

Contents

Acknowledgments	page xi
Contributors	xiii
Foreword, by Budd Schulberg	xv
Introduction: “The Mysterious Way of Art”: Making a Difference in On the Waterfront Joanna E. Rapf	1
1 The Personal and the Political: Elia Kazan and On the Waterfront Brian Neve	20
2 Schulberg on the Waterfront Dan Georgakas	40
3 On the Waterfront: Script Analysis Conventional and Unconventional Lance Lee	61
4 An Actor Prepares David Thomson	85
5 Visual Coding and Social Class in On the Waterfront Jeffrey Chown	106
6 Leonard Bernstein and On the Waterfront: Tragic Nobility, A Lyrical Song, and Music of Violence Jon Burlingame	124

x CONTENTS

SELECTED REVIEWS AND COMMENTARY

Waterfront: From Docks to Film , by Budd Schulberg (New York Times , July 11, 1954)	149
The Screen: Astor Offers On the Waterfront , by A. H. Weiler (New York Times , July 29, 1954)	151
The Big Sell: A Review, by Mr. Harper (Harper's , August 1954)	153
Man's Hope: A Review, by Philip T. Hartung (Commonweal , August 20, 1954)	157
On the Waterfront : A Review, by Penelope Houston (Sight & Sound , October/December 1954)	158
An Interview with Boris Kaufman, by Edouard L. de Laurot and Jonas Mekas (Film Culture , Summer 1955)	161
Filmographies and Bibliographies of Kazan and Schulberg	164
Selected Critical Bibliography	178
Index	183