

Index

- accommodation 22–23, 100
- accommodationist preferences 114, 115
- Adorno, Theodor 152
- affirmative action 87
- Anglo-American model 147
- apology
 - and official repudiation 193
 - distinguished from official repudiation 193
- appraisal of other societies 142
- assisted living 72, 96
- authority
 - and compliance with the law
 - 100–102, 105
 - de facto 100
 - legitimacy of 100, 103, 104, 175
 - of managers 181
- autonomy
 - and cultural change 185, 189
 - political 118, 125, 149, 175, 180, 182
- bargaining 53, 105–106
- basic structure 114–116, 125, 127, 171
 - ideal form of as basis for moral criticism 171
- beauty 45
- bias 13, 21
- Blackburn, Simon 66
- blame 161
- Boghossian, Paul 136
- Boyd, Richard 31
- Brandom, Robert 39
- Brenner, Robert 127
- burdens of judgment 20–21, 25, 81
 - and perspectives on reasons 25–26
- capitalism 112–113
- Chang, Ruth 59
- Christensen, David 14
- Christianity, conversion to 185–186
- claims 56–57, 71, 85
- codes of honor 190
- cognitive limitations, human 76
- cognitivism 65–66
- cohabitation 110
- Cohen, G. A. 88
- Cohen, Joshua 114
- collective agents 183
 - and apology 192–193
- Collingwood, R. G. 42
- communist dictatorship 116
- concepts
 - alteration through deliberation 108
 - and philosophical theories 93–94
 - as form to motivational matter 109, 136, 142, 154, 163, 167
 - descriptive 39
 - evaluative 44, 45
 - moral 38, 129, 160
 - normative and evaluative, see concepts, evaluative and concepts, moral
 - normative and evaluative, epistemic access to in the past 163
 - possession of 38, 81–84
 - religious 117, 149
 - similarity of 83–84
 - stretching of 110
- conceptual change 84, 115, 146, 164
 - and non-argumentative force 111, 116, 136, 139, 146, 151, 155
- conceptual-cum-social process 115, 116, 117, 121, 126, 134–135, 151, 171, 178
 - and struggle 121–122
- concession 19–20, 54
 - higher-order 19
- constructivism 27–28, 61–62
- conventions 132, 133–134
- cooperation 52, 69
 - and economic structure 156, 178
- cosmopolitan 157
 - in border lands 140
- coordination proposals 98
- cultural deprivation 185

Index

201

- Danto, Arthur 166
 deconstruction 153
 deliberation, shared 71, 73, 80–81, 95, 106–108, 111, 112, 117, 146
 deliberative democracy 2–3 democracy, liberal 147–153, 154–155
 Derrida, Jacques 153
 despotism 148, 150–151, 155, 179
 and the conquest of the Americas 186
 as checked by democracy 154 difference principle 90, 91
 disagreement 70
 about justice or fairness 21–22
 about normative and evaluative questions 18 and argument 70–71
 as morally required 17, 18
 as reason to change one's mind 15
 as reason to reconsider 69
 as reason to suppose a mistake 15 distinguished from practical conflict 26, 37
 religious 68
 discrimination 99, 126
 as unfair 87
 dispositions
 cooperative 51–52
 extrapolative 74, 107, 110
 extrapolative, catching of 43
 motivational 46, 80
 motivational, absence of 63–64
 motivational, as matter to conceptual form 109, 142, 154, 167 to make or seek concessions 51, 52–53, 63, 75, 84–85, 108, 179 divine corporation 117, 170
 dominance 113, 121, 125, 130, 171, 173–174
 and democracy 113
 and immigration 138–139
 and sexual hierarchy 181
 narration of reversal of 174 reversal of 172, 173–174

 economic structure 178
 empirical fact questions of 10, 13, 125
 epistemic peers 13
 equality 89
 evidence conclusive 13, 14
 first-order 15
 inconclusiveness of 10–11
 expertise
 and fallibility 13
 and intuition 11, 12
 in social sciences 12
 expressivism 65–66

 fairness
 and burden of living with perceived moral error 103, 116
 as a kind of choiceworthiness 55–56
 as a moral universal 143
 broad 86, 92, 105, 143
 concept of 55
 contrasted with unfairness 55 impossibility of an ahistorical principle of 54 narrow 71, 85, 91, 104, 143 sense of 53–54, 55, 75, 80, 91, 96, 134, 137, 143, 159
 see also reasonableness as fairness fatalism 149, 151, 152
 feminism 170
 Fodor, Jerry 38, 43, 83
 Foucault, Michel 178
 Frankfurt School 151, 152
 Frege–Geach problem 66

 Geuss, Raymond 152
 Gibbard, Allan 66
 globalization 155–156
 Goodin, Robert 22
 good-judgments 44
 Goodman, Nelson 4, 36, 50, 118
 Gutmann, Amy and Dennis Thompson 22, 23

 Habermas, Jürgen 2, 25, 34–35, 77, 111, 152
 Harman, Gilbert 131
 Hegel, G. W. F. 164
 hierarchy 143, 168, 170, 171, 172
 and intrasocietal communication 179
 and ownership of productive property 180–181
 as an ideal 174, 179, 182
 characterized 174–175
 sexual 181–182
 history modern conception of 168
 philosophy of 3
 Hobbes, Thomas 186, 187
 Horgan, Terry and Mark Timmons 43, 66
 Hurley, S. L. 32, 82

 idolatry 186
 indoctrination 148, 151
 inference to the best explanation 164 injustice, present and past 183–184

 judgment
 history of 75, 77, 81, 84, 114, 157, 162, 170
 power of 44, 49, 107, 109, 126, 135 judgments
 all-things-considered 50, 58–59, 80–81
 as shaping motivation 50

202 judgments (cont.)

 correctness of 61
 of fairness 57, 63
 moral, see moral judgments justice
 as luck neutralization 88
 global 157
 political 19
 theories of 72

 Kant, Immanuel 52
 Kelly, Thomas 14
 Korsgaard, Christine 41
 Kripke, Saul 39

 Larmore, Charles 1
 literary skill 76
 localism 131
 and the past 159, 168
 distinguished from relativism 133–136
 Locke, John 123
 lottery 104

 Mackie, J. L. 27
 many-sidedness 120
 Marx, Karl 178
 McDowell, John 47, 48
 meta-ethics 3
 characterized 26
 relation to reasonable disagreement of 27 method of majority rule 104, 106, 151
 Mill, John Stuart 46, 108, 119, 127
 Millikan, Ruth Garrett 41
 Moody-Adams, Michelle 131, 172
 Moore, G. E. 30
 moral appraisal of the past, two approaches to 164, 173–174
 moral judgments 27
 about possibilities 65
 as target setting 32–33, 34, 37
 of political morality 33, 57
 motivational content of 63
 universal validity of 123 moral myopia 30
 moral nominalism 4, 27, 35–36, 60, 61, 68, 77, 114, 122, 129
 and judgments of alien social systems 142, 144
 and timeless moral truths 161, 176
 contrasted with debunking theories 178
 contrasted with parametric universalism 176 moral normativity
 as equated with the zone of reasonable disagreement 127
 as possessing a history 128, 129, 135, 159–161, 167–168, 171

Index

European 186–187, 188–189
 evolution of 122–123, 127–128, 162–163 evolution of as a non-logical process 172 evolution of as part of the general historical process 128, 165, 167 indigenous 188, 189–190
 moral properties, as identical with non-moral properties 31
 moral rationalism 29
 moral realism
 and agreement 70
 and evolution of moral thinking 122, 160, 173
 as unable to provide for inconclusive evidence 28, 29 distinguished from constructivism 27, 61–62
 naturalistic 30–32
 naturalistic vs. non-naturalistic 28
 non-naturalistic 28–30
 moral reasons 35
 Humean theory of 31
 moral thinking, evolution of 122
 morally important social values 35, 85–86
 motivation
 cooperative 136
 kinds of 47
 rational 49, 57, 62–63
 mullahs 149

 Nagel, Thomas 42, 177
 narratives
 and periodization 166
 historical 165–167
 minimalist 166
 national defense 86
 need, concept of 72
 nominalism
 descriptive 43–44
 moral, see moral nominalism normativity normative power 177–178
 normative questions and ought-questions 31 normative reasons, Humean theory of 31–32

 one-sidedness 120
 ought-judgments 45
 as recording logical facts 34
 Harman's two kinds 131–132, 145, 169

 parametric universalism 175–177
 path dependence 107
 patriarchy 181
 Patterson, Orlando 124
 personal identity 184
 Pettit, Philip 16, 42, 130, 192
 philosophers 94–95

- philosophical theories of the good polity
 - 93–94, 96
- Plantinga, Alvin 38
- political association 98
- political morality 51, 60, 135
 - as morality of authority and property 123, 180, 181
 - future conceptions of 148, 153–154
 - past conceptions of 161
 - requirements of as a priori 123, 124, 143
 - scope of 162
- political speech, freedom of 119, 122
- post-colonialism 153, 156
- post-modernism 163, 165
- power 118
- pragmatic procedure for changing minds 109–111
 - and non-argumentative force 111
- principles, general 79
- proper functioning 38–39, 40–43, 159, 176
 - and reconsideration 69
 - as non-natural attribute 67
 - construed realistically 40, 129, 159, 178
 - fallibility of awareness of 41
 - linguistic 48, 63
 - skepticism concerning 115
 - social dimension of 42–43
- property 123, 180
- proxies 144–145, 169–170
- public good, the 85, 86, 124, 125
- Putnam, Hilary 130

- quasi-realism 66
- Quine, Willard Van Orman 39

- Rawls, John 20, 21–22, 81, 90, 94, 112
- rationality 42, 177
- reality effect 166
- reason 157
 - see also* rationality
- reasonable disagreement
 - about compensation for past wrongs 190–191
 - about economic questions 10–11
 - about historical questions 167
 - about narrow and broad fairness 92
 - about questions of political morality 33, 63, 77
 - about relative weight of reasons 81
 - among experts 9, 10, 148
 - and burden of living with perceived moral error 103–104
 - and inconclusive evidence 10
 - and interpretation of concepts 79
 - and mutual misunderstanding 83
 - and the whole moral truth 120
 - as explained by moral nominalism 77, 81
 - as grounded in different histories of judgment 12, 21, 133, 157
 - as grounded in employment of different terms 80
 - as grounded in the possession of different concepts 137–138
 - as presupposing mutual understanding 137–138, 146, 157
 - as replacing relativism 141
 - as requiring a non-realist meta-ethics 32
 - as revealed by history of a dispute 25–26, 103, 120
 - as surviving shared deliberation 77–79, 92, 112
 - assumed to exist 6
 - between philosophers and non-philosophers 95
 - difficulty of providing examples of 9
 - distinguished from “unreasonable” disagreement 37–38
 - in the moral evaluation of the past 170
 - marks of 2, 7, 9, 25–26, 68, 92, 98
 - resolution of 99–100, 103–104, 105
 - second-order 147, 150, see also concessions, higher-order
 - tasks of an account of 8–9
 - why problematic 7–9
 - zone of, see zone of reasonable disagreement
- reasonable rejection 24
 - as presupposing understanding 137–138, 146, 157
- reasonableness
 - and concession 19–20, 53
 - and questions of empirical fact 125
 - as competence 8, 18–19
 - as fairness 19–20, 23, 53, 147
 - as a mental capacity 20
 - on the part of immigrants 139
 - two senses of 3–4, 18–20, 57
- reasoning
 - and weighing claims 20
 - by analogy 72, 77, 94, 96
 - in good faith 1
 - with general principles 79
- reasons, relative strength of 58–59, 174
- rectification
 - and inheritance of claims 188–190
 - of inherited injustice 191
 - natural 184
 - two forms of 183–184
- reenactment 42, 55, 57, 162
- reflective equilibrium 94, 96
- reflective understanding 151, 171
- relativism
 - cultural 131
 - moral 5, 129–130
 - of distance 141
- relevant similarity 40, 73
 - in evaluative judgments 46–47

204 reparations 182–184

 republicanism 154
 Richardson, Henry 22
 right, world of 51, 60
 Roman Empire 140
 Rorty, Richard 76
 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 177

 Scanlon, T. M. 4, 24, 45, 51, 53, 175
 Schneewind, J. B. 117
 serfdom 127
 Shafer-Landau, Russ 27, 30, 61
Sharia law 138
 Skinner, Quentin 162
 slavery 123–125, 133, 135
 and autonomy 182
 as necessarily unfair 124, 142–143, 161
 general acceptance of 125
 reparations for 183–184
 Smith, Michael 37, 41
 social organization 178
 social prosperity 87–88, 89
 socialism 112–113
 Spanish Inquisition 187
 state, defined 125, 140
 Sturgeon, Nicholas 31
 Sunstein, Cass 23
 supervenience 28, 67
 and multiple realizability 67

Index

target setting, see judgments, moral, as target setting taste, cultivation of 48
 testimony 163
 truth, moral 61–62
 equated with zone of reasonable
 disagreement 120
 parts of 120

 unreasonableness 23, 126–128, 149, 168, 179

 Van Rooijen, Mark 64

 Waldron, Jeremy 21
 Wedgwood, Ralph 82
 Wilde, Oscar 80, 137
 Williams, Bernard 36, 124, 141, 143, 148, 150, 151, 161, 166, 171
 Wittgenstein, Ludwig 38
 worlds
 evaluative 50, 60
 moral 58, 60, 62, 63, 118, 157, 158, 160, 163–164
 social, of the past 164

 Young, Robert 153

 zone of reasonable disagreement 37, 94–95, 103, 116, 128, 140, 179
 as core of wider disagreement 78
 understood counterfactually 93, 95, 98, 128, 134, 137, 148