

Contents

Introduction	page 1
1 The structure of reasonable disagreement	7
The problem	7
Disagreement about matters of empirical fact	9
Disagreement among epistemic peers	13
Reasonable disagreement and political morality	18
Moral realism and reasonable political disagreement	26
2 Moral nominalism	34
Williams’s subjectivism	36
Descriptive judgment	38
Evaluative judgment	44
Moral judgment	51
Meta-ethical details	60
3 Agreement and disagreement	68
The pressure to agree	69
Deliberation and disagreement	70
Conceptual identity	81
Broad fairness	84
The zone of reasonable disagreement	92
4 The resolution of reasonable disagreement	98
Authority and democracy	99
Changing minds	106
Dominance	112
Mill on partial truth	118
The evolution of moral normativity	122
5 Localism	129
Relativism and localism	131
Borders and migration	136

viii	Contents
	Appraisal without contact	141
	Western and non-Western	146
	The future of political morality	153
6	Morality and history	159
	Historical knowledge	162
	Judging the past	168
	Hierarchy	174
	Rectifying past wrongs	182
	Apology	192
	Conclusion	194
	Works cited	195
	Index	200