

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

- 9/11 attacks
 - anticipatory self-defence, and 250–1, 305–42
 - carrying out of 305–6
 - changes in approach to non-State actors prior to ix, 419–33
 - compared to Pearl Harbour attack 250
 - customary law and practice following ix, 447–72
 - effect on international law and practice ix, 2–3, 433–47
 - endorsement of necessary measures 78
 - international support for US response 306
 - preventive justification for responses 104
 - revised security strategies following ix, 443–7
 - UNSC resolutions ix, 433–43
 - US and UK investigation 434–5
 - US NSS, and see National Security Strategy (NSS)
 - US reaction as 'instant custom' 2
- 'abstract' evidence, meaning 511
- 'accumulation of events' doctrine
 - application 168–9
 - colonialism, issues of 171
 - de minimis* threshold, and 4–5, 115, 116
 - Dinstein's classification, and 182
 - disproportionate response to attacks 170–1
 - evidence for 174–5
 - frequent use of 171–2
 - ICJ support for 173–4
 - inevitability of response to attacks 170
 - overview viii, 168–75
 - proportionality, and 175
 - purpose 115, 116
 - relevance to armed attack 177
 - self-determination, issues of 171
 - support for 169–70, 523
- Act of Chapultepec 1945
 - accordance with UN Charter 62
 - implementation 84
- actions by States see exceptional measures
- Afghanistan
 - intervention in
 - attacks on Al Qaeda see Al Qaeda, attacks on
 - legal weight of international approval 35, 38
 - maritime interdiction operation 121
 - operations by Russia and Tajikistan 428
 - proportionality 120–1
 - support for 117
 - Taleban, operations against see Al Qaeda, attacks on
 - tension with Pakistan
 - Afghan and US claims 471–2
 - background 471–2
 - Pakistani claims 472
- African Union
 - Non-Aggression and Common Defence Pact, definition of aggression 446
 - Rwandan operations against Hutu insurgents, and 467

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

552

INDEX

- aggression see also Definition of Aggression 1974; indirect aggression armed attack, relation to viii, 67–8, 127–39
 crime of, ICC jurisdiction 547 defining relationship to armed attack 127–8 definition
 African Union 446
 detachment from self-defence 536–7 drafting of UN Charter, in 129 pre-Charter concepts 128–9 presumption of 160 prohibited goals 158–9 prohibition as ius cogens 26–7 rebuttal of presumption 160
 UN Charter definitions 130–1
 UN Charter terminology 127 aggressive intention see animus aggressionis
- aircraft
 civil aircraft see civil aircraft military aircraft see military aircraft
- aircraft incursions animus aggressionis, and 192–3 graduated response to trespass by 191–2 private aircraft 198–9 proportionality of response 193–4
 ROEs as to 191–2
- Al Qaeda, attacks by, control of 501–2 see also 9/11 attacks
- Al Qaeda, attacks on academic analysis 437–9
 application of Shultz doctrine 426 chronology ix, 433–7 clarity of legal basis 439 contrast with previous custom 441–2 cooperation from Yemen 377 delayed launch of 101 differing interpretations 442–3 example of distinction of self-defence within and against a State, as 495–6 instant custom, as ix, 437–43, 530 international response ix, 117, 306, 426–7, 433–7, 435–6, 439–40 justification for 202, 377 launch of 'Enduring Freedom' 435–6 link between Al Qaeda and Taleban 440–1 precedential value ix, 437–43 protection of nationals, as 225–6 unique exception, as ix, 437–43
 UNSC resolutions 433–4
 US ultimatum to Taleban 435
- Albania, evacuation of foreign nationals 231
- Algeria
 intervention in Iraq, and 317
 rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
- Angola, alleged support for SWAPO 401
- animus aggressionis*
 constituent element of armed attack, as 177, 522
 de Brouckère Report as to 166–8 Definition of Aggression 1974, and 158
 first debates 158 hostile intent, and see hostile intent lack of hostile intent 165
 military aircraft 192–3 motives or purposes of use of force, and 160–1
 need for mens rea 158
Nicaragua judgment 161–2
Oil Platforms judgment 162–3
 overview viii, 158–68
 priority (first use) principle, and 158 small-scale attacks, and 166–8, 192–3 subjective element 163–5
- Annan, Kofi
 highlights dangers of anticipatory use of force 327–8
 'In Larger Freedom' Report see 'In Larger Freedom' Report sets up High-Level Panel 327
- anticipatory self-defence academic support 263–4, 331–6 alternative measures 261–2 analysis of content of States' statements on 334–6

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

553

- arguments in favour
 - continuance of customary right 255–6
 - greater threat from modern military capability 257
 - overview viii, 255–7
 - scope of analysis 255
 - subsidiary arguments 256–7
- arguments opposing
 - avoidance of military escalation, need for 262
 - Caroline* incident irrelevant 258–9
 - impact of Article 51 259
 - no customary right 260–1
 - overview viii, 258–62
 - weakness of subsidiary arguments for pre-existing custom 261
 - whether anticipatory self-defence desirable 261–2
- Article 51, and 259
- assessment of claims 261
- balance of majority and minority opinion 338–41
- calls for clarification of issue of 303
- Caroline* incident, and see Caroline incident
- categories 252
- content of chapter 251
- continuing controversy 250
- customary law and practice
 - evidence in specific incidents viii, 267–94
 - lack of precedent 293–4
- customary right
 - continuance of 255–6
 - limitations 255–6
- development of doctrine post-1945 viii, 255–305
- difference of views 267
- difficulty of assessing necessity and proportionality 279–80
- doctrinal debate viii, 255
- effect of 9/11 250–1, 526
- extent of doctrinal divide viii, 263–7
- further attacks viii, 342–3
- gap between opinio iuris and practice 526–7
- ICJ's approach viii, 262–3
- imminent attacks see imminent attacks
- increased support for 336
- lack of concrete precedent 250
- necessity standard, and 4–5
- non-imminent attacks see non-imminent attacks
- nuclear weapons, and 257, 527–8
- prevention of further attacks 290–1
- reactive self-defence distinguished 251–2
- scope of analysis viii, 250–4
- State's statements as opinio iuris 334
- summary of pre-9/11 legal doctrine 525
- terminology
 - application to Pearl Harbour attack 254
 - importance of correct usage 254
 - issues 251–3
 - time frame 253–4
- US NSS, and see anticipatory self-defence
- Webster formula see Webster formula
- Argentina
 - Belgian intervention in the Congo, and 218–20, 241, 244–5
 - Falklands War see Falklands War
 - ILC Draft Articles on State Responsibility, and 304–5
 - Israeli intervention in Lebanon, and 115, 116
 - policy for submarine incidents 196
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 339
- armed attack
 - accumulation of events see 'accumulation of events' doctrine
 - aggression, and see aggression
 - animus aggressionis see animus aggressionis*
 - consistency of ingredients over time 175–7
 - context, role of 175–7
 - Corten's criteria 185–6

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

554

INDEX

armed attack (cont.)

de minimis threshold see de minimis thresholddefinition see definition of armed attack different interpretations 378 elements ix, 480–1, 520–4 error or accident, resulting from 166–8 factors for existence of viii, 139–84 future for armed attack criterion overview ix, 511–50

scope of analysis 511

hostile intent see hostile intent integral part of Article 51, as vii, 53–68

mens rea see animus aggressionis necessity, and see necessity standard objective element as essence 175–7 other forcible acts not self-defence distinguished 139 panoply of scenarios viii, 175–84 personnel aspect see personnel aspect of armed attack requirement (ratione personae) perspectives on meaning of requirement 3 proportionality, and see

proportionality standard

small-scale attacks see small-scale attacksthreshold level see de minimis thresholdtiming aspect see timing aspect of armed attack requirement (ratione temporis)types of act aspect see types of act aspect of armed attack requirement (ratione materiae)

UN Charter terminology 127

armed bands see non-State actors armed force, meaning of force restricted to 55–6 armed reprisals, self-defence distinguished 183

Article 2(4) UN Charter

Article 51, and 1, 58–60, 516–17

challenges to determinacy of 4

customary status 16, 17–8

effect on previous customary law 9

general nature of 22 inclusion in other instruments 15–6

ius cogens, as 26–7

modification 27–8

peremptory norm, as 25

supplementary provisions 57

Article 51 UN Charter vii, 83–91

adherence pre-9/11 1–2

anticipatory self-defence, and 259

armed attack confirmed as integral 67 armed attack requirement as integral vii, 53–68

Article 2(4), and 1, 58–60, 516–17

challenges to determinacy of 4 collective self-defence, and see collective self-defence

continued sufficiency 2–3 controversy over scope 1 customary law and practice as primary material for interpreting 511 customary right, and 1, 4

customary status 9, 18–9

determinacy 535

disagreement, sources of 514–15, 535–6 drafting of 260

effect on previous customary law 9

imminent threats, and 526–7

inclusion in other instruments 15–6 inherent right of self-defence, and see inherent right of self-defence interpretation

absurd results from literal 260

primary sources vii, 55–60

UN Charter drafting documents vii, 60–8

ius cogens, as 26–7

location in Charter, interpretative significance 63–4

modification 27–8

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

555

- non-State actors, as to 404–5
- pre-existing custom, and ix, 514–17
- 'primary law', as 490
- protection of substantive rights 58–9
- raison d'être* 62–8
- relationship to other rules ix, 514–17
- reporting obligation see reporting obligation
- 'secondary' law, as 490
- study limitations ix, 511–14
- text 57–8
- 'until clause' see 'until clause'
- assistance, right to request 87–91
- Australia
 - amendment to Article 2(4) 57
 - Australian national pursued by German police into France 191
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 296, 393
 - dominance of 'counter-restrictionist' views 325
 - Friendly Relations Declaration 1970, and 391–2
 - intervention in Iraq, and 314–15
 - Israeli airstrike on Tunis, and 424
 - NEO doctrine 246
 - reaction to Bali bombing 330, 444
 - rejection of preventive self-defence 322, 337
 - Suez crisis, and 395
 - US operations against Libya, and 425
- Austria, Definition of Aggression 1974, and 300–2
- 'axis of evil' 310–11
- Bali bombing, reaction to 330, 444
- Bangladesh, rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
- 'Baxter paradox' as to treaty law and customary law 17
- Belarus
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 297–8
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
- Belgium
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 294–6, 300
 - intervention in the Congo 218–20, 381
 - mercenary attack on DRC, and 405–6
- Benin, mercenary attack 405–6
- blockade, use of 276–7
- border incidents see small-scale attacks
- Brazil
 - Suez Canal dispute 1951, and 290
 - termination of nuclear weapons programme 365–7
- Bulgaria, Definition of Aggression 1974, and 299
- burden of evidence
 - attacks by non-State actors 505–6, 509–10
 - clarification of standard 546
 - interceptive and pre-emptive self-defence 265–6
 - prevention of further attacks 518–19
- Burkina Faso, border tensions 429
- Burundi, Tanzania dispute 429
- Bush, George see also 'Bush doctrine'
 - assassination attempt 202–3, 414, 533
 - 'axis of evil' speech 310–11
 - case against Iraq 310–11
 - 'Bush doctrine' see also National Security Strategy (NSS)
 - assertion as 'instant custom' 2
 - essence 308–9
 - exposition of 306
 - rebuttal of 317–18
 - similar statements by other States 330–1, 333–4
- Cambodia
 - border incidents 156
 - evacuation by Thailand 232
 - Mayaguez* incident 211, 224–5
- Cameroon, dispute with Nigeria 173–4
- Canada
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 151, 160
 - drafting of Article 51, and 64

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

556

INDEX

- Canada (cont.)
 - NEO doctrine 245–6
 - rejection of preventive self-defence 322
- Caroline* incident see also Webster
 - formula
 - background 255–6
 - example of anticipatory self-defence, as 258–9
 - necessity and proportionality, and see necessity standard; proportionality standard
 - proof of continuing right of anticipatory self-defence, as 10–11, 258–9, 515
- case law see International Court of Justice (ICJ); opinio iuris
- Chechen rebels, Russian self-defence claims 444–5
- Chile
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 294–6
 - Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285–6
- China
 - border incidents 156
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 295–6
 - destruction of Belgrade embassy 165
 - intervention in Iraq, and 312, 313
 - protection of nationals, and 237–8
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
 - submarine incident in Japanese waters 196–7
 - Suez crisis, and 395
- civil aircraft
 - Definition of Aggression 1974 as to 204–5
 - external manifestations of the State, as 204
 - right of self-defence viii, 204–13
 - shooting down of 291
 - used as weapons 199
- civilians as targets of terrorism 498
- collective self-defence
 - Article 51, and 9, 62
 - conceptual difficulties 85–9
 - criteria 83–4
 - customary status, lack of evidence for 84
 - defence of 'self' rather than 'other' 85–9
 - formal request for assistance 89–91
 - mandatory request for assistance 91
 - overview vii, 83–91
 - proximate relationship, need for 85–9
 - right to request assistance 87–91
- colonialism see also decolonization
 - 'accumulation of events' doctrine, and 171
 - illegal occupation of territory, as 403–4
 - legality of use of force
 - opposition to 391–2
 - support for 390–1
 - permanent attack, as 420
- Colombia
 - drafting of Article 51, and 64
 - Operation 'Phoenix'
 - Colombian claims 462
 - Ecuadorian and Venezuelan claims 463
 - OAS response 463–4
 - overview ix, 462–4
 - US response 464
- 'complete dependence' on State of non-State actors 409
- 'computer network attack' (CNA) as armed attack 176–7
- conflict of laws
 - interpretation and modification of treaties, and 23
 - settlement techniques 13–14
 - treaties and peremptory norms 13
 - UN Charter, and 13
- Congo (Belgian)
 - Belgian intervention 218–20, 381
 - US intervention 220
- Congo (DRC)
 - mercenary attack 405–6
 - Rwandan operations see Rwandan operations against Hutu insurgents
 - Uganda dispute see DRC v Uganda

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

557

- Contras see Nicaragua judgment
- Corfu Channel* case
 - anticipatory self-defence, and 262–3
 - UK claims 56
- Corten's criteria of armed attack 185–6
- Costa Rica, rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
- 'counter-restrictionist' views
 - anticipatory self-defence viii, 255–7
 - Article 51 and customary right, as to 514–15
 - dominance 325, 326–7, 329–30, 331–6
 - 'imminence' standard, and 320, 337
 - Nicaragua* judgment 10–11
 - subsidiary arguments 256–7
 - suggested precedents for
 - anticipatory self-defence, 287
 - summary of argument with 'restrictionists' 514–15
- criminals see law enforcement response to attacks
- Cuba
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
 - US intervention in Dominica, and 221
- Cuban missile crisis
 - imminence of threat 271–2
 - overview 267
 - precedent for anticipatory self-defence, as 270–1
 - rejection of preventive self-defence, as 286
 - UNSC debate 268–70
 - US response to Soviet deployment 267–8
- custom
 - balanced approach to quest for, need for vii, 51–2
 - conditions for creating 44
 - dynamic nature of process 34
 - hierarchy with treaty law 12–13
 - identification
 - elements of custom 29–30
 - methodological debate vii, 29–31
 - methodology 30–1
 - problem of 29
 - science of 30
 - pre-existing
 - anticipatory self-defence 261
 - Article 51, and ix, 514–17
 - grounds for claim of continuing validity 11
 - UN Charter, and 30–1
 - quest for vii, 6
 - UN Charter, and see United Nations Charter
 - undisclosed acts 34–5
- customary law and practice
 - absolute consistency of, need for 44, 49
 - 'abstract' evidence, meaning 511
 - analysis as work in progress 514
 - anticipatory self-defence see anticipatory self-defence
 - boundaries
 - overview ix, 511–35
 - scope of research 52, 511
 - 'concrete' custom, meaning 511
 - conflicts see conflict of laws
 - contribution by all State organs 43–4
 - de minimis* threshold, and viii, 149–57
 - density of vii, 44–51
 - derogation see derogation
 - element of custom, as 29–30
 - exceptional measures see exceptional measures
 - extensiveness of 44–7
 - incompatible with UN Charter see United Nations Charter
 - inconsistency see inconsistent conduct
 - inherent right of self-defence as affirming 8
 - legal weight of policy declarations 41–2
 - legal weight of theoretical debates 42–3
 - non-State actors see non-State actors
 - opinio iuris*, and vii, 29–51
 - oral and written statements, importance of 32–4
 - overlap with treaty law 7–8
 - physical acts, importance of 32
 - post-9/11 ix, 447–72

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

558

INDEX

- customary law and practice (cont.)
 - primary material for interpreting Article 51 511
 - protection of overseas nationals see nationals protection of
 - range of verbal practice 43–4
 - source for interpretation, as 2–3, 4
 - source of definition of armed attack, as 8
 - study methodology, in vii, 6
 - time taken for practice to become 47–9
 - treaty interpretation and modification, and see interpretation, treaty law
 - UN Charter, and see United Nations Charter
 - UNGA resolutions as 49–51
 - uniformity of 44
 - UNSC resolutions as 49
- customary right of self-defence see also instant custom
 - Article 51 right, and 1, 4
 - Article 51 right as part 9
 - necessity standard as part of 8
 - proportionality standard as part of 8
- Cyprus
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 344–5, 384–5, 387
 - Larnaca airport operation 229
 - Six Day War, and 279
- Czechoslovakia, Definition of Aggression 1974, and 297–8
- de Brouckère Report 1926 166–8
- de minimis* threshold
 - 'accumulation of events' doctrine, and 4–5, 115, 116, 168–9
 - any armed force requirement 145
 - attacks liable to cause damage reaching 152–3
 - customary law and practice, and viii, 149–57
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and viii, 149–57
 - disagreement over 535–6
 - existence of viii, 139–57
 - ICJ approach viii, 140–3, 407–8
 - indirect aggression 140, 150
 - interim reflections on 146–9
 - less grave uses of force, and 145–6
 - misunderstanding over 520
 - 'most grave' forms of use of force, and viii, 139–57
 - options 145
 - small-scale attack requirement 145
 - study focus 3
 - substantial attack requirement 145
- Declaration on the Enhancement of the Effectiveness of the Principle of Refraining from the Threat or Use of Force 1987, application 17
- declarations of war
 - acts of aggression, as 133, 344–5
 - exception to prohibition of pre-emptive self-defence, as 344–5
 - omission from Definition of Aggression 1974 345–6
- decolonization
 - attacks by non-State actors 528–9
 - completion 420–1
 - end of, changing approach to non-State actors ix, 419–21
 - indirect military aggression and formulation of problem ix, 369–82
 - intersecting norms ix, 369–77
 - overview ix, 369–419
- 'defensive armed reprisals'
 - Dinstein's classification 181–2
 - necessity standard, and 107–8
- Definition of Aggression 1974
 - 'abstract' evidence for interpreting Article 51, as 511
- animus aggressionis*, and 158, 159–60
- anticipatory self-defence
 - arguments against 297–8
 - compromise resolution 298–9
 - early negotiations viii, 294–8
 - final negotiations viii, 298–303
 - opposition to 297
 - overview 299
 - priority (first use) principle see priority (first use) principle
 - support for 296, 299–303

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

559

- application 27
 - circumstantial evidence of scope of
 - permissible self-defence, as 149
 - civil aircraft and shipping, as to
 - 204–6
 - critique 136–7
 - declarations of war see declarations of war
 - first use of force as self-defence 343–4
 - Fourth Special Committee
 - negotiations
 - anticipatory self-defence 298–9
 - awareness of importance of 132
 - convergence of positions 135–6
 - de minimis* threshold 150
 - debate over kind of concept to define 133–4
 - declarations of war 133
 - different opinions 129–30
 - 'first use' principle see priority (first use) principle
 - indirect aggression see indirect aggression below
 - options 134–5
 - overview viii, 129–36
 - priority (first use) principle see priority (first use) principle
 - prohibited goals of aggression 158–9
 - proportionality criterion 133
 - required gravity of acts 133
 - Six-Power proposal 131, 158–9, 383–4
 - Small-scale attacks 155
 - Thirteen-Power proposal 130, 382–3, 384–5
 - USSR proposal 131–2
 - 'gravity', and see gravity of forms of use of force
 - indirect aggression 131–2, 134–5, 135–6, 150
 - agreement on 'manifest' cases 386–7
 - Article 3(g) ix, 382–90
 - compromise 386
 - compromise on scope of Article 51 389–90
 - definition 528
 - Fourth Special Committee debate ix, 382–94
 - inclusion in Definition 125
 - link between State and non-State actors 387–9
 - proposal for separate definition 385–6
 - Six-Power proposal 383–4
 - Thirteen-Power proposal 382–3, 384–5
 - limitations 537
 - military units and installations
 - abroad, as to 200
 - Nicaragua* judgment, and 407–8
 - on-the-spot defensive measures for shipping, regulation of 209
 - presence of forces continuing
 - beyond agreed timescale 343–4
 - protection of nationals viii, 233–5
 - relationship between 'use of force', 'aggression' and 'armed attack', on 149–50
 - relevance 149–50
 - self-determination
 - ambiguity 393–4
 - compromise 393
 - controversy 392–3
 - 'substantial involvement' of States
 - with non-State actors 415
 - use of term 'State' 16
 - usefulness 137–9
 - value viii, 136–9
 - Western powers' approach to
 - project 137
- definition of armed attack
- attainability 538–9
 - Charter negotiations, in 536–7
 - clarification of lawful self-defence 536
 - draft text 541–5
 - existing guidance ix, 539–41
 - need for 536
 - Nicaragua* judgment 8–9
 - objective 538
 - potential conflict areas 539
 - proposal for ix, 535–50
 - source in customary law and practice 8

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

560

INDEX

- Denmark
 - Red Crusader* incident 209
 - US operations against Libya, and 425
- derogation
 - allowability in principle 13
 - from ius cogens 24–6
 - recognition of derogatory regime 38
- determinacy, meaning 4
- Dinstein's classification
 - 'accumulation of events' doctrine, and 182
 - critique 182
 - 'defensive armed reprisals' 181–2
 - definition of material element 521–2
 - hostile intent, and 182
 - 'modalities' of self-defence 181
 - 'on-the-spot' reaction 181
 - separation of categories 184
 - use of category of 'war' 183–4
 - value 182–4
 - 'war' 182
- diplomacy, use of vii, 95–8
- diplomatic envoys
 - external manifestations of the State, as 202–4
 - gravity of attacks on 203–4
 - ILC Draft Articles on protection of 235–9
 - law enforcement response to attacks on 203
- divergent frameworks see use of force (Ius ad Bellum)
- Dominican Republic, US operation 115, 119–22
- Draft Articles on State Responsibility (DASR)
 - anticipatory self-defence, and 303–5
 - attributability of private conduct to State 410
 - confirmation of 'effective control' test 412
 - private conduct in absence or default of official authority 414
 - 'state of necessity', as to 379–82
- DRC v Uganda*
 - accumulation of events 173–4
 - background 468–9
 - comparison of claims 481
 - criteria for self-defence 479–80
 - critique 482–3
 - DRC claims 468–9, 479–80
 - 'due diligence rule', and 375–7
 - duration of action 119–20
 - element of armed attack 480–1
 - escalation of conflict 533–4
 - findings 481–2
 - Friendly Relations Declaration, as to 374
 - Group of Experts reports 534
 - international response 469
 - issue 479
 - overview ix, 479–85
 - proportionality 114, 119
 - reporting obligation 69
 - separate opinions 483–5
 - Ugandan claims 469, 479, 480–1
 - 'due diligence rule'
 - application 374–5, 454
 - obligation of means, as 375–7
 - UNSC resolution 434
 - duration of action and proportionality standard 119–21
- East Germany, Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 286
- Ecuador
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 344, 384–5
 - Operation 'Phoenix', and see Colombia
 - Suez Canal dispute 1951, and 290
 - 'effective control' threshold as to non-State actors 410–13
- Egypt
 - Larnaca operation 229
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
 - sinking of Eilat 194–5, 348–9
 - Six Day War see Six Day War
 - Suez Canal dispute with Israel 1951
 - background 288
 - Egypt's justification 288–9
 - importance of resolution 290
 - overview 288–90
 - UNSC debate 289

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

561

- Suez Canal incident with USA 165
- Suez crisis see Suez crisis
- Eilat*, sinking of 194–5, 348–9
- embassies, attacks on
 - gravity of force 152
 - hostile intent 165
 - large-scale attacks 202
 - overview viii, 201–4
 - protection of nationals doctrine 225–6
 - right of self-defence 201
- 'Enduring Freedom', Operation see Al Qaeda attacks on
- Entebbe operation
 - international response 241, 249
 - legality 98
 - ongoing negotiations 96–7
 - protection of nationals doctrine 226–9
 - range of targets 122
- Eritrea
 - Ethiopia dispute see Ethiopia
 - Sudan dispute 428–9
- escalation of conflict ix, 532–5
- Ethiopia
 - Eritrea dispute
 - critique of findings 179
 - findings 178–9
 - Somalia operation
 - background 469–71
 - Ethiopian claims 469
 - international response 469–71
- European Union (EU)
 - European Security Strategy 330–1, 335
 - Operation 'Enduring Freedom', and 436–7
 - Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 284–5
 - rejection of preventive self-defence 323
 - Rwandan operations against Hutu insurgents, and 467
 - support for US action against terrorism 443–4
 - Turkish operations in Iraq, and 459–60
- exceptional measures
 - evidentiary raw material, as 41
 - evidentiary weight of justification 35–6
 - expressions of acceptance or opposition 38–41
 - influence of undisclosed acts on custom 34–5
 - legal character of justification 36
 - 'meaningful silence' in response to 38
 - reaction of other States 37–41
 - right to take 34–7
 - State's responsibility 34–5
 - treaty law modification as 24
 - UN responses 39–40
- expansionist views see 'counter-restrictionist' views
- external manifestations of the State, attacks against
 - scope of analysis viii, 199–249
 - scope of Article 51 523–4
- failing States, non-State actors and ix, 419–510
- Falklands War
 - delayed response by UK 101–2
 - proportionality 118–19
 - sinking of General Belgrano 122
 - 'until clause', effectiveness of 81
- fedayeen see* Suez crisis
- fishing vessels, attacks on 204–5
- force, meaning 55–7
- France
 - Belgian intervention in the Congo, and 218–20, 241, 244–5
 - contributions to debates 259
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 160, 344–5, 387, 388–9
 - German police pursuit into 191
 - intervention in Iraq, and 312, 313
 - Israeli operations in Lebanon, and 401, 403
 - mercenary attack on Benin, and 405–6
 - NEO doctrine 246
 - non-State actors, and 446
 - operations against Somali pirates 188

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

562

INDEX

- France (cont.)
 protection of neutral vessels 211–12 protection of overseas nationals in Africa viii, 229–30, 233
 rejection of preventive self-defence 336–7 security strategy 330–1, 335–6
 Six Day War, and 277, 278
 Suez Canal dispute 1951, and 289
 Suez crisis see Suez crisis
 Tunisia operation 344, 399
 US operations against Libya, and 425
- Friendly Relations Declaration 1970
 ambiguity as to self-determination and use of force 392
 application 16–17
 non-State actors, as to 372–4
 self-determination, and 390–1
- further attacks
 danger of escalation as to 533 prevention of viii, 342–3, 518–19
- General Belgrano*, sinking of 122
- Georgia, Russian operations 232–3
- Germany
 Albania evacuation (Operation 'Libelle') 231
 non-State actors, and 445
 police pursuit into France 191
 rejection of preventive self-defence 336–7
 revised security strategy 443–4 support for pre-emptive self-defence 331–2
- Ghana
 contributions to debates 272
 Definition of Aggression 1974, and ix, 300, 344–5, 388, 392
 US operations against Libya, and 425
- gravity of forms of use of force see also de minimis threshold;
 proportionality standard
 'accumulation of events' doctrine, and 168–9 consideration of 152
de minimis threshold, and viii, 139–57 diplomatic envoys, attacks on 203–4 distinction of more and less grave forms questioned 143–4 equation with defensive response 110, 111 general relevance of 150, 151 importance for de minimis threshold 151–2 minimal gravity requirement 155, 521–2 non-state actors 499–500
 small-scale attacks see small-scale attacks spontaneous reactions see spontaneous reactions to attacks testing of 118–19
- gravity threshold see de minimis threshold
- Great African War see DRC v Uganda, Rwandan operations against Hutu insurgents
- Greece
 Definition of Aggression 1974, and 294–6
 Israeli airstrike on Tunis, and 424
- Grenada, US operation 120, 222–4
- Guatemala
 Definition of Aggression 1974, and 300–2 fishing boats dispute with Mexico 206, 210–11
- Guinea
 border tensions 429
M/V Saiga case 198–9
- Guinea-Bissau, Senegal dispute 428
- Gulf of Sidra incident
 account of incident 353
 Libyan action 194
 Libyan claims 195
 'unit self-defence', as example of 352
- Harib Fort action
 'accumulation of events' doctrine 170
de minimis threshold 152–3 immediacy criterion 99
 international response 95, 108–9, 114
 UK claims 100–1, 108–9

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

563

- Hezbollah see Lebanon
 High-Level Panel
 non-State actors, and 446–7
 presentation of Report 328–9
 rejection of preventive self-defence 329–30 Report viii, 327–30 setting up 327
 Hostage Convention 1979 protection of nationals 234–5 territorial State obligations 249 hostage rescues viii, 225–9, 248–9 see also Entebbe operation hostage taking as armed attack 201
 'hostile' environment for NEOs 245–6
 hostile intent animus aggressionis, as 160–1 ascertaining of 347
 Dinstein's classification, and 182 examination 189–90 lack of 165 relevance to armed attack 166–8
 ROE, and 166
 territorial incursions 349, 350
 'unit self-defence' against demonstrated 350–1
 'hot pursuit agreements' in response to small-scale attacks 187–9
 'hot pursuit' doctrine
 application 378–9
 support in customary law and practice 515–16
 'hot pursuit' operations 457–8 human rights law and incursions by non-State actors 198–9 humanitarian law incursions by non-State actors 198–9
 protection of nationals 213
 'if an armed attack occurs', interpretation 58–60, 256–7, 260
 'imminence' standard, 'counter-restrictionist' views 320, 337 imminent attacks, pre-emptive self-defence to 524–5 imminent threats
 anticipatory self-defence 252
 customary right of self-defence limited to 255–6 inclusion in Article 51 526–7 nuclear weapons development 360–2 pre-emptive self-defence to 287 imputability to State
 application 371–2, 407, 408–14, 424–5, 490–1 appropriateness of revision 493 claims 424–5, 456–7
 Draft Articles on State Responsibility (DASR) and 490–1 new imputability regime 490–1 revision of standard 491–3
 'In Larger Freedom' Report
 findings 329
 rejection of preventive self-defence 329–30 inconsistent conduct analytical approaches 31 assessment 30–1 evidentiary weight of vii, 31–44 importance of analysis 32 incursions by non-State actors 198–9
 India
 border incidents 156
 Definition of Aggression 1974, and 388
 Goa dispute 118–19
 intervention in Iraq, and 317
 Kashmir dispute 77–8, 80–1, 287–8
 rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
 Six Day War, and 277
 threat of anticipatory action 330, 333–4
 indirect aggression
 criteria for self-defence 479–80
 de minimis threshold 140, 150
 decolonization, and see decolonization
 Definition of Aggression 1974 see Definition of Aggression
 ICJ judgments as to see International Court of Justice (ICJ) inclusion in analysis viii, 126 meaning 370

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

564

INDEX

- indirect aggression (cont.)
 - Nicaragua* judgment see Nicaragua judgment
 - State practice 529
- Indonesia
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 297–8, 388–9
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
- 'Infinite Reach', Operation see Al Qaeda attacks on
- inherent right of self-defence
 - affirming relevance of customary law, as 8
 - debate over 260
 - interpretation 58–60, 64–7
 - Oil Platforms* judgment 200
 - pre-UN Charter 11–12
 - scope 9, 11
 - study limitations 3
 - vesting in States 58–60
- 'innocent passage' by warships, UNCLOS provisions 188–9
- instant custom
 - attacks on Al Qaeda as ix, 437–43, 530
 - 'Bush doctrine' as 2
 - from single UNSC resolution 44, 49
- Institut de Droit International (IDI)
 - resolution on self-defence ix, 325–6, 539–41, 545
- intelligence as basis for action 427–8
- interceptive self-defence
 - academic acceptance 264
 - burden of evidence 265–6
 - compatibility with UN Charter 266–7
 - dividing line with pre-emptive self-defence 265
 - on-the-spot measures viii, 346–67
 - permissibility 527
 - pre-emptive self-defence
 - distinguished 265–7, 347, 524–5
 - strategic level
 - overview viii, 355–67
 - pre-emptive self-defence distinguished 356
 - tactical level
- ascertaining of hostile intent 347
- overview viii, 346–67
- scope of analysis 346–7
- territorial incursions see territorial incursions
- 'unit self-defence' see 'unit self-defence'
- terminological time frame 253
- time frame 265–6
- use of term 253
- International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA)
 - importance of role 362
 - intervention in Iraq, and 312–13
 - Operation 'Orchard', and 363–4
 - Osiraq nuclear reactor, and 281–2
- International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO)
 - investigation of USS Vincennes incident viii, 258–62
 - regulations on interception of civil aircraft 198–9
- International Court of Justice (ICJ)
 - absolute consistency of practice, on need for 44, 49
 - 'accumulation of events' doctrine, and 173–4
 - anticipatory self-defence, and viii, 262–3
 - attributability of private conduct to State, and 409
 - case law as source of interpretation 4, 52
 - clarification of use of force framework 513
 - confirmation of 'effective control' test 412–13
 - Corfu Channel* case see Corfu Channel case
 - critique of approach to de minimis threshold viii, 143–9
 - de minimis* threshold, and viii, 140–3
 - hierarchy of customary law and practice, on 12–13
 - indirect aggression, on 127–8
 - Nicaragua* judgment see Nicaragua judgment
 - non-State actors, and

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

565

- opportunities to pronounce 472–3
- overview ix, 472–85
- Oil Platforms* judgment see Oil Platforms judgment
- Palestinian Wall* see Palestinian Wall advisory opinion
- rejection of preventive self-defence 338
- timing aspects of interpretation, on 21
- USS Vincennes proceedings 258–9
- International Criminal Court (ICC), crime of aggression 547
- International Law Association (ILA) formation of customary law, on 32–3, 44, 48
- treaties as customary rules, on 17–18
- International Law Commission (ILC) animus aggressionis, and 158
- Draft Articles on Diplomatic Protection 235–9
- Draft Articles on State Responsibility see Draft Articles on State Responsibility (DASR)
- interpretation and modification distinguished 22
- ius cogens*, on 27–8
- modification of treaties, on 27–8
- peremptory norms, on 25
- relation between Charter and customary law, on 10
- treaty interpretation, on 20
- interpretation
 - Article 51 see also Article 51 UN Charter
 - conflict of laws, and 23
 - division from modification 23
 - inherent right of self-defence 58–60, 64–7
 - modification distinguished 22
 - role of custom vii, 19–22
 - sliding scale with modification 28–9
 - source materials 4
 - timing aspects see timing aspects of interpretation
- interventions outside scope of study
 - alternative approaches to study, as vii, 6
 - examples 3
- Iran
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 297–8
 - intervention in Iraq, and 317
- Iraq
 - Gulf War 292–3
 - operations against Kurds 432–3
 - negotiations on nuclear weapons programme 365–7
 - Oil Platforms* judgment see Oil Platforms judgment
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
 - shooting down of airliner by US 291
 - 'Tanker War' 206–7
 - threat of anticipatory action 330, 333–4
 - US Embassy occupation see Tehran Embassy case
- Iraq 512
 - 'axis of evil' 310–11
 - intervention in
 - academic analysis
 - extent 318
 - focus 318–19
 - overview 318–27
 - support for self-defence viii, 320–1, 322
 - alternative justifications 33
 - application of Shultz doctrine 424–5
 - commencement of military action 313
 - de minimis* threshold 152–3
 - 'defensive armed reprisals' 107–8
 - distinction of political and legal arguments 314–16
 - events leading to viii, 310–13
 - immediacy 101
 - international response viii, 314–18, 425
 - legal justifications viii, 314–18
 - necessity justification 96
 - 'novel right shared in principle', whether 314

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

566

INDEX

- Iraq (cont.)
 - overview viii, 310
 - political signals for 310–11
 - precedent for anticipatory self-defence, as viii, 314–18
 - preventive justification 104
 - rebuttal of 'Bush doctrine' 317–18
 - search for evidence of WMDs 362–3
 - shifts in approaches to viii, 318–42
 - targeting justification 109
 - UNSC resolution
 - adoption 311–12
 - debate over weapons inspections 312–13
 - focus of debate 316–17
 - international responses to 312
 - provision for use of force 312
 - UNSC resolution as justification 293
 - US attack on intelligence HQ 202–3, 512
- involvement in George Bush assassination attempt 129–30, 414, 533
- Iran
 - Gulf War 292–3
 - operations against Kurds 432–3
- Israeli nuclear reactor airstrike 56, 96–7
- Kuwait invasion 75, 79–80
- 'Tanker War' 206–7
- Turkish operations see Turkey
- Ireland, Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285
- irregulars see non-State actors
- Israel
 - airstrike against Syria, declaring responsibility for 35, 38
 - allegations of Jordanian support for raiders 400–1
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 300–2, 390
 - Draft Articles on State Responsibility, and 304–5
 - Entebbe operation see Entebbe operation
 - intervention in Lebanon see Lebanon
 - Iraqi nuclear reactor airstrike 56, 96–7
 - Lake Tiberias incident 170–1
 - non-State actors, operations against 394–6
 - Operation 'Orchard' 363–4
 - operations against non-State actors ix, 399–405
 - Qibya incident 95
 - rejection of preventive self-defence 337
 - sinking of Eilat 194–5, 348–9
 - Six Day War see Six Day War
 - Suez Canal dispute with Egypt 1951 see Egypt
 - Suez crisis see Suez crisis
 - Syria operation vii, 53–5
 - background 447
 - international response 448–9
 - Israeli claims 447–8
 - overview ix, 447–9
 - Syrian claims 448
 - Tunis air raid 114–15, 402, 404, 423–4
- Italy
 - Belgian intervention in the Congo, and 218–20, 241, 244–5
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 344–5, 383–4, 386
 - protection of nationals, and 237–8
 - security strategy 330–1
- ius cogens*
 - application 26–7
 - derogation from 24–6
 - UN Charter as 24–6
- Japan
 - Chinese submarine incident 196–7
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 384, 387–6
 - Friendly Relations Declaration 1970, and 391
 - proposals to include attacks on fishing vessels in Definition of Aggression 1974 204–5
 - rejection of preventive self-defence 323
 - Soviet nuclear submarine incident 189–90

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

567

- support for pre-emptive self-defence 331–2
- Jordan
 - alleged support for raids into Israel 400–1
 - assistance from UK 88, 396–8
 - Six Day War, and 277
 - 'just war' theories, bias within 512
- Kellogg–Briand Pact see Pact of Paris 1928 (Kellogg–Briand Pact)
- Korea see North Korea, South Korea
- Kurds, operations against see Turkey
- Kuwait, Iraqi invasion 75, 79–80
- large-scale attacks see also gravity of
 - forms of use of force
 - as armed attacks 145
 - de minimis* threshold, as 520–1
 - interceptive or pre-emptive self-defence? 355–6
 - merchant vessels, on 205–6
 - self-defence against 151–2
- large-scale responses
 - proportionality 115
 - support for 117
- Larnaca airport operation 229
- law enforcement response to attacks
 - diplomatic envoys 203
 - 'hot pursuit agreements' 187–9
 - non-State actors 510
 - scope 185–6
 - 'state of necessity' as to cross-border pursuit of criminals 380–2
- League of Arab States
 - intervention in Iraq, and 312
 - Turkish operations in Iraq, and 431–2
- Lebanon
 - 2006 Israeli operation
 - analysis 453–4
 - background 449–50
 - Draft Articles on State Responsibility, application of 456–7
 - international response 451–3
 - Israeli claims 450–1
 - Lebanese claims 451
 - Lebanon's 'due diligence' failure 454
 - opinio iuris* 455
 - overview ix, 449–57
 - precedential value 454–5
 - retreat to 'Blue Line' 449
 - support for Israel 452
 - intervention in Iraq, and 317
 - Israeli intervention
 - after attacks on diplomats 203
 - armed attack, status as viii, 126
 - intern 402–3
 - international response 39
 - necessity and proportionality 92–3, 94
 - preventive justification 103
 - proportionality 111, 115, 117, 119–20
 - self-defence claims 401–2
 - small-scale attacks 156–7, 166–8
 - targeting justification 109
 - 'until clause', use of 75
 - US intervention
 - indirect aggression, and 396–8
 - justification as protection of overseas nationals 217–18
 - reporting obligation 74
 - 'until clause', use of 81
- legal doctrine see opinio iuris
- Lesotho, South African raid 103, 403
- lex posterior*, application 13–14
- lex specialis*
 - application 13–14
 - 'substantial involvement' as 413
- lex superior*, absence of 13–14
- Liberia, border tensions 429
- Libya
 - Friendly Relations Declaration 1970, and 391
 - Gulf of Sidra incident see Gulf of Sidra incident
 - termination of nuclear weapons programme 365–7
 - US operations 96, 102–3, 104, 154, 171–2, 291–2
 - application of Shultz doctrine 424–5
 - international response 425

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

568

INDEX

- Liechtenstein, support for pre-emptive self-defence 332–3
- localized disputes, geographical aspect of proportionality standard applied to 119
- Malaysia
intervention in Iraq, and 317
rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
- massive attacks see large-scale attacks
Mayaguez incident 211, 224–5
'measures necessary', meaning 75–81
- mens rea see animus aggressionis*
- mercenary attacks, condemnation of 405–6
- merchant vessels
customary law and practice 206–7
Definition of Aggression 1974 as to 204–5
external manifestations of the State, as 204 halting of 80, 121 massive attacks 205–6 on-the-spot defensive measures 209 protection of neutral vessels 211–13
right of self-defence viii, 204–13
ROEs as to attacks on 206
'Tanker War' in Gulf 206–7
- Mexico
Definition of Aggression 1974, and 302, 384–5
fishing boats dispute with Guatemala 206, 210–11
Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285–6
rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 339
- military aircraft
right of unit self-defence 200 self-defence against intruding
animus aggressionis 192–3
proportionality standard 193–4
ROEs as to 191–2
- military units and installations abroad
Definition of Aggression 1974 as to 200
- external manifestations of the State, as 200
overview viii, 199–200
scope of analysis 199–200
- Mongolia, ILC Draft Articles on State Responsibility, and 304–5
- Morocco, Six Day War, and 277
- M/V Saiga* case 198–9
- national liberation movements see non-State actors
- National Security Strategy (NSS) see also 'Bush doctrine' academic analysis viii, 324–7
adoption 2, 41–2, 250–1
analysis of threats 307–8
anticipatory self-defence broadening of 309–10 endorsement of 309 use of 308–9 covering letter 307 drafting of viii, 305–10 effect on opinio iuris and practice 524 impact 251 preventive self-defence against non-imminent threats 309–10 promulgation 444
ratione temporis dimension 308–9 reassessment of strategy 306 response to 9/11 attacks, as 305–18
scope 307–8
- nationals, protection of see also non-combatant evacuation operations (NEOs) abuse of doctrine 240–2 baselines for agreement on 243–4 cumulative conditions (Waldock) 213–14 customary law and practice
overview viii, 216–33
scope of analysis 216
statements indicating viii, 233–9 doctrinal debate viii, 213–16 evidence for permissibility of use of force for 239–40 exception to prohibition of pre-emptive self-defence, as 346

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

569

- existence of customary right 243
- hostage rescues 248–9
- humanitarian intervention, as 213
- international large-scale operations 230–2
- justification for large-scale military operations, as 244
- legal bases 214–15
- non-combatant evacuation, as 247
- against non-State actors 405
- not reported to UNSC viii, 229–30, 233
- overview viii, 213–49
- peaceful means, use of 244
- principle for non-use of armed force for 243–4
- proposed parameters 243–9
- recent State practice
 - evidence of custom in viii, 242
 - importance of viii, 242–3
- scope for use of force viii, 244–5
- 'state of necessity' as to 380–2
- sufficiency of evidence for customary right 240
- universal doctrine 233
- unlawfulness 215
- whether compatible with Charter 215–16
- NATO
 - collective self-defence against terrorism 443–4
 - destruction of Chinese embassy in Belgrade 165
 - Operation 'Enduring Freedom', and 436–7
 - provisions for response to attacks on merchant vessels 206
- naval law enforcement, use of force distinguished 209
- naval operations see also Falklands War; merchant vessels; United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS)
 - forcible action against private ships 198
 - geographical aspect of proportionality standard applied to 118–19
 - graduated response to 194
 - halting of shipping 80, 121
 - 'innocent passage' by warships, UNCLOS provisions 188–9
 - proportionate lethal force in response 194–5
 - submarines 195–7
- naval vessels, right of self-defence 200 see also submarines
- necessity standard see also 'state of necessity'
 - academic interest 94–5
 - anticipatory self-defence 4–5, 279–80
 - application 518
 - armed attack criterion, and 3
 - authority 91–2
 - case-by-case determination 520
 - controversy 92–4
 - 'defensive armed reprisals' 107–8
 - distinction between premeditated and spontaneous action 100–2
 - distinction of self-defence within and against a State, and 496
 - exceptions to prohibition of pre-emptive self-defence viii, 342–3
 - 'failure to prevent' attacks, and 502
 - flexible interpretation 98
 - immediacy of self-defence action vii, 99–108
 - isolated attacks of short duration 102
 - non-State actors, as to 487, 507, 509
 - overview vii, 91–123
 - part of customary right of self-defence, as 8
 - prevention of further attacks 102–8, 518–19
 - proportionality standard linked 123–5
 - self-defence as last resort vii, 95–8
 - small-scale attacks 157
 - targeting vii, 108–10
- Netherlands
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 296

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

570

INDEX

Netherlands (cont.)

- Friendly Relations Declaration 1970, and 391

- non-State actors, and 445–6

- revised security strategy 445–6

- Suez Canal dispute 1951, and 290

Nicaragua judgment

- 'accumulation of events' doctrine, and 173–4

- animus aggressionis* 161–2

- arguments 7–10

- assessment of inconsistent conduct 30–1

- Bible of use of force, as 513

- Charter as peremptory norm 25

- clarification of meaning of armed attack 8–9

- controversy 1

- 'counter-restrictionist' views 10–11

- critique of collective security

- findings vii, 83–91

- critique of de minimis findings 143

- critique of less grave force findings 144–5

- de minimis* threshold, and viii,

- 140–3, 407–8

- Definition of Aggression 1974, use of 407–8

- definition of armed attack 8

- dissenting opinions 98

- duration of action 119–20

- Friendly Relations Declaration 17, 373–4

- identity of Charter and custom 260–1, 263

- indirect aggression

- findings ix, 406, 528–9

- overview ix, 406–19

- infringement of sovereignty, as to 185

- inherent right of self-defence 8

- link between State and non-State actors, determination of 408, 529–30

- necessity standard 8, 99

- Nicaraguan claims 9–10

- overlap of custom and treaty law 7–8, 11–12, 19, 22

- proportionality 8

- proportionate countermeasures by direct victim of less grave force, on 141

- question of whether armed attack occurring ix, 406–7

- relationship of use of force and armed attack, on 140

- reporting obligation 8, 68, 71–2

- 'restrictionist' views 9–10

- significance 7, 8–9

- substantive involvement, as to 408, 415–19

- summary of main findings 7–8

- US claims 7, 9–10, 16, 68, 512

- US control of Contras 409, 410

- US withdrawal from case 8

- uses of force other than armed attack, on 140–1

- 'Vandenberg reservation', and 7, 8–9

- Niger, Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285–6

- Nigeria, dispute with Cameroon 173–4

- Non-Aligned Movement

- rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 341

- Turkish operations in Iraq, and 431–2

- non-combatant evacuation operations (NEOs)

- host state approval requirement 247–8

- protection of nationals as 247

- technical guidelines 245–6

- types of threat environments 245

- non-combatants as targets of terrorism 498

- non-imminent attacks

- academic support for action against European commentators 321–2

- US commentators viii, 320–1, 322

- anticipatory self-defence 252

- lack of support for action against 336–8

- preventive self-defence 524–5

- US NSS, and see National Security Strategy (NSS)

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

571

- non-Member States
 - acknowledgement of customary status of Article 2(4) 16
 - application of UN Charter to 15 treaties with 16
- Non-Proliferation Treaty 365–7
- non-State actors see also terrorism
 - acknowledgement of private conduct by States 413–14
 - additional variables governing self-defence ix, 507–10
 - allegations of State support for 400–1
 - attacks as armed attacks, conditions 531–2
 - attributability of attacks 372–4, 408–14, 489–90
 - balance of State security with sovereignty and territorial integrity 487–8
 - challenges to opinio iuris and practice 528
 - changes in approach pre-9/11 ix, 419–33
 - co-operative law enforcement against 510
 - 'complete dependence' on State 409
 - covert proxy-warfare 414
 - danger of escalation as to 533–4
 - decolonization era 528–9
 - distinction of self-defence within and against a State see self-defence
 - 'due diligence rule' as to 374–5
 - 'effective control' threshold 410–13
 - end of decolonization ix, 419–21
 - evolution of approach to 419
 - external link to victim State
 - application of criteria 501–2
 - overview 500–1
 - failing States ix, 419–510
 - failure to prevent attacks by
 - burden of evidence of defending State 505–6
 - commitment to peaceful means 506
 - differing approaches to 506
 - 'harbouring' doctrine 503
 - limitations of 'harbouring' doctrine 504
 - link to State 502
 - necessity standard 502
 - opportunity to rectify abuse 506
 - overview ix, 502–6
 - relationship of 'harbouring' and 'failure to prevent' 504–5
 - State failure 504
 - gravity of forms of use of force 499–500
 - 'harbouring' doctrine
 - application 401
 - 'failure to prevent' attacks, and 503
 - harbouring as indirect force 528
 - international response 402–3
 - 'hot pursuit' doctrine, and 378–9
 - ICJ, and see International Court of Justice (ICJ)
 - imputability see imputability to State
 - incursions 198–9
 - instruments of State, as 399, 409
 - international terrorism ix, 419–510
 - intersecting norms as to 371–2
 - interventions in neighbouring countries against ix, 399–405
 - key question as to 485–6
 - lack of attention to problem of academic analysis, in 370–1
 - Article 51, by 369–70
 - legal complexity as to 371–2
 - legal uncertainty as to ix, 485–9, 531
 - legality of proportionate measures against 487
 - legality of support for 419
 - link to State 387–9, 408, 440–1, 461–2, 502, 528
 - mercenary attacks 405–6
 - necessity standard as to 487, 507, 509
 - notion of self-defence against 499
 - operations against national liberation movements 399–400
 - opinio iuris* as to 404–5
 - other cases of action against ix, 405
 - placebo effect of self-defence 510

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

572

INDEX

- non-State actors (cont.)
 - private conduct in absence or default of official authority 414
 - proportionality standard as to 487, 509
 - protection of nationals from 405
 - 'reasonable chance of success' of self-defence
 - applicability 507–8
 - criteria 507
 - responses to attacks by, legal bases for ix, 377–82
 - self-determination, and see self-determination
 - shifts in approaches to 486
 - signs of shift in custom as to ix, 428–33
 - State-centred approach, appropriateness 535
 - 'state of necessity' as to responses to 379–80
 - State practice
 - early cases 394–9
 - overview ix, 394–406
 - reliance on link between non-State actors and State 394
 - statements as to applicability of Article 51 404–5
 - 'substantial involvement' of States
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 415
 - Nicaragua* judgment as to 408, 415–19
 - overview ix, 415–19
 - whether lex specialis 413
 - summary of analysis ix, 528–32
 - summary of Charter framework 377
 - victim state not having contributed to situation
 - applicability 508–9
 - criteria 507
 - whether able to commit 'armed attacks' ix, 485–510
- North Korea
 - alleged assassination of South Korean ministers 203
 - Operation 'Orchard', and 363–4
 - termination of nuclear weapons programme 365–7
 - threat of anticipatory action 330, 333–4
 - USS Pueblo incident 187
- Norway
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 132, 297, 300
 - proposals on use of force 61
 - submarine incidents 196
- nuclear weapons
 - anticipatory self-defence, and 257, 527–8
 - development as imminent threat 360–2
 - intelligence on programmes 362–3
 - need for avoidance of military escalation 262
 - Non-Proliferation Treaty 365–7
 - pre-emptive self-defence 358–9
 - termination of programmes 365–7
- Nuremburg Military Tribunal,
 - acceptance of legality of anticipatory self-defence 256–7
- Oil Platforms* judgment
 - 'accumulation of events' doctrine, and 173–4
 - animus aggressionis* 162–3
 - armed attack against merchant ship 207–9
 - collective self-defence 90–1
 - critique 142–3
 - de minimis* threshold, and 142
 - immediacy 100
 - inherent right of self-defence 200, 520
 - Iran's claims 207–9
 - prevention of further attacks 105–6, 210–11
 - proportionality 110, 111, 113–14
 - protection of neutral vessels 212–13
 - self-defence as last resort 98
 - targeting 109–10
 - US claims 153, 207–9
- Oman, Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285–6

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

573

- on-the-spot measures
 - Definition of Aggression 1974 209
 - Dinstein's classification 181
 - interceptive self-defence viii, 346–67
 - merchant vessels 209
- Operation 'Phoenix' see Colombia
- opinio iuris*
 - acceptance of Article 2(4) as peremptory norm 25–6
 - customary law and practice, and vii, 29–51
 - element of custom, as 29–30
 - non-State actors, as to 404–5
 - shift as to pre-emptive self-defence 341–2
 - source for interpretation, as 2–3, 4, 513–14
 - State's statements on anticipatory self-defence as 334
 - study methodology, in vii, 6
 - UN Charter as 'negative' 14–15
 - UNGA resolutions as 49–51
- Organization of American States (OAS)
 - Operations 'Enduring Freedom', and 436–7
 - Operation 'Phoenix', and 463–4
- Osiraq nuclear reactor strike
 - international attitudes to lawfulness 285–6
 - international response 284–5
 - Israeli justification 280–1
 - Israel's reliance on preventive self-defence justification 283–4
 - overview viii, 280–7
 - precedent for anticipatory self-defence, as 282–3
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence claim 287, 358–9
 - UNSC debate 281–2
- Pact of Paris 1928 (Kellogg–Briand Pact)
 - customary law and practice, as 11–12
 - self-defence provision 54
- Pakistan
 - border incidents 156
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 300–2
 - Friendly Relations Declaration 1970, and 390
 - Kashmir dispute 77–8, 80–1, 287–8, 512
 - Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285–6
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 339
- Palestinian Wall* advisory opinion
 - critique 475–8
 - findings 473
 - overview ix, 473–8
 - self-defence argument finding 473–5
 - separate opinions 475
- Panama
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 297
 - US operation 222–4
- peace and security
 - maintenance or restoration of see 'until clause'
 - measures to ensure greater 546
 - multilateralism as means to greater 550
 - post-Cold War threats 548
- peaceful means, use of
 - diplomacy vii, 95–8
 - prevention of attacks by non-State actors 505–6, 509–10
- Pearl Harbour attack
 - anticipatory self-defence, hypothetical use 254
 - compared to 9/11 attacks 250
 - possible self-defence against 355–6
- peremptory norms
 - conflicts see conflict of laws
 - listing of 25
 - non-recognition of situations created by breach of 26
 - 'permissive' environment for NEOs 245–6

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

574

INDEX

- personnel aspect of armed attack
 - requirement (ratione personae) see also non-State actors
- content of chapter 368–9
- criteria for new threshold ix, 489–510
- modification of primary or secondary rules ix, 489–93
- question of who must attack come from 368
- scope 3
- scope of analysis ix, 368–9
- summary of analysis ix, 528–32
- whether new threshold 486–7
- Philippines, Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285, 286
- physical force, meaning of force restricted to 55–6
- 'pin prick attacks'
 - accumulation see 'accumulation of events' doctrine
 - response to 115, 116
- Poland, Belgian intervention in the Congo, and 218–20, 241, 244–5
- Portugal
 - allegations against Senegal 401
 - Goa dispute 118–19
 - mercenary attack on DRC, and 405–6
 - operations against non-State actors ix, 399–405
 - Samine attack in Senegal 171
- positivist method of analysis, application of 511–12
- pre-emptive self-defence
 - academic support for viii, 324–7
 - borderline cases see exceptions to prohibition below
 - burden of evidence 265–6
 - compatibility with UN Charter 266–7
 - dangers of accepting broader right of 357–8
 - dividing line with interceptive self-defence 265
 - exceptions to prohibition declarations of war 344–5
 - interceptive self-defence see interceptive self-defence
 - necessity standard, and viii, 342–3
 - overview viii, 342–67
 - possible exceptions viii, 343–6
 - presence of forces continuing beyond agreed timescale 343–4
 - protection of nationals 346
 - scope of analysis 342
 - imminent threats, and 287
 - interceptive self-defence distinguished 265–7, 347, 524–5
 - nuclear weapons 358–9
 - preventive self-defence distinguished 524–5
 - rejection 287, 339
 - shift in opinio iuris 341–2
 - shifts in approaches to viii, 318–42
 - Six Day War as closest example 356–7
 - State support viii, 330–42
 - strategic level
 - interceptive self-defence distinguished 356
 - overview viii, 355–67
 - terminological time frame 253–4
 - time frame 265–6
 - use of term 252–3
 - WMDs 358–9, 527–8
- pre-existing custom see custom
- prevention of further attacks
 - anticipatory self-defence 290–1
 - necessity standard 102–8
 - Oil Platforms* judgment 210–11
- Prevention of Genocide* case
 - 'complete dependence' issue 409
 - 'effective control' threshold 412–13
 - imputability to State ruling 491–3
- preventive self-defence
 - majority academic opinion against 322
- pre-emptive self-defence
 - distinguished 524–5
 - rebuttal of viii, 322–4
 - rejection 286, 287, 329–30, 336–8

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

575

- rejection by international lawyers 322
- shifts in approaches to viii, 318–42
- State support viii, 330–42
- terminological time frame 254
- US NSS, and see National Security Strategy (NSS)
- use of term 252–3
- 'primary' law
 - Article 51 as 490
 - meaning 489
- priority (first use) principle
 - animus aggressionis*, and 158
 - anticipatory self-defence 294, 299
 - debate over 132–3, 158–9
 - factors 160–1
 - objections 294–6
 - presumption of aggression 160
 - provision 159–60
 - rebuttal of presumption of aggression 160
- private conduct see non-State actors
- private ships, forcible action against 198
- proportionality standard
 - academic interest 94–5
 - 'accumulation of events' doctrine, and 170–1, 175
 - anticipatory self-defence 279–80
 - application 460–1, 518, 519
 - armed attack criterion, and 3
 - assessment vii, 116–23
 - authority 91–2
 - case-by-case determination 520
 - controversy 92–4
 - distinction of self-defence within and against a State, and 496
 - duration of action 119–21
 - Fourth Special Committee negotiations 133
 - geographical aspect 118–19
 - less grave uses of force 141
 - military aircraft 192–3
 - naval vessels 194–5
 - necessity standard linked 123–5
 - non-State actors, as to 487, 509
 - opposition to 92–3, 94
 - overview vii, 91–123
 - part of customary right of self-defence, as 8
 - quantitative vs. functional approach vii, 110–16
 - range of targets aspect 121–3
 - small-scale attacks 157
 - weapons types as factor 123
- reactive self-defence
 - anticipatory self-defence distinguished 251–2
 - terminological time frame 253
- Red Crusader* incident 209
- reporting obligation
 - compliance over small-scale incidents 73–4
 - existence in customary law and practice 8
 - failure to report and legality of measures 71–2, 517
 - mandatory nature 69–70
 - observance 72
 - over-reporting 72
 - overview vii, 68–74
 - purpose 68
 - strengthening 545–6
 - text 68
 - whether norm creating 69
 - whether substantive or procedural 70, 72
- request for assistance, right to make 87–91
- 'restrictionist' views
 - abandonment 325
 - anticipatory self-defence viii, 258–62, 263–4, 265–6
 - Article 51 and customary right, as to 514–15
 - dominance 325
 - Nicaragua* judgment 9–10
 - summary of argument with 'counter-restrictionists' 514–15
- Rhodesia, operations against non-State actors ix, 399–405
- Rules of Engagement (ROEs)
 - aircraft 191–2
 - hostile intent, and 166
 - merchant vessels, attacks on 206

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

576

INDEX

- Rules of Engagement (ROEs) (cont.)
 - national self-defence and unit self-defence distinguished 180
 - openness and public debate 548
 - 'unit self-defence' 350–1
- Russia
 - Afghanistan operations 428
 - Chechen rebels, and 444–5
 - claims to right of pre-emptive strike 330, 334–5
 - Georgia operations
 - Georgian claims 359–60
 - international response 360–2
 - overview 357–8
 - protection of nationals 232–3
 - Russian claims 358–9
 - intervention in Iraq, and 312, 313
 - Israeli operation against Syria, and 448–9
- Rwandan operations against Hutu insurgents
 - escalation of conflict with DRC 533–4
 - international response 467–8
 - overview 466–8
 - rejection of Rwandan claims 433
 - Rwandan claims 466–7
- Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, M/V Saiga case 198–9
- 'secondary' law
 - Article 51 as 490
 - meaning 489
- security and peace, maintenance or restoration of see 'until clause'
- security strategies
 - preventive deployment 330–1
 - revision ix, 2, 41–2, 443–7
- self-defence see also collective self-defence
 - anticipatory see anticipatory self-defence
 - armed attack requirement 51 UN Charter see Article
 - armed reprisals distinguished 183
 - Article 51 right see Article 51 UN Charter
 - clarification in definition of armed attack 536
 - conditions other than armed attack vii, 68–125
 - customary boundaries ix, 511–35
 - customary right see customary right of self-defence
 - danger of escalation ix, 532–5
 - de minimis* threshold see de minimis threshold
 - 'defensive armed reprisals' 107–8
 - definition of aggression detached from 537
 - dichotomy of legal and military frameworks 179–80
 - differentiated application of parameters 180–1
 - Dinstein's classification see Dinstein's classification
 - distinction between premeditated and spontaneous action 100–2
 - divergent frameworks see use of force (Ius ad Bellum)
 - effect of restrictive meaning 60
 - elements of evidentiary norm 177–8
 - equation with gravity of armed attack 110, 111
 - forcible acts not triggering right of, armed attacks distinguished 139
 - immediacy vii, 99–108
 - inherent right see inherent right of self-defence
 - interlinking of aspects 4–5
 - isolated attacks of short duration 102
 - large-scale attacks, against 151–2
 - last resort, as vii, 95–8
 - national self-defence and unit self-defence distinguished 180
 - necessity standard see necessity standard
 - preconditions other than armed attack ix, 517–20
 - preconditions, scope of analysis vii, 53
 - pre-UN Charter vii, 53–5

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

577

- prevention of further attacks see
 - prevention of further attacks
- proportionality standard see
 - proportionality standard
- reliable information as basis for
 - action 427–8
- reporting obligation see reporting
 - obligation
- small-scale attacks see small-scale
 - attacks
- against a State and within a State,
 - distinction 368
 - attacks on infrastructure of other State 495
 - attacks on terrorists and bases 494
 - distinction made 493–4
 - necessity and proportionality, and 496
 - Operation 'Enduring Freedom' as example 495–6
 - overview ix, 493–6
 - support for distinction 494
- suspension see 'until clause'
- targeting vii, 108–10
- temporary measure, as 57–8
- 'until clause' see 'until clause'
- self-determination
 - 'accumulation of events' doctrine, and 171
 - affirmation of right to armed struggle 419–20
 - Definition of Aggression 1974 see Definition of Aggression
 - Friendly Relations Declaration 1970 see Friendly Relations Declaration
 - right to use force against colonial occupation 403–4
 - support for legality of use of force 390–1
 - UNSC resolutions supporting 403–4
 - use of force, and ix, 390–4
- Senegal
 - Guinea-Bissau dispute 428
 - Portuguese allegations against 401
 - Portuguese attack on Samine 171
- Seychelles, mercenary attack 405–6
- Shultz doctrine
 - adoption 421–2
 - application 424–5
 - expression 423
 - genesis 422
 - interpretation of Charter law, as 422–3
 - overview ix, 421–8
 - publication 422–3
- Sierra Leone
 - border tensions 429
 - Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285–6
- Singapore, support for pre-emptive self-defence 332–3
- Six Day War
 - arguments against precedential impact 274–8
 - closest example of pre-emptive self-defence, as 356–7
 - course of war 272–3
 - international response 278–9
 - overview viii, 272–80
 - precedent for anticipatory self-defence, as 272, 274, 279–80
 - prior armed attack, as 274–8
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence, as 287
 - response to blockade, as 276–7
 - UNSC debate 273–4
- skirmishes see small-scale attacks
- Slovenia, protection of nationals, and 237–8
- Small-scale attacks
 - accumulation see 'accumulation of events' doctrine
 - animus aggressionis*, and 166–8, 192–3
 - application of parameters for analysis 178
 - armed attacks, as 155, 156
 - border incidents 155
 - clandestine presence of
 - ununiformed agents 185–6
 - consistency of applicable legal parameters for responses 198
 - danger of escalation as to 532

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

578

INDEX

- Small-scale attacks (cont.)
 - examples where self-defence invoked 187
 - graduated response to
 - generally 190
 - land incursions 190–1
 - naval vessels 194–5
 - submarines 195–8
 - trespassing military aircraft 191–2
 - gravity 189–90
 - hostile intent 189–90
 - 'hot pursuit agreements' 187–9
 - inclusion in Charter provisions 184–7
 - infringement of sovereignty 184–7
 - isolated attacks of short duration 102
 - law enforcement response 185–6
 - necessity standard 157
 - no automatic exemption for 157
 - overview viii, 184–99
 - 'pin prick attacks', response to 115, 116
 - proportionality of response 193–4
 - proportionality standard 157
 - proportionate lethal force 194–5
 - qualifying as use of force 185–6
 - scope of analysis 184
 - skirmishes 155
 - spontaneous reactions to attacks 157
 - unlawfulness requirement 187–9
- Somalia
 - Ethiopian operation see Ethiopia
 - French anti-piracy operations, 188
- South Africa
 - allegations of foreign support for SWAPO 401
 - Friendly Relations Declaration 1970, and 391–2
 - intervention in Iraq, and 317
 - Lesotho raid 103, 403
 - mercenary attack on Seychelles, and 405–6
 - operations against non-State actors ix, 399–405
 - termination of nuclear weapons programme 365–7
- South Korea
 - alleged assassination of ministers by North Korea 203
 - shooting down of airliner by USSR 198–9
 - support for pre-emptive self-defence 332–3
- sovereignty
 - infringement by small-scale attacks 184–7
 - inviolability as fundamental international law 488–9
- Spain
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 300–2
 - Madrid bombings 502
 - Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285
- spontaneous reactions to attacks
 - gravity of incident 154
 - small-scale attacks 157
- 'State', use of term 16
- 'state of necessity'
 - applications 380–2
 - customary law and practice, as 379–80, 515–16
 - responses to actions by non-State actors, as to 379–80
- State practice see customary law and practice
- States see specific countries
 - acceptance of Article 2(4) as peremptory norm 25
 - acknowledgement of private conduct as own 413–14
 - actions see exceptional measures
 - all State organs contributing to formation of customary law 43–4
 - analysis of content of statements on anticipatory self-defence 334–6
 - attributability of private conduct to 408–9
 - balance of security with sovereignty and territorial integrity 487–8
 - balance of State security with sovereignty and territorial integrity 532

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

579

- distinction of self-defence within
 - and against a State see self-defence
- 'due diligence rule' as to 374–5
- echoing of 'Bush doctrine' 330–1, 333–4
- external manifestations, attacks
 - against see external manifestations of the State, attacks against
- failing States and non-State actors ix, 419–510
- imputability see imputability to State
- inconsistent conduct see inconsistent right of self-defence vested in 58–60
- inherent right of self-defence vested in 58–60
- non-State actors, and see non-State actors
- prerogative to judge adequacy of UNSC measures 82
- sovereignty see sovereignty
- support for pre-emptive and preventive self-defence viii, 330–42
- study
 - application of positivist method of analysis 511–12
 - focus 3
 - limitations ix, 3–4, 511–14
 - methodology
 - content of chapter vii, 6–7
 - scope of analysis vii, 6–7
 - opinio iuris* as evidence 513–14
 - quest for custom vii, 6
 - scope 3
- submarines
 - lawful use of force against 197–8
 - unlawful intrusions by 195–7
- subsequent developments in law, treaty interpretation, and 21–2
- 'substantial involvement' see non-State actors
- Sudan
 - Eritrea dispute 428–9
 - Six Day War, and 279
 - US attacks on Al Qaeda see Al Qaeda, attacks on
- Suez crisis
 - action against fedayeen
 - international response 96, 114, 170
 - Israeli claims 276–7, 394–6, 495
 - diplomacy, use of 96
 - effectiveness of UNSC resolutions 82
 - proportionality 114, 170
 - protection of nationals doctrine 216–17
- 'Sun', Operation see Turkey
- Sweden
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 300–2
 - Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 284–5
 - Soviet submarine incident 195–6
- Switzerland, support for pre-emptive self-defence 332–3
- Syria
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 344–5
 - Israeli airstrike see Israel
 - Israeli operation vii, 53–5 see Israel
 - Lake Tiberias incident 170–1
 - Operation 'Orchard' 363–4
 - rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1
 - self-determination, and 420
 - Six Day War see Six Day War
 - support for legality of use of force against colonialism 391
- Tadić* case, 'effective control' threshold 410–13
- Tajikistan, Afghanistan operations 428
- Taleban, operations against see Al Qaeda, attacks on
- Tanzania
 - Burundi dispute 429
 - intervention in Iraq, and 317
- targeting
 - necessity standard vii, 108–10
 - proportionality of range of targets 121–3
- Tehran Embassy* case
 - 'due diligence rule', and 375
 - imputability to State ruling 491–3

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

580

INDEX

- Tehran Embassy* case (cont.)
 - international response 225–6
 - labelling as 'armed attack' 201
- territorial acquisition by force, non-recognition 26
- territorial incursions
 - choice of actions against 348–9
 - continuum of measures against 348
 - hostile intent
 - case-by-case determination 350
 - detection of 349
 - scope 349–50
 - measures short of force 349
 - overview viii, 347–50
 - ratione temporis* dimension 347–8
- terrorism
 - authorization of force against 443
 - civilians as targets of 498
 - increased threat from use of modern technology 368–9
 - irrelevance of 'terrorist' label ix, 496–9, 532
 - legal definition 497–8
 - more flexible approach to 428
 - non-combatants as targets of 498
 - non-State actors ix, 419–510
 - notion of self-defence against 499
 - special regime as to 496–7
 - 'state of necessity' as to operations against 380–2
 - State practice as to recognition of terrorist groups 498–9
- Thailand
 - border incidents 156
 - Cambodia evacuation 232
- threshold level of attack see de minimis threshold
- time taken for practice to become customary 47–9
- timing aspect of armed attack
 - requirement (ratione temporis) see also anticipatory self-defence
 - key concepts 524–5
 - scope 3
 - scope of analysis viii, 250–4
 - sliding scale of interpretation and modification, and 28–9
 - summary of analysis ix, 524–8
- timing aspects of interpretation
 - ICJ 21
 - subsequent developments in law 21–2
 - VCLT 20
- Tokyo Military Tribunal, acceptance of legality of anticipatory self-defence 256–7
- Tunkin incident 71, 104, 154
 - account of incident 352
 - UK reaction 174–5, 523
 - 'unit self-defence', as example of 351–2
- treaty law
 - 'Baxter paradox' 17
 - conflicts see conflict of laws
 - customary rules, as 17–18
 - derogation see derogation
 - hierarchy with customary law and practice 12–13
 - interpretation see interpretation
 - modification
 - division from interpretation 23
 - draft VCLT 23–4
 - evidentiary standard 29
 - exceptional measure, as 24
 - interpretation distinguished 22
 - overview vii, 22–9
 - sliding scale with interpretation 28–9
 - overlap with customary law and practice 7–8
 - void treaties 13
- Tunisia
 - Belgian intervention in the Congo, and 218–20, 241, 244–5
 - French operations 344, 399
 - Israeli airstrike 114–15, 402, 404, 423–4
- Turkey
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 160, 387
 - Kurdish operations
 - analysis 433, 459
 - background 429–31

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

581

- danger of escalation 533
- 'hot pursuit' operation 457–8
- immediacy 101
- increased Kurdish activity 457
- international response 71, 431–2, 459–60, 512
- launch of 'Operation Sun' 458
- link between Kurds and Iraq 461–2
- overview ix, 457–62
- proportionality 119, 120–1, 460–1
- targeting 109
- Turkish claims 429–31, 458
- rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 339
- types of act aspect of armed attack
 - requirement (ratione materiae)
- Dinstein's classification see Dinstein's classification
- scope 3
- scope of analysis viii, 126–7
- summary of analysis ix, 520–4
- U-2 incident 164
- Uganda
 - Congo (DRC) dispute see DRC v Uganda
 - Entebbe operation see Entebbe operation
 - intervention in Iraq, and 316
 - support for pre-emptive self-defence 332–3
- Ukraine, termination of nuclear weapons programme 365–7
- 'uncertain' environment for NEOs 245–6
- unilateral recourse to force
 - meaning 3
 - study limitations 3
- 'unit self-defence'
 - against demonstrated hostile intent 350–1
 - cautious approach to customary practice 355
 - evidence in State practice 351
 - overview viii, 350–5
 - ROEs as to 350–1
- United Arab Republic (UAR), self-determination, and 403
- United Kingdom (UK)
 - assistance to Jordan 88, 396–8
 - attacks on Al Qaeda see Al Qaeda, attacks on
 - Belgian intervention in the Congo, and 218–20, 241, 244–5
 - Caroline incident see Caroline incident
 - Corfu Channel case see Corfu Channel case
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 135, 136, 296, 299–302, 345
 - dominance of 'counter-restrictionist' views 325
 - Draft Articles on State Responsibility, and 304–5
 - Falklands War see Falklands War
 - Friendly Relations Declaration 1970, and 391–2
 - intervention in Iraq, and 312, 313, 314–15
 - Israeli operation against Syria, and 448–9
 - London bombings 502
 - NEO doctrine 246
 - Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285–6
 - proposals on use of force 65
 - reaction to uses of force by USA 40
 - Red Crusader incident 209
 - rejection of preventive self-defence 322, 337
 - Suez Canal dispute 1951, and 290
 - Suez crisis see Suez crisis
 - Tonkin incident, and 174–5, 523
 - Turkish operations in Iraq, and 431–2, 459–60
 - US operations against Libya, and 425
 - Yemen Harib Fort action see Harib Fort action
- United Nations Charter see also Article 2(4) UN Charter; Article 51 UN Charter
 - abandonment of Charter regime 549–50
 - application to non-Members 15

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

582

INDEX

- United Nations Charter (cont.)
 - capability for evolution vii, 6
 - commitment to compliance 550
 - Conference on International Organization 60–1
 - continuing validity of Charter regime 550
 - custom, and vii, 7–29
 - customary status 15–16
 - departure from pre-existing custom, as 11–12
 - division of preparatory work 61
 - incompatible custom
 - continued application to non-Members 14–15
 - removal of 12–13, 18
 - ius cogens*, as 24–6
 - 'negative' opinio iuris, as 14–15
 - non-Member States, and see non-Member States
 - pre-existing custom, and vii, 7–19
 - preparatory works and
 - interpretation of Article 51 see Article 51 UN Charter
 - primacy of obligations 13
 - self-defence prior to vii, 53–5
 - terminology relating to use of force 127
 - whole of use of force regulation, as 7–8, 19, 22
- United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS)
 - forcible action against private ships 198
 - graduated response to incursions by warships 194
 - 'hot pursuit', as to 378
 - 'innocent passage' by warships 188–9
 - unlawful intrusions by submarines 195–7
- Definition of Aggression see also United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) 1974
- legal weight of responses to use of force 39–40
- non-recognition of forcible territorial acquisition 26
- resolutions affirming applicability of Charter to all States 16–17
- resolutions as custom 49–51
- United Nations Security Council (UNSC)
 - enforcement powers 57
 - fairness as to special position of 548
 - intervention in Iraq, and see Iraq
 - legal weight of responses to use of force 39–40
 - need for appropriate condemnation of aggression 546
 - primary competence 49
 - reporting obligation see reporting obligation
 - resolutions as custom 49
 - resolutions supporting self-determination 403–4
 - 'until clause', use of see 'until clause'
- United States (US)
 - 9/11 attacks see 9/11 attacks
 - Afghanistan operations see Afghanistan
 - Afghanistan–Pakistan tension, and see Afghanistan
 - aircraft losses to Soviet fighters 351
 - acknowledgement of customary status of Article 2(4) 16
 - attacks on Al Qaeda see Al Qaeda, attacks on
 - Belgian intervention in the Congo, and 220
 - 'Bush doctrine' see 'Bush doctrine'
 - Bush, George, assassination attempt 202–3
 - Caroline* incident see Caroline incident
 - claims of right of self-defence against terrorism 443
 - Cuban missile crisis see Cuban missile crisis
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 125, 135, 150, 151, 384, 386, 394
 - diplomatic papers as interpretative source 64–5
 - dominance of 'counter-restrictionist' views 325

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

INDEX

583

- Dominican Republic operation 115, 119–20, 220–2
- drafting of Article 51, and 64
- Friendly Relations Declaration 1970, and 391–2
- Grenada operation 120, 222–4
- Gulf of Sidra incident see Gulf of Sidra incident
- ILC Draft Articles on State Responsibility, and 304–5
- intervention in Afghanistan see Afghanistan
- Iran embassy occupation see Tehran Embassy case
- Iranian airliner incident see USS Vincennes incident
- Iraq operations see Iraq
- Israeli operation against Syria, and 448–9
- Israeli raid on Tunis, and 172, 423–4
- Kurdish operations by Turkey, and 120–1, 512
- Lebanon, and see Lebanon
- Libya operations see Libya
- Mayaguez* incident 211, 224–5
- National Security Strategy (NSS), US see National Security Strategy (NSS)
- Nicaragua* judgment, and see Nicaragua judgment
- Oil Platforms* judgment see Oil Platforms judgment
- Operation 'Phoenix', and 463–4
- Panama operation 222–4
- Pearl Harbour attack see Pearl Harbour attack
- protection of neutral vessels 211–12
- rejection of preventive self-defence 337–8
- response to attacks on embassies 152, 512
- ROE 180, 206
- Shultz doctrine see Shultz doctrine
- Suez Canal incident 165
- Tehran Embassy occupation see Tehran Embassy case
- Tunkin incident see Tunkin incident
- Turkish operations in Iraq, and 431–2, 459–60
- U-2 incident 164
- USS Cole attack 501–2
- USS Pueblo incident 187
- USS Vincennes incident see USS Vincennes incident
- Vincennes incident*
- 'Vandenberg reservation' 7
- Vietnam operations 398–9
- Yugoslavia operations 165, 187, 192–4
- 'until clause'
- available practice 517–18
- drafting 74
- interpretation issues 75
- meaning of 'measures necessary' 75–81
- more frequent use 75
- overview vii, 74–83
- peace and security, drafting of reference 77
- practicality 74–5
- scope of 'necessary measures' 78
- suspension of self-defence
 - concrete measures taken, when 79–80
 - decision on whether measures adequate 81–3
 - enforcement measures and provisional measures distinguished 82–3
 - measures effective, if 81–2
 - peace and security restored, when 77–8
- UNSC action other than enforcement, by 80–1
- UNSC aware of situation, when 75–6
- UNSC resolution, by 76–7
- ununiformed agents, clandestine presence of 185–6
- Uruguay, Definition of Aggression 1974, and 344–5, 384–5
- use of force (Ius ad Bellum)
 - clarification by ICJ 513
 - danger of escalation ix, 532–5

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-76664-7 - 'Armed Attack' and Article 51 of the UN Charter: Evolutions in Customary Law and Practice

Tom Ruys

Index

More information

584

INDEX

- use of force (Ius ad Bellum), law of see
 - also* unilateral recourse to force
- 9/11, and see 9/11 attacks
- acts constituting use of force,
 - question of 516–17
- compliance pull
 - benefit from definition of armed attack 545
 - commitment to compliance 550
 - strengthening ix, 545–50
 - strengthening sanctions and incentives 547–8
- divergent frameworks
 - 'counter-restrictionist' views 10–11
 - existence 515
 - grounds for claim of 11
 - Nicaragua* judgment 8–9
 - 'restrictionist' views 9–10
 - unsustainability of idea 19
- evolution as State-driven process 4
- exceptions to prohibition see
 - exceptional measures
- gravity of forms of see gravity of
 - forms of use of force
- gravity threshold see de minimis threshold
- implied erosion of 'compliance pull' 4
- inconsistent conduct see
 - inconsistent conduct
- interpretation see interpretation
- lack of hostile intent 165
- limitations of previous studies vii, 6
- 'most grave' forms see gravity of
 - forms of use of force
- naval law enforcement distinguished 209
- Nicaragua* judgment see Nicaragua judgment
- presuppositions for development of law 34
- prohibition not confined to force
 - directed against State's territory or independence 56–7
- self-determination see self-determination
- study focus on process of change in
 - law vii, 6
- study limitations 3–4
- theoretical debates 42–3
- UN Charter terminology 127
- USS Cole attack 501–2
- USS Pueblo incident 187
- USS Vincennes incident 291
 - account of incident 256–7
 - ICAO investigation viii, 258–62
 - ICJ proceedings 258–9
 - interceptive self-defence, as example of 256–7
 - international response 257
- USSR
 - Belgian intervention in the Congo, and 218–20, 241, 244–5
 - Cuban missile crisis see Cuban missile crisis
 - Definition of Aggression 1974, and 131–2, 160, 233–4, 344–5, 385, 388
 - Friendly Relations Declaration 1970, and 391
 - Korean airliner incident 198–9
 - military interventions by 88, 90–1
 - opposition to proportionality standard 92–3, 94
 - policy for submarine incidents 196
 - priority (first use) principle, proposal see priority (first use) principle
 - protection of nationals, and 218
 - shooting down of US aircraft 351
 - Six Day War, and 274, 278
 - submarine incident in Japanese waters 189–90
 - submarine incident in Swedish waters 195–6
 - US intervention in Dominica, and 221
- 'Vandenberg reservation', Nicaragua judgment, and 7, 8–9
- Venezuela
 - contributions to debates 269
 - Operation 'Phoenix', and see Colombia

Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties 1969 (VCLT) conflict of laws provisions 13 ius cogens concept, on 24–6 modification of treaties 23–4, 27–8 treaty interpretation, on 19–22	search for evidence 362–3 threat to international peace and security, as 359–60
Vietnam call for assistance 88 rejection of pre-emptive self-defence 340–1 Tunkin incident see Tunkin incident US operations 398–9	Webster formula acceptance 255–6 application 250 critique 265 World Summit vii, 55–60 non-State actors, and 446–7 Outcome Document statements 2–3
Waldock's cumulative conditions for protection of overseas nationals 213–14	Yemen attacks on Al Qaeda see Al Qaeda, attacks on Harib Fort action see Harib Fort action intervention in Iraq, and 317
war declarations as acts of aggression 133 Dinstein's classification see Dinstein's classification meaning 55 weaponry see also nuclear weapons increased threat from advanced weapons 257 weapons of mass destruction (WMDs) see also nuclear weapons pre-emptive self-defence 358–9, 527–8 proper response to proliferation 365–7	Yugoslavia Definition of Aggression 1974, and 134 Prevention of Genocide case see Prevention of Genocide case Osiraq nuclear reactor strike, and 285 Six Day War, and 279 Suez crisis, and 395 Tadić case see Tadić case US operations 165, 187, 192–4 Zambia, alleged support for SWAPO 401