   1.2 The Language of Logic 8
   1.3 Modal Logic and Deontic Logic 18
   1.4 Main Systems of Deontic Logic 24
   1.5 The Possibility of Deontic Logic 34

2 Paradoxes and Shortcomings of Deontic Logic 39
   2.1 Paradoxes of Deontic Logic 39
   2.2 More Serious Challenges 44
   2.3 Facing Jørgensen’s Dilemma 50
   2.4 Deontic Logic with or without Truth 61
   2.5 Conceptions of Norms: Two Alternatives for Deontic Logic 66

3 Norm-propositions, Conditional Norms, and Defeasibility 78
   3.1 Logic of Norms and Logic of Norm-propositions 78
   3.2 An Apparent Dilemma for a Logic of Norm-propositions 85
   3.3 Conditional Norms 91
   3.4 Factual and Deontic Detachment 97
   3.5 Defeasibility and Deontic Logic 105
PART II  LOGIC AND LEGAL SYSTEMS

4  Legal Systems and Legal Validity
4.1 Normative Systems and the Existence of Norms
4.2 Scope and Force of Legal Norms
4.3 Applicability and Validity
4.4 Applicable Systems and Hierarchical Orderings
4.5 Two Concepts of Legal Systems

5  Legal Indeterminacy: Normative Gaps and Conflicts of Norms
5.1 Formal Properties of Applicable Systems
5.2 The Problem of Legal Gaps
5.3 Normative Relevance and Axiological Gaps
5.4 Legal Conflicts and Coherence
5.5 Relevance, Conflicts, and Defeasibility of Legal Norms

6  Legal Dynamics
6.1 Momentary and Non-momentary Legal Systems
6.2 Promulgation and Derogation of Legal Norms
6.3 Two Approaches for Legal Dynamics
6.4 Logical Consequences and Legal Dynamics
6.5 Logical Consequences and Social Sources
