Global Connections

VOLUME II

The first textbook to present world history via social history, drawing on social science methods and research. This interdisciplinary, comprehensive, and comparative textbook is authored by distinguished scholars and experienced teachers, and offers expert scholarship on global history that is ideal for undergraduate students. Volume II takes us from the early modern period to speculation about the world in 2050, visiting diverse civilizations, nation-states, ecologies, and people along the journey through time and place. The book pays particular attention to the ways in which ordinary people lived through the great changes of their times, and how everyday experience connects to great political events and the commercial exchanges of an interconnected world. With 70 maps, 80 illustrations, timelines, boxes, and primary source extracts, the book enables students to use historical material and social science methodologies to analyze the events of the past, present, and future.

JOHN COATSWORTH is Professor of History and of International and Public Affairs, and Provost at Columbia University.

JUAN COLE is Richard P. Mitchell Collegiate Professor of History at the University of Michigan.

MICHAEL P. HANAGAN is Visiting Scholar, Vassar College.

PETER C. PERDUE is Professor of History at Yale University.

The late CHARLES TILLY was formerly the Joseph L. Battenwieser Professor of Social Science at Columbia University.

LOUISE TILLY is Emeritus Professor, New School University.
