

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-77555-7 - Abandoned Children

Edited by Catherine Panter-Brick and Malcolm T. Smith

Index

More information

Index

- abandoned children: ambiguity of term 2; and abandoning children 3–4, 135, 142, 162, 170; and criteria for intervention 10–12; economic value of 35, 44, 45–6, 46–7, 62, 63; in literature 3; portrayal of 1–2, 11–12, 17
- abandonment: analysis of 12–13; centrality in historical European culture 14; children's perspectives on 11–12, 20, 159, 179, 210, 220–1; classification of 2–4; concept of 1–2, 132–4, 141; cultural connotations of 4, 12; definition of 13; different meanings of 170–1; material and moral sense of 18, 21; as misleading term 161; as social construct 4; and child prostitution 19, 182–4, 190–1, 194–5; and exile 19–20, 213–14, 215, 219; and foundlings, 14–16; and refugee status 19, 200; and street children 17, 131–2; and war 16–17, 93
- abuse, child: and 'cultural competence' 125; and street children 136, 170; fear of in substitute families, 114, 118; views of sexual 19, 192–3
- adoption 6–7, 27; and foundling system 31, 32; in Mozambique 115
- Aetopoulos, to* 99
- age, and placement of foundlings 52
- agency, in children 11–12, 20, 178, 201, 204
- AIDS, and child prostitution 184, 185
- Albania, and 'borrowed' Greek children 97
- Almada, D. Antão de 60
- Alston, P. 10–11
- Amado, Jorge 147
- Anais do Municipio da Horta* 57
- anonymity, in child abandonment 14, 29–30
- Aptekar, L. 135, 138
- Archard, R. 5–6
- Ariès, Philippe 5–6
- Asquith, S. 10
- Austria, and development of foundling system 41
- Azores, foundling system in 57–68; as economic burden 57, 59–60; changes to 62; costs of 62, 63; financing of 60, 64–7; mortality rates 58–9, 62–3, 65–7; subsidy of single mothers 62, 63–4; wet-nurses 60–1
- Baerentzen, L. 95
- Bardet, J.-P. 73
- Bari, foundling system in 44
- begging, and street children careers 163; in Brazil 151; in Nepal 175
- Bhutan 19; and 'one nation' policy 199
- Bhutanese refugees 19, 200; and inappropriate counselling 202–4; adaptive qualities of children 206; role of children in social support system 205–6; role of children in promoting social cohesion 206–8; perspectives of children on abandonment 210
- Bhutanese Women's Association 208
- Black, Maggie 184
- Bledsoe, C. 6, 27
- Bologna Foundling Database 47
- Bologna, and foundling system in 44, 46–8, 51–2, 54; mortality rates 82
- Boonchalaski, W. 183–4
- borrowing children, see children, 'borrowed'
- Bosnia-Herzegovina, conflict and coping mechanisms 124
- Boswell, John 3, 41, 71–2, 73, 80
- Boulalas, General C. 102
- Boyden, J. 3, 5, 9, 11, 12, 126
- Brazil, legal definition of children 148; types of childhood 8–9; living conditions of children 151–3
- Brazil, street children 4, 17–18, 136; and addiction to lifestyle 157; and anti-social behaviour 154–5; and begging 151; and

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-77555-7 - Abandoned Children

Edited by Catherine Panter-Brick and Malcolm T. Smith

Index

More information

Index

225

- concepts of home 153–4; as contributors to household economy 152–3; and glue-sniffing 155; as homogeneous group 158–9; living conditions of 151–3; and matrifocal households 153–4, 157; moral economy of 156–7; and notions of identity 137, 146–7, 152–6; numbers of 150–1; problems of definition 148–50, 151
- breast-feeding, and foundlings 84–6, see also wet-nurses
- Brennan, Father 190
- Broberg, A. 127
- brothels, Thailand 187–8
- Brunelleschi, Filippo 70
- Bruscoli, G. 50–1
- Bueren, G. van 12
- Bulgaria, and ‘borrowed’ Greek children 97
- Captains of the Sand* 147
- careers, and street children 162–3, 170–1, 175
- Casa da Roda, and Portuguese foundling system 34–6
- Casini, Lucrezia 86
- Catherine II, Empress 28
- Catholic church, and placement of foundlings 49
- Centre for Support of Women and Children, and Brazilian street children 158
- Centuries of Childhood* 5
- charities, fund-raising methods 2
- Chiari, Gaetano 86
- child abuse, see abuse
- Child and the Tourist, The* 183
- child care, and different approaches to 9; protection 4, 9, 20; residential institutions 2, 9, 17
- child care, in Mozambique: and cultural variations 114–15; and non-governmental organizations 112–13, 116; and religious organizations 112–13; and residential homes 121–22; strategies for 122; and traditional practices 112–13, 115–16, 123–4
- child gathering 92, 94
- child prostitution: and abandonment 19, 182–4, 194–5; AIDS 184, 185; media coverage of 182–4; and role of families 182–4; as reinforcer of kinship ties 183; society’s reactions to 193–4
- child prostitution, Thailand: and abandonment 19, 190–1; and campaigning groups 190; clients 188; damage to children 193; and debt bonding 187–8; and drugs 193; as economic necessity 189–90, 191; and filial obligation 191–2; and kinship ties 191–2; and media coverage 184–5; normalization of 188–9; numbers of prostitutes 184; and parental rights 190; pimps 188; and reciprocity 191–2; society’s responsibility for 194–6; and views of parents 192–3; and children’s views of clients 194
- child protection 92, 95–7; care and 4, 9, 20
- child welfare agencies, and nature of intervention 12, 111, 126–7
- child welfare policy 92–3; in Greece 104–5, 108; causes of changes in Greece 104–5; and Greek state responsibility 104
- Child Workers In Nepal (CWIN) 162
- childhood, as social construct 4–6; and challenge to Western notions of 138–9; construction of in Nepal 161, 165, 169–70, 178–9; different models of 6–7, 9–10; contemporary Western view of 4–5, 6–7, 9–10; normative judgement of 9–10
- childhoods, and nature of intervention 10–12; diversity of 6
- Childhope 3, 132
- childlessness, as motive for fostering a foundling, 32; as motive for acting as substitute parent, Mozambique 118
- children, as active agents 11–12, 20, 178, 201, 204; adaptive qualities 206, 209; circulation of 6, 20, 21, 27, 35, 37; and exile 19–20, 172–3, 214–16, 219, 221–2; and humanitarian concerns 10; indoctrination of 92, 98–103; and rights of 10, 12; as weapons of war 95
- children, ‘borrowed’: anthropological study of 95; characteristics of 93; in Greek civil war 95–6; indoctrination of 92, 98–103; problems of reintegration 105–7; psychological study of 94–5; repatriation of 103–4
- children, economic contributors: as cash resource 44, 45, 46–7, 49–50, 62; as household contributors 7–8, 147, 152, 153, 154–5, 157, 165, 167–8, 187–8, 189, 191–2, 196; as labour resource 31–2, 45, 49–50, 53; as state resource 29
- children, refugee: as providers of social support 200, 205–6; as promoters of social cohesion 206–7; coping with refugee status 19, 200, 206, 209;

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-77555-7 - Abandoned Children

Edited by Catherine Panter-Brick and Malcolm T. Smith

Index

More information

226 Index

- children (cont.)
 perspectives on abandonment 210; see also refugees
- children, Brazil: living conditions 151–3; legal definitions of, 148; see also Brazil
- children, Nepal: exile 172–3; home and family, relationship with 170–3, 179; home conditions 164–5; motives for leaving home 164–5; permanent homelessness 173–5; perspectives of 175, 179; temporary migration 171–2; work responsibilities 165; see also Nepal
- Chile, and human rights abuses 220
- Chilean exiles, see exiles, Chilean
- Christ's Hospital 28
- Chutikul, Dr Saisuree 190
- circulation of children 6, 20, 21, 27, 35, 37
- cognitive behavioural models, and street children 140–1
- cognitive dissonance theory, and street children 138–9
- Colombia, and street children 135, 162
- Committee for Patriotic Welfare 104
- communism, Greek 92; and indoctrination of children 99–101
- competency, in children 11–12, 20, 166
- computer modelling of foundling system 57–68; assumptions of model 67
- conflict, and coping mechanisms 123–4
- Connolly, M. 2, 9
- Convention on the Rights of the Child 10, 21
- Corsini, Carlo 72, 80
- Cosenza, and foundling system in 44
- counselling, and Bhutanese refugees, inappropriateness of 202–4
- crisis, abandonment and mortality 15, 77, 82–3; coping mechanisms 124
- cultural variations, and child care 9, 114–15; see also childhood
- culture shock, and returning exiles 219
- Dalianis-Karamatzaki, M. 106
- Death without Weeping* 147
- 'delegated motherhood' 15, 17
- Democratic Army, Greek 95; and child 'borrowing' 96
- dependency, and childhood 7–8, 139, 169, 151, 178
- domesticity, as characteristic of childhood 5, 6, 151
- drugs, and child prostitution 193
- ECPAT 183, 190
- education: and indoctrination of children 98–103; Nepal, 166–7; and refugees 222
- Ellinopoula, Ta* 102
- End Child Prostitution in Asian Tourism, see ECPAT
- England, and development of foundling system 28
- Ennew, J. 2, 4, 9, 161
- Ethiopia, and street children 135–6; conflict and coping mechanisms 124
- Europe, and historical significance of child abandonment 14
- exile: and abandonment 19–20, 220–1; and children 19–20, 99, 172–3, 214–15, 216, 219, 221–2; common experiences of 213; coping mechanisms 215–16; and dispersal policy of host governments 215–16; exiles, Greek communists 94; and host countries 215–16; and identity 213, 216, 218, 221–2; protracted 217–22; reactions to 214; and return 105–7, 172–3, 217, 219–20, 220–1
- exiles, Chilean: and abandonment 213–14, 215, 220–1; adolescents and acquired identity 218–19; and fragmentation of families 218–19; and identity 213, 218, 221; children's sense of identity 216, 221–2; and return 217, 220–1; reality of returning 219–20; children and returning 219; reactions of children 214–15
- extra-territorial legislation, and child prostitution 182
- Faial, see Azores, foundling system in family, substitute, see substitute family
- family ties 173; and child prostitution, Thailand 191–2, see also Thailand, child prostitution
- family tracing and reunification programme, Mozambique 113–14, 116
- famine, and coping mechanisms 123–4
- Felsman, J. K. 135, 162
- Ferrara, and foundling system in 44, 45
- filial obligation, and child prostitution, Thailand 191–2, see also Thailand, child prostitution
- Florence, and foundling system in 44, 49, 50–1, 70–88; foundation of the Innocenti 70; contemporary description of 74
- Fonseca, Claudia 27
- fostering 6–7, 27; and foundling system 31, 32, 36, 44, 46–7; 48–53; as economic enterprise 45; characteristics of Italian fostering families 49–53; in the Innocenti

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-77555-7 - Abandoned Children

Edited by Catherine Panter-Brick and Malcolm T. Smith

Index

More information

Index

227

- 74; in West Africa 6, see also substitute family
- Foucault, M. 93
- Foundation for Children (Thailand) 190
- foundling system, aims of 14, 74; anonymity of abandonment 14, 29–30; circulation of children 16, 30–1, 37; computer modelling of 57–68; conditions in 43; contemporary description of Florentine 74; development and nature of 14–16; economic aspect 45–6; economic cost of 57, 59–60, 88; fostering 36, 44; fraud 30; legality of child abandonment 28–9; origins of 28, 41, 70, 72, 73; parental abuse of 30; state use of 15, 29; in Azores 57–68; in Florence 70–88; in Italy 42–55; in Portugal 32–6, 34–6
- foundling wheel 14, 30, 43, 70
- foundlings, age at admission 77–8; illegitimacy 79; medical care 47; economic value of 15, 35, 45–6, 49–53; improving conditions for 54–5; integration of 31–2, 33; placement of in Bologna 46–8; placement of in Italy, 48–53; rates of abandonment in Azores, 58–9, 62–3; rates of admission 75–7; sex ratios at the Innocenti 77; status of 33
- foundlings, mortality rates 15, 29, 34, 41, 43, 47–8, 58–9, 62–3, 65–7; at the Innocenti 78–9, 80–2; and admission rates at the Innocenti 80–2; and wet-nursing system at the Innocenti 82–7; as curb on costs 65–7; in Bologna 82; in Spain 67–8
- France, and development of foundling system 28; and state use of foundling system 29
- Frangoudaki, M. 102
- Frederica, Queen, of Greece 96, 102
- FRELIMO 121
- Garbarino, J. 9
- Gavitt, Philip 75, 80
- gender, and counselling of refugees 202–4; and placement of foundlings in Italy 51–3
- Germany, and development of foundling system 28
- Gilkes, Michelle 186
- Giuseppa, Maria Rosa 86
- Glauser, Benno 3, 151
- glue sniffing, and Brazilian street children 155
- Goffman, Erving 99, 163
- Goody, Esther 27
- Goody, Jack 27
- Goonesekere, S. 10–11
- Greece 16; and approach to child abandonment 93; and ‘borrowed’ children 96–8; and child welfare policy 94, 104–5, 108; child welfare system 92, 104; migration 105–6; formation of modern national identity 94; repatriation and integration of ‘borrowed’ children 103–4, 105–7; state intervention in private sphere 93
- Greek civil code 93
- Greek civil war 16; and removal of children 95–8; and evacuation of children 92; ideological justification for ‘borrowed children’ 96–8; and indoctrination of children 98–103
- Grillenzoni, G. 45
- Guest, P. 183–4
- Hecht, T. 5, 7, 8, 9, 166
- Hellada, Nea 101
- Hewitt, T. 2, 4
- Hill, M. 10
- Hoffman, D. 4, 8–9, 163
- Holland, P. 4
- home, street children’s concept of 153–4, 170–3, 179
- homeless children, Nepal, reasons for leaving home 164–5
- Horta (Azores) foundling system in 57–68
- Hrdy, S. Blaffer 15, 27
- Hutson, S. 163
- Hunecke, Volker 71–2, 73
- Hwang, C. P. 127
- identity, and exile 213; and street children 147, 152–6
- ideology, and child welfare policies 92
- illegitimacy, and foundlings 79; and prompting abandonment 93
- India, and economic activity of children 8
- individualism, and dealing with refugees 201
- infant mortality, see foundlings, mortality rates
- Innocent III, Pope 41
- Innocenti 28; foundation of 70; admissions 75–7; age at admission of foundlings 77–8; archives of 71; foundling mortality rates 78–9, 80–2, 82–8; foster model of care 74; importance of 72; legitimacy of foundlings 79; modern role of 71; placement of foundlings with wet-nurses

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-77555-7 - Abandoned Children

Edited by Catherine Panter-Brick and Malcolm T. Smith

Index

More information

228 Index

- Innocenti 28 (cont.)
 81, 82–7; sex ratios of admissions 77; wet-nurses, availability of 82–3 international aid, effects of 126–7 intervention, and abandoned children 10–12; effects of 126–7; models of 201–8, 210–11; and overriding of local cultures 202; Western models of 200
 Inupiat, and child adoption 7
 Ireland, and development of foundling system, 41
 Italy: and foundling system 31, 42–55; and development of foundling system 28, 41; rates of child abandonment in nineteenth century 42
- James, A. 5
- Kanji, N. 126
 Kertzer, D. I. 73, 82
Kindness of Strangers, The 41
 kinship ties 173, 183; and child prostitution, Thailand 191–2, see also Thailand, child prostitution
 Klapisch, Christiane 72
 Koomraphant, Sanphasit 190
 Korbin, J. 125
- Lagani, E. 103–4
 Latin-America, and street children 135 law: and child prostitution 182; definition of children 148; mandate for intervention 10–11; portrayal of abandoned children 1, 9, 17, 19, 131,
 199, 210
 Lewis, O. 134
 Liddiard, M. 163
 Lima, Marcelo 57
 Limoges, and foundling system 45 literature, abandoned children in 3
Livros de Entrada dos Expostos 58, 59
 Lungo, Isidoro Del 70
 Lusk, M.W. 133
- Madrid, foundling system in, mortality rates 67–8
 Manguezi, A. 123
 Mantova, and foundling system 44
 matrifocal households, and street children,
 Brazil, 147, 152–3, 156–7
 Mauss, Marcel 93
 Mayhew, Henry 8
 media: and coverage of child prostitution 184–5, and portrayal of abandoned children 1, 15, 17, 131, 199, 210 medical care, of foundlings 47
 Mende, and fostering of children 6 migration, Nepal 165–6; temporary 171–2; exile 172–3; permanent homelessness
 173–5
 Milan, and foundling system 44 moral abandonment 9, 21
 moral economy, and street children 156–7, 166 motherhood, delegated 27
 Mozambique 16–17; colonial rule 111;
 cultural variations within 114–15; family
 tracing and reunification programme 113–14, 116; government policy and separated children 112–14; impact of war 111–13; poverty in 112; separated children 112–13; socialization of separated children 119–21
 Mozambique, child care and: adoption 115; cultural variations 114–15; nature of interventions 17, 123, 126–7;
 non-governmental organizations 112, 116; residential homes 121–22; religious organizations 112–13; strategies 122;
 substitute family 111, 113, 114–21, 123,
 124–5; traditional practices 112–13,
 115–16, 123–4
 Mozambique Liberation Front 121
 Mozambique National Resistance 112 municipalities, cost of foundling system 57, 59–60
- Nasaw, D. 7
 National Army, Greek 95; and child
 ‘borrowing’ 97
 National Movement of Street Children 148
 National Welfare Organization 102–3
 National Youth Bureau (Thailand) 190 nationalism, Greek 92; and indoctrination of children 98, 101–3
 Needham, George C. 147
 Nepal: education 166–7; political climate 169; population growth 166; public policy 169
 Nepal, children: exiled 172–3; construction of childhood 169–70; home and family, relationship with 170–3, 179; home conditions 164–5; living conditions 169; migration 165–6; motives for leaving home 164–5;
 permanent homelessness 173–5;
 squatter children 162, 167–9; temporary migration 171–2; traditional childhood 165; types of childhood 161; work responsibilities 165

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-77555-7 - Abandoned Children

Edited by Catherine Panter-Brick and Malcolm T. Smith

Index

More information

Index

229

- Nepal, street children, see street children, Nepal
- non-governmental organizations: and refugees 201–2; child prostitution 182–3, 186; in Mozambique 112–13, 116; street children 148–9, 162, 167, 169–71, 174–5
- obligation, filial, and child prostitution 19, 191–2
- O’Grady, Ron 182, 183
- Organization for the Welfare of Northern Regions of Greece, see National Welfare Organization
- Organization of Mozambican women 116
- Organization of Royal Welfare, see National Welfare Organization
- orphaned children 2, 8, 16, 104, 112–13, 132
- paidomazoma*, see child gathering
- paidophylagma*, see child protection
- parental abandonment 3, 14, 30, 88, 182–3, 184–5, 190, 192–3; legality of 28–9; see also delegated motherhood, and responsibility
- parental responsibility 4–5, 6–7, 14, 37; delegated 15
- Parma, and founding system 46
- Phongpaichit, P. 183
- pimps, Thai child prostitution 188
- Pinochet, General 20, 213, 220, 221
- place, out of 9, 12–13, 19
- Poland, and development of foundling system 41
- Porto, and founding system, see Casa de Roda
- Portugal, and foundling system 28, 32–6, 34–6
- positive deviance, and children 11
- post-traumatic stress disorder 201
- poverty: and child care policies 127; family relationships 153, 178, 182; as legal justification for abandonment 28–9; as reason for abandonment 27, 41, 70–1, 72; rise in global 131, 132
- prostitution, child, see child prostitution
- psychiatric models, and refugees 202
- Pyrsos* 101
- Qvortrup, J. 6
- Ransel, David 45
- rape, as stigma 202–3
- Rape of the Innocent, The* 183
- rational choice theory, and street children 139–41
- Ravenna, foundling system in 44
- reciprocity, and child prostitution, Thailand 191–2
- refugee camps, adaptation by children 206, 209; community support systems 202, 203–4; support role of children 200, 206–8
- refugees, and children 19; Bhutanese 199–200; and feelings of abandonment 200; and psychiatric models 202; and Western intervention 200
- Reher, David 87
- Relatórios do Governador Civil do Distrito Administrativo da Horta* 57, 62, 63, 65
- religious organizations, in Mozambique 112–13
- remedial action, and abandoned children 10–12
- RENAMO 112, 113
- repatriation, of ‘borrowed’ children 103–4
- residential homes, in Mozambique 121–22
- responsibility, sense of 10, 12–13; parental 4–5, 6–7, 14, 37; public 14, 16, 194–6; delegated 15
- reunification programme, Mozambique 113–14, 116
- rights, and children 10, 12
- Rome, and establishment of first foundling home 41
- ruota*, see foundling wheel
- Russia, and development of foundling system 28, 41, 45; and state use of foundling system 29
- Santaló, Alvarez 32
- Sargent, C. 4, 9
- Save the Children Fund 16
- Scheper-Hughes, N. 4, 8–9, 147, 163
- Scott, James 156–7
- Secretariat of State for Social Action, Mozambique 113
- Shorter, Edward 45, 54
- Shotter, J. 141
- single mothers, and foundling system, Azores 62, 63–4
- Skrobanek, S. 184
- social constructivism, and street children 141–2
- social policy, and nature of intervention 12
- socialization, of separated children, Mozambique 119–21
- Somerville, J. 4

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-77555-7 - Abandoned Children

Edited by Catherine Panter-Brick and Malcolm T. Smith

Index

More information

230 Index

- Soonthornhdada, Amara 193
- South Africa, street children 136
- Spain, and development of founding system 28
- Spedale degli Innocenti, see Innocenti squatter children, Nepal 167–9
- State of the World's Children* 131
- Stephens, S. 9
- Street Arabs and Guttersnipes* 147
- street children 9, 17–18; as abandoned children 131–2; as abandoners 135, 162, 175; as active agents 136, 162; careers of 162–3, 170–1, 175; characterization of 131, 132–4, 138; classification of 3, 162; cognitive behavioural models 140–1; construct of 138; cognitive dissonance theory 138–9; conceptualization of in welfare literature 132–4; factors contributing to emergence of 131; inappropriateness of intervention 126–7; international comparisons 149; as method of child-rearing 135; and non-governmental organizations 148–9, 162, 167, 169–71, 174–5; and notions of identity 146–7, 152–6; origin of term 147–8; psychology of 136; questioning existence of 141–2; as rational agents 139; and rational choice theory 139–41; and regular contact with home and family 135; resilience of 137; social constructivism 141–2; as perceived social threat 131–2; vulnerability of 137–8
- street children, Brazil: and addiction to lifestyle 157; and antisocial behaviour 154–5; and begging 151; and concepts of home 153–4, 170–3, 179; as contributors to household economy 152–3; and glue sniffing 155; as homogeneous group 158–9; living conditions 152–3; and moral economy 156–7; numbers of 150–1; problems of definition 148–50, 151; perspectives 159; relationship with mother 153–4, 157
- street children, Nepal 136, 161; aspirations of 174–5; careers 162–3, 170–1, 175; migration practices 166; occupations 174–5; relationship with home 170–3, 179; welfare provision 169; see also careers
- substitute family, Mozambique, 111, 113, 114–21, 123, 124–5
- Sudan, street children 135–6
- Talleyrand 7
- Task Force to End Child Sexploitation 190
- Thailand, child prostitution 19; and abandonment 190–1; and campaigning groups 190; and brothels 187–8; and clients 188, 194; and damage to children 193; and debt-bonding 187–8; and drugs 193; as economic necessity 189–90, 191; and filial obligation 191–2; and kinship ties 191–2; and media coverage 184–5; normalization of 188–9; and numbers of prostitutes 184; and parental rights 190; and pimps 188; and reciprocity 191–2; society's responsibility for 194–6; views of parents 192–3
- Thailand, child sexual abuse, view of 192–3
- Tolfree, D. 2
- Tormes, Lazarillo 33
- trauma, developments in treating 201
- Trexler, Richard 72, 80
- Trieste, and founding system 44, 46
- Truth Commission (Chile) 220
- Turin, and founding system 50
- United Kingdom, and Chilean exiles 19–20, 213
- United Nations, and repatriation of 'borrowed' children 103–4
- United Nations Childrens Fund (UNICEF) 2, 16, 112; and street children 132, 148
- United Nations Committee on the Balkans 97
- United Nations High Commission for Refugees (UNHCR) 204, 210
- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, see Convention on the Rights of the Child
- Vafeiades, Marco 96–7
- Venice, and founding system 44
- Vittachi, A. 9
- Waltner, Ann Beth 27
- war, and abandonment 16–17; and child care 92, 123; children as weapons 95; and coping mechanisms 123–4; impact of in Mozambique 111–13
- welfare agencies, see child welfare literature, and portrayal of street children 132–4
- West Africa, and fostering of children 6
- wet-nurses 15, 27, 35–6, 43–4, 46; availability of at the Innocenti 82–3; in Azores 60–1; and circulation of children

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-77555-7 - Abandoned Children

Edited by Catherine Panter-Brick and Malcolm T. Smith

Index

More information

Index

231

- 31; at the Innocenti 74, 81; as an indicator of foundling home's organization 82
wet-nursing, extent of 31; and foundling mortality rates at the Innocenti 82–7; and foundling system 15, 30–1
White, M. J. 82
Wilson, T. 7
Winn, M. 9
work opportunities, Thai children 187;
- Nepali children 165–6
work responsibilities, children 6–9, 45–6, 154, 157, 161, 165, 168, 178, 191–2
World Bank, intervention in Mozambique 112
Yugoslavia, and 'borrowed' Greek children 97
Zachariades, Nikos 99