, 15, 95, 96, 203 complaints about coercive regulation 130 complaints between guilds 126–7 exclusion from monopoly privileges 127 kinship ties 11
 support from local guilds and rulers 203, 235–6 disagreement by town governments 237
see also German Hanse

- Häpke, R., cartels among medieval merchants 128
- Harreld, D. J., merchant guilds and price stability 392 providers of information 345 tax exemptions for 161
- Hejeebu, S., English East India Company 322–3, 324, 328, 332
- Henry the Lion, and Gotland Community 22, 26
- Heyd, W., Fondaco dei Tedeschi 126
- Hicks, J. R. merchant communities 194
monopoly profits 347, 357
- Holbach, R., German Hanse 352
- horizontal contracting 6
- hostels, as information clearing houses 367
- hosting laws 173
- Hudson's Bay Company (HBC) 35 conflict between English and French military 235
conflict over monopoly 228
information systems 358, 361
monopoly over fur trade 106, 358
price-fixing 123
and price volatility 397
principal-agent problems 323
management of 325, 326
risk prohibition 402
effects of 402
- Hunt, E. S., merchant loans to rulers 175
- Iberia 103, 201
- illegitimacy, and membership of guilds 60
- income volatility effects on welfare 393 reduction in investment 393
- Indian merchants, information on prices and supply 403–4
- individual merchants and decline of merchant guilds 31
information collection and processing 378–9, 380
- individual responsibility, and reprisal system 275, 276
at Champagne fairs 275–6
in Aragon 279
in Flanders 279
in France 279
in German-speaking Central Europe 279–80
in Italian trade treaties 278–9
- individualistic cultural beliefs, and merchant guilds 416
- informal sector, of economy and efficiency models 421–2 incentives for moving into 420 opportunities in 421
information, and trade 344–5 accuracy of 362–3 brokerage system 370, 385
censorship 353–5
centralization problems 360, 361
effect on prices 403 exchanges and bourses 368 flow of, and social capital 427 growth of generalized institutions 364, 387 role of merchant guilds 387–9 importance of inns and hostels 367 individual traders 403–4 inefficient use of 357–8
institutional systems for collection and transmission 424
locational clustering 364–5, 385
markets, and decline of guilds 39 merchant guilds as providers of 345–6, 351, 381, 383–90 collection of information 346 dissemination of information 17, 346 network membership 286
notarial system 369–70, 385
principal-agent problems 358–9
printing, development of 376, 377, 386
public good 345
private vs social benefits of 345 storage of goods 403
see also bandwidth hypothesis;
correspondent relationships;
individual merchants; merchant correspondence; merchant guilds;
monopolists
- information cascades, of social networks 348, 362–3, 390
- input costs, purchasing prices of labour and real estate 65, 66 exploitation by merchant guilds 65 prohibition of competition 66
- insider dealing 359
- institutions 5–6
and closure 13
creation of social capital 428 cultural theories of 416–17
distributional/conflict approach 3–4, 418 efficiency view of merchant guilds 2–3, 415–16
and decline of guilds 39
lack of evidence for 417 narrow focus of 418–19

484 Index

- institutions (cont.)
 and growth 18, 433–4 influence on prices 391–2 interdependence of 422, 425, 426
 contract enforcement 423
 existence of 425–6
 information collection and transmission 424
 price stability 424–5
 principal-agent problems 423–4 provision of commercial security 422–3 intervention in setting prices 393, 394, 395 need for 410–11 ‘noise’ in price signals 394, 409 perishable goods 394–5 limits to economic access 420 multiple activities and inefficiency 7–12, 419, 420 share of economic activity in informal sector 421–2 and trust 429–30
 intelligence gathering, commercial use of 382
see also information, and trade; spies, use of merchants
 international trade 310
 community responsibility system 271, 279
 individual merchants in 389 involvement of merchants 201–2 natural monopolies 324, 349, 389
 network closure and limits to trade 319–20
 principal-agent problems 315, 330
 security of 197, 432–3 share of total economy 197–8 institutional requirements 199
 reasons for 198
 social capital of guilds 319
 Ipswich 32, 56
 Islam, influence on European commercial law 333
 Italian merchants appointment of consuls at Champagne fairs 255–6
 cash payments to rulers 169–70
 and Champagne fairs 241–2, 243
 and guilds 11, 156
 reprisal system 272–3, 278–9
 support from home governments 231, 232 Italy
 citizenship of towns and cities 53–4, 306
 development of firms 336
 participation in international trade 199
 Jenks, S.
 German Hanse 356, 361
 Italian merchants 362
 Jews, exclusion of 58, 90 attacks against 82
see also entry barriers; Maghribi traders
 Jones, S. R. H.
 Hudson’s Bay Company 358
 principal-agent problems 326, 329
Jours de Troyes, appeals to 302 Kallioinen, M.
 municipal messenger services 381
 social networking and information flow 350 Kapfenberger, D., German Hanse importance of drinking societies 9
 principal-agent problems 317
 and transaction costs 349
 Karīmi association 48, 75, 171
 Katele, I. B., piracy 221
 Kelmer, Christian, ejection from guild 127
 Kermode, J., English wool staple 146
 key harbours, and compulsory staple rights 69–70
King’s Mirror, The 160, 365, 371
 Klein, P. W., entrepôts as staple-markets 397–8, 411 empirical basis for staple-market theory 398–9 market participation 410
 Kohn, M. first merchant colonies 24
 information and trade 345, 382
 Kontrulic, Benedict 372
 Kruse, J. B., privileged companies 416
 Laiou, A. E., collective reprisals 277
 Lambert, B.
 Flemish merchant guilds 161, 210
 information 345
 Lane, F. C., Venetian merchants 140 legal forms of commercial enterprise 333–4 correspondent relationships 337–8
 development of firms 335–6
 and merchant guilds 336
 types of contract 334–5
see also written records
 legal monopolies
 and alien merchant guilds 157
 compulsory establishment of 102

- compulsory membership 100–2
- evidence of 102–7
- evasion of rules 158
- exclusive rights to trade 100
- variation in 152, 155–6
- in copper trade 408
- sources of supply 408–9
- diversification of supply 395
- staple-market 396–7
- see also* Dutch East India Company; Hudson's Bay Company
- legal systems, and security 193, 195
- see also* commercial security
- legislative history approach, to merchant guilds 4
- Lemgo, composition of guilds in 23
- Levant, jurisdiction over merchants in 254
- see also* alien merchant guilds; guild courts
- lex mercatoria* 252, 264–6, 267
- Limberg, Tidemann, loans to English crown 167
- limited liability, and merchant companies 37
- Link, C., German Hanse
 - importance of drinking societies 9
 - principal-agent problems 317
 - and transaction costs 349
- litigation, and contract enforcement 300–1
 - church courts 303–4
 - municipal courts 301–3, 304–10, 313
- L'libre del Consolat de mar* 266
- Lloyd, T. H., English wool staple 146, 147
- lobbying, by alien merchant guilds
 - gifts and payments to rulers 132–3
 - for monopoly rights 132
- local and regional trade
 - importance of 198
 - in Byzantine empire 201
 - in England 200
 - in France 200–1
 - in Germany 200
 - in Iberia 201
 - in Italy 199
 - in Low Countries 199–200
 - in Scandinavia and Slavic Europe 201
 - security problems 196, 197
- local municipal authorities, and registration of commercial agreements 339
- locational clustering
 - merchant preference for 366
 - personal contacts 365
 - public arena, use of observation 364–5
 - trading in urban centres 365–6
- London
 - brokerage system and information 370
 - livery companies in 32–3, 34, 352
 - Mayor of, and English Merchant Adventurers 236–7
 - St Paul's, as information place 368
- London Mercers' Company 205
- Lopez, R. S.
 - piracy 218
 - underlying principles of merchant guilds 391
- Lovesdale, William, guild violence against 77
- Low Countries
 - citizenship privileges in 56
 - participation in international trade 199–200
- Lübeck guilds 22, 73
- Lucca 141, 368
- Lylling, John, and York citizenship 56
- Lynn merchant guild, complaints against 76
- MacKay, D., Hudson's Bay Company 361
- Maghribi traders (Jewish Geniza merchants)
 - collectivist beliefs of 416–17
 - principal-agent problem 318
 - use of ṣuḥba 335n.98
 - written records 291–2
- Maltese merchant guilds, and intermarriage 12
- Malynes, Gerard de 94
- Mangels, A.
 - efficiency of elder merchant guilds 195, 206, 391, 416
 - local courts 304
- Marchands de l'Eau* 50
- Maréchal, J., merchant churches 10
- maritime law 266, 267
- market participation, and prices 410, 413
- massaria* 94
- Mauro, F.
 - bandwidth and information dissemination 351
 - merchant guilds in France 161
- Mazzaoui, M. F., information provision 345
- McCusker, J. J., censorship 354
- Meder, Lorenz, merchant manual 378

486 Index

- Medici, house of 31
 - business control 331, 336
 - decentralization in 360
- merchant associations
 - and absolutist rulers 184
 - cash transfers to political groups 26
 - commercial security 195–6, 205
 - complaints of monopolistic activity by 78–9, 130, 132
 - detection and punishment systems 84–5
 - inter-guild conflict 83
 - price-fixing 63
 - reduction of members' input costs 65
 - restriction of supply 64
- merchant churches 9–10, 53
- merchant companies, privileged 31, 33–4, 36–7, 95, 96
 - competitors' costs 125
 - complaints about monopolistic activity 130–1, 132
 - conflict between 136–7, 228–9
 - decentralization of decision-making 360
 - decline of 184
 - exclusions of entrants 61
 - information collection 8, 355, 357–8, 379–80
 - intercontinental trading privileges 35–6
 - and Islamic law 38
 - lobbying by 134
 - and modern joint-stock companies 37
 - pioneers in intercontinental trade 389–90
 - price-fixing by 118
 - principal-agent problems 321–2, 324–5
 - disadvantages of monopoly position 324, 326–9
 - hierarchical firms 336
 - inflexibility of centralization 323, 342
 - payment of wages 322
 - in English East India Company 322–3
 - supply restrictions 122
 - trading monopolies 38, 106–7
- merchant correspondence 371, 372–3, 376, 385
 - and price lists 376, 386
 - see also* correspondent relationships
- merchant guilds 1–2, 3, 5–6, 14, 20–1, 22, 24
 - beneficiaries of 160, 189
 - conflict over monopoly rights 81–2
 - in seventeenth century 82–3
 - decline of 38, 183, 188
 - and evasion of privileges 38–9
 - in Bruges 183
 - in England 32–3, 34, 183
 - in Low Countries 31–2, 34
 - reasons for 39–40
- definition of merchant 19–20
- documentary evidence on 4, 5
 - distortion of 4–5
- and economic development 13–14
- and economic stability 17
- endogamy 11–12
- enforcement of contracts 16, 250–1, 267–8, 309–10
 - and peer pressure 270, 312
- evasion of rules 420–1
- incentives to violence 219–21, 222
- and information
 - and brokerage system 370–1
 - and business outcomes 355–7
 - economies of scale 349–50
 - arguments against 350
 - availability of information 351
 - competition from individuals 350
 - efficient providers of 345–6, 351, 381, 383–90
 - internal administrative system 357–8
 - and merchant manuals 378
 - monopoly benefits of collection 346, 384
 - restriction of 347, 353–5, 358–9, 390
 - social capital and dissemination of 17, 346, 347, 351–3, 384–5
- local associations 20, 22–3
- long-distance commerce 414
- membership restrictions
 - characteristics of 19, 60–1
 - collective acceptability and 61–2
 - entrance fees 59–60
 - exclusion and 57–9, 60, 86
- monopoly power of 41, 42–3, 45–6, 87
 - evidence of 44, 45, 51
- multiple activities of 14–15, 419
 - monopolies and rent-seeking 420
 - separability of 419–20
- obligatory social gatherings 8–9
- and price volatility 395
 - accuracy of price signals 395
 - decrease in 'noise' 409, 410
 - guild regulations on risk-taking 400, 402, 412
 - information advantages 403–4, 412–13
 - stabilization through monopoly 396, 398, 399–400, 404, 407, 408, 412
 - harmful effects of 407–8, 409

- principal-agent problems 16, 316, 318–19, 329
- social capital 316, 317, 341
- close relationships and information transmission 317–18
- network closure and limits to trade 319–20
- punishment systems 83–4
- recognition by public-order institutions 164
- religious observance 9–11
- rent-seeking behaviour 3, 167
- secular purpose of churches 10
- security provision 15–16, 193, 195
- efficiency theory of 194–5, 196
- in international trade 197
- as justification for guilds 194, 196
- necessity of support from home rulers 230
- and social capital 415
- survival of 15, 414
- and theories of institutions 415
- cultural 416–17
- efficiency 415–16
- lessons for explanation of institutions 426
- types of trade 14
- trading as exclusive privilege for members 420–1
- variation across time 14
- see also* alien merchant guilds; ruler–guild relationship
- merchant hanses 25–6, 30
- decline of 34–5
- and French merchants 29
- and Italian merchants 28
- and Provençal and Catalan merchants 28–9
- and Spanish merchants 29
- see also* Flemish Hanse of London; German Hanse; Hanse of the Seventeen Towns
- merchant manuals 206, 377, 386, 391
- categories of 377–8
- and merchant guilds 378
- Milgrom, P.
- barriers to entry imposed by guilds 107
- Bruges embargo by Hanse 214
- contract enforcement 300, 304
- efficiency theory of merchant guilds 194–5, 206, 213, 391, 415
- German Hanse 107
- guild courts 252, 258
- ruler–guild relationship 161
- ministeria* 21
- monopolies 316, 321–2, 341–2
- development of legal forms of commercial enterprise 336
- disadvantages of 324
- effects on markets 144
- English Company of the Staple 145–7
- German Hanse and Skåne fairs 144–5
- restriction of merchant residency rights in Bergen 145
- granted by foreign rulers 98–9, 105
- and independent merchants 330
- loss of, and expansion of trade 147
- see also* Dutch East India Company; embargoes; English East India Company
- monopolists
- and economic theory 43–4, 51
- inaccurate price signals from 395, 409
- and information
- creation of natural monopolies 348–9
- lack of incentive and efficiency 347
- reduction of transaction costs 346
- restriction of 347
- slippage of 347
- supervisory diseconomies of scale 348
- price stability 405
- and profits 160, 189
- raised prices 405–6, 407
- warehousing capacity 398
- monopoly power, and merchant guilds 43, 75, 92
- arguments against 42–3
- conflict over monopoly rights 81–2
- detection and punishment systems 83–4
- economic effects of 88, 92–3
- enforcement of 75, 79, 81, 83, 86, 88
- complaints about 75–7
- in Germany 77
- in Italy 77–8
- in Low Countries 77
- effects on commerce 88–9
- lobby campaigns 79
- in defence of privileges 80–1
- payments to rulers 80
- purchase of legal exemptions 85
- purchase of monopoly profit share 85–6
- trading rights 45–6, 62
- exports 48–50
- intermediation 46–7
- retailing 47

488 Index

- trading rights (cont.)
 routes and destinations 50–1 rural trade 47–8 specific wares 48
see also alien merchant guilds
 Montpellier 11, 28–9, 101, 138, 171, 179, 201, 207–8, 255, 261, 288–9, 301,
 306, 339, 370, 382
 Morel, Nicholas, and reprisal system
 284 Müller, L., Swedish iron trade 399
 multiplex relationships, and social capital 428
 and merchant guilds 428
 transactions within trusted circle 286
 municipal courts 304–5, 308–9
 agreement between cities 305 tribunals guaranteeing impartial justice 305 written law code 305
 municipal messenger services 381–3
- natural monopoly 324 Netherlands, barriers against Dutch merchants 57, 58
 Newbery, D. M. G., price stabilization 395
 newsletters 377, 386 Nicholas, S.
 commercial security 195–6, 206, 391
 efficiency of merchant companies 416
 Hudson's Bay Company 392, 397, 402
 principal-agent problems 322, 324, 326
 Royal African Company 327
 social networking 349
 Nikephoritzes, and grain exchange 406–7
 Nitzsch, K. W. 194, 251
 Nivet, J.-F., contract enforcement 301 non-market orientation, of pre-modern economies 410
 non-material benefits, from behavioural compliance 286
 North, D. C.
 contract enforcement 300, 304
 efficiency theory of institutions 2
 guild courts 252, 258
 international trade 197
 merchant guilds as quasi-voluntary 45
 peer pressure 268
 Royal African Company 327
 Norwich, citizenship of 56
 notarial system 293, 294–5, 313
 and notaries 294
- O'Brien, P. K., international trade 197
Officium Robarie 217, 245
- oral testimony 290, 291
 organizations, internal rules and entry restrictions 155
 Oudenaarde, demarcations between guilds
 in 22
- Parlement de Paris*, appeals to 302
 parliaments, and commercial security 193
 Pearson, M. N.
 international trade 197
 ruler–guild relationship 167
 peer pressure, and contract enforcement 251, 268, 312
 evidence of 269–70
 with outsiders 269, 270
 within same guild 268, 270 limits to trade 268–9 within trusted circle 285, 286–7 Pegolotti, Francesco Balducci, merchant handbook 377
 Pérotin-Dumon, A., piracy 223 personal correspondence 372–3 volume of 373–4
 Petty, William 363
 physical evidence in contract enforcement 290–1
 Piepowder Courts 302
 Pieter van der Molen and Brothers, business correspondence of 373, 375
 piracy 216–17, 222–3
 and collective reprisals 219
 commissioned attacks 219–21 complicity of guilds 219 and European overseas discoveries 223
 and guild monopolies 222, 223
 legitimacy of 217–19 Pisa 24, 54, 305
 pledges 287–9
 political importance of merchant guilds 180–1, 186
 decline outside absolutist states 187 and support for rulers 181–2 Pompeii, guild graffiti 21 Portugal
 merchant companies in 35 merchant guilds and intermarriage 11 pepper trade 350
 postal services 375–6, 386
 Postan, M. M. piracy 218
 price-fixing 115
 principal-agent problems 321, 324
 Power, E., wool staple 146

- Poznań, exclusions from merchant guilds in 58
- Prakash, O., Dutch East India Company 328
- prerogative rights, and price setting 65, 66
- Price, J. M., agency problems 329
- price-fixing, by merchant guilds 62–3
- complaints about alien merchant guilds 127–9
- effects on economy 119
- and German Hanse 116, 129
- in luxury trades 116–17
- and political strength of guild 117–18
- and wool exports 115–16
- price lists, in merchant correspondence 376, 386
- price-setting, by agents 402
- see also* monopolists
- price stability
- and decline of guilds 39
- effects of competition 407–9, 411
- inherent desirability of 405, 409, 413
- institutional systems for 424–5
- and monopolies 399–400, 405
- in Swedish iron trade 399
- see also* Dutch East India Company; German Hanse
- price volatility
- and economic growth 392
- influence of institutions 391–2
- effects of intervention 393, 394, 395, 405
- role of guilds 17
- and information 391
- reflection of ‘noise’ 394, 409
- reflection of real economic factors 393–4, 395, 405, 410, 413
- risk prohibition in merchant guilds and privileged companies 400–2, 412
- and uncertainty 391
- princely fair-wardens at Champagne fairs 256–7
- principal-agent problem
- in Bruges 321, 329
- at Champagne fairs 321, 329
- and decline of guilds 39
- and efficiency theory 316, 318–19
- family-oriented partnerships 331–2, 341
- formalization of legal relationships 332–4
- correspondent relationships 337–8
- types of contract 334–5
- use of firms 335–6
- and German Hanse 317
- institutional systems for 423–4
- and Maghribi traders 318
- management of 330, 340–1, 342–3
- merchant guilds as solution 16, 243, 315–16, 318–19, 329
- personal benefits from information management 359
- use of monopoly position 321–2
- diseconomies of scale 323
- inflexibility of centralization 323
- payment of salaries 322
- see also* written records
- private-order institutions 44, 107
- privileges, of merchant guilds 41
- clandestine trade 140–1
- detection of trade by outsiders 138
- enforcement of price regulations 139–40
- enforcement of supply quotas 139
- policing of admission requirements 137–8
- and trade flows 87
- trading in public places 140
- see also* cartels; routes and destinations, and guild rights; transaction types, and guild rights; wares, types of, and guild rights
- proto-industries 19, 31, 33–4
- Provençal merchants 101, 255–6
- public borrowing, and security 193
- public good 193
- non-excludable 345
- non-rival 345
- public-order institutions 237, 248
- alignment of town governments with interests of foreign and local merchants 244
- and capital market development 243
- central and local political authorities 240
- in Flanders 243
- Genoese Officium Robarie 245
- see also* Bruges; Champagne fairs; commercial security; ruler-guild relationship; taxation
- Putnam, R. D., social capital 7, 45
- qīrad*, in Islamic law 333
- Raleigh, Sir Walter 217
- reputation, and guild membership 61
- resource endowment, and guild monopolies 98
- Reyerson, K. L.
- cession of credit 289
- intelligence gathering 382

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-74792-9 - Institutions and European Trade: Merchant Guilds, 1000-1800

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

490 Index

- Rhodian Sea Law 266, 267
- Rich, E. E., Hudson's Bay Company 327
- Riga merchant guild, and staple rights 69
- rogadia* contract 334
- rôles d'Oléron* 266
- Rondana, Pietro, taking of religious oath to merchant guild 11
- Rouen 50
- routes and destinations, and guild rights 46, 50–1
- Royal African Company 35
- inefficient use of information 357, 359
- principal-agent problems 327, 330
- Rucellai, Giovanni 206, 391
- ruler–guild relationship 182–3, 190, 238, 417–18
- absolutist rulers and guild survival 184
- assistance with tax collection 170–1, 174–5, 185
- staple regulations 172–3, 185
- benefits from 160, 162, 163, 166, 189–90
- commercial privileges 186
- differential tax reductions 161, 162, 164–6
- financial support for military and political purposes 163, 178, 180, 185–6
- granting of exclusive rights to trade 162
- loans from merchant guilds 163, 167–8, 175–6, 185–6
- mutual exchange of benefits 162, 238, 248
- demarcation of guild membership 155
- development of alternative revenue sources 188
- effect on economy 190–1
- granting of privileges, effect on security 206
- loans to rulers 132–3, 143, 175–6, 185–6
- military support 231–3, 234–5, 237
- payments to rulers 168, 169
- political domination 180–2
- provision of security
- commercial security 161, 163
- for foreign merchants in return for taxes 238–40
- generalized security 238, 247–8
- particularized security 248–9
- pressure from merchant guilds 194
- segmentation of trade 167
- support from bourgeoisie 180
- delivered through merchant guilds 180–1
- support from nobility 180
- see also* hosting laws; staple rights
- Russia, guild privileges in 47
- Sachs, S. E., St Ives fair 269, 283
- safe-conducts, issuance of 239
- St Gimignano, treaty with Florence 299–300, 301
- St Ives fair, jurisdiction at 259, 260, 266, 267, 269, 298, 303
- formality of reprisal system 273–4, 283
- St Omer merchant guild
- importance of social gatherings 8
- legal monopolies over long-distance trade 50
- woollen merchants, guild expulsion 112
- Samsonowicz, H., German Hanse 356
- Sanudo, Marino 206, 391
- Savary, Jacques, merchant manual 337
- Scandinavia, participation in international trade 201
- scavage 173–4
- Schechter, R., price stability 392
- Schleswig law code, and tax collection 171
- schola* 21
- scriba* system 294
- security
- and merchant guilds 15–16, 432–3
- problems of provision as public good 192
- see also* commercial security; ruler–guild relationship
- Selzer, S., German Hanse
- and cartels 157
- and closure to outside information 362
- and efficiency theory 416
- importance of drinking societies 9
- principal-agent problems 317, 319, 320
- social networking and information 352
- Seville, citizenship of 54
- Seville consulado, use of front men 143–4
- shipping, denial of access to 124–5
- Sicily, tax adjustments by king 166
- Skåne fairs
- jurisdiction in 259
- monopoly of German Hanse 144–5, 149
- Scania Law 257, 262
- shared compounds in 109
- Skeppsbron Nobility, and endogamy 11
- Skyllitzes, John, monopolistic grain-exchange 407

- Slavic Europe, participation in international trade 201
- Smith, Adam
 merchant companies and barriers to entry 114 merchant companies' privileges 229
 merchant guilds 88, 89
- Smith, W. D.
 German Hanse 349
 information meeting places 366
 social capital 427
 economic role of 6, 17, 427, 432–3 generation by merchant guilds 427
 and economic development 6–12, 13
 and information 347, 348
 norms 427
 public good characteristics 427
- social strata, desiring to participate in trade, and decline of merchant guilds 188
- societas* contract 94, 334
- Spain
 formation of merchant guilds 24
 staple rights 70
 town citizenship in 54
- Spanish consulados 95
 complaints against 130, 132
 conflict over monopolies 137
 financial support for military activities 178 imposition of entry conditions 114
 inefficient use of information 357
 loans to rulers 185
 lobbying by 133–4
 and piracy 222
 restriction of supply by 122 and Spanish American trade 184
- spice trade 401–2
- spies, use of merchants as 374–5, 379
- Spruyt, H.
 bandwidth hypothesis 351
 German Hanse 320
 price collusion 116–17
 tax collection 171
- Stabel, P.
 Flemish merchant guilds 161
 information provision by guilds 345 reliance of guilds on Bruges authorities 210
- staple rights 67–8, 70–1
 and alien merchant guilds 68–9
 blocking of non-guild-members 69 and tax collection 71
- state courts
 at Champagne fairs 301–2
 contract enforcement 314
 in England 302
 in Italy 301
 in Jerusalem 301
 in Northern Europe 302
- Steensgaard, N., merchant companies and information 349, 403
 and price stability 392
- Stein, W., Bruges restrictions on foreign merchants 214
- Steinchen, Hans 126
- Stendal merchant guild 8
- Stiglitz, J. E. guilds and social capital in transition economies 7
 price stabilization 395
- Stockholm, composition of guilds in 23
- Strohmeir, Ulman, merchant handbook 377
- supply, restriction of
 by alien merchant guilds 119–20, 121–2, 127–9
 black-market trade 64, 121 competition from non-Hanseatic merchants 120 complaints about Dutch East India Company 131 complaints about merchant companies 130–1 enforcement of 64
 by merchant guilds 63–5 and product quality 121
 and transaction costs 120
- Sweden 36, 71
- Tai, E. S. community responsibility system 284
 piracy 218
 reprisal system 219
 tally-sticks 290, 291
- taxation collection costs 162
 differentiation among guilds 165–6 reduction of 161, 164–5
 by rulers 238–40
 in Flanders 243
 of foreign merchants 240–1 help from alien merchant guilds 173–4 help from local merchant guilds 171
 and security 193
see also ruler–guild relationship

492 Index

- Teutonic Order 58
 textile trade
 entry barriers 61
 export monopolies 49–50
 French annexation of Champagne 241, 242
 inter-guild conflict 83
 monopolies in proto-industrial sector 50
 Thorout fair, safe-conduct at 239
 Tiel merchant guild 8
 Tracy, J. D.
 European vs Asian merchants 194
 international trade 198
 transaction types, and guild rights 46–8 transport costs, and guild monopolies 98
 Transylvania, guild privileges 47
 Treaty of Jaroslav 277 Trip, Elias and Pieter 398–9
 trust, and social capital 427 emergence of impersonal markets 432–3 and kinship 286–7
 particularized vs generalized 428–33 universitas, as a type of hanse 94
 urban centres assembly places within cities 366–8 as information clearing houses 365–6
 merchant preference for 366
 urban foundations, and local merchant guilds 22
 urban systems, and decline of merchant guilds 187
 Utrecht, tax reductions for merchants 165
 Valderrama, Diego González 221
 Van der Kooy, T. P. market participation 410
 staple market 396, 397–8
 Van der Molen partnership 332
 Van der Woude, A., Dutch East India Company 328
 Van Linschoten, Jan, travel journals 378
 Veckinchusen, Hildebrand, business correspondence of 373
 Veluwenkamp, J. W., and Trip Brothers 398–9 Venetian alien merchant guilds 101 associate membership of 109–10, 111
 complaints against 132
 contract enforcement 269
 control by home government 233 and embargoes 149, 150
 enforcement of privileges 139–40
 evidence of legal monopolies 102–3
 lobbying by 132–3
 price collusion 117
 price-fixing 123
 purchase of exemptions 142
 supply limitation 121 support from home government 232–3, 240 Venetian merchants conflict with local merchant guilds abroad 134, 225 conflict with Valencian merchant guilds 221 employment of corsairs 221
 fraterne 331
 intelligence gathering 382
 loans to rulers 176–7, 178, 179
 record-keeping 339
 tax collection by 173
 taxation of 166, 169
 use of law-courts 340 Venice 53–4, 70, 368
 and alien merchant guilds 171
 brokers' guilds 72
 commercial news bureau in 377
 Fondaco dei Tedeschi 74
 investment limits on alien merchants 74
 Viennese merchant guilds and staple rights 69
 Ville, S. P.
 Hudson's Bay Company 358
 principal-agent problems 326, 329
 violence
 and alien merchant guilds 124, 129
 towards non-guilded traders 353 see also piracy Volckart, O.
 efficiency of elder merchant guilds 195, 206, 391, 416
 local courts 304
 voluntary associations, and merchant guilds 44 Walsingham, use of merchant as spy 375 war finances, and loans from foreign merchants 177 wares, types of, and guild rights 46, 48 exported goods 48–50 warfare and commercial insecurity 227–8
 and guild monopolies 98
 Watson, I. B., English East India Company 327

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-74792-9 - Institutions and European Trade: Merchant Guilds, 1000-1800

Sheilagh Ogilvie

Index

More information

Index

493

- weavers' guilds, and price-capping 65–6
- Weingast, B.
 barriers to entry imposed by guilds 107
 Bruges embargo by Hanse 214
 contract enforcement 300, 304
 efficiency theory of merchant guilds 194–5, 206, 213, 391, 415
 guild courts 252, 258
 openness of German Hanse 107
 ruler–guild relationship 161
- welfare effect of income volatility on 393 effect of monopolies on 396, 401, 407–8
- Westranse, Egghard 262, 263
- wics* 239
- wool trade
 complaints about monopoly power of guilds 76
 decline of small-scale merchants 146, 147
- export rights 48–9 and staple 68–9, 146
 transaction costs 146–7
- writs of reprisal 219
 destructive effects of 276, 283–4
- written records 290, 291–3, 338–9, 372
 certification and deposit services 293–6 legal status in Muslim societies 292 and municipal offices 293, 295–6, 339 see also notarial system; scriba system
- Wubs-Mrozewicz, J.
 Hanseatic merchants in Bergen 145 monopoly and effect on markets 145
- Württemberg, restrictions on community citizenship 55
- Yarmouth, citizenship of 56
- York 51, 56
- Zaccaria, Benedetto, acts of piracy
 220