

Index

- aggregate choice model, 65 aggregate prediction, 14, 361 aggregation rule, 60
 Akaike Information Criterion, 274, 287 alias, 91–92
 alternative set effect, 45 alternative specific constants (ASC), 18, 49, 53, 62, 77, 117–118, 139, 151, 155, 158–159, 193, 196, 199–200, 204–205, 231, 233, 238, 245, 278, 336, 349, 361–362 alternative-specific effect, 54, 62, 111, 114, 121, 158, 214–215 arc elasticities, 58, 60, 279–280 artificial tree structure, 242–243 asymptotic covariance matrix, 51, 155 asymptotic standard errors, 51 asymptotic statistical properties, 109 asymptotic t-values, 51 attribute levels, 6, 8, 10, 14, 39, 58, 61, 83–89, 92, 95–96, 100, 105–114, 123, 131, 137, 149, 160, 191, 219, 221, 224, 228, 258, 284, 312–314, 326, 342, 359, 366 availability designs, 115, 126–128, 224 axiomatic utility theory, 12, 88

 Bayesian methods, 144 behavioural decision theory, 35, 88 beliefs, 8
 benefit–cost analysis, 133 bilinear component, 95 binary choice, 101, 362 binary logistic regression, 105 binary logit model, 77, 101, 107–110, 368 bounded-size likelihood ratio, 180 Box–Cox transformation, 316 bundle or menu choices, 215, 217, 222 case study data set, 196, 283 chi-squared distributed, 53, 55, 244, 364 choice-based sampling, 55, 154, 159–160, 178–179 choice-based weights, 157, 159 choice behaviour, 1, 2, 7, 10, 13, 17, 35, 37, 83, 89, 118, 158, 182, 195, 204–207, 226–228, 252, 258, 332 choice dynamics, 342

 choice elasticities, 14–15 choice experiments, 13–14, 18, 20, 65, 83, 111, 117–119, 123, 131, 140, 228, 301, 307, 309, 311, 319–320 choice probability, 39, 60, 75, 143, 153, 158, 178, 190, 200–201, 205–207, 210, 236, 253, 262, 264, 280 choice set generation, 31–32, 37–38, 223, 260, 292, 295 Cholesky matrix, 200, 205 classification model, 205 closed form solution, 142 coding scheme, 31, 268 cognitive complexity, 30, 101 collinearity, 49, 92 composite utility, 196
 computerised interview, 96, 265–266 confidence intervals, 52, 101 confirmatory factor analysis, 370 confounding, 91, 362
 confoundment, 13, 140, 313, 325 conjoint analysis, 120–121, 355, 368–369, 379 consistent AIC, 287
 constant variance, 73, 141, 143, 162, 189, 214–217, 303 contingent valuation, 344, 351 covariance heterogeneity (CovHet), 195–197, 209, 289, 291–292 covariance matrix, 15–16, 65, 139, 145, 180, 183, 196, 200–201, 206–210 critical value, 54, 177, 244–245, 269 cross effects, 111–112, 127, 156, 158, 215 cross elasticities, 58–60, 64, 148–149, 158, 190–191, 194, 305, 316, 318, 326, 328 cumulative cognitive burden, 134, 261 cumulative distribution function, 41, 190

400 Index

- data collection, 199, 249, 256, 264–265, 333–334, 347, 376 data collection instrument, 258–261 data enrichment, 24, 228, 231–237, 243–248 data fusion, 248, 300, 336, 379, 380 data generation process, 228, 241, 248–249 data metric, 13
 data pooling, 231, 237–238, 244, 300, 365, 376–377 decision complexity, 261 decision maker, 2, 24, 37, 45, 120, 204, 252–255, 259, 299, 317 decision rules, 8, 37, 95, 254–255, 361 decision support system, 332, 341 defining relation, 92
 degenerate alternatives, 153, 243 degenerate branch, 153–154, 171–172 degenerate partition, 153–154, 162, 171 degree(s) of freedom, 53–55, 64, 86, 94, 96, 120, 158–159, 177, 244, 310 design coding, 13, 105 design strategies, 96, 101–103, 115, 135, 137, 217, 219, 220 designs for portfolio, 215 deterministic utility, 252, 255 difference designs, 123 difference-in-attributes, 113 direct elasticities, 58–60, 64, 148, 158, 191, 194, 197, 305, 316, 318, 326 disaggregate data, 78, 118 dominance data, 29, 248, 354, 357, 368 dominant/-dominated options, 302 double-exponential, 45 dummy codes, 86–87, 107, 267 effects codes, 86–87, 96, 107, 247, 336 effects-coded contrasts, 87, 267 eigenvalues, 225, 371, 376 elasticities of choice, 14–15, 51, 58, 73 elemental choice set, 144 endpoint design, 95–96 environmental economics, 282 environmental valuation case studies, 329–353 estimates of estimates, 82, 149 Euler's constant, 142, 187 exogenously stratified random samples, 179, 262 expected maximum utility, 61, 144, 187–188 expected utility, 5, 190, 340 experimental design, 12–14, 83–85, 112, 122, 226, 278, 320 exploding, 42

 extreme levels, 95–96
 extreme value type 1 (EV1), 45, 141–143, 184, 200, 234 factor levels, 83–84

 factorial designs, 13, 84, 85, 220 first-order expansion, 318 first-preference rank, 299 focus groups, 257–258, 333 foldover, 116, 134–137, 219–220, 224 forest management agreements, 345 fractional factorial designs, 13–14, 84, 89–90, 94, 104, 116, 124, 216, 218, 260, 302, 310, 319 full information maximum likelihood (FIML), 149–151, 168, 176, 191, 240, 242, 365 generalised extreme value, 144, 253 generalised least squares, 72, 77, 81–82 goodness-of-fit, 35, 51–56, 148, 158, 174, 176 gradient search, 67

 grand mean, 86, 92
 group data, 58, 78–79
 Gumbel, 45, 362–364

 Hausman test, 162
 heteroscedastic extreme value (HEV) model, 16, 65, 155, 189–194, 209, 214, 300, 315 heteroscedastic logit model, 16 heteroscedasticity, 74, 78–81, 194–196, 205, 210, 248 heuristics, 254
 hierarchical models, 65, 145, 180, 371 high speed rail, 211, 299, 301 higher-order interactions 89–90, 94, 135 identically distributed, 138, 144 identification, 16, 101, 111, 122, 154, 163, 166, 189, 220, 231, 243, 362 inclusive value, 144–149, 153–154, 164, 168, 171–175, 187–189, 195, 241, 243, 269, 340, 342 independence-from-irrelevant alternatives (IIA), 44–45, 60, 65, 121, 141, 150, 156, 158, 160–162, 189, 201, 267 independence-of-effects, 103 independent availability logit model, 293 independently and identically distributed (IID), 15, 17, 59, 64–65, 105, 111–112, 115–119, 127–129, 138, 184, 190, 201, 205, 207, 249 indirect utility, 34, 140, 144–147, 185, 190, 206, 249, 280, 316, 318 individual-specific effects, 37, 51, 139 information integration theory, 13, 88 instrument design, 333 intensive margin, 333, 347 interaction effects, 87, 111–112, 248, 336 interval scaled rating, 13 joint density function, 205 joint marginal CDF, 42

 joint marginal PDF, 41–42 joint probability, 66, 116–117, 145 joint SP–RP model, 237–238, 241–242, 279, 299, 315, 326, 336 labelled alternatives, 112, 120, 124–126 labelled experiment, 111, 122

 Lagrange multiplier (LM), 55, 177
 Lancaster approach, 2
 Lancaster–Rosen standard approach, 4 latent class heteroscedastic MNL, 205

- latent class models, 205, 286, 289, 292, 371 least squares regression, 72, 77 likelihood function, 48, 50, 53–54, 66, 68, 158, 171, 179, 191–192, 200, 210, 238, 278 likelihood ratio (LR) test, 53–55, 114, 155, 159, 176, 326, 361, 380 likelihood ratio index, 54, 158 linear additive, 42
 linear-by-linear, 95, 134 linear-in-parameters, 254, 280, 360, 363, 369 linear logit, 72, 77–79, 82 linear probability, 72–76 log likelihood function, see likelihood function log-linear models, 82
 logsum, 144, 342
 Lucas effect, 122
- mail survey, 261, 266
 main effects plans, 13, 96, 104, 120, 134–135, 284 marginal effects, 107, 155–156, 159–160 marginal means, 86, 107–109 marginal probability, 116, 148–149, 153, 171 marginal rate of substitution, 13, 15, 17, 58, 61, 156, 174, 280 marginal utility, 88, 105, 253, 310, 317, 340, 360, 380 market realism, 101
 market segments, 23, 60, 205, 256, 258, 262, 316, 369 marketing case studies, 283–297 master design plan, 220, 221, 225 maximum likelihood estimation (MLE), 43, 48–53, 62, 66, 70, 77–79, 108–109 McFadden's LM regression test, 178 measurement reliability, 25, 370 microeconomic theory, 316, 318, 326 mixed logit, 16, 65, 138, 191, 199–201, 204 model comparisons, 177 model estimation, 120, 267, 313, 335 model specification, 155, 174, 267 mother logit model, 116 multinomial logit (MNL) models, 13–14, 16, 34, 45, 47, 49, 52–54, 58–60, 62, 64–65, 68, 76–78, 112–114, 117, 119, 121, 123, 138–150, 153–164, 176–177, 182–183, 187, 190–194, 201, 207, 209, 212, 217, 234, 237–238, 253, 269, 286, 299, 303, 340 multinomial probit (MNP) models, 16, 65, 138, 191, 200, 204–210, 236, 253, 363 multiperiod multinomial probit (MPNMP), 210 multiple choice designs, 112, 213 multiple data source combination, 228, 243, 248–249, 361, 369, 377 multiplicative model, 88 multivariate normal, 191, 200, 205
- nested logit (NL) model, 16, 65, 138, 141–148, 153, 155, 157, 162–164, 173, 177–178, 181–183, 189, 196, 207, 209, 214, 236, 242, 267, 269
- Newton–Raphson method, 67–70, 269
- ordinary least squares, 51, 53–54, 72–75, 78–81, 107–109, 236 orthogonal codes, 92, 313, 316 orthogonal design, 114, 260, 299 orthogonal fractional design, 96, 129, 131, 214–215, 221 orthogonal main effects, 116, 127, 135, 225, 321, 334, 347 orthogonal polynomial (OP) coding, 268–269 orthogonality, 13, 114, 216 outliers, 52, 78
 overall goodness-of-fit, 146, 158–159, 172 overall package price, 223–224 own effect, 111
- partworth utility, 10, 358–364 passive use values, 330–331, 343–345, 350 personal interviews, 265 point elasticities, 58–59, 279, 280 policy analysis, 61, 64, 277, 280, 282, 337 polynomial expansion, 95 precision, 101, 111, 122–123 prediction success, 55–57 preference data generation, 27, 227, 248, 369 preference heterogeneity, 103, 141, 283 preference homogeneity, 103, 247 preference regularity, 357, 359–365, 370, 376–380 presence/absence design, 116–117, 127, 129, 214, 224, 230 principal component analysis, 285, 368–377 probability density function (PDF), 40–41, 46, 48
- quadratic effect, 325 qualitative study, 257, 333 quotient rule, 59
- random component, 65, 121, 140, 141, 143–144, 148, 158, 163, 171, 183, 185, 190, 193, 195, 197, 199, 201, 210, 214, 355, 361, 369 random disturbance term, 36, 200 random effects HEV model, 65, 195, 197, 299, 301, 303 random parameter logit, 16, 65, 199–201, 204 random utility, 9, 40, 44–47, 140, 233, 254, 361, 368 random utility maximisation, 13, 37, 39, 144–148 random utility model, 40, 57, 139–140, 165–166, 168, 171, 173, 175, 363 random utility theory, 13, 15, 17, 25, 144, 221, 329, 355, 361, 379 ranking, 29, 42, 377
 rating, 30
 regular fractions, 92 relative scale, 237, 240, 242 relaxation of the IID assumption, 15, 138, 189, 206 response metric, 12–13
 response rates, 29, 309

402 Index

- revealed preference (RP) data, 12, 17–25, 31, 35, 83, 88, 138–139, 196, 212, 228, 230–231, 236–240, 246–247, 278, 299, 318, 366, 369–370
- Rosen's model, 4
- sample aggregate share, 54
- sample enumeration, 60, 118, 126
- sample sizes, 78–79, 110, 122–123, 149, 256, 261–265
- sampling frames, 261–262, 265, 333, 347
- sampling plan, 220
- sampling strategies, 103, 224, 262
- scale parameter, 139–140, 143–146, 154, 163–164, 167, 172–175, 189–191, 195–196, 206, 234, 243
- scale transformation, 172
- scanner panel data, 196, 227, 365
- second-order conditions, 48
- segment-level models, 118, 376
- sequential estimation, 149
- set of individual behaviour rules (SIBR), 37–38
- shifting, 114
- simple random samples, 37, 262, 265
- simulated maximum likelihood, 144, 151, 201, 204
- simulation methods, 182
- simultaneous estimation, 149
- Small–Hsiao LM test, 177
- smallest orthogonal main effects, 116, 120, 124, 133–136, 216, 224
- standard Lancaster approach (SLA)
see Lancaster
- stated preference (SP), 10, 12, 17, 20–25, 31, 35, 83–84, 87–90, 96, 138–139, 196, 199, 228–231, 236–240, 245–247, 278, 299, 318, 366, 369
- statistical efficiency, 27, 95, 214
- stochastic error term, 72
- stochastic utility, 34, 252, 253, 255, 261, 275
- switching mode choice models, 301, 325
- systematic component, 101
- systematic utility, 57, 101, 241, 254
- taste weights, 54, 61, 102
- Taylor series expansion, 307, 317
- technological frontiers, 228, 230
- transportation case studies, 298–328
- treatment combination, 84, 91–92, 94
- tree logit, 65, 157
- two-way interactions, 88–96, 104, 116, 135–137, 284, 310
- unlabelled alternatives, 112, 119–120, 123
- unlabelled experiments, 111, 122, 124
- unobserved components, 45, 139, 143, 147, 151, 163, 190, 207, 363
- unobserved effects, 94, 139–140, 143, 158, 184, 193, 197, 209–210, 214, 249
- unobserved heterogeneity, 139–140, 199–201, 210, 250
- use values, 330, 341
- utility maximisation, 5, 7, 35, 39, 44, 143–146, 164, 167–168, 172–174, 176, 189, 254, 269
- utility parameter, 39, 43, 45–54, 59–65, 139–141, 150, 155–159, 180, 191, 195, 206, 233, 286–287, 316, 356–357, 363
- valuation function, 61, 306–310, 314
- valuation of attributes, 61
- value of travel time savings, 156, 211, 212, 306–307, 310–314, 325
- variance heteroscedasticity, 283
- Weibull, 45
- weighted aggregate cross elasticities, 61
- weighted and unweighted aggregate elasticities, 64
- weighted exogenous maximum likelihood (WESML) method, 179
- weighted least squares, 74–75, 78, 81
- welfare analysis, 282
- willingness to accept, 61, 344, 351
- willingness to pay, 61, 331, 340, 341, 344–345, 349